CROWD JAMS CAUCUS MEET

4 Incumbents' Plans Unsure

As village election activity began again in Arlington Heights Monday, the four trustees and president whose terms expire in 1965 presented a nearly united front of indecision on election plans.

A single exception was Trustee William J. Moore, who was elected on the Caucus slate after a nomination from the floor in 1960. He will not seek a second term.

But trustees Norval Stephens, Bud Beacham and John White, and Village Pres. John G. Woods remained undecided while confiding they have "leanings" one way or another.

In fact, White, who was appointed to the board last spring to fill a vacancy and would face his first election, said just that — "I have leanings one way or another" — and refused further comment.

THE REMAINING three called forth business and family obligations as reasons why they should not seek re-election, but none said he was firmly convinced by his own argument.

"I would like to see some of these projects (begun in the 1961-65 administration) completed," said Pres. Woods, "But on the other hand it's a big chunk out of your life."

There was no talk of a possible successor for Woods from within the existing board, but Trustee Stephens remains the only member of the board elected in 1961 who has expressed any interest in 1965 office.

Even this was expressed more as a refusal to give a flat "no" on the possibility of running again.

Trustee Beacham, who was elected for a short term in 1963, said, "I now have leanings in the direction of not being a candidate," and added that he would have a firm decision "within the next 30 days."

ALL OF the undecided officials indicated they would be coming up with an answer within the month, and added with only slight variance that they were not assured of selection and endorsement by the Caucus.

All board members, with the exception of White, were elected on the Caucus ticket.

But there remains a question of which comes first. Selection by the Caucus recommendation committee is presumably based in part on the candidates expressed desire for the office.

This would call for a decision before Caucus interviews for present officials as well as all others who might join the race.

THERE ARE no hints yet of the remainder of the normal election scene in Arlington Heights — an opposition slate generally formed in the twilight of the campaign to oppose the Caucus.

But the opposition trend, unlike the Caucus, is not toward early organization; and even the Caucus positions remain in considerable doubt as the election season begins.

Post Office Lists Special Holiday Hours

Special holiday hours for the Arlington Heights Post Office and its substations in Rolling Meadows and Elk Grove Village will go into effect next Thursday, Dec. 10.

Beginning that day, all offices will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday to handle the expected rush of Christmas mailings.

Saturday hours will be 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and the offices will be open on Sundays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Regular hours will be resumed on Dec. 23.

LENDING THEIR HANDS to the beginning of this year's Arlington Heights Caucus search for municipal election candidates, village residents vote on a new chairman of the candidate selection committee. Monday's Caucus meeting drew more than 200 persons.

Citizens Contribute Ideas In Downtown Planning Session

Planning consultants from Tec-Search, Inc., were able to "take home some meat" Tuesday night after the first work session with the Arlington Heights ACTION committee on downtown redevelopment.

Rolfe Campbell, head of the firm's planning division and man-in-charge of a $30,000 comprehensive planning project for the village, asked for ideas on objectives and goals for the business core redevelopment — and received a flood of strikingly similar suggestions from a number of separate work groups.

The discussion session and its resulting suggestions came after Campbell and village Trustee Jack Walsh, ACTION chairman, had explained both past delays and future mechanics of the planning project.

Walsh and Campbell both asserted that delays in filing of an application and in approval of a federal planning grant would not affect a proposed June completion date.

WALSH SAID that June, 1965, had always been the target date for completion of the downtown section of the firm's comprehensive planning work, though estimates of six months for oral reports of findings were made when the village board granted its approval of the project last summer.

Campbell explained that the time loss would simply mean a tighter schedule and that the shorter time period might serve to keep citizen interest higher.

About 40 persons attended Tuesday's meeting, for which 180 letters of invitation were mailed by the village. In addition, officers of the three local financial institutions wrote follow-up correspondence.

A calendar of additional monthly ACTION meetings through June was distributed, and Campbell said he and his planning staff would be seeking additional meetings with subcommittees as well.

HE SAID much data-gathering work could be completed by his staff without local assistance, but requested citizen aid in establishing a direction for the planning program and in setting up a program or redevelopment activity during the project to carry on after it is completed.

The meeting was broken into discussion groups of six to eight persons after Campbell's presentation to begin formulation of objectives and goals.

From comments returned by section leaders and from those mailed in on a written form passed out after the meeting, Tec - Search is to formulate a statement of policies and objectives which will be presented at the Jan. 12 general ACTION meeting.

Needs most commonly spelled out in the discussion sessions were for increased transportation across the Chicago and North Western Railway tracks both in the downtown area and at Kensington Road.

THE PLANNERS were asked to explore the possibility of depressing the tracks in the central core, and of building a network of underpasses or a massive enclosed overpass.

Also stressed were formation of a downtown corporation which would pool property parcels for redevelopment. First emphasis was placed on location of a department store and supporting retail and service businesses.

Next in priority were offices, and finally apartments. Need for high-rise construction as an equalizer for high land costs, and for more leniency and encouragement in commercial zoning were also mentioned by more than one discussion group.

SEVERAL specific suggestions such as a pedestrian mall in an alley-way between the Vail-Dunton municipal parking lot and Campbell Street were also added to the list.

Campbell expressed encouragement over the turnout and presentation of ideas, and called for more volunteers for five standing subcommittees of the ACTION group.

He stressed that initiative for any redevelopment would have to come from local people, and concluded that "what is decided in the next six months is going to have a far-reaching effect on not only the downtown area but every resident as well."

All Eyes on April Vote

A surprising crowd of more than 200 persons filled the Miner Junior High School cafeteria Monday night to demonstrate their interest in selection of candidates for April, 1965, village elections.

It was the first public meeting of the Arlington Heights Caucus, a group which bursts into activity once every two years with the expressed purpose of seeking out and endorsing good candidates for municipal offices.

In the session, conducted quickly and smoothly by outgoing Caucus chairman Edgar F. Neas, personnel for all facets of the organization's 1964-66 operation were chosen.

Key selections were members and chairman of the candidate recommendation committee, because by the time the citizenry as a whole is invited to sit again under the caucus banner, the group's choice will have been narrowed practically to two candidates for each open office.

Four trustees, a village president, and village clerk are to be chosen in April—meaning the recommendation committee is charged with sifting all possibilities in the village and coming up with 12 names.

New chairman of the committee is Andrew Lofquist, 910 N. Kennicott Ave., a retired sales representative who was chosen in close, raised-hand balloting over Lowell Christy.

But Christy, a past member of the candidate selection committee nominated by the 1962-64 chairman, was in turn chosen general chairman of the Caucus for 1964-66 in an equally close contest against Paul Knott.

Knott, who served as vice chairman for 1962-64, was then re-elected to that post, and Mrs. Alice Harms and Arthur Franzen were chosen to serve again in their respective posts of secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Harms was voted in by acclamation as a single nominee after four others had declined nominations for the office.

Members of the candidate selection committee — one for each of 22 village precincts — were chosen by individual caucuses of all citizens present from the precinct.

The residents also adopted several by-law amendments, a statement of purpose for the Caucus, and a financial report which indicated a surplus of $133.51 from the last two years' operation.

In addition, solicitation at the meeting raised $158 which will be added to the standing balance to cover costs over the next two years.

Chairman Neas explained that the Caucus was not a campaign organization, and there were no campaign expenses. Costs, he said, were incurred in publishing notice of meetings, procuring a meeting place, and printing necessary ballots and information sheets for candidate selection.

Expenses for the last two years, including those for Monday's meeting, totaled $261.96, according to treasurer Franzen.

Though by-laws changes recommended by study committee chairman Robert Lane and adopted in the Caucus meeting were termed simply clarifications of procedures and intentions of the organization, the effect was a tightening of time limitations at general meetings.

The statement of purpose presented by a special purpose committee noted increasing complexities of village government and included not only selection and endorsement of qualified candidates, but also the opportunity for all proposed candidates to present their views and qualifications.

A second portion of the statement outlined objectives and goals to which all Caucus candidates would adhere.

New chairman Lowell Christy said the next general meeting would be some time in February. At that time candidates would be chosen either from committee recommendations or from nominations from the floor.

The two intervening months will be filled with meetings of the selection committee at which names will be brought forth and candidates will be interviewed in a screening process to narrow the field.

The committee is pledged to consider any person whose name is brought up in its slated contacts with all village organizations. All those who indicate an interest in running for office are to be interviewed in the screening process.

Past committee chairman Fred Marks said the selection in 1962 involved 16 or 17 meetings and interviews for at least 25 persons for the same number of open offices.

Chapman Political Effort Hit by GOP

The Elk Grove Township Regular Republican organization censured an Arlington High School District 214 board member Monday in a formal resolution.

The resolution, adopted at the group's meeting at Old Orchard Country Club, charged Eugenia Chapman, 903 N. Kaspar, Arlington Heights, with injecting partisan politics into the local school system when she sought an Illinois representative seat on the Democratic slate.

Mrs. Chapman said her immediate reaction to the resolution was that she was concerned with schools and this was one of her reasons for her candidacy.

She suggested the timing of the resolution was "interesting" since she has been a candidate since the end of June and no one at any time had questioned her school board member status.

SHE SAID she had never considered resigning as a school board member until she was elected, and had indicated this in an interview after her nomination.

The resolution, to be sent to the president and board members of District 214, charges Mrs. Chapman with serving on the school board while a candidate for state office. It adds that she solicited support for her candidacy through an organization of "Teachers for Chapman" which included employes of District 214.

The resolution charged that Mrs. Chapman's conduct "breached the wall of separation between partisan politics and the local school system," adding that the welfare and promotion of the school district is dependent on the interest and support of all citizens regard-

65 Invited To Park Talks

The Arlington Heights Park District will seek citizen support and opinion in a special public meeting Tuesday night on plans for a massive land acquisition referendum.

Letters of invitation to the 8 p.m. session were sent out to 65 representatives of homeowners' associations, civic organizations, clubs, PTA'S and official bodies within the district.

The meeting in Pioneer Park fieldhouse is to precede a regularly scheduled meeting of the park board at which both a Jan. 16 referendum date and the amount of funds requested are to be set.

Reservation of 14 additional sites in the village for park use is to be finalized at Monday's village board meeting, and eight of the sites are planned for inclusion in the bond vote.

Park Supt. Thomas Thornton said he sees no possibility of changing the projected date of the referendum unless it conflicts with some other planned election in the area. But the amount to be requested in the vote is not as firm .

HE SAID the park board would be trying to get the feeling of the people Tuesday on whether the district should apply for 30 per cent federal funds for the acquisition program as planned. There has been stated objection before in Arlington Heights to use of federal aid.

Another major point for discussion in the citizens' meeting will be acquisition of 50 to 100 acres for a park and golf course at the Arlington Heights Nike site.

District officials expect the property to be declared surplus, but it has not been yet and the question is whether to include an estimated purchase price of from $150,000 to $300,000 in the referendum.

GENERAL discussion is also to cover all other sites, including some which are to be acquired by dedication or contribution, and anticipated residential growth in the district which wouldwarrant park expansion.

According to the letter of invitation, "The park board believes it is prudent to discuss matters of this major importance with responsible and active members of the community."

Thornton added that the purpose in addition to opinion sampling would be to "impress on these people the great need and get them to go back and support the referendum in their organizations."

United Fund Drive Falls Short Again

The Arlington Heights United Fund appeal will apparently fall far short of its $70,000 goal again this year, according to campaign chairman Stephen Jurco.

Final figures on the drive are to be tallied and reported tonight (Thursday) at a directors' meeting in the Bank of Arlington Heights.

But Jurco said enough of the returns are in that it appears impossible to reach the $70,000 figure which was brought down from last year's goal of $75,000 to be "realistic."

"WE HAVE AT least secured this much for the participating agencies rather than nothing," Jurco said in justifying the hiring of a professional fund raising agency to organize the drive.

"Without them it wouldn't have been possible for the campaign to have been held this year."

The chairman estimated that, with all divisions of the drive organization reporting, the total would come to about $45,000.

He said this would compare favorably with last year's total which ran about $35,000, but expenses for the professional fund raisers will have to be deducted from this year's total.

Members Received At Church

Streets Gay With Yule Decorations

As Christmas came to the shopper's mind, so it came to the streets of Arlington Heights this week with installation of lighted trees and decorations in commercial areas.

The decorations and the music which has been piped into the streets to boost holiday spirits represent cooperative efforts of the Chamber of Commerce, other merchants, the village public works department, and several generous residents.

THE DECORATION program, traditionally handled by the Chamber's retail committee, will be capped Saturday by the appearance of Santa cruising village streets in a fire engine from 10 a.m. to noon.

At noon he will take his post in permanent headquarters on Campbell Street adjacent to the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

Decorations this year include lighted garlands on light poles and 20 Christmas trees donted from the yards of residents who no longer found use for them.

Largest of the trees, which were cut down and put in place by village public works crews after they were sought out in a Chamber of Commerce appeal, was 30 feet—later topped to produce the 15-foot giant in the triangle intersection of Davis and Campbell sreets.

MUSIC WAS provided by the retail committee, and the system of outdoor speakers was installed by Chamber member Ed Landwehr.

Public works employes also installed other decorations to save the substantial cost of such installations by professional decorators.

Even construction of Santa's headquarters was a volunteer cooperative effort of Arlington Bowen Hardware.

Most stores in the village will be open every evening from now until Christmas for convenience of shoppers.

Liquor Taken In Burglary At Elks Club

A burglar escaped with approximately $60 worth of liquor from the Arlington Heights Elks Club, 2323 N. Wilke Rd., Sunday night.

According to police, entry was made by breaking a storm window to gain access to an open interior window. Nothing else in the building was disturbed.

The burglary was discovered by police on patrol, who set off the Club's alarm system in searching the building.

65 Invited To Park Talks

The Arlington Heights Park District will seek citizen support and opinion in a special public meeting Tuesday night on plans for a massive land acquisition referendum.

Letters of invitation to the 8 p.m. session were sent out to 65 representatives of homeowners' associations, civic organizations, clubs, PTA'S and official bodies within the district.

The meeting in Pioneer Park fieldhouse is to precede a regularly scheduled meeting of the park board at which both a Jan. 16 referendum date and the amount of funds requested are to be set.

Reservation of 14 additional sites in the village for park use is to be finalized at Monday's village board meeting, and eight of the sites are planned for inclusion in the bond vote.

Park Supt. Thomas Thornton said he sees no possibility of changing the projected date of the referendum unless it conflicts with some other planned election in the area. But the amount to be requested in the vote is not as firm .

HE SAID the park board would be trying to get the feeling of the people Tuesday on whether the district should apply for 30 per cent federal funds for the acquisition program as planned. There has been stated objection before in Arlington Heights to use of federal aid.

Another major point for discussion in the citizens' meeting will be acquisition of 50 to 100 acres for a park and golf course at the Arlington Heights Nike site.

District officials expect the property to be declared surplus, but it has not been yet and the question is whether to include an estimated purchase price of from $150,000 to $300,000 in the referendum.

GENERAL discussion is also to cover all other sites, including some which are to be acquired by dedication or contribution, and anticipated residential growth in the district which wouldwarrant park expansion.

According to the letter of invitation, "The park board believes it is prudent to discuss matters of this major importance with responsible and active members of the community."

Thornton added that the purpose in addition to opinion sampling would be to "impress on these people the great need and get them to go back and support the referendum in their organizations."

United Fund Drive Falls Short Again

The Arlington Heights United Fund appeal will apparently fall far short of its $70,000 goal again this year, according to campaign chairman Stephen Jurco.

Final figures on the drive are to be tallied and reported tonight (Thursday) at a directors' meeting in the Bank of Arlington Heights.

But Jurco said enough of the returns are in that it appears impossible to reach the $70,000 figure which was brought down from last year's goal of $75,000 to be "realistic."

"WE HAVE AT least secured this much for the participating agencies rather than nothing," Jurco said in justifying the hiring of a professional fund raising agency to organize the drive.

"Without them it wouldn't have been possible for the campaign to have been held this year."

The chairman estimated that, with all divisions of the drive organization reporting, the total would come to about $45,000.

He said this would compare favorably with last year's total which ran about $35,000, but expenses for the professional fund raisers will have to be deducted from this year's total.

Members Received At Church

Lutheran Church of the Cross, 2025 S. Goebbert Road, Arlington Heights, last Sunday received into membership 17 adults and nine children, bringing total membership to 202 adults and 134 children for a total of 336.

RECEIVED FROM Elk Grove Village was Brenda Hunt, 941 W. Higgins Road. From Bensenville, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lamphier and daughters, LaDonna and Sherree, 7500 N. Elmhurst Road.

Families from Mount Prospect include Mr. and Mrs. George Swain, Kathy and Sharon, 117 S. We Go; Mr. and Mrs. William Werner Jr., William III, Gary and Barbara, 510 Crestwood Lane; Mrs. Thomas Brown, Janet, Thomas Jr., Charles and Susie, 1420 S. Robert Dr. and David Kykinga, 1110 S. Fern.

Streets Gay With Yule Decorations

As Christmas came to the shopper's mind, so it came to the streets of Arlington Heights this week with installation of lighted trees and decorations in commercial areas.

The decorations and the music which has been piped into the streets to boost holiday spirits represent cooperative efforts of the Chamber of Commerce, other merchants, the village public works department, and several generous residents.

THE DECORATION program, traditionally handled by the Chamber's retail committee, will be capped Saturday by the appearance of Santa cruising village streets in a fire engine from 10 a.m. to noon.

At noon he will take his post in permanent headquarters on Campbell Street adjacent to the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

Decorations this year include lighted garlands on light poles and 20 Christmas trees donted from the yards of residents who no longer found use for them.

Relations Commission Need to be Discussed

"Why My Community Needs a Human Relations Commission" will be discussed by officials of three villages' comissions Thursday, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. at a public meeting of the League of Women Voters of Arlington Heights.

Panelists will be Donald Moehling of Des Plaines; Howard Kane, chairman of the Deerfield Human Relations commission, and the Rev. Raymond J. Sullivan, chairman of the Palatine Human Relations Commission.

Moehling is chairman of a voluntary Des Plaines human relations group which has successfully backed Des Plaines city council's passage of an ordinance establishing an official Human Relations Commission there.

ESTABLISHMENT of an official Human Relations Commission has also been urged for Arlington Heights by the LVW—so far unsuccessfully. The Arlington Heights League, after a year's study, was blocked by the village board at the second of two meetings this summer to explore the subject.

Village Pres. John G. Woods issued a statement then with the board's backing in which he said volunteer groups could carry out educational programs on human relations better than a commission. Further, Woods' statement said, "The President and Board of Trustees are unwilling to delegate their authority and responsibility" for enforcement to any other agency.

Woods cited the Des Plaines group as an example of a voluntary group which works effectively. Moehling has since stated, "If there is a problem, we feel an official group will be much more effective than a voluntary group."

MRS. GEORGE Sully, chairman of the League's human relations committee, said the three panelists will be asked to not only discuss their villages' needs in the human relations area but also to go into programs which their commissions are planning to carry out.

"We hope everyone with an interest in human relations will attend this meeting," she said. "And by that I mean persons who are not yet convinced Arlington Heights needs an official commission as well as persons who think we do."

THE MEETING will be one of two programs for the Arlington Heights League this month. At 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 16, Mrs. John J. Solon, a local LWV member, will tell of her experiences on a League-sponsored tour of Europe this fall.

The illustrated program will take place in the home of Mrs. Robert E. Jacks, 529 S. Pine, Arlington Heights.

Standoff Remains For Village, Bank

After a number of recent meetings, the standoff remains between the Arlington Heights National Bank and village officials on development plans for bank property at Davis and Campbell Streets.

A motion by Village Atty. Jack Siegel to vacate a court order rendered in the bank's favor in September is to be heard today (Thursday). in Circuit Court before Judge Walker Butler.

Differences between the bank and the village center around plans for a second and perhaps more stories over drive-in windows which are to be added at the east end of the present bank building, out into Davis Street.

THE VILLAGE had agreed to vacate Davis Street in the block adjacent to the bank in return for Commuter Street in the same block, which the bank surfaced and improved.

But vacation of the street was conditioned upon limitation of the drive-in addition to a single story, and upon several other items which take lesser importance.

Judge Butler's order requires the village to comply with the original agreement of May 1963, and vacate the street without the height restriction and several others.

Siegel said he expects the motion to vacate will be taken under advisement; but even if the motion is overuler, the village still may draw on through the appellate court.

BOTH SIDES have sat at the conference table with regularity during the extended court fight, and there were even frequent attempts at compromise before the suit was entered.

But Village Pres. John G. Woods said this week that efforts were apparently not bringing about any compromise, and the courts may well provide the only answer.

4 Methodist Choirs In Concert Sunday

The four choirs of the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights will present their annual Christmas concert at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6, in the church sanctuary, 1903 E. Euclid Ave.

The Wesley Choir, directed by Betty Robinson; Epworth Choir, directed by Vera Valentine, and the Aldersgate Choir, directed by Frederick C. Schmoyer, will sing two numbers each.

A rhythmical interpretation of "Greensleeves" will be given by Frances and Nancy Palmatier, and Patricia McCarthy.

In addition, an anthem for the four combined choruses, a brass choir and organ, arranged by the church organist, Charles D. Jenks, will be premiered.

MAJOR WORK of the concert, using the Chancel Choir, is Antonio Vivaldi's "Gloria" in D major. The "Gloria" was discovered less than 30 years ago by Alfredo Casella in the National Library of Turin, and was edited by him from the manuscript in Volume I of the Renzo Giordano Collection.

Casella reconstructed several sections of the work which existed only in sketch form and also conducted the modern premier of the work at the Vivaldi Week in Siena, Italy, in September 1939.

It took 10 years (with time out for World War II) for the work to reach this country. In May 1949, Dr. Edward Lowinsky tackled the job with the forces available to him at Queens College. One year later Thomas K. Scherman presented the "Gloria" as the finale of a Vivaldi Festival given by the Little Orchestra.

THE CHICAGO Symphony Orchestra has only this year added the "Gloria" to its repertoire and introduced the work at its evening concert on Thanksgiving Day.

The solo parts of the composition are given to female voices, two sopranos and one contralto. The work is composed for two oboes, trumpets, strings and organ, and consists of seven choral sections, one duet for two sopranos, one aria for soprano and two numbers for contralto.

Frederick Schmoyer will conduct the Chancel Choir, soloists and orchestra in the "Gloria." Soloists are Vera Valentine and Betty Robinson, sopranos, and Arlene Blaha, contralto.

MRS. VALENTINE and Mrs. Robinson are both members of the Methodist Chruch, and in addition to directing two of the junior choirs they have done extensive solo work, both in special concerts and regular church services.

Miss Blaha is a resident of Berwyn. She has appeared as contralto soloist with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus; the Chicago Symphony Orchestra and St. Mary of the Lake Seminary Chorus; and various church and oratorio groups.

In addition, Miss Blaha has appeared as a soloist on television.

Driving Exams On Saturdays Discontinued

Saturday morning hours for examining driver license applicants have been discontinued for the winter months.

Secretary of State William H. Chamberlain said the substantial decline in the number of examinations which is always experienced during the winter makes continued operation of the stations on Saturday mornings an uneconomical and inefficient undertaking.

In Cook County, an additional factor is that over-the-counter sale of 1965 license plates will begin tomorrow at the three motor vehicle facilities, and this activity will be at its peak until about March 1, with Saturday mornings bringing the heaviest flow of applicants, he said.

Schlereth Named Bo-Gi Director

Charles G. Schlereth, 509 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights, has been selected as professional director for the village's Bo-Gi youth center.

He replaces Wayne Mueller, who resigned after a year in the director's position to accept a full-time teaching position with the public schools.

Schlereth has been a Spanish teacher at Arlington High School for the past three years, and will contine his teaching duties there while directing Bo-Gi activities.

He received his bachelor's degree from Mexico City College, has nearly completed his master's degree at Universidad Interamericana, and plans to work on his doctorate this summer in South America.

Schlereth's family includes his wife, Sari, and two children, Charles, 3½, and Marc, 2.

An adult advisory board as well as a student board work with the director in planning Bo-Gi activities is their center in the basement of Recreation Park fieldhouse.

Adult board members are Mrs. Norma Johnson, Mrs. Sue Dickes, E. Charles Alft, Miss Anna Marie Bazik, and Miss Demmaree Sunkel.

The student board includes Jim Hallet, Phil Clancey, Sue Johnson, Jeanne Swanson, Michele Coy, Elana Galarza, Kathy Lee, Ann Terhune, and Rainer Gebauer.

4 Methodist Choirs In Concert Sunday

The four choirs of the First Methodist Church of Arlington Heights will present their annual Christmas concert at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6, in the church sanctuary, 1903 E. Euclid Ave.

The Wesley Choir, directed by Betty Robinson; Epworth Choir, directed by Vera Valentine, and the Aldersgate Choir, directed by Frederick C. Schmoyer, will sing two numbers each.

A rhythmical interpretation of "Greensleeves" will be given by Frances and Nancy Palmatier, and Patricia McCarthy.

In addition, an anthem for the four combined choruses, a brass choir and organ, arranged by the church organist, Charles D. Jenks, will be premiered.

MAJOR WORK of the concert, using the Chancel Choir, is Antonio Vivaldi's "Gloria" in D major. The "Gloria" was discovered less than 30 years ago by Alfredo Casella in the National Library of Turin, and was edited by him from the manuscript in Volume I of the Renzo Giordano Collection.

Casella reconstructed several sections of the work which existed only in sketch form and also conducted the modern premier of the work at the Vivaldi Week in Siena, Italy, in September 1939.

It took 10 years (with time out for World War II) for the work to reach this country. In May 1949, Dr. Edward Lowinsky tackled the job with the forces available to him at Queens College. One year later Thomas K. Scherman presented the "Gloria" as the finale of a Vivaldi Festival given by the Little Orchestra.

THE CHICAGO Symphony Orchestra has only this year added the "Gloria" to its repertoire and introduced the work at its evening concert on Thanksgiving Day.

The solo parts of the composition are given to female voices, two sopranos and one contralto. The work is composed for two oboes, trumpets, strings and organ, and consists of seven choral sections, one duet for two sopranos, one aria for soprano and two numbers for contralto.

Frederick Schmoyer will conduct the Chancel Choir, soloists and orchestra in the "Gloria." Soloists are Vera Valentine and Betty Robinson, sopranos, and Arlene Blaha, contralto.

Couple to Brazil With Peace Corps

John F. Boehner, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Boehner Sr. of 733 S. Walnut, Arlington Heights, and his wife, Judith Lynn, of Oregon, Ohio, will leave for Brazil tomorrow (Friday) as Peace Corps volunteers.

They will participate in a health and sanitation program. Most of their group will be assigned to the state of Mato Grosso, An isolated region in Western Brazil.

The Brazilian government has given large amounts of land in Mato Grosso to anyone who will work it. The increase in population in the area has produced a need for improved public health and sanitation facilities. The Peace Corps volunteers will serve as visiting health educators and community sanitation workers.

THE WOMEN WILL visit homes and give instruction in child care, sewing, nutrition, simple health care and first aid. They will encourage the villagers to seek medical help when it is necessary.

The men will assist in latrine construction, well digging, and location of water supplies.

All of the volunteers will help the communities increase their own abilities to improve local facilities and to participate in national affairs.

There are presently over 300 Peace Corps volunteers working in Brazil in agricultural extension, rural community development, and health.

THE EMBARKING group trained for 12 weeks at Arizona State University. They studied Portuguese, Latin American history, United States history and world affairs.

Some 9,000 Americans are now serving as Peace Corps volunteers in 46 nations of Asia, Africa and Latin America.

More Volunteers are needed. Applicants interested in winter or spring training are urged to complete Peace Corps questionnaires (available at the local post office) and take the Corps' placement test, given the second Saturday of each month wherever federal service examinations are held.

Youth Council Filled; Swearing-in Monday

Members of the recently formed Arlington Heights Youth Council will be sworn in at Monday's village board meeting, and tentative plans are for the group to hold its first meeting that night.

The list of nine members was completed last week with the addition of the Rev. Donald D. Pritz of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church.

Chairman of the council, chosen when the first membership list was set up in mid-November, is A. G. Bohorfoush Jr., 415 E. Frederick. Members were chosen to represent schools, churches, the park district youth organizations, and the citizenry as a whole.

SPECIAL provision was made for a member to represent the Junior Woman's Club of Arlington Heights, which had actively supported establishment of the Bo-Gi youth center and the Youth Council.

Representative from that organization is Mrs. Sue Dickes, 319 S. Dunton Ave.

School representatives include Bruno Waara, principal of Arlington High School, and the Rev. Francis E. Williams, CSV, principal of St. Viator High School.

Representing the Arlington Heights Park District will be Jack Edwards, 1612 Ridge Ave., a member of the park board.

Completing the membership list are William Griffith, 625 N. Kaspar; Haldor Carlsen Jr., 1003 E. Euclid; and Mrs. Charles H. Oestmann, 320 S. Burton.

THREE-YEAR terms went to Bohorfoush, Fr. Williams and Waara; Pastor Pritz, Edwards and Mrs. Dickes are to serve two years; Carlsen, Griffith and Mrs. Oestmann have one-year terms.

Powers of the Youth Council as stated in the establishing ordinance are primarily advisory to the village board on matters of legislation, but further functions outlined spell out the duty of cooperating with and coordinating all authorities and agencies involved with village youth.

Village Pres. John G. Woods stressed at the time the ordinance was proposed that the council would serve a different purpose from groups in Des Plaines and Rolling Meadows, which he said were more "remedial and corrective."

Trip-Tips

You haven't seen Hawaii unless you've visited the outer islands.

Wayne Griffin

Nobody will contradict that statement and tourists agree with it everyday.

My tour to Hawaii leaving on March 13 will visit three of the outer islands as well as Oahu where Honolulu is located.

Take Maui for instance. This is the Valley Isle where we spend two nights at the Sheraton Maui Hotel on the western shore. The eastern end of the isle is Haleakala National Park with its huge dormant volcano. We land at Kahului airport, drive via the famous Needle, through the valley to the south shore — then head west along the coast stopping at the famous whaling village of Lahaina.

Sleppy Lahaina was once the original capital site and is expected to be preserved much like Williamsburg. The old hotel still stands — with its instructions on the wall about removing your boots before going to bed. Here too is the manufacturing site of black Coral jewelry for it is found just off these shores. There is a movie of the underwater explorations showing how it is found.

Sheraton Maui Hotel is unique. It is built on Black Rock with the lobby, dining room and lounge on top of the hotel. Lanai rooms are built downward aside the rock giving a view of the blue Pacific and the islands of Lanai, Molokai and Kahoolawe. Our free day there will allow the golfers, including myself, to try their prowess on the Royal Kaanapali course designed by Robert Trent Jones.

A colorful brochure describing our two week Hawaiian tour is yours for the asking. Many people are already set to go. Won't you join us? We have a wonderful time. Read about it in the brochure. Call CL 5-7010 or drop in at our office, 104 N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights.

Next week we'll tell about our visit to the big island of Hawaii.

Notes from Arlington Acres

Marie Marshall

CLearbrook 5-2936

Friends and neighbors of the Emil Straub family, 521 S. Phelps, were shocked and deeply grieved to learn of Joan's death Saturday afternoon after entering the hospital only that morning. Burial was Monday. Emil's parents are here from Detroit and will stay until after the first of the year to care for the four Straub children.

Many of the families in the area offered an extra thanksgiving Thursday, because a college student son or daughter was able to spend the holiday at home.

Jack Barlow, 424 S. Phelps, was home from Upper Iowa University at Fayette; Maureen Beem, 412 S. Waterman, spent the long weekend away from her studies at St. Dominick's at St. Charles; Gary Cook, 525 S. Forrest, returned Sunday to the University of Wisconsin at Madison; Carol Hinchliff, 428 S. Forrest, a senior at Carroll College, Waukesha, Wis., was home as was Margaret Marshall, 432 S. Forrest, from Northwestern.

Richard Smith, 517 S. Prindle, was due back at Iowa State University at Ames last Wednesday; Garrett Shawhan, 532 S. Prindle, left Sunday to return to the University of Illinois at Urbana, and Rip Van Sky, 1915 E. Grove, traveled farther but enjoyed a longer holiday. He is a freshman at North Texas State College at Denton and was home for a week.

Mike Williams, son af Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, 424 S. Waterman, was home for four days from Carroll College at Waukesha.

A WEEKEND guest at the Robert Kunz home, 505 S. Forrest, was Betty's brother, Edward Nelson of Monterey Park, Calif., who was enroute to Washington, D. C., to report on a study made in Brazil this past summer. Mr. Nelson is a business economics teacher at California State College at Los Angeles. It is four years since his last visit with his sister and her family.

For the Burton Soderbergs, 436 S. Phelps, a wedding anniversary is a date to be celebrated, so in honor of their 18th Nov. 24, they spent the preceding weekend at the Wagon Wheel near Rockton, and enjoyed two fun filled days swimming, bowling, dancing and visiting the shops in the resort compound. They dined in the Garden Room one evening, the Trophy Room another, topped off with an after dinner drink in the Key Club.

Following close on the Soderberg anniversary is the birthday of their son, Doug, who was 16 Nov. 26.

IN ARLINGTON Acres, the month of November runs a close second to June for the number of wedding anniversaries marked.

Ron Drews, 517 S. Forrest, took Nancy, his bride of five years, dining and dancing at the Willowbrook Room in Willow Springs, in honor of their Nov. 28 date.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Farina, 421 S. Forrest, celebrated their 23rd Nov. 23 quietly at home, as did Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lucas, 419 S. Phelps, who were married 11 years Nov. 28; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kulisch, 520 S. Prindle, who share an identical anniversary with the Lucases.

The Kulisch home was one among many in the area where Thanksgiving dinner was shared with friends. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan and their children, next door neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curtin, 420 S. Forrest, who were married 29 years last Friday, were joined in the celebration by Isabelle's sister and her husband who were house guests over the Thanksgiving weekend.

SPENDING Thanksgiving away from home were the Dexter Ashbrooks, 416 S. Forrest. After stopping at Normal, to leave 4-year-old Nancy with her grandparents, the Ashbrooks and daughters Janie and Susan drove on to Cherokee Village, Ark., a resort in the Ozarks, where they spent the next three days fishing, boating and generally basking in sunshine. Temperatures were in the 70's.

Jamie Spagnoli, 11 on Thanksgiving, accompanied her parents and her brothers and sister, Michael, Joey and Lori, to the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. Mrs. Daniel Woods of Skokie, where the two occasions were celebrated as one. Instead of pumpkin pie, dessert was a birthday cake. Jamie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spagnoli, 1815 E. Grove.

Happy birthday wishes were extended to Jimmy Conway, 513 S. Prindle, at a gala dinner in his honor given by his parents, the Francis Conways, on Saturday. Sharing the 12-year-old's happiness were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Doederlein of Chicago, aunts, uncles and cousins, the Owen Miller family of Morton Grove and Mrs. Anne Ward and her children of Arlington Heights, as well as family friends, the Robert Tate family and Mrs. Ellen Nast, also of Arlington Heights.

A luncheon party in honor of Kathy Wright's sixth birthday Nov. 19 was given the Saturday following the day by her mother, Mrs. Norman Wright, 413 S. Forrest. Guests, whose mothers brought them and stayed to enjoy lunch and an afternoon together, were Lisa and Michael Morgan, Linda Gryzik Sharon and Donna Conrad of Evanston and Lynne and Cindy Weiss of Northbrook.

Best wishes on her Nov. 20 birthday were extended to Kristi Knutsen, 432 S. Prindle, at a party for her friends the following day. Present to congratulate the 9-year-old were Sharon Cooper, Darla Lambrey, Karen Rose, Linda Wright, Joan and Mary Ganzer and Kristi's sisters, Mari, Karen and Konni. The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Knutsen.

So many members of Nancy Cerva's family wanted to help celebrate her 10th birthday Nov. 22 that the festivities lasted over a whole weekend. Saturday her parents, the Don Cervas, hosted a dinner party in their home, 425 S. Forrest, for grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Buchwald of Chicago, and maternal aunts, uncles and cousins. Sunday the party scene moved to the home of an aunt and uncle, the Robert Cervas of Franklin Park, who were hosts at a dinner for 30 relatives on the Cerva side, including grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cerva of Elmwood Park.

Doug Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, 421 S. Prindle, was feted at a dinner Nov. 23 in honor of his ninth birthday. Guests included his grandparents, the Oscar Holts of Chicago and the Gust Berthels of Park Ridge, and aunts, uncles and cousins. (A

Mrs. Swain To Direct Palsy Fund

Mrs. Robert S. Swain, 512 S. Waterman Ave., has been named chairman of the "53-Minute March" on cerebral palsy for Arlington Heights. The announcement was made by Arthur Rubloff, president of United Palsy of Greater Chicago.

Mrs. Swain in accepting the chairmanship said, "We have had fine cooperation from the residents of Arlington Heights in the past. We need this generous support again, not only in money, but in volunteer help, too." The annual march is Sunday, Jan. 10.

A GOAL of $500,000 has been set for Cook, Lake, DuPage and Kane counties. These funds will support the program of direct services, research and education sponsored by USP of Greater Chicago.

The 53-Minute March theme is significant because one child is born with cerebral palsy every 53 minutes. There are now approximately 21,000 stricken children and adults in greater Chicago.

Cerebral palsy usually strikes at birth; there is no cure; victims like a normal ilfe span with this crippler.

less of political affiliation.

Mrs. Chapman said she is not the only candidate running for state office and keeping a school board position. Mrs. Marjorie Pebworth, one of the Republican "blue ribbon" candidates, was a candidate while continuing to serve on a school board, she said.

"I'D LIKE to know what I've done in District 214 but work to improve schools," declared Mrs. Chapman.

She suggested the controversy over whether the Wheeling High School band should play for the President might have precipitated this kind of resolution. She said the band playing decision was an administrative decision in which she had no part.

She defended herself against the charge of having District 214 employes backing her candidacy by saying people interested in good schools would naturally want to support her candidacy. Any candidate has special groups formed to support him, she added. She condemned an attitude that would consider teachers should "be separate from life" and not be able to support a candidate.

EUGENE SCHLICKMAN, Arlington Heights attorney, who resigned his position on the Arlington Heights village board to run on the Republican ticket for the legislature, said "Gene (Eugenia) did things that I wouldn't have done.

"The use of Harold Schlichenmyer's (district superintendent) name in her ads was wrong. That would have been like my using Rudy Hansen's (village manager) name in my ads if I had not left the board.

"I think it was a mistake for Gene to use his name since his office is non-partisan. I think that using or having the benefit of teachers for Chapman was an indiscretion. Having Village Employes for Schlickman, had I remained a member of the village board, would have been the same thing and I would not have done it."

Schlickman closed by saying "It's a different approach and I suppose each of us starts from a different base."

Mrs. Chapman was instrumental in working to get Schlickman elected to village office in 1962.

Friends and neighbors of the Emil Straub family, 521 S. Phelps, were shocked and deeply grieved to learn of Joan's death Saturday afternoon after entering the hospital only that morning. Burial was Monday. Emil's parents are here from Detroit and will stay until after the first of the year to care for the four Straub children.

Many of the families in the area offered an extra thanksgiving Thursday, because a college student son or daughter was able to spend the holiday at home.

Jack Barlow, 424 S. Phelps, was home from Upper Iowa University at Fayette; Maureen Beem, 412 S. Waterman, spent the long weekend away from her studies at St. Dominick's at St. Charles; Gary Cook, 525 S. Forrest, returned Sunday to the University of Wisconsin at Madison; Carol Hinchliff, 428 S. Forrest, a senior at Carroll College, Waukesha, Wis., was home as was Margaret Marshall, 432 S. Forrest, from Northwestern.

Richard Smith, 517 S. Prindle, was due back at Iowa State University at Ames last Wednesday; Garrett Shawhan, 532 S. Prindle, left Sunday to return to the University of Illinois at Urbana, and Rip Van Sky, 1915 E. Grove, traveled farther but enjoyed a longer holiday. He is a freshman at North Texas State College at Denton and was home for a week.

Mike Williams, son af Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, 424 S. Waterman, was home for four days from Carroll College at Waukesha.

A WEEKEND guest at the Robert Kunz home, 505 S. Forrest, was Betty's brother, Edward Nelson of Monterey Park, Calif., who was enroute to Washington, D. C., to report on a study made in Brazil this past summer. Mr. Nelson is a business economics teacher at California State College at Los Angeles. It is four years since his last visit with his sister and her family.

For the Burton Soderbergs, 436 S. Phelps, a wedding anniversary is a date to be celebrated, so in honor of their 18th Nov. 24, they spent the preceding weekend at the Wagon Wheel near Rockton, and enjoyed two fun filled days swimming, bowling, dancing and visiting the shops in the resort compound. They dined in the Garden Room one evening, the Trophy Room another, topped off with an after dinner drink in the Key Club.

Following close on the Soderberg anniversary is the birthday of their son, Doug, who was 16 Nov. 26.

IN ARLINGTON Acres, the month of November runs a close second to June for the number of wedding anniversaries marked.

Ron Drews, 517 S. Forrest, took Nancy, his bride of five years, dining and dancing at the Willowbrook Room in Willow Springs, in honor of their Nov. 28 date.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Farina, 421 S. Forrest, celebrated their 23rd Nov. 23 quietly at home, as did Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lucas, 419 S. Phelps, who were married 11 years Nov. 28; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kulisch, 520 S. Prindle, who share an identical anniversary with the Lucases.

The Kulisch home was one among many in the area where Thanksgiving dinner was shared with friends. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Donovan and their children, next door neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curtin, 420 S. Forrest, who were married 29 years last Friday, were joined in the celebration by Isabelle's sister and her husband who were house guests over the Thanksgiving weekend.

SPENDING Thanksgiving away from home were the Dexter Ashbrooks, 416 S. Forrest. After stopping at Normal, to leave 4-year-old Nancy with her grandparents, the Ashbrooks and daughters Janie and Susan drove on to Cherokee Village, Ark., a resort in the Ozarks, where they spent the next three days fishing, boating and generally basking in sunshine. Temperatures were in the 70's.

Jamie Spagnoli, 11 on Thanksgiving, accompanied her parents and her brothers and sister, Michael, Joey and Lori, to the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. Mrs. Daniel Woods of Skokie, where the two occasions were celebrated as one. Instead of pumpkin pie, dessert was a birthday cake. Jamie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Spagnoli, 1815 E. Grove.

Happy birthday wishes were extended to Jimmy Conway, 513 S. Prindle, at a gala dinner in his honor given by his parents, the Francis Conways, on Saturday. Sharing the 12-year-old's happiness were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Doederlein of Chicago, aunts, uncles and cousins, the Owen Miller family of Morton Grove and Mrs. Anne Ward and her children of Arlington Heights, as well as family friends, the Robert Tate family and Mrs. Ellen Nast, also of Arlington Heights.

A luncheon party in honor of Kathy Wright's sixth birthday Nov. 19 was given the Saturday following the day by her mother, Mrs. Norman Wright, 413 S. Forrest. Guests, whose mothers brought them and stayed to enjoy lunch and an afternoon together, were Lisa and Michael Morgan, Linda Gryzik Sharon and Donna Conrad of Evanston and Lynne and Cindy Weiss of Northbrook.

Best wishes on her Nov. 20 birthday were extended to Kristi Knutsen, 432 S. Prindle, at a party for her friends the following day. Present to congratulate the 9-year-old were Sharon Cooper, Darla Lambrey, Karen Rose, Linda Wright, Joan and Mary Ganzer and Kristi's sisters, Mari, Karen and Konni. The girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Knutsen.

So many members of Nancy Cerva's family wanted to help celebrate her 10th birthday Nov. 22 that the festivities lasted over a whole weekend. Saturday her parents, the Don Cervas, hosted a dinner party in their home, 425 S. Forrest, for grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Buchwald of Chicago, and maternal aunts, uncles and cousins. Sunday the party scene moved to the home of an aunt and uncle, the Robert Cervas of Franklin Park, who were hosts at a dinner for 30 relatives on the Cerva side, including grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cerva of Elmwood Park.

Mrs. Swain To Direct Palsy Fund

Mrs. Robert S. Swain, 512 S. Waterman Ave., has been named chairman of the "53-Minute March" on cerebral palsy for Arlington Heights. The announcement was made by Arthur Rubloff, president of United Palsy of Greater Chicago.

Mrs. Swain in accepting the chairmanship said, "We have had fine cooperation from the residents of Arlington Heights in the past. We need this generous support again, not only in money, but in volunteer help, too." The annual march is Sunday, Jan. 10.

A GOAL of $500,000 has been set for Cook, Lake, DuPage and Kane counties. These funds will support the program of direct services, research and education sponsored by USP of Greater Chicago.

The 53-Minute March theme is significant because one child is born with cerebral palsy every 53 minutes. There are now approximately 21,000 stricken children and adults in greater Chicago.

Cerebral palsy usually strikes at birth; there is no cure; victims like a normal ilfe span with this crippler.

less of political affiliation.

Mrs. Chapman said she is not the only candidate running for state office and keeping a school board position. Mrs. Marjorie Pebworth, one of the Republican "blue ribbon" candidates, was a candidate while continuing to serve on a school board, she said.

"I'D LIKE to know what I've done in District 214 but work to improve schools," declared Mrs. Chapman.

She suggested the controversy over whether the Wheeling High School band should play for the President might have precipitated this kind of resolution. She said the band playing decision was an administrative decision in which she had no part.

She defended herself against the charge of having District 214 employes backing her candidacy by saying people interested in good schools would naturally want to support her candidacy. Any candidate has special groups formed to support him, she added. She condemned an attitude that would consider teachers should "be separate from life" and not be able to support a candidate.

EUGENE SCHLICKMAN, Arlington Heights attorney, who resigned his position on the Arlington Heights village board to run on the Republican ticket for the legislature, said "Gene (Eugenia) did things that I wouldn't have done.

"The use of Harold Schlichenmyer's (district superintendent) name in her ads was wrong. That would have been like my using Rudy Hansen's (village manager) name in my ads if I had not left the board.

"I think it was a mistake for Gene to use his name since his office is non-partisan. I think that using or having the benefit of teachers for Chapman was an indiscretion. Having Village Employes for Schlickman, had I remained a member of the village board, would have been the same thing and I would not have done it."

Schlickman closed by saying "It's a different approach and I suppose each of us starts from a different base."

Mrs. Chapman was instrumental in working to get Schlickman elected to village office in 1962.

Resurfacing Bids All Top Estimate

Bids for resurfacing of Meier Road between Golf Road and Lincoln Street were rejected by the county last week.

All bids were above the county highway department maximum estimate of $27,854.

Low bidder was Rock Road Construction Co. at $28,643.50.

It will now be necessary to readvertise the paving job. Spokesmen for the county highway department said it was hoped bids could be received and contracts readied for January bid letting by the county.

The road is to be resurfaced with a B-5 bituminous asphalt surface. The work is to be paid for by Elk Grove Township motor fuel tax funds. Under state regulations, supervision and bidding for the road project must be conducted by the county.

RONALD L. Bradley, Elk Grove Township road commissioner, stressed the improvement is needed to improve traffic into Hatlin Heights. He said he had been seeking the work for "a long time" but that delays in getting approval for the project had prevented start of construction.

Bradley expressed fear that a further delay would develop before the actual contracts could be let. The village of Arlington Heights recently annexed the west side of Meier Road for about half the distance between Golf and Lincoln. Since village motor fuel tax fund improvements are handled by the state in a different manner than the township road improvements, the joint venture could take even longer for approval, Bradley said. Suntans, Snowstorms Mark Thanksgiving for Travelers

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate
Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

Local families who were away for Thanksgiving returned over the weekend with reports of everything from a suntan in Florida to a snowstorm in Springfield. Celebrations here included small, quiet gatherings and houses full of the happy noise of lots of people. For some Arlington Heights families the holiday meant wedding bells and birthday cakes. Thanksgiving had one thing in common for everyone, though — it was a good day.

The Harding Miller family, formerly of Arlington Heights and now in Indianapolis, spent the holiday weekend here with the William Edgertons, 630 N. Dryden. They also visited other local friends during their stay, and Jeff had a happy-hectic reunion with nine buddies at an overnight no-sleep party in the Henry Taylor home, 1201 N. Dunton.

Jeff, Hank-the-host and the rest of the buddy-buddy group attended the gymnastics meet in Arlington High School Friday night, then went to the Taylor home for the all-night bull session. After food, a pillow fight, food, a crazy-hat style show, food, and a gab-fest the 15-year-old athletes succumbed briefly to the need for sleep.

When they departed Saturday they left behind a trail of hearty thanks for a "hey - neat!" time, feathers from a ruptured pillow, a few odd socks and eerie quiet

TYPICAL OF the swinging-door routine experienced by local families with collegians home for the holiday was the one at the Jack Keller home, 512 W. South. The Kellers' daughter and her husband, the Tim Smiths, were here from DeKalb where they attend Northern Illinois University, and another daughter, Kathy, came home from Drake University in Des Moines.

Other home-for-Thanksgiving friends were in and out to say, "Hi," the Smiths and Kathy were out and in from hi-saying visits to other homes and everything was perfectly normal for the season.

The William Gish family, 642 S. Chestnut, enjoyed the holiday weekend in South Bend with Mrs. Gish's parents, the William Nordins. Weather was in delightful, snow-free contrast to that of the previous weekend when Gish and Son mushed their way to a wintery Notre Dame home game.

Wedding anniversary congratulations were mixed with holiday greetings Thursday at the family dinner for 17 in the Donald Armstrong home, 907 S. Dunton. On the receiving end of the congratulations were the host and hostess who had observed their 14th anniversary Thanksgiving Eve.

The John Sheehans, 601 S. Mitchell, returned Sunday evening from a holiday weekend visit in Cleveland with Mrs. Sheehan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Peoples.

THANKSGIVING DAY was a casual, semi-working day for the Barker Davis family, 318 Drury, who left early Friday morning for Green Bay, Wis. to attend the Upper Great Lakes Figure Skating Championship meet. Among the skaters were Minneapolis friends of the Davises with whom they enjoyed a weekend visit. Congratulations were on the schedule, too, as several of the Minnesotans placed in the various divisions of the competition.

For the Davises' 11-year-old daughter, Joan, the weekend was a mouth-watering experience; she learned to skate when she was 2, had been on her school's figure skating team in Minneapolis and competed in events like the one she was now watching.

Thanksgiving guests in the John Kramer home, 116 E. Orchard, were Mrs. Kramer's cousins, Mrs. W. D. Neff and her daughter of Bloomington, Ind. An addition to the traditional holiday menu was a birthday cake for young John, celebrating his 11th birthday. A post-holiday get-together with a couple of local buddies was devoted solely to the birthday event, and then John felt "officially" 11.

Danny Bankert was 5 years old right before Thanksgiving, had a little peoples' party right after the holiday and reaped a few birthday hugs Thursday at a family gathering. His after-the-event celebration was Saturday afternoon with six local buddies who enjoyed games 'n' cake in the Bankert home, 116 S. Dunton.

A TRADITIONAL holiday dinner was enjoyed Thursday in the Ronald Tossman home, 411 N. Evergreen, where the host's parents, the Paul Tossmans and his sister and her family, the Jerome Rauches, made an almost-complete family circle. Missing was the junior Paul Tossman, at a naval station in Jacksonville, Fla., who joined the party via a phone call Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Blohm and children, 429 S. Highland, returned Sunday from a week in Neenah, Wis. with the senior Blohms. Part of the time was spent visiting, but the serious business of house-hunting had a priority rating - the local Blohms will be moving to Wisconsin soon after Christmas.

It's been too chilly to show off a Florida suntan and among local complexions buried ear-deep in winter clothes are those of recently tanned Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Cochran and Bill, 21 S. Dwyer. They came home Saturday after a summery week in and around Miami, deepsea fishing, sunning, and celebrating the holiday with the senior Cochrans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peak, 1104 W. Sigwalt, had 3 weeks in Florida to intensify their tans, but they, too, are fading. They'd relaxed and browned in the 80-degree climate of Miami Beach and had a weekend in equally warm-and-wonderful Nassau. They returned Thanksgiving Eve just in time to celebrate the holiday and Mrs. Peak's Nov. 24 birthday at a family dinner party with Itasca relatives.

THE LEONARD Lee family of St. Louis enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner and a weekend visit with Mrs. Lee's sister and family, the Jack Heys, 501 S. Highland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Myers and Marcia, 403 E. Eastman, Marcia's fiance, Kevin Kissamis of Rolling Meadows, and the Myers' son, Warren, and his bride of Mount Prospect, were part of a Thanksgiving family celebration in Mendota at the home of Mrs. Myers' sister and family, the William Jacobs. They left here Wednesday evening and returned Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Posselt, 302 W. Maple, were holiday weekend guests of their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert T. Bergs, of Napoleon, Mich. Mrs. Berg, a June bride, served her first holiday dinner and, according to a pair of well-fed parents, she did it like a veteran.

The Posselts' younger daughter, Alene, celebrated the holiday with her University of Florida roommate and long-time friend, Maryjane Heberling. Maryjane and her mother, former Arlington Heighters, now make their home in Lakeland, Fla., and for Alene, Thanksgiving with the Heberlings was the next best thing to being home.

The Earl Schmidts and Luann, 724 S. Chestnut, spent the holiday weekend in Springfield with former Arlington Heights neighbors, the Robert Sweets and Claude Chapins. They left Springfield Sunday morning in the midst of a snow storm and some jitters, having heard via radio that the Chicago area had similar weather. Misinformation was seldom so welcome.

THE JOHN Fischers, 1123 N. Dunton, celebrated their seventh Nov. 23 wedding anniversary two days early with a Saturday night dinner-and-theater date shared with Chicago friends, also anniversary celebrating. A festive at-home dinner on the exact date delighted little Fischers who weren't too clear about the occasion but sang anyhow.

A Thanksgiving bride of this year, the former Miss Peggy Hirons, was feted at three bridal showers given on recent successive Sundays. They somewhat surprised her, totally flabbergasted her and didn't intend to startle her at all, in that order.

The first pre-nuptial party was given by Miss Hirons' aunt, Mrs. William Denten, 306 S. Dwyer, and 26 guests wondered just a little if the bride-elect didn't suspect something at the moment she walked in the door. There was no doubt, however, about her delight with the shower of miscellaneous gifts and her enjoyment at seeing her friends and relatives.

Next week, 15 fellow teachers from Wilson School in Arlington Heights were sure Miss Hirons was unprepared for their "Surprise!" shout. She hadn't any lipstick on, a sure feminine sign that she wasn't expecting a party. Hostess was Miss Lenore King, then of Arlington Heights and now of Park Ridge, whose invitations indicated an around-the-clock shower, always fun and full of imaginative gift selections.

CLIMAXING the round of parties was the miscellaneous shower and buffet supper given by Mrs. Thomas Dawson of Deerfield, aunt of the groom, Rocco Dawson. Following the all-girl portion of the gala afternoon, the men of the family joined their ladies at supper.

Miss Hirons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hirons, 1020 N. Chestnut, was married to Dawson in St. James Catholic Church of Arlington Heights Thanksgiving morning. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson will make their home in Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brown, 509 S. Chestnut, returned Thanksgiving Eve from a usual 10-day November stay in Florida and Georgia that was unusual in many ways. They are often entertained during their annual visits, but this year's gatherings seemed to "out-unique" one another. The Browns were guests of honor at an open-air oyster roast and shrimp fry for 36; they were in a party of 24 who, as guests of the restauranteur, officially opened "old Heritage House" in Brunswich, Ga.; Mrs. Brown was the honor guest at a luncheon that included a gift from her hostesses, an autographed copy of their epicure's seafood recipe book.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown also toured St. Simon Island, center of Hurricane Dora's most devastating effects. Although many homes were totally destroyed there, Dora apparently tried to atone for her havoc by creating a clean new sand beach where none had been before.

FRIENDS OF the Frank Moskals, 1724 N. Rand Road, will be sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Moskal's 84-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary Moskal, who had been residing with a daughter in Lake Geneva. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dunham, 401 Bristol, and daughter, Sherry, came home Sunday from a 10-day stay visiting relatives in the East.

The trip was planned for an overnight stop just outside Lancaster, Pa., so that they could attend 11 o'clock services at Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church of Quarryville, and surprise the minister, Rev. Richard Dunham, who is a cousin of Mr. Dunham. The church, too, was of interest to the Dunhams, It was built during the Revolutionary War and the area about it is steeped in American history.

From Lancaster, they went on to West Caldwell, N. J., visiting Mrs. Dunham's sister and family, the Joseph Zambones, and then to South Jersey to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Dunham's mother, Mrs. James Dunham.

GIVE YOUR BODY A CHRISTMAS GIFT.
Why not? You are going to give one to relatives and friends. And, the most precious friend you have is the body you live in.
YOUR BODY OFTEN NEEDS EXTRA HELP.
Right now it is being exposed to December weather with more winter months ahead. You probably will overtire yourself while busily engaged in Christmas shopping and preparations for the coming holidays. Then, you can more easily catch colds, coughs and even more serious ailments.
GIVE YOUR BODY A HEALTH CHECK-UP.
Visit your physician now and let him help you try to prevent possible future sickness. First, he will carefully examine you to see if you have a present serious ailment. The odds are you won't, but if you do, an early diagnosis often almost insures a permanent cure.
A PHYSICIAN KNOWS YOUR BODY'S NEEDS.
He can advise you about diet, regularity, overtiredness, sleeping problems and the proper vitamins you may need. Do not let door-to-door medicine men, radio, television or newspaper ads tell you how to treat your body.
YOU CAN HAVE A HEALTHIER NEW YEAR.
By giving yourself the gift of a health check-up, you will also have a happier one, for who can be completely happy without good health? We hope you follow this sincere advice, for then our wish that you will have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year should surely come true.

Every month
more and more people are moving up to total electric living
The reason? Simple. Electricity is so easy to live with.
With flameless electric heat, for example, each room can have its own thermostat. You can enjoy 80° in the bath, 72° in the living room and 65° in the bedroom. There's no burning fuel, nothing to make dirt . . . walls and furniture stay clean far longer. Come summer, electric air conditioning wrings heat and humidity from the air along with most of the annoying pollens.
Electric cooking takes the flame out of the kitchen. People stay cooler, and pans, walls and curtains stay cleaner. And, because electric heat is controlled heat, it takes the guesswork out of cooking. Foods cooked in an electric oven have a done-to-a-turn flavor that only radiant heat and insulation on all six sides can provide.
Electrically dried clothes come out sweet and fresh because there's no burning fuel to cause an odor. With no pilot light, power ignition or extra cost for tumbler drive, the average family's drying bill comes to only $1.25 a month.* And an electric dryer costs $20 to $40 less to buy.
See how easy it can be to move up to total electric living at your house. Call us for details, today.
*Based on the actual use of a cross section of Northern Illinois families.

You stay cool, calm and collected with flameless electricity. Precise, automatically controlled cooking, washing and drying—are at your fingertips.

This little lady—and every member of the family—will delight in the comfort that's hers with room-by-room electric heat control.

Suntans, Snowstorms Mark Thanksgiving for Travelers

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate

Dorothy Meyer, CL 3-2298 Elsie Jedd, CL 3-5982

Local families who were away for Thanksgiving returned over the weekend with reports of everything from a suntan in Florida to a snowstorm in Springfield. Celebrations here included small, quiet gatherings and houses full of the happy noise of lots of people. For some Arlington Heights families the holiday meant wedding bells and birthday cakes. Thanksgiving had one thing in common for everyone, though — it was a good day.

The Harding Miller family, formerly of Arlington Heights and now in Indianapolis, spent the holiday weekend here with the William Edgertons, 630 N. Dryden. They also visited other local friends during their stay, and Jeff had a happy-hectic reunion with nine buddies at an overnight no-sleep party in the Henry Taylor home, 1201 N. Dunton.

Jeff, Hank-the-host and the rest of the buddy-buddy group attended the gymnastics meet in Arlington High School Friday night, then went to the Taylor home for the all-night bull session. After food, a pillow fight, food, a crazy-hat style show, food, and a gab-fest the 15-year-old athletes succumbed briefly to the need for sleep.

When they departed Saturday they left behind a trail of hearty thanks for a "hey - neat!" time, feathers from a ruptured pillow, a few odd socks and eerie quiet

TYPICAL OF the swinging-door routine experienced by local families with collegians home for the holiday was the one at the Jack Keller home, 512 W. South. The Kellers' daughter and her husband, the Tim Smiths, were here from DeKalb where they attend Northern Illinois University, and another daughter, Kathy, came home from Drake University in Des Moines.

Other home-for-Thanksgiving friends were in and out to say, "Hi," the Smiths and Kathy were out and in from hi-saying visits to other homes and everything was perfectly normal for the season.

The William Gish family, 642 S. Chestnut, enjoyed the holiday weekend in South Bend with Mrs. Gish's parents, the William Nordins. Weather was in delightful, snow-free contrast to that of the previous weekend when Gish and Son mushed their way to a wintery Notre Dame home game.

Wedding anniversary congratulations were mixed with holiday greetings Thursday at the family dinner for 17 in the Donald Armstrong home, 907 S. Dunton. On the receiving end of the congratulations were the host and hostess who had observed their 14th anniversary Thanksgiving Eve.

The John Sheehans, 601 S. Mitchell, returned Sunday evening from a holiday weekend visit in Cleveland with Mrs. Sheehan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Peoples.

THANKSGIVING DAY was a casual, semi-working day for the Barker Davis family, 318 Drury, who left early Friday morning for Green Bay, Wis. to attend the Upper Great Lakes Figure Skating Championship meet. Among the skaters were Minneapolis friends of the Davises with whom they enjoyed a weekend visit. Congratulations were on the schedule, too, as several of the Minnesotans placed in the various divisions of the competition.

For the Davises' 11-year-old daughter, Joan, the weekend was a mouth-watering experience; she learned to skate when she was 2, had been on her school's figure skating team in Minneapolis and competed in events like the one she was now watching.

Thanksgiving guests in the John Kramer home, 116 E. Orchard, were Mrs. Kramer's cousins, Mrs. W. D. Neff and her daughter of Bloomington, Ind. An addition to the traditional holiday menu was a birthday cake for young John, celebrating his 11th birthday. A post-holiday get-together with a couple of local buddies was devoted solely to the birthday event, and then John felt "officially" 11.

Danny Bankert was 5 years old right before Thanksgiving, had a little peoples' party right after the holiday and reaped a few birthday hugs Thursday at a family gathering. His after-the-event celebration was Saturday afternoon with six local buddies who enjoyed games 'n' cake in the Bankert home, 116 S. Dunton.

A TRADITIONAL holiday dinner was enjoyed Thursday in the Ronald Tossman home, 411 N. Evergreen, where the host's parents, the Paul Tossmans and his sister and her family, the Jerome Rauches, made an almost-complete family circle. Missing was the junior Paul Tossman, at a naval station in Jacksonville, Fla., who joined the party via a phone call Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Blohm and children, 429 S. Highland, returned Sunday from a week in Neenah, Wis. with the senior Blohms. Part of the time was spent visiting, but the serious business of house-hunting had a priority rating - the local Blohms will be moving to Wisconsin soon after Christmas.

It's been too chilly to show off a Florida suntan and among local complexions buried ear-deep in winter clothes are those of recently tanned Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Cochran and Bill, 21 S. Dwyer. They came home Saturday after a summery week in and around Miami, deepsea fishing, sunning, and celebrating the holiday with the senior Cochrans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Peak, 1104 W. Sigwalt, had 3 weeks in Florida to intensify their tans, but they, too, are fading. They'd relaxed and browned in the 80-degree climate of Miami Beach and had a weekend in equally warm-and-wonderful Nassau. They returned Thanksgiving Eve just in time to celebrate the holiday and Mrs. Peak's Nov. 24 birthday at a family dinner party with Itasca relatives.

THE LEONARD Lee family of St. Louis enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner and a weekend visit with Mrs. Lee's sister and family, the Jack Heys, 501 S. Highland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Myers and Marcia, 403 E. Eastman, Marcia's fiance, Kevin Kissamis of Rolling Meadows, and the Myers' son, Warren, and his bride of Mount Prospect, were part of a Thanksgiving family celebration in Mendota at the home of Mrs. Myers' sister and family, the William Jacobs. They left here Wednesday evening and returned Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Posselt, 302 W. Maple, were holiday weekend guests of their daughter and son-in-law, the Robert T. Bergs, of Napoleon, Mich. Mrs. Berg, a June bride, served her first holiday dinner and, according to a pair of well-fed parents, she did it like a veteran.

The Posselts' younger daughter, Alene, celebrated the holiday with her University of Florida roommate and long-time friend, Maryjane Heberling. Maryjane and her mother, former Arlington Heighters, now make their home in Lakeland, Fla., and for Alene, Thanksgiving with the Heberlings was the next best thing to being home.

The Earl Schmidts and Luann, 724 S. Chestnut, spent the holiday weekend in Springfield with former Arlington Heights neighbors, the Robert Sweets and Claude Chapins. They left Springfield Sunday morning in the midst of a snow storm and some jitters, having heard via radio that the Chicago area had similar weather. Misinformation was seldom so welcome.

THE JOHN Fischers, 1123 N. Dunton, celebrated their seventh Nov. 23 wedding anniversary two days early with a Saturday night dinner-and-theater date shared with Chicago friends, also anniversary celebrating. A festive at-home dinner on the exact date delighted little Fischers who weren't too clear about the occasion but sang anyhow.

A Thanksgiving bride of this year, the former Miss Peggy Hirons, was feted at three bridal showers given on recent successive Sundays. They somewhat surprised her, totally flabbergasted her and didn't intend to startle her at all, in that order.

The first pre-nuptial party was given by Miss Hirons' aunt, Mrs. William Denten, 306 S. Dwyer, and 26 guests wondered just a little if the bride-elect didn't suspect something at the moment she walked in the door. There was no doubt, however, about her delight with the shower of miscellaneous gifts and her enjoyment at seeing her friends and relatives.

Next week, 15 fellow teachers from Wilson School in Arlington Heights were sure Miss Hirons was unprepared for their "Surprise!" shout. She hadn't any lipstick on, a sure feminine sign that she wasn't expecting a party. Hostess was Miss Lenore King, then of Arlington Heights and now of Park Ridge, whose invitations indicated an around-the-clock shower, always fun and full of imaginative gift selections.

CLIMAXING the round of parties was the miscellaneous shower and buffet supper given by Mrs. Thomas Dawson of Deerfield, aunt of the groom, Rocco Dawson. Following the all-girl portion of the gala afternoon, the men of the family joined their ladies at supper.

Miss Hirons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hirons, 1020 N. Chestnut, was married to Dawson in St. James Catholic Church of Arlington Heights Thanksgiving morning. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson will make their home in Deerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brown, 509 S. Chestnut, returned Thanksgiving Eve from a usual 10-day November stay in Florida and Georgia that was unusual in many ways. They are often entertained during their annual visits, but this year's gatherings seemed to "out-unique" one another. The Browns were guests of honor at an open-air oyster roast and shrimp fry for 36; they were in a party of 24 who, as guests of the restauranteur, officially opened "old Heritage House" in Brunswich, Ga.; Mrs. Brown was the honor guest at a luncheon that included a gift from her hostesses, an autographed copy of their epicure's seafood recipe book.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown also toured St. Simon Island, center of Hurricane Dora's most devastating effects. Although many homes were totally destroyed there, Dora apparently tried to atone for her havoc by creating a clean new sand beach where none had been before.

FRIENDS OF the Frank Moskals, 1724 N. Rand Road, will be sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Moskal's 84-year-old mother, Mrs. Mary Moskal, who had been residing with a daughter in Lake Geneva. Services were held Saturday in a Lake Geneva Funeral Home to St. Francis De Sales Catholic Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

Sympathies also go to the Henry Dreyer family, 700 E. Northwest Hwy. Mr. Dreyer's mother, Dora Dreyer of Niles, died Nov. 28 at the age of 86.

The Wilbur Daeschners, 310 Mayfair, continued a family tradition by spending Thanksgiving in Indianapolis, with long-time friends, the C. R. Krabbenhofts. The Daeschners' son, Dick, a student at the University of Illinois, joined them for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis, 555 Banbury, and Mike Stimak, who is living with the Davises while attending Arlington High School, spent Thanksgiving Day with their daughter and son-in-law, the Al Josephs of Wilmette.

The Frederick C. Schmoyers, 445 S. Pine, and their twin daughters, Kay and Claire, went to Grand Rapids to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Schmoyer's mother, Mrs. V. A. Anderson. Joining the family gathering were the Schmoyers' daughter and son-in-law, the William E. Briggs of Bloomfield Hills.

The Carl Grans, 221 S. Derbyshire, were hosts at Thanksgiving dinner to Stonegate neighbors, the Edward Klamms, and Mrs. Gran's mother, Mrs. Louise Schott of Chicago. The Grans' daughter, Barbara, a freshman at Marquette University, was home for a holiday visit.

Mrs. Robert E. Miller, 1301 Woodford, went to Cedar Rapids Nov. 20 to spend a week with her daughter, Sue, a freshman at Coe College.

THE DARRELL BANGS, 413 S. Carlyle, spent Thanksgiving Day in Stoughton, Wis., visiting the former's sister and family, the Herbert Vetters, and his parents, the H. O. Bangs.

Thanksgiving holiday guests of the Don Everharts, 537 S. Pine, included the latter's father, H. W. Lindeaman of Columbus, Ohio, their daughter Ellen and two of her College of Wooster classmates, the Misses Mary Stone of Lancaster, Pa., and Lore Petzka, a Fulbright scholar from Vienna, Austria.

Following their Thanksgiving dinner, the Everharts and the guests attended a Chicago Symphony concert, and Saturday evening, went to see "My Fair Lady."

Friday, Mrs. Everhart and Ellen gave a coffee for Miss Stone and Miss Petzka. Guests included Mrs. William Anderson and daughter, Pam, Mrs. James Murphy and daughter, Melody, Mrs. Arthur Wolfinger and daughter, Fern.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Elliot, 418 S. Dryden, entertained at a dinner party Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dufford, former Sacrsdale neighbors, now living in Grand Rapids. Dinner guests included the M. D. Froneys, the J. B. Polings and the Richard Deckers.

During their stay in Arlington Heights, the Duffords are the houseguests of another Scarsdale neighbor, the Richard Deckers.

MR. AND MRS. Newell P. Crockett came from Fort Madison, Iowa last week for a holiday visit with their son and family, the junior Crocketts, 711 E. Fairview. Accompanying them was Mrs. Alvina Jungbluth, also of Fort Madison, who will visit the Kenneth Jungbluths of Scarsdale.

Another holiday visitor at the Crockett home is Scott Arena, a Ripon College student and friend of the Crocketts whose parents are currently living in Paris, France.

Holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Ferguson, 311 S. Windsor, who stayed on through the weekend, were his cousin, the Gale Stokes of Bloomington, Ind., and their children, Karen and John.

Weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Evans, 1223 Woodford, were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herr of Peoria and their son, Tom.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnice Basil, 427 S. Windsor, were hosts at a dinner party Saturday for Mrs. Dorothy Thorton of Cincinnati and her daughter, Janet. During her visit in Arlington Heights, Mrs. Thornton is the houseguest of the Peter McQuillons of Scarsdale, while Janet is staying with the Basils.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harris, 1408 E. Kensington, gave a dinner party Saturday for their three sons and their families. Included in the group were the Terrell Harrises of Champaign, the Michael Harrise's of Chesterton, Ind., and their three children, Tim, Meg and Cathy, and the Patrick Harrises and their daughter, Kim, of Prospect Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dunham, 401 Bristol, and daughter, Sherry, came home Sunday from a 10-day stay visiting relatives in the East.

The trip was planned for an overnight stop just outside Lancaster, Pa., so that they could attend 11 o'clock services at Chestnut Level Presbyterian Church of Quarryville, and surprise the minister, Rev. Richard Dunham, who is a cousin of Mr. Dunham. The church, too, was of interest to the Dunhams, It was built during the Revolutionary War and the area about it is steeped in American history.

From Lancaster, they went on to West Caldwell, N. J., visiting Mrs. Dunham's sister and family, the Joseph Zambones, and then to South Jersey to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Dunham's mother, Mrs. James Dunham.

Before returning home, they spent a day sightseeing in Washington D. C.

The John Lanzillos, 1101 Mayfair, spent the holiday weekend in Louisville with her parents, the J. C. Owens. Mr. Owens came back to Arlington Heights with his daughter for a week's visit.

Why not? You are going to give one to relatives and friends. And, the most precious friend you have is the body you live in.

YOUR BODY OFTEN NEEDS EXTRA HELP.

GIVE YOUR BODY A HEALTH CHECK-UP.
Visit your physician now and let him help you try to prevent possible future sickness. First, he will carefully examine you to see if you have a present serious ailment. The odds are you won't, but if you do, an early diagnosis often almost insures a permanent cure.

Every month

more and more people are moving up to total electric living

The reason? Simple. Electricity is so easy to live with.

With flameless electric heat, for example, each room can have its own thermostat. You can enjoy 80° in the bath, 72° in the living room and 65° in the bedroom. There's no burning fuel, nothing to make dirt . . . walls and furniture stay clean far longer. Come summer, electric air conditioning wrings heat and humidity from the air along with most of the annoying pollens.

Electric cooking takes the flame out of the kitchen. People stay cooler, and pans, walls and curtains stay cleaner. And, because electric heat is controlled heat, it takes the guesswork out of cooking. Foods cooked in an electric oven have a done-to-a-turn flavor that only radiant heat and insulation on all six sides can provide.

Electrically dried clothes come out sweet and fresh because there's no burning fuel to cause an odor. With no pilot light, power ignition or extra cost for tumbler drive, the average family's drying bill comes to only $1.25 a month.* And an electric dryer costs $20 to $40 less to buy.

See how easy it can be to move up to total electric living at your house. Call us for details, today.

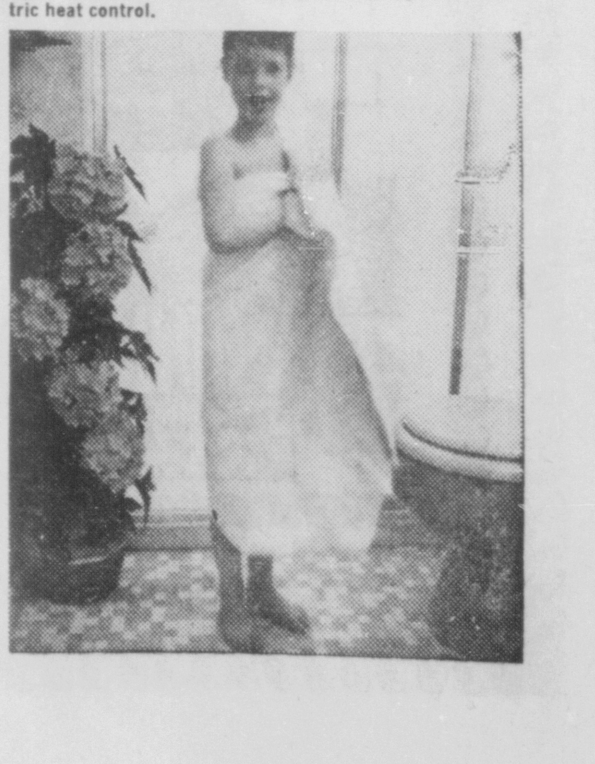
You stay cool, calm and collected with flameless electricity. Precise, automatically controlled cooking, washing and drying—are at your fingertips.

This little lady—and every member of the family—will delight in the comfort that's hers with room-by-room electric heat control.



Student Insurance Reviewed by Board

A major surgical claim which was not allowed by the student accident insurance carriers of High School District 214 has brought a full review and debate of the "limited" insurance coverage carried by the high schools.

The claim for approximately $850 covered the surgical correction of a dislocated shoulder — the fourth dislocation suffered by the student while attending District 214 schools. No claim had been made for the first three dislocations.

The insurance coverage at present does not cover recurrences of injuries suffered prior to the annual effective date of the student accident policy.

The school board Monday agreed to seek a legally binding opinion from the head of the legal department of Guarantee Trust Insurance Co., the school district insurance firm. This would permit the school to carry full insurance coverage for recurring accidents if the student had been "cleared" on the original injury by his physician.

Robert Haeger of the insurance firm confirmed that the exclusion of pre-existing injuries would prevent a student who had an accident in school one year from making a claim for a similar injury the following year. This would not apply to broken bones, he noted.

BOARD MEMBERS were critical of the insurance coverage, stressing a feeling that parents were not aware of the policy limitations even though policies were sent to each home.

Haeger suggested that parents be asked to sign a slip stating they were aware of the policy provisions, particularly the exclusion for pre-existing injuries. Students who did not return such slips could be barred from athletic competition until the slips were signed, he said.

Haeger explained the insurance firm would have to prove a medical connection to a pre-existing condition in order to decline payment. He said the most frequently declined claims were for dislocated shoulders or knees.

BOARD MEMBER Hal Armstrong agreed that shoulders and knees were probably the most frequently re-injured areas, explaining he had six shoulder dislocations during his high school career. He stressed that all of his injuries had been covered by student insurance.

Haeger said that the school board would be penalizing the majority of students with higher insurance premiums if they attempted to give the maximum protection to a few students who might have recurring injuries.

Board members noted that any increase in the football insurance premium — the area where most of the recurring injuries might occur — would be paid by the school board. Students at present pay the total $3.50 for general insurance coverage for all school activities, but students only pay $7 of the total $14 insurance fee for football coverage. (ACM-E

A major surgical claim which was not allowed by the student accident insurance carriers of High School District 214 has brought a full review and debate of the "limited" insurance coverage carried by the high schools.

The claim for approximately $850 covered the surgical correction of a dislocated shoulder — the fourth dislocation suffered by the student while attending District 214 schools. No claim had been made for the first three dislocations.

The insurance coverage at present does not cover recurrences of injuries suffered prior to the annual effective date of the student accident policy.

The school board Monday agreed to seek a legally binding opinion from the head of the legal department of Guarantee Trust Insurance Co., the school district insurance firm. This would permit the school to carry full insurance coverage for recurring accidents if the student had been "cleared" on the original injury by his physician.

Robert Haeger of the insurance firm confirmed that the exclusion of pre-existing injuries would prevent a student who had an accident in school one year from making a claim for a similar injury the following year. This would not apply to broken bones, he noted.

BOARD MEMBERS were critical of the insurance coverage, stressing a feeling that parents were not aware of the policy limitations even though policies were sent to each home.

Haeger suggested that parents be asked to sign a slip stating they were aware of the policy provisions, particularly the exclusion for pre-existing injuries. Students who did not return such slips could be barred from athletic competition until the slips were signed, he said.

Haeger explained the insurance firm would have to prove a medical connection to a pre-existing condition in order to decline payment. He said the most frequently declined claims were for dislocated shoulders or knees.

BOARD MEMBER Hal Armstrong agreed that shoulders and knees were probably the most frequently re-injured areas, explaining he had six shoulder dislocations during his high school career. He stressed that all of his injuries had been covered by student insurance.

Haeger said that the school board would be penalizing the majority of students with higher insurance premiums if they attempted to give the maximum protection to a few students who might have recurring injuries.

Board members noted that any increase in the football insurance premium — the area where most of the recurring injuries might occur — would be paid by the school board. Students at present pay the total $3.50 for general insurance coverage for all school activities, but students only pay $7 of the total $14 insurance fee for football coverage. (ACM-E

No 'Unnecessary Probing'

Educational Testing Acquires 'New Look'

Schools Emphasize Ability, Aptitude

by DAN BAUMANN
Staff Writer

The psychological probing of youngsters seems to have gained general acceptance in northwest suburban school districts, although it has raised a storm of controversy in at least one part of the country.

The controversy arose last summer in a New York suburb, where criticism was directed toward group testing of children to uncover personality problems and to learn their attitudes toward the world around them. A newspaper there warned school officials against "inappropriately or carelessly used" tests and "unnecessary probing into personal attitudes and family matters."

If testing of that sort exists in northwest suburbia, it is rare; in fact some school districts here have actually abandoned group personality and "intelligence" testing as having little value.

FOR EXAMPLE, High School District 214, which operates in suburban Cook County, lists its testing program on three solidly typed pages. Only three of the tests are administered to all students, one of them before the student even reaches high school level.

Those three tests involve pre-high school academic placement, freshman aptitudes and sophomore achievement. "Personality" tests, which used to be administered, are no longer considered helpful, according to W. David Whiteside, coordinator of guidance, testing and research for the district. "They're not really too valid." Likewise, the IQ test is no longer administered.

According to Whiteside, the district does not want to have on its records an IQ score which is regarded as having limited importance but which is generally regarded as an absolute measure of intelligence. Instead, the district seeks to measure ability and aptitude.

THE DISTRICT also lists nine special-interest testing programs, for children interested in college entrance, home economics, physical sciences, job placement, and the like.

Its third category, individual testing, is where psychological tests of the "do you hate your father" type are presented. The testing is done on a referral basis from parents, teachers and even the students themselves.

Usually, a student undergoes this kind of testing—or "evaluation" as some educational psychologists prefer— as the result of a referral by a teacher who feels the pupil's class work or development may be suffering because of personality, intelligence or related problems. In District 214, the teacher refers the problem to the school principal, wo refers it to the testing department. Parents are contacted for their approval before the testing.

WITH STUDENTS where a special education program may become necessary, the "joint agreement" special education staff (which is operated through a joint agreement of two high school and eight grade school districts) is brought into consultation. The tests are administered, and they along with other relevant material are evaluated at a staff conference including all personnel who have worked on the case and a representative of the joint agreement office.

In Elk Grove Elementary District 59, diagnostic-type testing again is limited to individual tests administered by trained psychologists.

"As a general rule," says Staff Psychologist Kenneth Deal, "there is a learning problem of some kind identifiable by the teacher." A staff conference, involving teacher, principal, the director of student services, a psychologist, possibly the school nurse and social worker and someone from the joint agreement office, is held to discuss the student and decide how to handle him. Psychological testing is administered only after the consent of parents.

"IF WE GET a flat refusal," said Deal, "we just don't test. It depends on the situation. If we feel very strongly, then we make a strenuous effort to get the parents to agree. In some cases, the parents may prefer outside testing, and we will agree to this. But we rarely get strong objections."

Deal, too, believes the group personality tests, which have been discontinued in District 59, "have more disadvantages than advantages. They build up too much resentment, and they don't give you that much information."

Deal feels "promiscuous" psychological testing is "undesirable . . . it should be in an individual situation and under the control of a professional psychologist."

IQ TESTS, AND scores, are used by District 59. Deal stresses that "this is only one item, only one little fact, which must be considered in any student."

Psychological testing at a third district—Lake Park High School, in north DuPage County—is treated in a similar manner, according to Ron Rosenthal, director of guidance. Group testing is limited to achievement, interest, aptitude, ability and intelligence.

When a possible psychological problem is isolated—generally by the teacher—it is referred to the DuPage County special education program. The county program administers psychological tests, since Lake Park has no psychologist. The staff conference technique employed at the other districts is also used at Lake Park.

SOME OF THE recommendations which might emanate from a psychological evaluation, Rosenthal said, range from a lightening of the academic load to placement in a special education class to psychiatric treatment, either privately or at mental health clinics in Elgin and Wheaton.

Parental resistance usually is not a problem.

"Many of these parents recognize that a problem exists and are really looking for help for their youngster. And they're happy they are getting it." (A15

SQUARE DANCE CLUB NEWS

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

BUCKS AND DOES

Main topic of conversation at the Elk Grovers' last dance was a bus trip to Crown Point, Ind. made Nov. 21 by 22 Bucks and Does couples. They had almost as much fun talking about it as they did going to Indiana.

Four years ago Bucks and Does made their first Christmas gift collection for patients in the state mental hospital on Irving Park Road in Chicago. At their Christmas dance Dec. 12, club members will again donate "a little something" for those who know so few bright moments, and guests are invited to share the job of giving. Gifts of colorful towels or wash cloths, tooth brushes, tooth paste or soap are most appropriate; care should be taken not to include anything sharp or breakable with which patients might harm themselves.

Christmas party dancing starts at 8 o'clock in Dempster Junior High School with Bob "Ho Ho Ho" Lewis calling his holiday best, and the Carl Petersons leading the rounds. The school is located on Dempster and Elmhurst Roads in Elk Grove Village, and your getting in the Christmas spirit mood will be found there too as you add your gift to the pile. Everybody come!

PLAIDS AND CALICOS

Hoffman Estaters and guests are reminded of the Plaids and Calicos Christmas box social Saturday night (not Friday as reported here in error last week.) Ladies: pack your fanciest supper in the most gaily decorated box and put it up for auction at the club's Christmas party dance. Proceeds of the sale will be given to Little City in Palatine and used there to help make Christmas a bit happier for the little residents of the city.

Dancing will be to the calls of Bob Kim who'll square 'em up at 8:30 in Schaumburg School three-quarters of a mile east of Roselle Road on Schaumburg Road. Kim's Christmas best added to the fun and good-doing of the box social will make this a perfect holiday season event. Be there?

Plaids and Calicos have another special event coming up and although it's not until Jan. 30 they suggest you get your tickets soon. It's their Hawaiian luau and dance to be held in James Conant High School. There'll be more details about it later; for now the thing to do is get your tickets — they are limited. Jackie Belson, 359-1169, will be happy to furnish further information, but call her evenings, please. (A15

Educational Testing Acquires 'New Look'

Schools Emphasize Ability, Aptitude

by DAN BAUMANN
Staff Writer

The psychological probing of youngsters seems to have gained general acceptance in northwest suburban school districts, although it has raised a storm of controversy in at least one part of the country.

The controversy arose last summer in a New York suburb, where criticism was directed toward group testing of children to uncover personality problems and to learn their attitudes toward the world around them. A newspaper there warned school officials against "inappropriately or carelessly used" tests and "unnecessary probing into personal attitudes and family matters."

If testing of that sort exists in northwest suburbia, it is rare; in fact some school districts here have actually abandoned group personality and "intelligence" testing as having little value.

FOR EXAMPLE, High School District 214, which operates in suburban Cook County, lists its testing program on three solidly typed pages. Only three of the tests are administered to all students, one of them before the student even reaches high school level.

Those three tests involve pre-high school academic placement, freshman aptitudes and sophomore achievement. "Personality" tests, which used to be administered, are no longer considered helpful, according to W. David Whiteside, coordinator of guidance, testing and research for the district. "They're not really too valid." Likewise, the IQ test is no longer administered.

According to Whiteside, the district does not want to have on its records an IQ score which is regarded as having limited importance but which is generally regarded as an absolute measure of intelligence. Instead, the district seeks to measure ability and aptitude.

THE DISTRICT also lists nine special-interest testing programs, for children interested in college entrance, home economics, physical sciences, job placement, and the like.

Its third category, individual testing, is where psychological tests of the "do you hate your father" type are presented. The testing is done on a referral basis from parents, teachers and even the students themselves.

Usually, a student undergoes this kind of testing—or "evaluation" as some educational psychologists prefer— as the result of a referral by a teacher who feels the pupil's class work or development may be suffering because of personality, intelligence or related problems. In District 214, the teacher refers the problem to the school principal, wo refers it to the testing department. Parents are contacted for their approval before the testing.

WITH STUDENTS where a special education program may become necessary, the "joint agreement" special education staff (which is operated through a joint agreement of two high school and eight grade school districts) is brought into consultation. The tests are administered, and they along with other relevant material are evaluated at a staff conference including all personnel who have worked on the case and a representative of the joint agreement office.

In Elk Grove Elementary District 59, diagnostic-type testing again is limited to individual tests administered by trained psychologists.

"As a general rule," says Staff Psychologist Kenneth Deal, "there is a learning problem of some kind identifiable by the teacher." A staff conference, involving teacher, principal, the director of student services, a psychologist, possibly the school nurse and social worker and someone from the joint agreement office, is held to discuss the student and decide how to handle him. Psychological testing is administered only after the consent of parents.

"IF WE GET a flat refusal," said Deal, "we just don't test. It depends on the situation. If we feel very strongly, then we make a strenuous effort to get the parents to agree. In some cases, the parents may prefer outside testing, and we will agree to this. But we rarely get strong objections."

Deal, too, believes the group personality tests, which have been discontinued in District 59, "have more disadvantages than advantages. They build up too much resentment, and they don't give you that much information."

Deal feels "promiscuous" psychological testing is "undesirable . . . it should be in an individual situation and under the control of a professional psychologist."

IQ TESTS, AND scores, are used by District 59. Deal stresses that "this is only one item, only one little fact, which must be considered in any student."

Psychological testing at a third district—Lake Park High School, in north DuPage County—is treated in a similar manner, according to Ron Rosenthal, director of guidance. Group testing is limited to achievement, interest, aptitude, ability and intelligence.

When a possible psychological problem is isolated—generally by the teacher—it is referred to the DuPage County special education program. The county program administers psychological tests, since Lake Park has no psychologist. The staff conference technique employed at the other districts is also used at Lake Park.

SOME OF THE recommendations which might emanate from a psychological evaluation, Rosenthal said, range from a lightening of the academic load to placement in a special education class to psychiatric treatment, either privately or at mental health clinics in Elgin and Wheaton.

Parental resistance usually is not a problem.

"Many of these parents recognize that a problem exists and are really looking for help for their youngster. And they're happy they are getting it." (A15

BGA Maintains 'Non-Partisan' Record

Endorsements Not Slated

By T. WILLIAM SWINFORD
Staff Writer

Is the Better Government Association (BGA) truly a non-partisan agency? Or does it endorse Democratic candidates who will win "anyway" and Republicans in close races only?

For answers to these questions, or apparent answers to these questions, Paddock Publications examined the winners of elections in Illinois and Cook County in the 1960, 1962 and 1964 contests as compared with the BGA endorsements.

In the most recent contest, the BGA "won" three endorsements while losing in seven others; in 1962, the BGA won 12 races of those checked and lost two; while in 1960, of those state and county races checked, the BGA scored three wins to six losses.

The association endorsed more than those candidates checked, but for the purposes of this survey only the major county and state offices were used.

THE BGA SENDS out a detailed questionnaire to candidates and follows this up with interviews. In the case of incumbents, the record while in office is delved into.

The results are taken before a board of directors of 26 or 27 individuals and voted on. The endrosements are made as the result of board discussion.

George Mahin is the executive director, and John J. White is president of the board of the non-profit, non-partisan organization.

The top-ranking offices—governor and lieutenant governor, President and Vice President, U. S. Senator—are not endorsed, as the association feels that enough publicity is given those offices that people can conscientiously weigh, consider and decide their vote on those offices.

IN THE RECENT election, the BGA endorsed Republican Elmer J. Hoffman over Democrat Paul Powell for secretary of state and lost.

The association also endorsed incumbent Auditor Michael J. Howlett and incumbent Attorney General William G. Clark and won.

The BGA endorsed W. Russell Arrington, Republican, of the 4th State Senatorial District, which encompasses north and northwest suburbs, in the 1964 and 1960 elections; it won with both endorsements.

The BGA in the past election did not endorse for Cook County State's Attorney but noted that both incumbent Daniel P. Ward, Democrat, and Republican challenger John H. Bickley, were qualified. However, the association noted that Bickley was preferred.

THE ASSOCIATION endorsed Edmund J. Kucharski for Circuit Court Clerk and William T. Osmanski for coroner, both Republicans, and lost both endorsements. Incumbents Andrew J. Toman, Democrat, coroner, and Joseph P. McMahon, Democrat, were elected. It is interesting to note that the BGA endorsed McMahon's, Ward's, and Toman's opponents also in 1960 and lost.

In the 1960 election, the BGA endorsed Kucharski for recorder of deeds, and he was beaten by Sidney R. Olsen, Democrat, who was endorsed in 1964 by the association against Wallace S. Schall, the Republican candidate for the post.

The BGA this year endorsed the Republican ticket in the race for Sanitary District trustee, but lost the endorsement as the Democratic candidates swept the field.

THE 1962 ELECTION found the association endorsing Ray Page, Republican, for the state post of Superintendent of Public Instruction over Democratic incumbent George T. Wilkins. The association also endorsed Mrs. Earle Benjamin Searcy, Republican incumbent, for Clerk of the Supreme Court over Democratic challenger James P. Alexander.

No endorsement was made for other offices, including the race for state treasurer won by William J. Scott, Republican.

In the county races, however, the BGA endorsed Republicans, Richard B. Ogilvie, presently sheriff, Elroy J. Sandquist, who was seeking to upset Thaddeus V. Adesko for county judge; and Walter E. McCarron, against Democrat P. J. Cullerton for county assessor.

The association won only the Ogilvie endorsement.

The BGA in 1962 also endorsed Edward J. Barrett for county clerk; Bernard J. Korzen for county treasurer; John J. Altman for criminal court clerk; Anthony G. Girolami for probate clerk; Robert Jerome Dunne for probate judge; Noble J. Puffer for county school superintendent, and Seymour Simon for president of the county board of supervisors, all Democratic candidates, and won.

ANALYZING THE endorsements and the outcome, the BGA's worst year was 1960, when it endorsed primarily Republican candidates.

Its best year was 1962, when it endorsed primarily Democratic candidates.

Judging from the outcome, the association does not base its endorsements on an obvious outcome or expected result.

Checking into the endorsements finds the Democratic party as well represented as the GOP.

CANDIDATES vie for the BGA endorsement and worrying—sometimes privately—when unsuccessful in their bid.

While Democratic candidates have won with the BGA endorsement given to their opposition, the same cannot be said for a Republican candidate.

In the races in the three elections checked, Republicans who won had the BGA endorsement, while no Republican won with the endorsement awarded to the opposition.

Youth, 19, Charged After Police Chase

An Arlington Heights youth attempted Sunday night to outrun Palatine police in an automobile chase.

The result: the youth smashed his car into a tree at Wood and Oak Streets.

The youth is Elroy B. Castor, 19, of 812 W. Palatine Road.

A Palatine police car was waiting for a red light on Northwest Highway at Chicago Avenue.

Castor on Chicago drove through the intersection at an estimated 45 miles an hour, heading west, police report. They ignored the red light and took after Castor.

ACCORDING to the police, their car was doing 60 to 70 miles an hour and not closing the gap with Castor's car.

They said the youth turned north onto Benton Avenue, then east on Slade, ran a stop sign when he turned onto Oak, and going north on Oak, ran a second stop sign at Wood as he turned west onto that street.

As he turned he lost control and his 1957 car smashed into a tree. Police had to have it towed away.

Castor was arrested on charges of careless driving, disobeying two stop signs, and having fictitious plates on his car.

The plates belonged to the former owner of the car and Castor did not register it in his name, police said.

Furor Continues on Band Appearance for LBJ

129 Sign Petition Opposing Policy

The drums are still vibrating over the Wheeling High School band controversy.

The school band, which played for President Johnson during his Chicago visit three days before the election, has been the object of praise and criticism — seemingly dependent upon the side of the political fence to which the speaker belongs.

Latest in the continuing controversy was the submission of a petition containing 129 names at Monday night's school board meeting. The petition sought to change the school board policy, adopted three weeks ago, which would allow school students or personnel to participate in programs primarily honoring the president, governor, two Illinois senators and the 13th district member of the U. S. House of Representatives.

THE POLICY, as adopted, would permit participation in activities "regardless of political affiliations while they hold office, whether this be during a campaign or at another time."

The petition requested the policy be changed to read "when such dignitaries are on official state visits or fulfilling the duties of the office."

Mrs. W. A. Lewis of 904 S. Elmhurst, Mount Prospect, stressed that a "man can wear two hats" and noted it is "easy to determine" whether a man was acting as a politician or in the capacity of his office. "You can ask who is footing the bill," she said.

MRS. LEWIS acted as chief spokesman for the petitioners and the three other women opposing the new school policy who attended the meeting. The women were Mrs. George Falk of 803 We-Go Trail, Mrs. H. A. Hanson of 500 S. William, and Mrs. J. P. Trottier of 407 S. NaWaTa, all of Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Lewis further suggested that after Labor Day the school band confine its activities to "wakes and weddings" until after the election.

At the discussion three weeks ago when the school board originally adopted the policy in question, it had been stressed that in some instances political campaigning starts before the primary elections and might continue for more than a year before the November election.

Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer strongly opposed changing the adopted policy. He stressed the difficulty in determining whether a man was acting politically or not, noting that the President was always within telephone reach for emergencies and thus always was "on duty."

Board member Frank Smith said he felt it was unfortunate there was so much "hullabaloo" over the band's appearance for the President. He stressed that band parents with strong Republican feelings had approved the band trip.

E. C. LOCKWOOD JR. noted that he supported the wording of the petition and "completely agreed" with the change being sought.

"I would have voted against the policy at first," said board member Earl Thompson, "but after school officials stressed the value to the students and to the school I changed my mind. We must weigh the value to students in place of the value to the community as a whole. The students must come first, and the value to them overshadowed other considerations."

The Wheeling High School Band has been designated the "Presidential Band" and will will display a special flag with this emblem wherever they play. During President Johnson's term of office they will be asked to appear whenever he is in the Chicago area.

PRIOR TO THE band's appearance at O'Hare Field and in Chicago just before the November election, school administration offices and school board members had received as many as 28 individual calls as part of a telephone campaign objecting to the band's appearance.

At the Nov. 9 school board meeting, where the Wheeling band policy was slated for debate, the meeting room was filled with proponents of the band's appearance for President Johnson. At that time only two people spoke in opposition to the proposed policy.

Liquor Gallonage Tax Plan Meets Cool Reception Here

by JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

Any attempt to acquire revenue from liquor retailers on the basis of the gallonage of liquor sold, rather than by license fees, may encounter opposition from the liquor lobby.

The Illinois Liquor Stores Association, Inc. would oppose any move to obtain additional revenue from liquor retailers, said the association's attorney Morton Siegel.

The Illinois Municipal League executive committee is considering presenting a proposal that would allow the municipality to use a gallonage tax on liquor sales rather than the license fee.

THE REASONING behind the proposed change is:

—A gallonage tax would provide more revenue for the municipalities.

—Such a basis of tax would be more equitable since the smaller dealer would not pay the rate of the high volume large retailer. Why should a small retailer pay as large a license fee as the chain store doing great volume business, goes the argument.

—The federal government and the state of Illinois have gallonage tax rates paid at the source.

—Other sources of revenue such as real estate taxes and even gasoline taxes are almost at the greatest limit possible.

—Such a tax would be passed on to the "floating population" such as renters and trailer dwellers.

JOHN J. NOEL, mayor of Mundelein and a member of the Illinois Municipal League's executive committee, explains this is one of many things that the legislative committee is considering to raise more revenue.

Noel is an opponent of any state income tax.

Village officials this week expressed skepticism about the proposal but took a "wait and see" attitude before taking a definite position.

Addison Administrator Dick Jenisch said he would not want the village to have to wait for the money if it were collected by the state and rebated to the village. He also pointed out the state probably would charge a service charge.

Jenisch said the mechanics of the proposal might make it unworkable but he wanted to see it before commenting. Addison received $6,600 in revenue last year from liquor license fees. The village charges $800 for a tavern-bar license and $500 for a package liquor license.

The police department receives the revenue from this source through the general corporate fund.

THE ENFORCEMENT, collection, tax rate, and income derived would be factors Palatine Village Manager Robert Hollander would have to know before he judged the efficacy of this proposal as a revenue maker for villages. The liquor license fees are supposed to be used primarily toward enforcement and administrative costs, he pointed out.

Palatine has four license classifications, varying from $200 to $1,000 for a late 2 a.m. closing time for a liquor establishment. License fees netted the village $8,300 annually last year.

Gordon Jensen, village president of Hanover Park, agreed it is hard to comment on the proposal until it takes more concrete form. He questioned whether the book work and record keeping needed for a gallonage taxing would make the proposal feasible. Policing on a gallonage taxing would be greater, he said.

Hanover Park, which received about $3,100 from license fees, also gets revenue from the sales tax, Jensen pointed out. The village's fees vary from $400 to $1,000.

AN ARLINGTON Heights liquor store manager, Bill Karavidas of Parkway Liquors, 17 E. Campbell St., said the effect on retailers would be determined by the rate and the rate progression for gallonage of liquor sold. He suggested it might lead to unlimited licenses as are permitted in Chicago. This would have a detrimental effect, he said.

Siegel was outspoken in his opposition to a gallonage tax calling it "impractical" and "discriminatory." The proposal must be made by people without understanding of the liquor business as an industry, he said, since 55 per cent of the total price of a fifth of liquor is for state, local, and federal taxes.

"The liquor industry is the most heavily taxed industry, ahead of cigarettes and gasoline," he said. He claimed it was the second largest source of income to the government next to the income tax.

Siegel said the industry has hired economists to explain the problems of discriminatory taxes of this kind. The theory is that the tax will be absorbed and passed on to the consumer. Siegel doesn't see it working in this way after a certain point.

THE TAXES reach a point of diminishing returns where people will not buy, demand decreases, affecting the liquor industry that employs 70,000 people in Illinois, according to Siegel. A cutback will affect the employment of these people and thus the economy of the state, he said.

He said he resented the way those who looked for additional revenue always looked at the liquor industry. Additional revenue must come as a result of revenue reform in Illinois, Siegel believes. (A15

Survival Featured In Museum Exhibit

How the resources of science, technology and government will meet the threat of radioactive fallout is vividly illustrated in the new "Science for Survival" exhibit opening today (Thursday) at Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry, under sponsorship of the Office of Civil Defense, Department of Defense.

The multi-panel walk-through display will remain at the museum for the next year.

A special feature of the exhibit is a five-minute film, "The Protected School," which describes the United High School near Laredo, Tex. The facility, partly underground with its own well and emergency power source, can shelter 2,000 persons.

Participating in ceremonies opening the exhibit today will be Paul K. MacDonald, acting director of the Office of Civil Defense, Region Four, Battle Creek, Mich.; Col. Donovan M. Vance, Illinois Civil Defense director, and other Civil Defense officials. (A15

—Such a basis of tax would be more equitable since the smaller dealer would not pay the rate of the high volume large retailer. Why should a small retailer pay as large a license fee as the chain store doing great volume business, goes the argument.

—The federal government and the state of Illinois have gallonage tax rates paid at the source.

—Other sources of revenue such as real estate taxes and even gasoline taxes are almost at the greatest limit possible.

—Such a tax would be passed on to the "floating population" such as renters and trailer dwellers.

JOHN J. NOEL, mayor of Mundelein and a member of the Illinois Municipal League's executive committee, explains this is one of many things that the legislative committee is considering to raise more revenue.

Noel is an opponent of any state income tax.

Village officials this week expressed skepticism about the proposal but took a "wait and see" attitude before taking a definite position.

Addison Administrator Dick Jenisch said he would not want the village to have to wait for the money if it were collected by the state and rebated to the village. He also pointed out the state probably would charge a service charge.

Jenisch said the mechanics of the proposal might make it unworkable but he wanted to see it before commenting. Addison received $6,600 in revenue last year from liquor license fees. The village charges $800 for a tavern-bar license and $500 for a package liquor license.

The police department receives the revenue from this source through the general corporate fund.

THE ENFORCEMENT, collection, tax rate, and income derived would be factors Palatine Village Manager Robert Hollander would have to know before he judged the efficacy of this proposal as a revenue maker for villages. The liquor license fees are supposed to be used primarily toward enforcement and administrative costs, he pointed out.

Palatine has four license classifications, varying from $200 to $1,000 for a late 2 a.m. closing time for a liquor establishment. License fees netted the village $8,300 annually last year.

Gordon Jensen, village president of Hanover Park, agreed it is hard to comment on the proposal until it takes more concrete form. He questioned whether the book work and record keeping needed for a gallonage taxing would make the proposal feasible. Policing on a gallonage taxing would be greater, he said.

Hanover Park, which received about $3,100 from license fees, also gets revenue from the sales tax, Jensen pointed out. The village's fees vary from $400 to $1,000.

AN ARLINGTON Heights liquor store manager, Bill Karavidas of Parkway Liquors, 17 E. Campbell St., said the effect on retailers would be determined by the rate and the rate progression for gallonage of liquor sold. He suggested it might lead to unlimited licenses as are permitted in Chicago. This would have a detrimental effect, he said.

Siegel was outspoken in his opposition to a gallonage tax calling it "impractical" and "discriminatory." The proposal must be made by people without understanding of the liquor business as an industry, he said, since 55 per cent of the total price of a fifth of liquor is for state, local, and federal taxes.

"The liquor industry is the most heavily taxed industry, ahead of cigarettes and gasoline," he said. He claimed it was the second largest source of income to the government next to the income tax.

Siegel said the industry has hired economists to explain the problems of discriminatory taxes of this kind. The theory is that the tax will be absorbed and passed on to the consumer. Siegel doesn't see it working in this way after a certain point.

THE TAXES reach a point of diminishing returns where people will not buy, demand decreases, affecting the liquor industry that employs 70,000 people in Illinois, according to Siegel. A cutback will affect the employment of these people and thus the economy of the state, he said.

He said he resented the way those who looked for additional revenue always looked at the liquor industry. Additional revenue must come as a result of revenue reform in Illinois, Siegel believes. (A15

Survival Featured In Museum Exhibit

How the resources of science, technology and government will meet the threat of radioactive fallout is vividly illustrated in the new "Science for Survival" exhibit opening today (Thursday) at Chicago's Museum of Science and Industry, under sponsorship of the Office of Civil Defense, Department of Defense.

The multi-panel walk-through display will remain at the museum for the next year.

A special feature of the exhibit is a five-minute film, "The Protected School," which describes the United High School near Laredo, Tex. The facility, partly underground with its own well and emergency power source, can shelter 2,000 persons.

Participating in ceremonies opening the exhibit today will be Paul K. MacDonald, acting director of the Office of Civil Defense, Region Four, Battle Creek, Mich.; Col. Donovan M. Vance, Illinois Civil Defense director, and other Civil Defense officials. (A15

Menotti Opera to Be Sung at Church

AMAHL, THE crippled boy, discovers he can walk without his crutch as his widowed mother watches in amazement. The scene is from "Amahl and the Night Visitors," being presented Dec. 18, 19 and 20 at First Presbyterian Church in Arlington Heights. (B10

"Amahl and the Night Visitors," an opera in one act by Gian-Carlo Menotti, will be presented in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights, Eastman and Dunton Streets, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 18, 19 and 20, at 8 p.m.

Playing the role of Amahl will be Rex Parvin, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parvin, 307 S. Wilke Road, Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Lynn Jessen, 1212 W. Clarendon Road, Arlington Heights, will portray his mother.

Rex, a 7th grade student at South Junior High, had the lead role in last year's school operetta and has appeared locally in song and dance routines with his brother and sister.

MRS. JESSEN holds several degrees in music and has taught voice and music in various schools, including the University of Chicago. A church soloist for eight years, she also has appeared in several Best Off Broadway productions, most recently "Finian's Rainbow" and "Oklahoma."

"Amahl and the Night Visitors," the first opera commissioned especially for television, had its world premiere on NBC Television Theatre Christmas Eve of 1951.

There is no charge for the performances at First Presbyterian, and the public is invited.

MRS. E. F. RICHARDSON of 108 N. Louis, Mount Prospect, carries two frozen turkeys to her shopping cart during a five-minute shopping spree at the National Food Store, 321 W. Kitchen Wrecked By Vandals Vandals created havoc in the kitchen at Recreation Park 500 500 S. Fernandez, Arlington Heights, over last weekend, and police discovered an apparent arson setup in the rubble.

Entry was made through a kitchen window at the south side of the fieldhouse building, according to the police report; and damage was confined to that room.

LOCKS WERE pried off of four cabinet doors, and food and containers were spilled about the floor. Rags and papers pulled to form a wick were found with burned candles on the floor.

According to police report, a maintenance man at the park had reported another attempted break-in and sighting of a group of youths carrying a crowbar and talking of breaking in to Park Supt. Thomas Thornton, but police received no notification of the incidents at the time. (A

Schools to Evaluate Britannica Products

Arlington Heights' School District 25 has been selected as a pre-product test center for Encyclopaedia Britannica Educational Films.

Under this agreement staff members throughout the district will evaluate new educational films, filmstrips, records and other audio-visual aids before they are placed on the general market. These materials will deal with social studies, English, foreign languages, science and other curriculum areas at all grade levels.

Teachers at Park, Wilson and Dunton Schools will be the first evaluators; however, all schools in the district will be included in the program during the year.

IN RETURN FOR the district's service, Encyclopaedia Britannica Films will supply the the finished product evaluated at no cost, or will extend to the district the equivalent retail credit value of the finished product toward the purchase of any item sold by the company.

This arrangement gives the district's teachers and consultants an opportunity to use some of the latest productions in the field of audio-visual lessons, according to Asst. Supt. Robert P. Campbell, and will help to develop critical evaluation ability. (A

13 Months of Work Behind Civic Band's Concert Debut

A year and a month after a small group of musicians met in a Rolling Meadows home to organize a band, the players will present their first major concerts.

The Rolling Meadows Concert Band originated in the mind of Hubert Splichal, 2609 Wilke, Rolling Meadows, long before the October, 1963, night when it was organized.

He sparked the interest of community leaders and spearheaded the drive for members and funds so the city would have a band to lead parades and play at civic functions. To whet interest, he invited officials to listen to an outdoor concert is his back yard that summer of 1963. The Lawndale Boys' Club Concert Band, a nationally known prize-winning group composed of musicians of all ages, organized 30 years ago and directed by John Sovinec, performed.

The concert had the desired effect. Local musicians and interested citizens met at the Splichal home to form a band. George Yingst, instrumental instructor in local schools, offered his services as conductor.

NO TIME was lost and rehearsals commenced Nov. 1, 1963, with 40 musicians from Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights, Elk Grove, Barrington, Wheeling, Mount Prospect and the surrounding countryside in attendance.

The endorsement of city officials gave the band stature in the community.

But moral support wasn't enough to keep the band going. Financial backing was needed and the Chamber of Commerce and Friends of the Library helped out.

Five months later the band made its debut at the Lutheran Home for the Aged in Arlington Heights, playing a concert for the residents.

THERE followed appearances in the city's Memorial Day parade, a concert at the Plum Grove Club, an Independence Day parade and an evening concert in Kimball Hill Park before an audience estimated at 10,000 people, an outdoor concert in the shopping center during Septemberfest and a program for the Kimball Hill PTA.

During the summer the band played a series of concerts under the auspices of the park district, a program that is apt to become an annual affair. Guest artists were invited to add luster to the outdoor musicales, among them Louise Buttenbach, guitarist, and singer; the Meadowspinners baton twirling group; Ludwig Karl Brunner, who plays his zither at area dinner clubs; Kathy Chodora, Illinois state grand champion baton twirler; and a Hungry Five German band composed of regular band members.

Sunday's concerts, at 4 and 7 p.m. in Carl Sandburg School, climax the first year's activities. An early winter concert is expected to become another annual event, and band officials say the unit will be available to play for community and area events on an enlarged scale.

FUTURE PROJECTS include acquisition of uniforms, enlargement of the band library and purchase of more instruments.

Membership in the band is open to anyone in the northwest area who has an instrument and can read music. Rehearsals are held every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Carl Sandburg School in Rolling Meadows.

The Band Boosters Club, recently organized to promote and serve the band, will also welcome new members.

2nd Oxygen Research Grant Given Hospital

A grant of $346,000 has been made for the research program of Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, by The John A. Hartford Foundation, New York.

The grant will be used to continue the hospital's program of hyperbaric (high pressure) oxygen research during the next two years.

This marks the second major grant awarded to Lutheran General by the foundation. In 1962, it presented a grant of $.5 million to provide the equipment and research program in hyperbaric oxygen.

THE JOHN A. Hartford Hyperbaric Oxygen Research and Therapy Center, the largest of its kind in the world, was opened in February of this year. Since then, a continuing program of research has been carried on.

Dr. N. M. Nesset, president of the board of trustees of Lutheran General and Deaconess Hospitals, pointed out a few of the patients who have been treated in the chamber.

—A 37-year-old surgeon whose life was saved after he had contacted gas gangrene. The surgeon has now returned to practice.

— A young man who faced amputation of his foot. After treatment in the chamber only the tips of four toes had to be removed.

—A businessman, flown in from Mexico, who physicians say had contacted gas gangrene in his leg, following a fracture. The man is now on his way to full recovery with no loss of limb.

—A 9-year-old girl, severely injured in an auto accident, who was treated in the chamber after the accident had impaired her circulation.

THE HYPERBARIC oxygen center was dedicated last Feb. 5. It has three large chambers, one for medical treatment, one for surgery and one for recompression and research.

The center has received international attention, having been featured in numerous periodicals including Life, The Saturday Evening Post and Reader's Digest. Features have also been carried by the United States Information Agency and the Voice of America to world-wide audiences, and numerous medical, scientific and trade publications have carried stories.

A steady stream of medical workers from throughout the United States and the world have inspected the facility. Recent visitors have come from Australia, South Africa, Japan, Holland, Mexico and Canada.

Sheriff Asks for 57 More Policemen

17 Intended For N. W. Area

by DAN PRIBILSKI
Staff Writer

Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie hopes to bring the Cook County sheriff's office into the 20th Century by minimum requests in manpower, pay increases and an inter-police department radio system.

His requests are now under consideration by the Cook County Board and the Circuit Court Committee Help.

If Ogilvie gets his way, northwest suburban unincorporated areas can expect increased protection and a better and quicker service.

One can only speculate whether or not the Democrats of the County Board and Circuit Court will approve the requests of Ogilvie, one of the few remaining Republican office holders in Cook County.

Ogilvie has asked for 57 more police officers. His department is operating with 110 officers. He also seeks more bailiffs and office help.

Of the 57 police officers, the northwest suburban area would get 17. They would include seven patrolmen, a sergeant as a vice control supervisor, three field supervisory sergeants, and six desk officers. The six desk officers would release at least six men now used in that capacity.

OGILVIE readily admits that gripes about the sheriff's police protection for this area are valid.

"Patrol duty is almost nonexistent," he commented. "Usually the cars are tied up on assignments."

In the northwest area around Palatine, Schaumburg, and Wheeling, the sheriff has at best two patrol cars operating at one time. Usually it is only one.

If Ogilvie gets his requests for extra officers, he said the following can be expected for north Cook County: eight beats will be provided for midnight to 8 a.m.; 11 beats for 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and 14 beats for 4 p.m. to midnight.

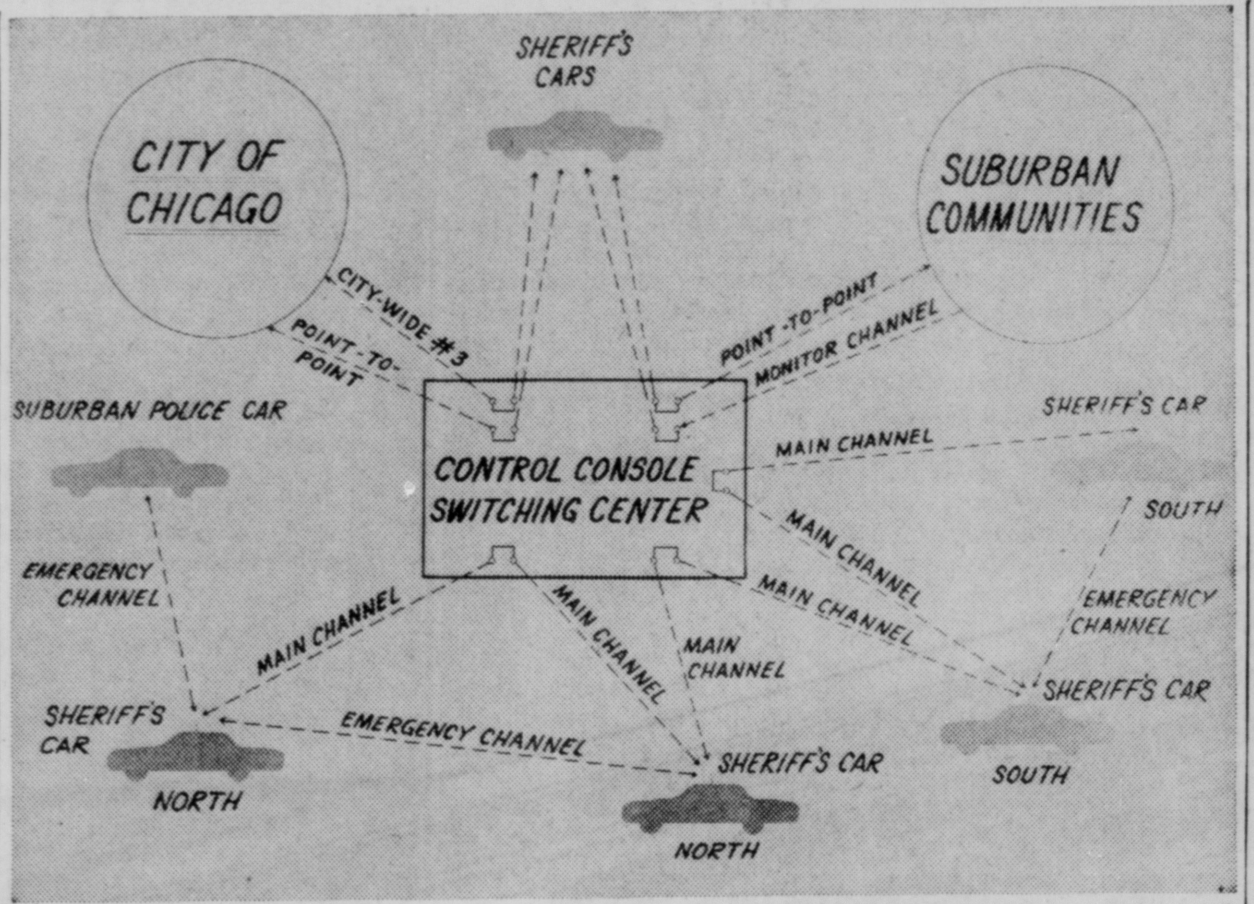
Home owners associations of unincorporated communities are constantly seeing better protection, Ogilvie said.

IN PLUM GROVE Estates, the home owners association has contracted for protection by the Rolling Meadows police. These police are deputized by the sheriff.

"I prefer not to have such a situation," Ogilvie commented. "I'm personally responsible for what they do as deputies."

Unfortunately for Ogilvie's position, the Civic Federation has been critical of the request for increased police officers.

This organization argues unincorporated areas should either incorporate or be annexed by nearby municipalities.



CENTRAL RADIO SYSTEM — Sheriff Ogilvie believes a master radio system such as the one illustrated above is absolutely necessary for efficient police cooperation between departments. It is of particular importance for handling disasters, civil disturbances, or guarding dignataries such as the President of the United States. (B-10

This is unlikely to happen for a long time.

But as Ogilvie said, "If the Committee on Help needed anything to hang a denial on, the Civic Federation's position is it."

THE CIVIC Federation argues that if incorporation or annexation is not accomplished, protection should be provided by the state police.

Ogilvie said his office is the chief county law enforcement agency and not the state. Under the constitution, he is bound to that principle.

However, should the sheriff fail to get the added police officers, he said his office may have to stop handling accident cases.

Accident cases then will be put into a limbo category in unincorporated areas since the state could not handle all of them without county assistance.

At present, the county and state work together and share cases.

SGT. DAVID Pearson of the State Highway Patrol said, "With the present complement of men, it would be impossible for my department to handle the accident cases if the sheriff were to stop handling them."

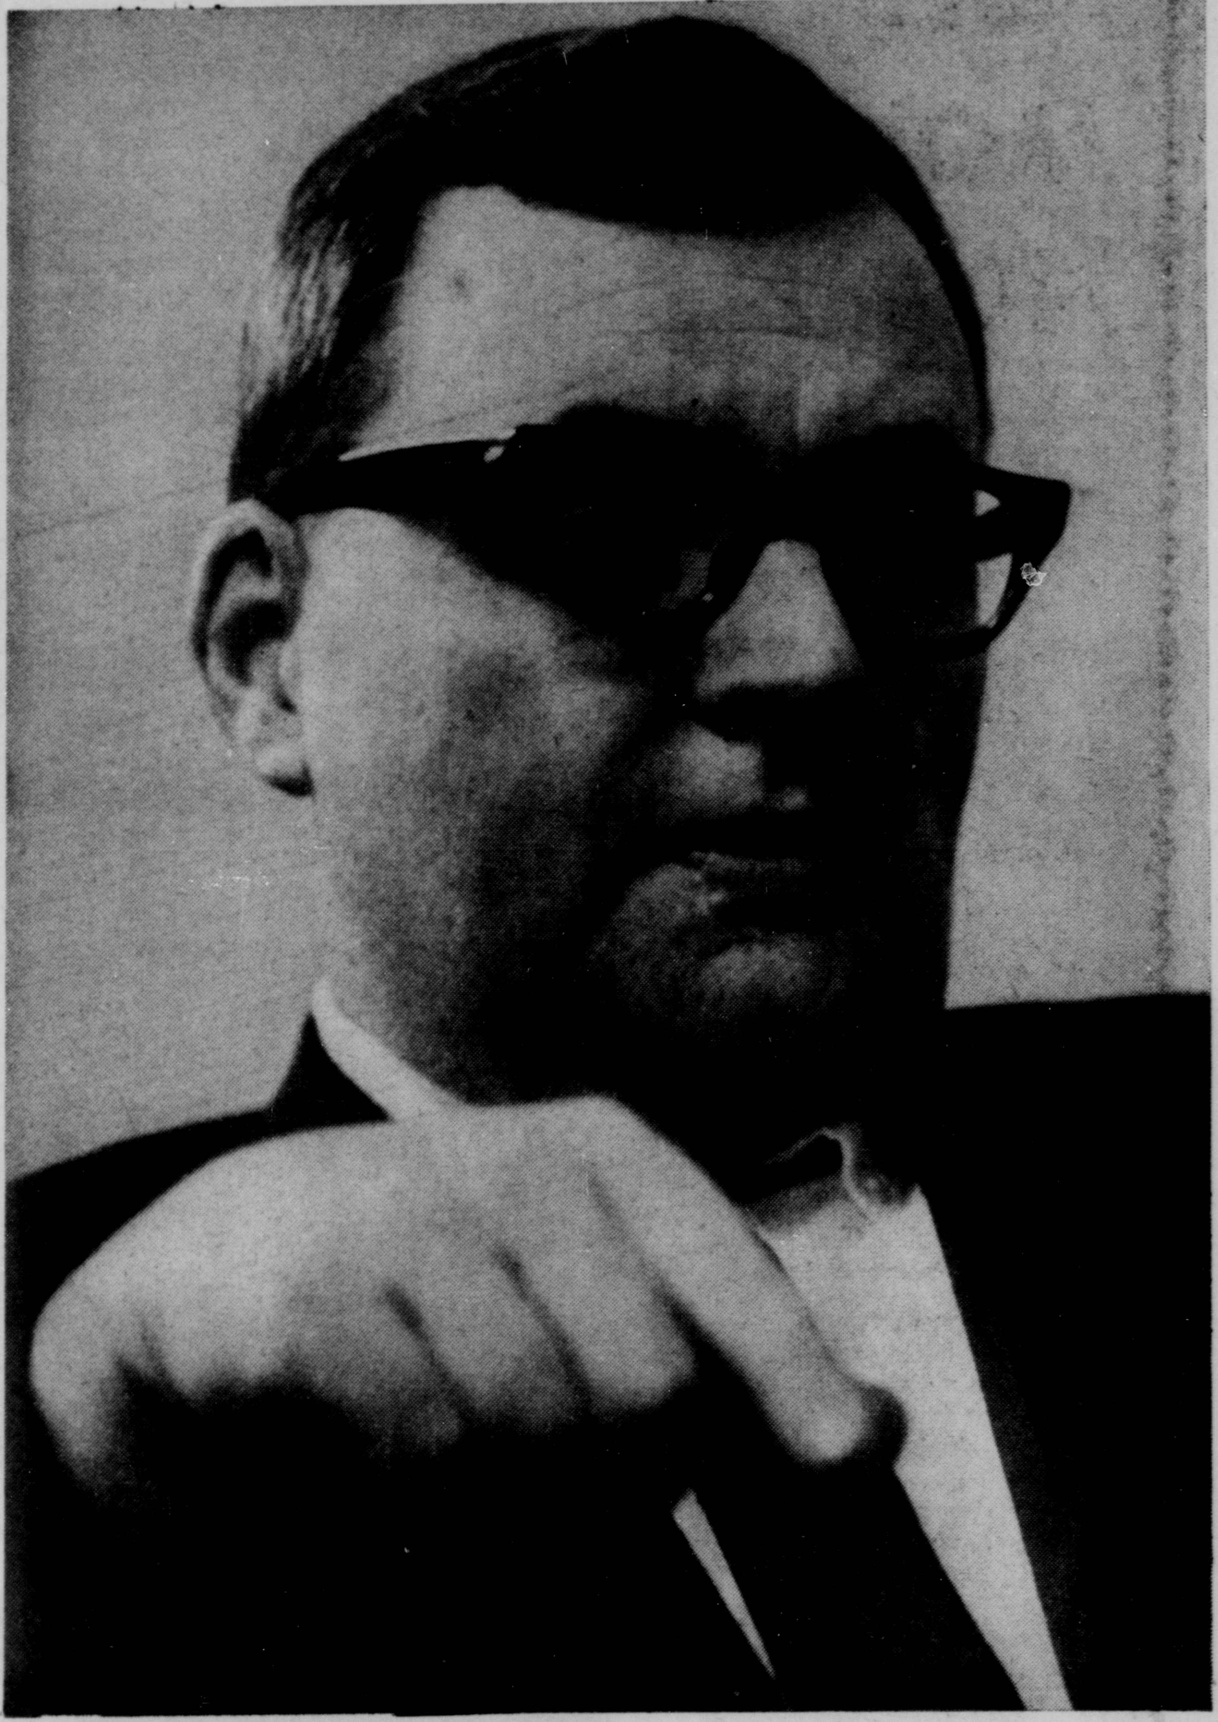
He said a request for more state troopers is pending. If the request is granted, then the state might be able to take on the added burden.

In addition to the police officers, the sheriff seeks 13 civilians to work in the police division, 44 more men for the County Jail and 28 new bailiffs for suburban courts.

The bailiffs would be of particular importance to this area.

At present many northwest suburban village police officers are used for transferring prisoners from the villages to the county and back. The new bailiffs would free suburban police officers from this task which is only partially handled by bailiffs now.

OGILVIE LAMENTS what he calls "meager pay scales" which make it difficult to attract and hold competent police officers.



SHERIFF RICHARD B. OGILVIE: "With the number of police officers I am asking for, the sheriff's office will still only be providing a minimum number of necessary patrols."

"I recently lost two or three officers to the Chicago police department," Ogilvie said, "because the Chicago scale is higher."

As a result of this situation, besides regular in-grade increases, the sheriff seeks additional pay increases for his men in the police division.

"My police officers work 45 to 60 hours a week. They deserve the increases," he commented. Salary increases would represent a 9.7 per cent increase over this year if granted by the county board.

OGILVIE SEEKS a new $150,000 point-to-point radio system which will benefit all police agencies in the county.

Under the present system, for example, an Arlington Heights patrol car, to get county assistance, would have to radio its station, the station would have to contact the county headquarters and then that office would radio the county patrol car. And this round-about method has to be done even when the local car and the sheriff's car are only a block away.

Under the new system, the two patrol cars would be able to communicate directly.

If this system is approved, suburban police would need to spend about $100 a patrol car to equip them with the point-to-point radio device.

Simon Asks Lower Forest Preserve Tax

Seymour Simon, president of the Cook County Forest Preserve District, introduced a resolution at last week's meeting of the Forest Preserve Board calling for a reduction of $206,202.52 or 7½ per cent in the 1964 Forest Preserve District property tax levy for the bond and interest fund.

The levy for this fund, approved last Jan. 17, amounted to $2,731,950. Most of this reduction results from interest earned on the investment of temporarily idle land acquisition funds.

SIMON first instituted the practice of investing idle funds in October 1962. At that time he commented, "I don't believe in idleness, either in funds or employes. I requested the comptroller to put these funds to work for the benefit of Cook County taxpayers."

The $206.202 reduction is almost one-third of the $631,950 interest levied for the bond and interest fund in 1964. Principal levied was $2.1 million.

Yule Party Set Dec. 10 By Realtors

The Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors regular monthly dinner meeting Dec. 10 will be the annual Christmas dinner-dance, to be held at Rolling Green Country Club, Rand Road at Euclid, Arlington Heights.

Those attending the party will be guests of Chicago Federal Savings & Loan Association of Chicago for cocktails from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m., prior to the 7:30 dinner. Entertainment following dinner will be provided by "The Harmonettes," Arlington High School harmony group, with dancing to the music of Del Rene' and his orchestra starting at 9:30 p.m.

FOR PARTICIPATION in the grab-bag, each woman is asked to bring a gift "for her," and each man a gift "for him."

Tickets may be obtained at the board office, 1032 Lee St., Des Plaines.

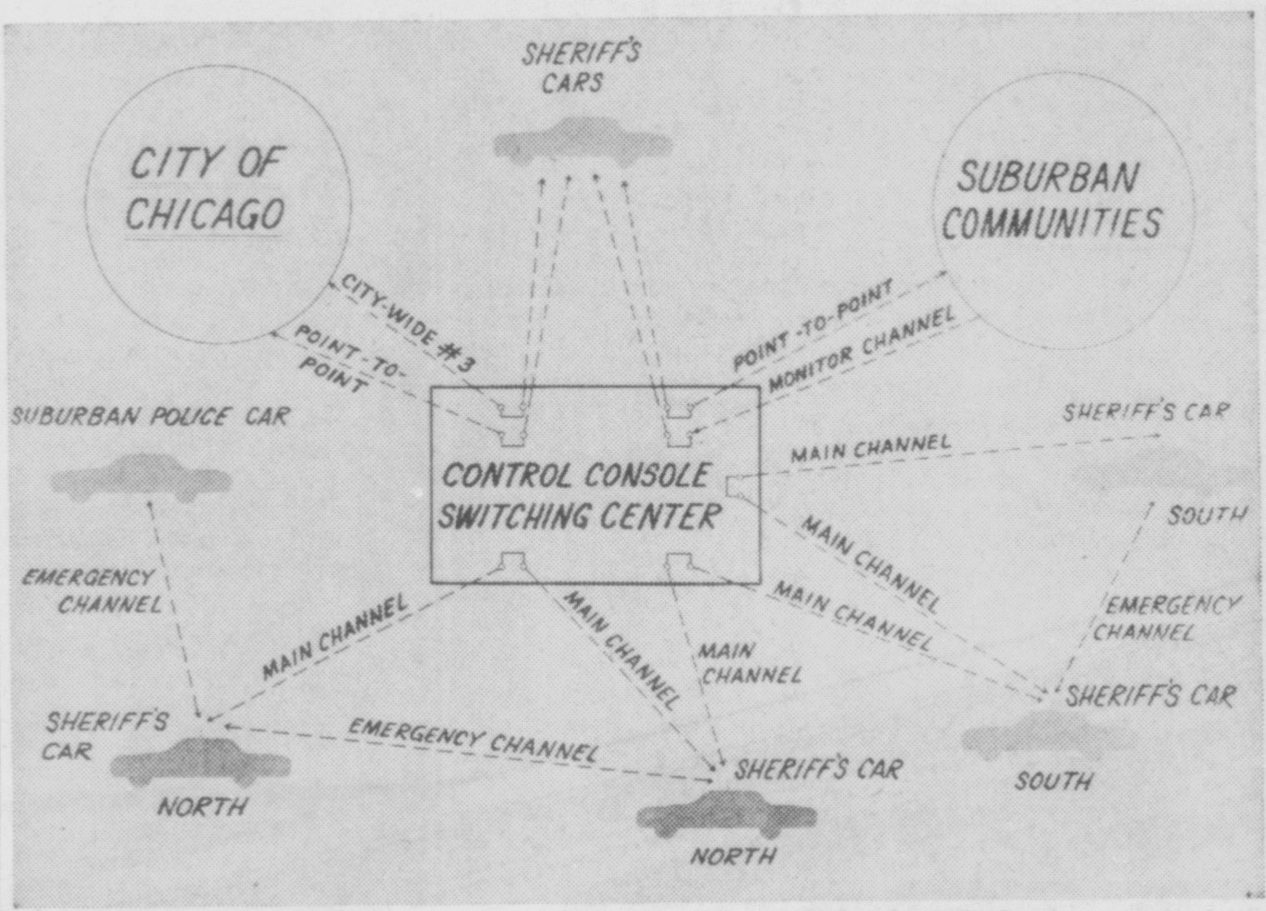
Unfortunately for Ogilvie's position, the Civic Federation has been critical of the request for increased police officers.

This organization argues unincorporated areas should either incorporate or be annexed by nearby municipalities.



CENTRAL RADIO SYSTEM — Sheriff Ogilvie believes a master radio system such as the one illustrated above is absolutely necessary for efficient police cooperation between departments. It is of particular importance for handling disasters, civil disturbances, or guarding dignataries such as the President of the United States. (B-10

This is unlikely to happen for a long time.

But as Ogilvie said, "If the Committee on Help needed anything to hang a denial on, the Civic Federation's position is it."

THE CIVIC Federation argues that if incorporation or annexation is not accomplished, protection should be provided by the state police.

Ogilvie said his office is the chief county law enforcement agency and not the state. Under the constitution, he is bound to that principle.

However, should the sheriff fail to get the added police officers, he said his office may have to stop handling accident cases.

Accident cases then will be put into a limbo category in unincorporated areas since the state could not handle all of them without county assistance.

At present, the county and state work together and share cases.

SGT. DAVID Pearson of the State Highway Patrol said, "With the present complement of men, it would be impossible for my department to handle the accident cases if the sheriff were to stop handling them."

He said a request for more state troopers is pending. If the request is granted, then the state might be able to take on the added burden.

In addition to the police officers, the sheriff seeks 13 civilians to work in the police division, 44 more men for the County Jail and 28 new bailiffs for suburban courts.

The bailiffs would be of particular importance to this area.

At present many northwest suburban village police officers are used for transferring prisoners from the villages to the county and back. The new bailiffs would free suburban police officers from this task which is only partially handled by bailiffs now.

OGILVIE LAMENTS what he calls "meager pay scales" which make it difficult to attract and hold competent police officers.

"I recently lost two or three officers to the Chicago police department," Ogilvie said, "because the Chicago scale is higher."

As a result of this situation, besides regular in-grade increases, the sheriff seeks additional pay increases for his men in the police division.

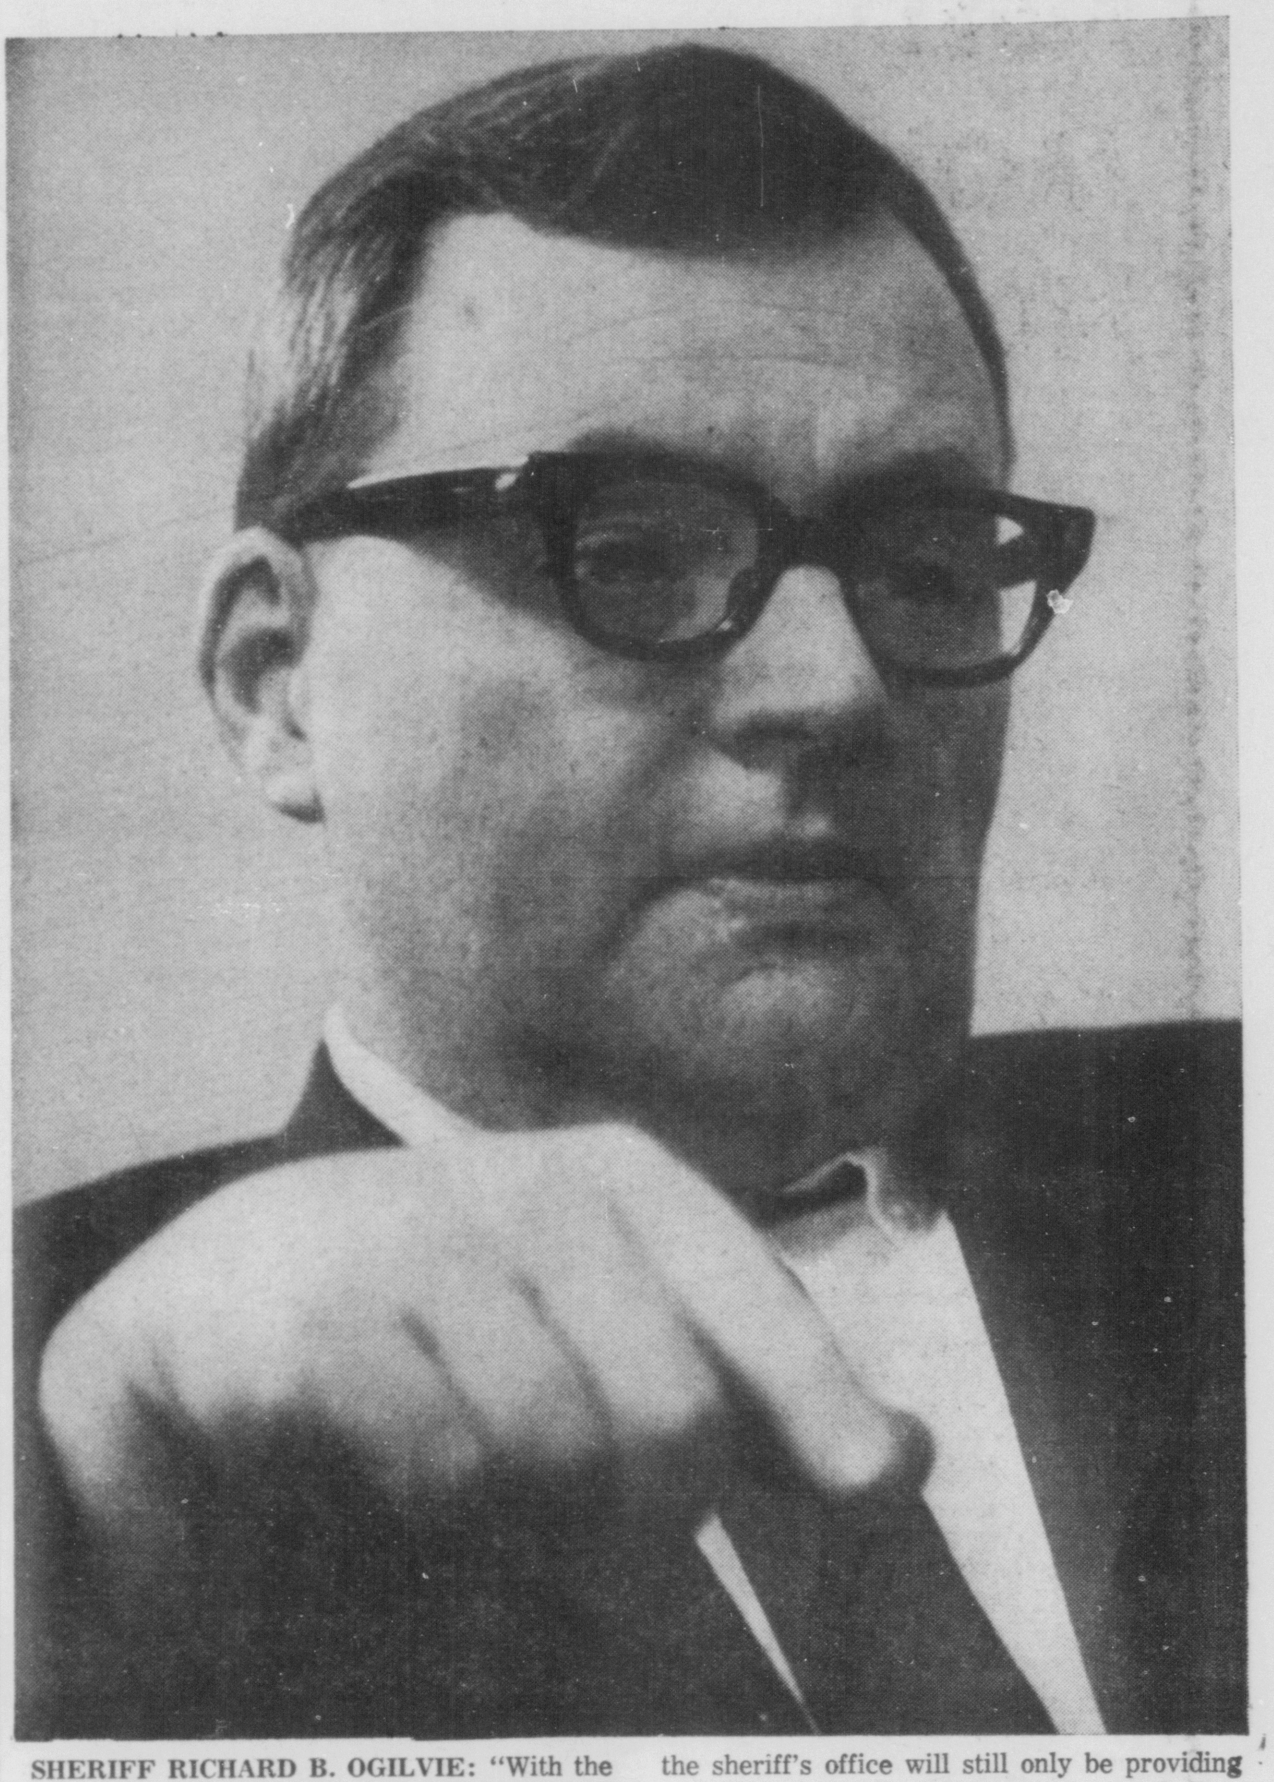
"My police officers work 45 to 60 hours a week. They deserve the increases," he commented. Salary increases would represent a 9.7 per cent increase over this year if granted by the county board.

OGILVIE SEEKS a new $150,000 point-to-point radio system which will benefit all police agencies in the county.

Under the present system, for example, an Arlington Heights patrol car, to get county assistance, would have to radio its station, the station would have to contact the county headquarters and then that office would radio the county patrol car. And this round-about method has to be done even when the local car and the sheriff's car are only a block away.

Under the new system, the two patrol cars would be able to communicate directly.

If this system is approved, suburban police would need to spend about $100 a patrol car to equip them with the point-to-point radio device.



SHERIFF RICHARD B. OGILVIE: "With the number of police officers I am asking for, the sheriff's office will still only be providing a minimum number of necessary patrols."

Simon Asks Lower Forest Preserve Tax

Seymour Simon, president of the Cook County Forest Preserve District, introduced a resolution at last week's meeting of the Forest Preserve Board calling for a reduction of $206,202.52 or 7½ per cent in the 1964 Forest Preserve District property tax levy for the bond and interest fund.

The levy for this fund, approved last Jan. 17, amounted to $2,731,950. Most of this reduction results from interest earned on the investment of temporarily idle land acquisition funds.

SIMON first instituted the practice of investing idle funds in October 1962. At that time he commented, "I don't believe in idleness, either in funds or employes. I requested the comptroller to put these funds to work for the benefit of Cook County taxpayers."

The $206.202 reduction is almost one-third of the $631,950 interest levied for the bond and interest fund in 1964. Principal levied was $2.1 million.

Referendum Legal Fees Are Defended

Two Attorneys Explain Costs

By BEN BURNS
Staff Writer

Raised eyebrows over the seemingly "fat" legal fees lawyers garner from local governing bodies for drafting referendums are unfounded, according to two suburban attorneys.

Both William Redmond of Bensenville, who represents three school districts, and Allyn Franke of Chicago, who represents High School District 214, compared the legal mechanics of drafting a referendum to the work of a skilled physician.

"A doctor's operation in brain surgery might not take any longer, but it can be a good deal more critical," Redmond, who represents Fenton High School and the Bensenville elementary district, said.

Faced with the criticism by laymen that a referendum is pretty much repetition of what has gone before, Franke said, "It is just like asking a doctor if he could perform an operation with his eyes closed because he has done it 10 times before.

"NO, YOU CAN'T copy what has gone before in drafting a referendum. You have judgments to make all along the line. There are problems of boundary changes and precincts that must be set up according to district rules."

Franke said setting up precincts for a school or other referendum "have often proved the most difficult part of the work. There are certain rules of law regarding what can be included and where they have to be," Franke, a member of the firm of Norman, Engelhardt, Zimmerman, Franke and Lauritzen, said.

Franke said this explains why the Illinois Bar Association has set up a series of guideline prices for the charges in referendums. As the size of the referendum gets larger the cost gets higher because of the additional precincts involved and other legal problems.

The Bar Association recommendations indicate a fee of $500 for a bonding referendum of $25,000 or less. A fee of $1,625, plus 1 per cent for the amount of a bond sale over $100,000, and a fee of $5,000 for bond issues of $500,000 to $1 million.

THIS RANGES up to a fee of $7,500 plus .25 per cent of the amount of a bond sale over $1 million. The Bar association also recommends that additional work in hearings before regulatory bodies, litigation, services, licenses, easements or real estate permits should cost $25 an hour more.

Recent bond sales by District 214 and charges for legal fees include $1.950 million sale for Forest View school with fees of $3,460; a $2.5 million sale for Wheeling High School at a legal cost of $5,300 and $2.4 million sale for Wheeling at a cost of $3,960.

The legal fees on the $6 million referendum on Elk Grove school and the sale of $3.3 million in bonds was $5,900, according to Francis Koleman, Director of Business Services for District 214.

FRANKE EXPLAINED why the legal fees for these projects were not so high as the Bar Association suggested prices on bond issues.

"We use that as a starting point," he said. "We normally don't exceed it. Our firm seldom charges the scale. We are expert enough that we can handle at a reasonable fee which is less than the scale. Some of the small firms, however, have to charge the scale in order to make a reasonable profit.

The scale was set up by the Bar Association as a guideline to keep attorneys from undercutting each other.

Lawyers are hemmed in by rules of ethics," said Redmond. "Bargain hunters are considered solicitors and can get in trouble just as persons who overcharge."

Redmond and Franke agreed that most legal business for school referendums is turned over to the legal counsels for the school district.

REDMOND and Franke pointed out that fees are often reduced considerably when school referendum issue fails. "The price then often depends on what the district can afford and whether the attorney will be doing legal work for the district," Redmond said.

"We very definitely reduce them," Franke said. "Basically when a referendum fails we charge on a time basis and try to cover our overhead.

"It works two ways. If we know an issue is coming back we may not make any charge at all for the one that went down. Some we know are not coming back again and we make reduced charges for these, but we can't give our services away."

Redmond pointed out that when a district pays for an attorney to draft a referendum, he is assuming the responsibility that it is right.

"If it goes all the way through with an affirmative vote and then they find there is something wrong with the procedure it is all for naught," Redmond said.

Needless to say, he pointed out, this could be damaging to an attorney's reputation.

Redmond said that some "school administrators feel attorney's have a pretty easy touch, but lawyers statewide have suggested the schedule and are entitled to be compensated for their work."

THE CONNECTION between bonding firms and local attorneys, according to Franke is that the school's legal counsel is out to protect his client, while the bonding firm is out to protect its client—the purchaser.

"We usually have the cost of the bonding firm opinion assessed to the bond customer because he's getting the benefit of the advice," Frank said. The other approach would be to have the school district or governing body pay for the opinion.

Suburbanite Emergency Protection
Personal Accident Policy
ISSUED EXCLUSIVELY TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS AND THEIR FAMILY HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS

- The number of travel accidents is frightening. Practically everyone uses public or private conveyances such as automobiles, trucks, buses, taxis, trains, airplanes, boats and elevators. Pedestrians while walking or standing on public streets and highways are often struck, knocked down or run over by vehicles. Crowded and outmoded streets and highways, speeding, reckless drivers, blowouts and bad weather conditions cause accidents that kill or injure people every minute. If for no other reason, everyone should have protection for travel accidents when you think how much time is spent each day on transportation. At vacation time no one should be without the protection of this policy.
- The entire family should have this protection—man, woman and children.
- Policy will help pay those expenses resulting from bodily injury—whether simple or serious—when accidents strike at home, while traveling, at work, on the farm, at school, or at play.
- Subject to its provisions, the policy includes indemnity for: Loss of Life, from $500 to $10,000; Loss of Limb, $250 to $10,000; Loss of Sight, $175 to $10,000; Total Disability, up to $500, pro-rated on a daily basis; First Aid, up to $5 for non-disabling injury; Ambulance, up to $10 for this service; Hospital, up to $200, pro-rated on a daily basis; X-Ray, up to $10 for injury examination.
- Issued without medical examination.
- No age limits (Specific Loss and Total Disability Indemnities are reduced fifty per cent (50%) when insured is or becomes age 70 or over).
- Pays in addition to other personal accident insurance carried.
- Pays on work accidents that are covered by State Compensation Laws.
- Specific Loss Indemnities increase in value ten per cent (10%) each year during first 5 years of consecutive renewal.
- The policy is issued by Old Republic Life Insurance Company, Chicago, Illinois. Protection begins at NOON on the actual date of issuance of the policy.

"I REMEMBER" BY The Old Timers

From Samantha Barnette, Church Hill, Tenn.: When I was a youngster there were three seasons I liked best, the Spring, fall and Christmas time. Though the seasons have changed quite a bit in the last forty years, as well as other things, I still remember the joy of the first warm days of Spring — how we would knock our toes off on the first rock we came to, but it was fun wading in the creek watching the first wild flowers burst into bloom, and going birch sapping.

Then there was that wonderful time in the early Fall, when the chinquapin bushes were black with chinquapins, there were hazelnuts and chestnuts galore, which we gathered by the bucket full, then there were hickory nuts and walnuts to gather by the sack full, and wild grapes to make jelly.

Then that mysterious happy time about Christmas time, we kids were very good, for Santie Claus was supposed to be around checking up on us, then the joy on Christmas morning, we children always got two toys each, a coconut, a few bunches of grapes, some oranges and candy.

Band Members Sell Candy To Earn Mississippi Trip

Two years of door to door candy selling will pay the way for some 90 concert band members when they leave on Illinois Central's "City of New Orleans" for Jackson, Miss., next spring.

The bi-annual music department tour is scheduled during the spring vacation period so that it does not interfere with scholastic activities, according to Fred Lewis' band director.

The 1962-63 school tour was to New York and the surrounding area.

WHILE IN Jackson, music students will be staying in the King Edward Hotel. Concerts are tentatively planned for Central and Provine High Schools in Jackson, James B. Cooper High School in Vicksburg, and high schools in Clinton and Canton, Miss.

The students' leisure time has been partially planned. A tour of the battlefields of Vicksburg is scheduled, as well as a viewing of a melodrama on the riverboat "Sprague," moored on the back waters of the Mississippi. (Y

Fenton Candidates Seek Foreign Study

Fenton juniors Yvette Chevance and Ingrid Eckland have been selected as candidates to represent the high school in a summer foreign exchange program for study abroad.

The two girls' qualifications will be sent to New York, where a final decision will be made by the American Field Service. The AFS will decide whether one of these girls will be sent to study for a summer in a foreign country.

"Chances are slim," reported Linda Eckland, chairman of the student council foreign exchange program, "but if one of these girls is selected, this will be the first year that Fenton will be represented in a foreign exchange program."

The decision by the AFS will be made sometime in March.

Avoid the use of such expressions as, "Let's don't tell him," and "Don't let's go." Instead, say, "Let's NOT tell him," and "Let's NOT go."

Do not say, "The sentry fled away from his post." Since "flee" means to run AWAY, say, "The sentry fled from his post."

Arlington Debaters Win Tourney Cup

Arlington High School varsity debaters last weekend won the second place trophy at the Tri-State Invitational Debate Tournament at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Competing against some 109 pairs, Arlington's Bob Roth and Fred Green lost only the final bout of 10 matches.

Green was adjudged the meet's second place speaker (out of 218) entries) and Roth took fourth place honors.

THE GREEN - ROTH team was one of three undefeated pairs surviving the preliminaries.

Arlington's second entry of Lee Keenan and Randy Blaisdell won five out of six preliminary matches and entered the finals only to be beaten by their fellow classmates.

Both teams were awarded certificates of excellence.

Winner of the tournament was a pair from an Indiana high school.

Arlington debate coach is Wayne Wagner. (Y

Forest View Senior Earns Citizenship

"I can't begin to tell everyone how proud I am." These are the words of Forest View High School student Anita Rolf, speaking about her newly earned citizenship.

Anita became a citizen of the United States Tuesday, Nov. 17.

Born in Germany, she and her family moved to Quebec in 1954 when Anita was eight years old. Miss Rolf was put back to the first grade because she couldn't speak English. Looking back she said, "I soon mastered this problem, but it was quite difficult using sign language to get things across to people."

IN 1957 the Rolf family decided to move from Quebec to Ottawa, Ontario, where they lived until 1959. May 17, 1959, the family drove across the bridge at Niagara Falls to live in the United States. Within the last five years, the Rolf family has lived in Kentucky, Ohio, Wisconsin, and Illinois.

When asked about the procedures in earning United States citizenship, Anita answered, "In my opinion, it took way too long. There were so many information forms to fill out, and hours spent at the Immigration and Naturalization Bureau. But as I stood in the courtroom in front of the Stars and Stripes, I felt it was all worthwhile."

Anita said that her one regret from all her travels is that she has such a short time to get to know her new friends. A senior, she only has seven more months at Forest View.

Miss Rolf said that she is proud to be a student at Forest View but much more, "I am proud to be a citizen of such a great nation." (Y

Student director Peg Castle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Castle, 86 Evergreen, Elk Grove Village, said that the odd title gives a clue to the theme of the show which is traditionally kept a secret.

Ideal Senior Girl Sought

A search for the ideal high school senior girls of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Palatine is under way, according to A. M. Linderman, a director of the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant and Scholarship Foundation.

Any senior girl 16 through 18 years old who attends a public or parochial high school in the areas is eligible for the Northwest Suburban Junior Miss Pageant, to be held in mid-December.

A meeting of prospective candidates was held Tuesday (Dec. 1) at 7:30 p.m. in the Northwest Suburban YMCA, 300 E. Northwest Highway, Des Plaines.

"ENTRANCE requirements of the Pageant are quite simple," said Linderman, an Arlington Heights attorney. "The only prerequisites are (1) the candidates should be in the upper 25 per cent of their class, and (2) they must complete a questionnaire, which may be obtained at the pageant offices in the Princeton House (1314 N. Northwest Hwy.)"

Winning will be considerable more difficult. "This is not a beauty contest," Linderman said, "though poise and appearance will be considered by the judges. The principal areas of consideration are scholastic achievement, mental alertness, creative and performing ability and youth fitness.

"The high standards of this competition have made Junior Miss pageants a tradition in more than 2,000 American communities and, like its goals, the ultimate rewards are worth seeking.

"THE GIRLS who become the Junior Miss of Arlington, Mount Prospect and Palatine advance to the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant Jan. 22-24 in Oak Park where they will have an opportunity to compete for a college scholarship prize and the right to represent the state in the America's Junior Miss Pageant next March.

"More than $150,000 in scholarships are awarded annually to Junior Miss winners, and $14,000 in educational grants are provided to the outstanding state winners in Mobile, Ala., site of the national finals.

The scholarships are provided by the Eastman Kodak Co., the Eastman Chemical Co., and the John H. Breck Co., national sponsors of America's Junior Miss Pageant.

Further information on the program may be obtained by telephoning Linderman at pageant headquarters, CL 5-3316.

Area Students At Education Meeting

Six area students attended the sixth annual statewide high school conference on special education recently in Alton.

They were Carole Benson, 1082 Carswell, Elk Grove; Diane Hamparian, 907 S. Edwards, Mount Prospect; Diane Lindskoog, 700 S. Ioka, Mount Prospect; Peggy Allen, 409 S. Yale, Arlington Heights; Cheryl Snider, 1908 E. Jonquil Terrace, Arlington Heights; and Linda Steinbroker, 103 Garden Lane, Prospect Heights.

Greetings from Governor Otto Kerner read as the conference opened noted the benefits to be derived from the "modern techniques constantly being evolved from dedicated research."

He also stated that those who enter the field of special education "will provide invaluable service to your society, at the same time finding a rewarding career for yourself."

VERNON FRAZEE, state director of special education, stressed the need for teachers and other special education personnel to help make the lives of handicapped persons more meaningful and satisfying.

Approximately 200 high school students from throughout the state spent the two days exploring special education as a possible career in teaching.

There was opportunity for the students to visit exhibits, take part in laboratory and discussion sessions, observe classes in the various fields of special education and to talk with teachers, nurses, psychologists and others in the field of special education.

Cramped Quarters

Only 7 per cent of houses in the U.S. had 8 or more rooms when the 1960 census was taken. Median number of rooms in all housing units was 4.9.

Prospect Students Win English Awards

Prospect High School has two NCTE Achievement Awards winners this year.

Susan J. Knechtel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Knechtel, 218 S. We-Go Tr., and Adrienne L. Kulieke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kulieke, 409 N. Elmhurst, were notified that they had been selected. There are 24 winners in the state of Illinois.

The National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Awards Program was developed as a way of selecting outstanding high school English students in each state. They are awarded certificates of commendation and are recommended to colleges and universities as candidates for scholarship aid.

EACH HIGH school in the United States nominates its best English students enrolled as juniors. This year over 6,800 students were nominated for NCTE Awards. Each state's winners and runners-up are limited according to population.

Judges received from each student a nomination blank giving biographical data, three compositions, results of standardized tests, and two supporting letters from a teacher and an administrator. Judges in teams of two considered these materials and voted on the best candidates.

As a nonprofit organization, NCTE has no funds to award scholarships. It believes, however, that the students named in this group are among the most able English students in the nation's 1965 graduating classes and deserve consideration for scholarship assistance.

To help college directors of admissions identify these promising academic students, each finalist is entitled to attach to his application for admission an NCTE card identifying him as a finalist in the 1964 Achievement Awards Program.

PHS Instructor Is Test Aide

Donald Fyfe, Prospect High School's head of the English-Fine Arts Division, will go to Princeton, New Jersey, December 9-13, as a reader for the December College Board English Composition Test.

The reading sessions will be held at the Nassau and Palmer Inns at Princeton. A normal day of reading begins at 8:30 a.m. and concludes at 5 p.m.

This December, the reading will be considerably larger in size than it has been in the past. The chief reader is Philip Burnham, from St. Paul's School. His assistants will be Frank Bliss, Davidson College; and Paul Cubeta, Middlebury College.

Fyfe is looking forward to the experience of being a reader. He feels, "This will give me the opportunity to meet readers from all over the nation and to see writing samples from students in other parts of the country. This experience should prove invaluable since most of our students take College Boards."

Ideal Senior Girl Sought

A search for the ideal high school senior girls of Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect and Palatine is under way, according to A. M. Linderman, a director of the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant and Scholarship Foundation.

Any senior girl 16 through 18 years old who attends a public or parochial high school in the areas is eligible for the Northwest Suburban Junior Miss Pageant, to be held in mid-December.

A meeting of prospective candidates was held Tuesday (Dec. 1) at 7:30 p.m. in the Northwest Suburban YMCA, 300 E. Northwest Highway, Des Plaines.

"ENTRANCE requirements of the Pageant are quite simple," said Linderman, an Arlington Heights attorney. "The only prerequisites are (1) the candidates should be in the upper 25 per cent of their class, and (2) they must complete a questionnaire, which may be obtained at the pageant offices in the Princeton House (1314 N. Northwest Hwy.)"

Winning will be considerable more difficult. "This is not a beauty contest," Linderman said, "though poise and appearance will be considered by the judges. The principal areas of consideration are scholastic achievement, mental alertness, creative and performing ability and youth fitness.

'Honors' Study Hall Awards Privileges

by JAYNE DeWILDE

Highlights Staff Member

A new approach to study procedures is being tested at Forest View High School.

An "honors" study hall for seniors is running "successfully" one hour each day, according to Richard Stanowski, director of guidance.

This teacher-less study hall is governed by a board of five elected by students.

THE PURPOSE of the study hall, according to Stanowski, is "To run a study hall in a relaxed atmosphere where the students themselves take all responsibility."

Students have made their own rules. Talking is permitted as long as it does not interfere with other students' studying. There are assigned seats, but students are free to move about.

Passes out of the hall are issued by the student leaders, who have the right to say "yes" or "no."

STUDENTS violating the privileges of the "honors" group will be transferred to a regular study hall.

Stanowski hopes that the new study hall will encourage self-discipline that will be carried over to college next year.

The elected members of the board are Linda Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold, 8 Audrey Lane, Mount Prospect; Bob Kohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kohn, 923 Tower, Mount Prospect; Nancy Ide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ide, 303 W. Man Awa, Mount Prospect.

Denise McCoy, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Merl McCoy, 400 Dara James Road, Des Plaines; and Chuck Schult, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schult, 808 S. Ioka, Mount Prospect. (Y

FOREST VIEW seniors are testing a new "honors" study hall, monitored by fellow students and offering special privileges in exchange for self-discipline.

'Honors' Study Hall Awards Privileges

by JAYNE DeWILDE

Highlights Staff Member

A new approach to study procedures is being tested at Forest View High School.

An "honors" study hall for seniors is running "successfully" one hour each day, according to Richard Stanowski, director of guidance.

This teacher-less study hall is governed by a board of five elected by students.

THE PURPOSE of the study hall, according to Stanowski, is "To run a study hall in a relaxed atmosphere where the students themselves take all responsibility."

Students have made their own rules. Talking is permitted as long as it does not interfere with other students' studying. There are assigned seats, but students are free to move about.

Passes out of the hall are issued by the student leaders, who have the right to say "yes" or "no."

STUDENTS violating the privileges of the "honors" group will be transferred to a regular study hall.

Stanowski hopes that the new study hall will encourage self-discipline that will be carried over to college next year.

The elected members of the board are Linda Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arnold, 8 Audrey Lane, Mount Prospect; Bob Kohn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kohn, 923 Tower, Mount Prospect; Nancy Ide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Ide, 303 W. Man Awa, Mount Prospect.

Denise McCoy, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Merl McCoy, 400 Dara James Road, Des Plaines; and Chuck Schult, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schult, 808 S. Ioka, Mount Prospect. (Y

FOREST VIEW seniors are testing a new "honors" study hall, monitored by fellow students and offering special privileges in exchange for self-discipline.

Explains Purpose, Program Of Conservation Districts

by ELMER E. OFFERMAN Soil Conservationist

The North Cook County Soil and Water Conservation District is the one central source of help and information on soil and water conservation matters in north Cook County. This assistance has been available since 1951 when property owners in the area organized a soil and water conservation district under Illinois state law.

The purpose of this district is to work with individual property owners, helping them receive information and assistance, such as soil survey; planning and application of practices; ponds, wildlife plantings — trees and shrubs; erosion control practices — contour farming, terraces, minimum tillage and crop rotations.

Each district in the United States has an individual program and plan of operations which fits the area. The objective or goal of districts is the best use of each and every acre of land and the protection of all land from erosion.

SOIL AND water conservation districts are governed by a board of directors. Those men serving the North Cook County Board are Frank Wellney of Barrington, chairman; Ferris Gaskill of Barrington, secretary-treasurer; Richard Krause and William Brough, both of Barrington, and Keith Chidley of Palatine.

Chairman Wollney points out that the district can coordinate community efforts in soil and water conservation. The opportunity to assist in watershed projects for flood prevention and water management will receive more attention in the future.

The technical assistance to carry out the objectives and plans of the district is available from the Soil Conservation Service Office in Lake Zurich. Conservationists are available to work with owners and operators in establishing soil and water conservation projects.

The Lake County District has pioneered in the development of a soil and water conservation program which has special application in urban areas. This assistance has included soil survey information which has been interpreted into meaningful information that can be used by urban planners, zoning officials, developers and others who are interested in the future of their local community. This information has proven useful in avoiding many mistakes which are related to our soil and water resources.

THIS URBAN facet of the program has received nationwide recognition. An entire issue of Soil and Water Conservation Magazine has been devoted to this subject on how the information is used in the Chicago metropolitan area.

The district recognizes the importance of water management in the Chicago metropolitan area, and more and more emphasis of the district program will be placed on this phase.

The Illinois soil and water conservation districts are the legal sponsors of Public Law 566 which was passed for the purpose of watershed protection and flood prevention. This is an instrument that can be used by local people in solving water management problems on a watershed basis.

One of the unique features of soil and water conservation districts is that they have no taxing power. They are supported by gifts, grants and state funds, which are designated for specific needs. They are organized locally, administered locally and controlled locally.

FOR MORE information on soil and water conservation districts and how they can help, write to Box 186, Lake Zurich, or phone GE 8-1281.

The office has available a copy of the December issue of the Soil and Water Conservation Magazine, which discusses the urban assistance program, and a bulletin entitled "Soil and Water Conservation Districts — What They Are, and How They Work," which we will be glad to send upon request.

GOP Teams In Annual Grid Clash

The "Crushers," semi-official football team of Wheeling Township Regular Republican Organization, met the "Marauders" of Elk Grove Township Regular Republican Organization on Thanksgiving morning for the annual grid contest.

The giants of the playing field fought to a scoreless tie in what "coaches" Carl Hansen and Tom Houser described as a "fierce defensive struggle."

HANSEN USED John Bickley, GOP candidate for state's attorney, as a "sleeper" back until John "fell asleep." Houser countered with scat-back Dick Cowen, who "scooted up and down the field for a yardage total of minus-10."

The respective coaches agreed it was "an exciting event" and would be repeated next Thanksgiving "provided they are, by that time, recovered."

OFTEN MISUSED

Ad Campaign To Be Told

A new nationwide campaign on mental retardation to be conducted by The Advertising Council, Inc., will be outlined at a regional meeting of the Illinois Council for Mentally Retarded Children at the Southwest School, 5644 S. Oakley Ave., Chicago, at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 5.

Mrs. Charles Schwartz, managing director, Midwest Division, The Advertising Council, will report to representatives from 19 council member associations on how the campaign will be conducted through newspaper and magazine advertising; posters, car cards and billboards; radio and television announcements, and literature and information aids. She will display ad samples and discuss how community associations for the retarded can coordinate their efforts with the project.

Countryside Association for Retarded Children, Palatine, is among member groups invited to attend, and the Clearbrook Association for Retarded Children, Rolling Meadows, a nonmember, is expected to send a representative. (B10

Towns Show Individuality in Yule Trimmings

They Set Fast Pace for Santa

by HOWARD HARMENING
Staff Writer

If variety is the spice of life, then it's also the spice of the Yule season as the northwest suburbs primp and parade before Father Christmas.

Decorations, for example, range all the way from animated doll-houses to three-foot illuminated plastic trees.

Comunities also show a difference in timing, with some having their decorations up before Thanksgiving while others are still trying to formulate plans.

Even Santa Claus is cutting it thin Saturday, when he and Mrs. Claus ride in a parade in both Hoffman Estates' shopping centers at 9 a.m.

Luckily the parade is expected to last an hour, according to Frank Vaccaro, president of the Merchants' Association, because Santa alone is then expected in Arlington Heights at 10 a.m. for his official entry there.

SANTA'S harried pace is somehow typical this year of what others are experiencing. Although the Wheeling shopping center has already been decorated, the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce is trying to get the rest of the village into its Christmas finery.

George Sommerfield, representing the Wheeling Chamber, said the executive council met Wednesday (too late for the results to be known by Paddock Publications with representatives from service organizations to see if an estimated $1,300 cost could be shared jointly.

Roselle, too, is awaiting the formulation of plans, according to the Chamber of Commerce there. However, Roselle tentatively expects to decorate its business area in sections.

Arlington Heights, meanwhile, began its decorating Monday by putting some donated trees on Northwest Highway to serve as a backdrop for a manger scene.

THE ARLINGTON Heights Chamber of Commerce will also place other trees about the village, with the public works department locating and decorating the trees, approximately 10 in all.

The village's public work department will also put up garlands in the area. Total cost of decorating is $1,800, with a hoped-for contribution of $700 from businessmen, professional people and various organizations, according to the Chamber.

Santa will travel on a fire truck Saturday in Arlington Heights for two hours before going into the "Santa Claus Hut" at the fountain area of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan at noon.

The day of his arrival, Santa will be in the hut until 4 p.m. and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. every day after that until Christmas Eve.

Randhurst Shopping Center at Mount Prospect saw Santa arrive Friday and he's taken up residence there in the Montgomery Ward area from 9:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. six days a week.

RANDHURST HAS also located 11 animated doll houses throughout the mall that depict portions of the Christmas story. A gold sphere under the dome takes the place of a Christmas tree.

Other decorations at Randhurst include 20-foot trees over the entrance, 250 strings of Italian lights in the planter beds on the mall and 33 8½-foot trees throughout the mall.

Each pole in the parking lot is also decorated with a Santa's head, a candle and tree. Inside, there are 12 illuminated snowflakes, 8 feet in diameter, affixed to the giant support columns in the center of the building.

Paul Dasso, a representative of the Randhurst Corp., estimated the expenditure in "the neighborhood of $30,000."

The Mount Prospect Chamber of Commerce, meanwhile, is decorating the poles on the main streets of the downtown area and will decorate a live, 25-foot evergreen at Northwest Highway and Main Street.

THE CHAMBER and the Lions Club will jointly install a manger scene at Main and Prospect Avenue.

Santa arrives Saturday, Dec. 12, in Rolling Meadows and will go through the residential area in a fire truck at 10 a.m. before taking up residence at his house in the shopping center at 1 p.m.

Santa will be at his house from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekends and weekdays from 2-5 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m.

The Rolling Meadows Shopping Center Association will install Italian lights in trees between the parking lot and Kirchoff Road.

An artificial tree will be outlined on the sign in lights, while white lights will outline the roof and canopy lines.

A SANTA pulled by his reindeer will be mounted on the canopy, according to the association, while a nativity scene will be intalled near Santa's house.

In Hoffman Estates, every service organization is experted to be represented in the Claus parade Saturday. Hot chocolate and doughnuts will be served free to adult spectators, while children will get candy canes and balloons.

Peter Rabbit and Pumpkin Head from Santa's Village at Dundee will join the parade, along with 20 clowns and two elves, Winken and Blinken.

Santa and his helper will be located in the Jewel and National Food stores every Saturday until Dec. 20, when they'll be there every day from noon until closing, according to the Merchants' Association.

Decorations, estimated at a cost of $2,000, will include three-foot illuminated plastic trees on the canopies, along with lights and garlands on the canopies.

THE LIGHT poles in the parking lot will be decorated with garlands and ornaments 8 inches in diameter.

The Lions Club in Elk Grove set Santa's official entry day for Wednesday, but no details were available before press time.

The Park & Shop Businessman's Association, however, is decorating the parking lot and buildings in Christmas greens, along with lights.

In Bensenville, the Chamber of Commerce will install a community tree, according to reports, but each section will handle its own decorating.

FOIL-COVERED stars with Italian lights are being hung from poles on Main and Addison Streets, according to Mrs. Grace Capodagli, chairman of the decorating committee, at a nominal cost.

The Main-Addison Streets committee saved costs by having the stars built at a local manufacturing plant, Mrs. Capodagli said.

Santa, who officially arrived Sunday, will be located at the Village Toy Center, owned by Mrs. Capodagli.

When Santa is expected to be at the store, his arrival will be announced in advertising and a sign posted in the window.

Another Bensenville area committee saved money by a do-it-yourself project. Last year, the Center Street committee built its own trees. This year, the trees are to be used again.

"We're putting another $200 into it," said George Wilkinson, chairman of the committee. "We're putting on plastic evergreen instead of natural. We were quite successful last year and should be more so this year."

LIGHTS ARE mounted on the trees and they were to have been installed Sunday, hanging 13 or 14 feet off the ground from poles.

The Bensenville shopping center will put Sputnik lights on lamp posts, with 1-foot garlands stretching from post to post.

An artificial forest is to be built on the roof, using lights on flag poles to outline the trees. Illuminated angels are also to be put on the roof.

In Wood Dale, the Junior Women's Club will decorate the Milwaukee Road train station with wreaths and candles.

With all the decorations to be outside, the women will also put lights around the depot, which has recently received a new coat of gray paint and new white shutters.

THE WOMEN'S Club, which leases the station from the railroad, will also locate a tree in front of the depot, along with a group of illuminated carolers.

The tree is expected to be decorated by Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, using their own ornaments, according to the women's club.

In Addison, the Women's Club, along with the Garden Club, will also have a hand in the decorating, with the Women's Club to install a tree on the cul-de-sac at Lake Street and Army Trail Road.

The Garden Club, meanwhile, will decorate the train station on Lake Street which was recently leased from the Illinois Central, according to Richard Jenisch, village administrator.

GREEN MEADOWS Shopping Center in Addison, however, suffered a setback in its plans for decoration when the firm the bssmen's aosseusn5i decoration when the firm the businessmen's association had been dealing with didn't show up after Thanksgiving.

The center, however, will ultimately have a toyland scene on the canopy along with a Santa and sled atop the center section. A simple garland without lights will be installed in the parking lot, with a Star of Bethlehem to be located on the main sign.

Santa, who arrived Saturday in a convertible, will stroll through the center from now until Christmas in the evenings and all day Saturday, distributing candy.

According to reports, Santa got lost and asked children on Addison residential streets Saturday where Green Meadows was because he had to be there by 11 a.m.

But, there's even a sadder tale than that of a lost Santa this year. In Hoffman Estates Village Hall, there are boarded-up fireplaces in the council chambers and the village clerk's office.

"I'm sure Santa Claus couldn't get down the chimney," said one village official, adding they probably wouldn't even bother to hang stockings. (A15

RANDHURST SHOPPING CENTER at Mount Prospect spent approximately $30,000 to outfit its area for the Yule season. Among the decorations have been the installation of a Santa's head, Christmas tree and candle on each light-pole, as pictured above.

Towns Show Individuality in Yule Trimmings

They Set Fast Pace for Santa

by HOWARD HARMENING
Staff Writer

If variety is the spice of life, then it's also the spice of the Yule season as the northwest suburbs primp and parade before Father Christmas.

Decorations, for example, range all the way from animated doll-houses to three-foot illuminated plastic trees.

Comunities also show a difference in timing, with some having their decorations up before Thanksgiving while others are still trying to formulate plans.

Even Santa Claus is cutting it thin Saturday, when he and Mrs. Claus ride in a parade in both Hoffman Estates' shopping centers at 9 a.m.

Luckily the parade is expected to last an hour, according to Frank Vaccaro, president of the Merchants' Association, because Santa alone is then expected in Arlington Heights at 10 a.m. for his official entry there.

SANTA'S harried pace is somehow typical this year of what others are experiencing. Although the Wheeling shopping center has already been decorated, the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce is trying to get the rest of the village into its Christmas finery.

George Sommerfield, representing the Wheeling Chamber, said the executive council met Wednesday (too late for the results to be known by Paddock Publications with representatives from service organizations to see if an estimated $1,300 cost could be shared jointly.

Roselle, too, is awaiting the formulation of plans, according to the Chamber of Commerce there. However, Roselle tentatively expects to decorate its business area in sections.

Arlington Heights, meanwhile, began its decorating Monday by putting some donated trees on Northwest Highway to serve as a backdrop for a manger scene.

THE ARLINGTON Heights Chamber of Commerce will also place other trees about the village, with the public works department locating and decorating the trees, approximately 10 in all.

The village's public work department will also put up garlands in the area. Total cost of decorating is $1,800, with a hoped-for contribution of $700 from businessmen, professional people and various organizations, according to the Chamber.

Santa will travel on a fire truck Saturday in Arlington Heights for two hours before going into the "Santa Claus Hut" at the fountain area of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan at noon.

The day of his arrival, Santa will be in the hut until 4 p.m. and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. every day after that until Christmas Eve.

Randhurst Shopping Center at Mount Prospect saw Santa arrive Friday and he's taken up residence there in the Montgomery Ward area from 9:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. six days a week.

RANDHURST HAS also located 11 animated doll houses throughout the mall that depict portions of the Christmas story. A gold sphere under the dome takes the place of a Christmas tree.

Other decorations at Randhurst include 20-foot trees over the entrance, 250 strings of Italian lights in the planter beds on the mall and 33 8½-foot trees throughout the mall.

Each pole in the parking lot is also decorated with a Santa's head, a candle and tree. Inside, there are 12 illuminated snowflakes, 8 feet in diameter, affixed to the giant support columns in the center of the building.

Paul Dasso, a representative of the Randhurst Corp., estimated the expenditure in "the neighborhood of $30,000."

The Mount Prospect Chamber of Commerce, meanwhile, is decorating the poles on the main streets of the downtown area and will decorate a live, 25-foot evergreen at Northwest Highway and Main Street.

THE CHAMBER and the Lions Club will jointly install a manger scene at Main and Prospect Avenue.

Santa arrives Saturday, Dec. 12, in Rolling Meadows and will go through the residential area in a fire truck at 10 a.m. before taking up residence at his house in the shopping center at 1 p.m.

Santa will be at his house from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. weekends and weekdays from 2-5 p.m. and from 7-9 p.m.

The Rolling Meadows Shopping Center Association will install Italian lights in trees between the parking lot and Kirchoff Road.

An artificial tree will be outlined on the sign in lights, while white lights will outline the roof and canopy lines.

A SANTA pulled by his reindeer will be mounted on the canopy, according to the association, while a nativity scene will be intalled near Santa's house.

Teaching Expands With TV

Closed circuit television is being used extensively this year in Hgih School District 214's four high schools: Arlington, Forest View, Wheeling and Prospect. It was introduced last year on an experimental basis.

Each school now has three Norelco television cameras and eight Zenith receivers, two of which will receive UHF (ultra high frequency) channels as well as VHF (very high frequency) channels.

The receivers now are used predominantly for the closed circuit systems in the schools, although they may be used for conventional educational TV programs.

Each camera comes equipped with zoom (close-up) lenses plus other types of close-up lenses.

Cost for each school's equipment is $5,942.55.

WITH THIS equipment, students not only "perform" before the cameras but also participate as spectators in many unusual learning situations otherwise unavailable to them.

Here, with audio visual students operating the cameras, are typical examples of how closed circuit television has been used in different areas:

In a biology class, a dissection took place in one room. Not only did students in that classroom see the dissection, but those in two other rooms (each room with two receivers) witnessed it via closed circuit television.

Similar dissections were conducted in a zoology class. This time a camera was focused on the vital organs and later on charts and blackboards.

A business education instructor showed the intricacies of cleaning a typewriter. With one camera and two receiving sets, each student heard and saw what the teacher was doing.

AN ART teacher demonstrated very intricate work in jewelry making, and a machine shop teacher gave a demonstration of precision milling.

An electricity class instructor using the television equipment was able to magnify for his students the size of electrical components.

A drafting teacher taught layout work with the equipment. He focused the camera on the drawing table as his students followed his verbal instructions. The camera reproduced the drawing and its details faithfully.

In mathematics one instructor conducted a demonstration with students sitting in three classrooms. In English visible demonstrations by groups and individual students in speech situations are under way.

Demonstration and radio speaking experiments are done in speech classes. Journalism classes work on television newscasting.

INITIAL REACTIONS of most students to the new teaching device were very favorable. Now the novelty has worn off, teachers are experimenting with student help in exploring methods of using the equipment in other ways.

According to L. S. Jenness, principal of Forest View High School, "If this medium becomes generalized, then it would be our responsibility to see to it that virtually every student has some instruction in its use. One can never tell in this day and age when he might have to make use of these facilities."

"This medium will improve the aspects of visible education. Its greatest use eventually will be to spread the effects of good teaching. One way would be that beginning teachers would share the techniques and knowledge of experienced teachers in a form of in-service training," he added.

JENNESS explained "Both the Board of Education and the administration can see the day when District 214 will be operating eight to 10 high schools. Then highly qualified teachers may be extremely difficult to find. This medium can then be a training ground, thus reducing the problem of the numbers involved."

As an example of teacher training, he said, hookups among the various buildings could make it possible for effective in-service training, with one teacher as "television teacher."

A county in Maryland using closed circuit television in foreign languages, history, mathematics and science has gathered data which indicates students have performed better scholastically with this method than with other conventional methods of teaching the same areas. Also, the research shows this method proved to be more economical than the conventional method.

Not only will the four high schools be able to receive conventional television shows with this equipment, but they eventually will be able to participate in the federal government's MPATI (Midwest Program of Airborne Television Instruction) program, serving a number of area schools.

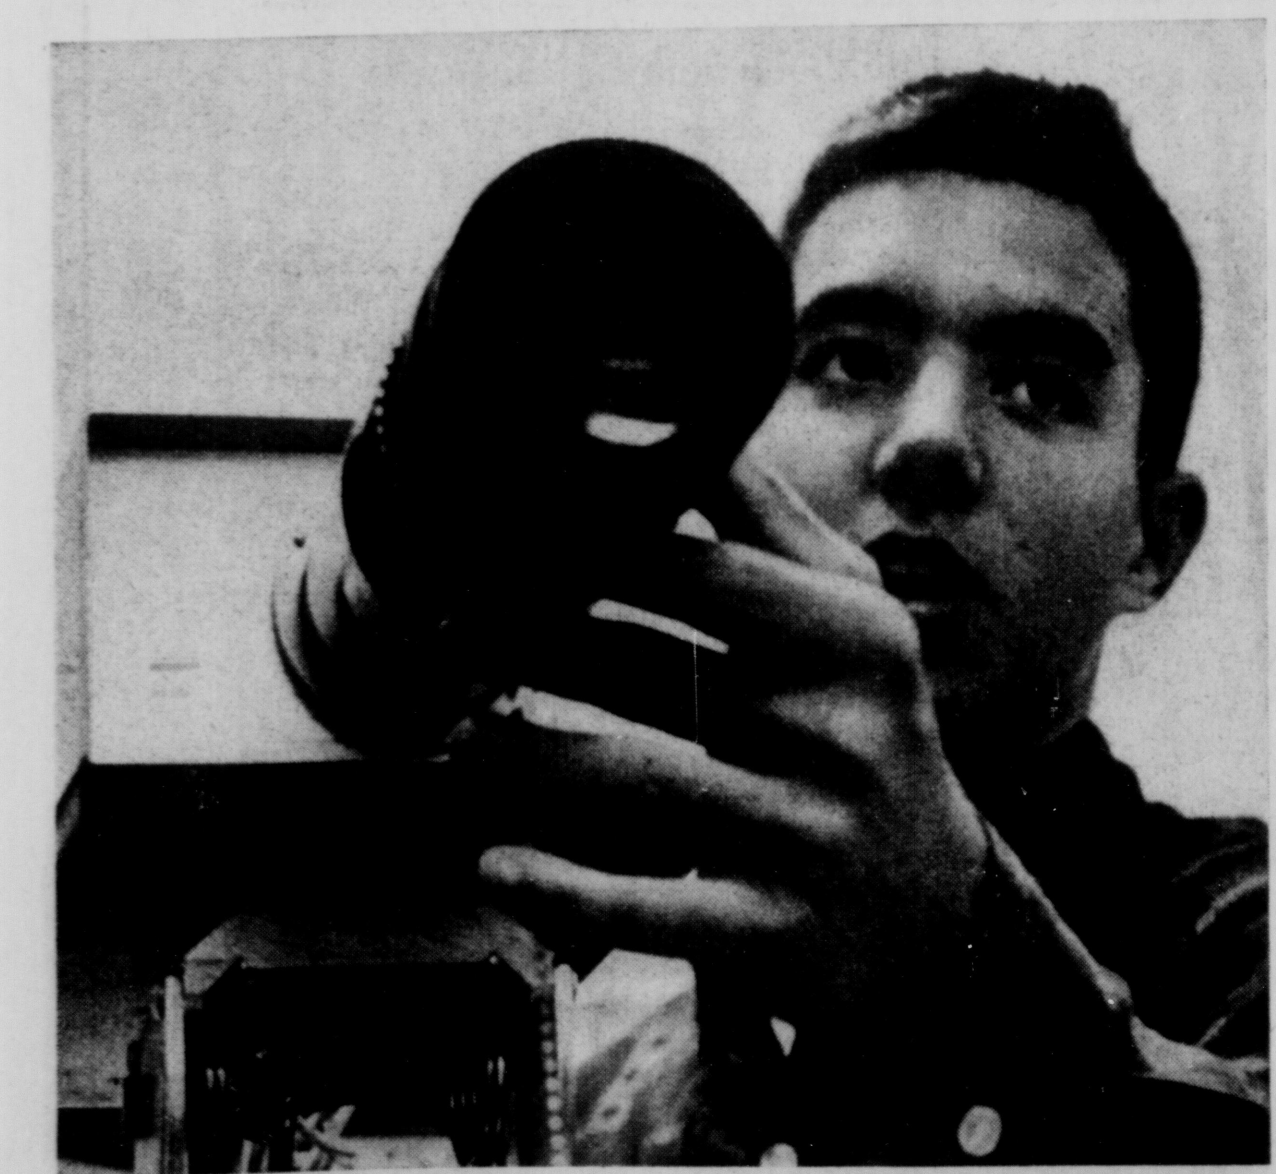
SPEECH TECHNIQUES can be perfected with the use of television. Forest View speech student Don Runion reads a poem for the closed circuit camera. Other possible speech areas for this medium include demonstrations by individual students and drama production.

IN THE MATHEMATICS AREA, instructor John Sanborn demonstrates how closed circuit television can be used to illustrate new math techniques. The television receiver, at right, zooms in on his hands in a close-up.



AUDIO-VISUAL CAMERAMAN Dennis Barfuss makes an adjustment on the camera mechanism. He and other A-V students received their training as camera operators from Arthur Hanke, A-V director. The boys first started their training last year.

Ordinance No. 298

TRAILERS AND TRAILER CAMPS

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ROLLING MEADOWS, ILLINOIS:

SECTION ONE: Chapter 19, "Trailers and Trailer Camps," also known as Ordinance No. 52 of the Municipal Code of the City of Rolling Meadows, Illinois, and all subsequent amendments thereto are hereby repealed in their entirety.

SECTION TWO: Definitions:

a. House-car Trailer: Shall mean any structure for or used for, living or sleeping purposes mounted upon wheels and capable of being transported from place to place, either by its own power or by some vehicle attached to it; provided however, that this definition shall not apply to any vehicle operated over fixed rails, but shall apply to a bus converted to a camping vehicle.

b. Trailer Camp: Is a plot of ground where any house-car trailer, with or without wheels, used as living or sleeping quarters may be located, regardless of whether or not a charge is made for such accommodations.

c. Car Trailer: Is any structure mounted upon wheels and capable of being transported from place to place and designed for the purpose of carrying or transporting anything when attached to a powered vehicle.

SECTION THREE: Trailer Camps Prohibited: It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to establish, maintain, or operate any plot of ground as a trailer camp for human habitation within the corporate limits of the City of Rolling Meadows.

SECTION FOUR: Removal of Wheels: It shall be unlawful for any person to remove the wheels or other transporting device from any house-car trailer or car trailer, or to otherwise fix the house-car trailer or car trailer permanently to the ground as to prevent ready removal of the trailer.

SECTION FIVE: Storage Restrictions: It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep, maintain, or store any house-car trailer or car trailer on any realty property within the City of Rolling Meadows which is zoned as residential property under the Zoning Ordinances of the City of Rolling Meadows, except as hereinafter provided:

a. The house-car trailer or car trailer is kept or stored within a garage type building which is constructed and maintained in conformity with the City Building Code and other applicable ordinances, and further provided that it is not used for human habitation.

b. A one or two wheel folding camping type car trailer not exceeding seven (7) feet in length (excluding tongue) and four (4) feet in height (excluding wheels) and not used for human habitation and in a folded closed condition may be kept on property zoned residentially.

c. The house-car trailer or car trailer may be kept or stored on real property for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days by applying for and receiving a permit from the Police Department for a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00). The permit issued hereunder may not be re-issued or renewed for a period of one year from the date of the original issuance of said permit. The permit issued to allow the above use shall apply to any lot, block or parcel of land and not to any individual, firm, person or corporation claiming ownership or right of possession or use of said land.

SECTION SIX: Any person, firm or corporation found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for each such offense. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

High School Libraries Drop Old Restrictions

Some Still Ban Faulkner Works

by TOM EDWARDS
Staff Writer

William Faulkner may well be the foremost of America's Nobel Prize winning authors, but you may not be able to find any of his works on the shelves of some area high school libraries.

His works are "not included in the Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries put out by the H. W. Wilson Co., one librarian explained. (Actually, a few have recently been included.)

But nevertheless an "open book" policy seems to be the trend in area high school library development in recent years, according to accounts of librarians and administrators.

A "trend" because it apparently is a change from some previous conservative practices of area high school librarians, all of whom have practically sole charge of selecting the book's to be purchased for their school libraries.

The change may be due to changes in what is being discussed in classrooms as well as a more open minded attitude of librarians. For all of the librarians contacted in the Arlington, Palatine, Lake Park and Fenton High School Districts said their first concern in ordering books is to meet the needs of the school curriculum.

PERHAPS, HOWEVER, the change in both the classroom and libraries simply reflects a greater sophistication of modern society and a greater respect for the intellect and maturity of high school students.

Besides just meeting classroom needs, librarians indicated they are attempting to also provide "materials presenting all points of view on the issues of our times" (as it is stated in a just completed draft of a proposed policy statement for Arlington High School District 214).

Books for the extracurricular reading of students, those not specifically requested by teachers, are chosen on the basis of literary merit. Almost the sole criteria of merit are book reviews, the librarians said. "A book has to have favorable reviews before I will order it," was a typical statement.

District 214 is the first of the four school districts to attempt to draft a written policy on selection and exclusion of library materials. All rely on the descretion of their individual librarians to stock their respective libraries.

The American Library Association, however, has drafted a "Library Bill of Rights" and the American Association of School Librarians has adopted and supplemented the ALA statement.

Most area librarians indicated they are deliberately seeking some controversial reading material for their libraries. Practically all boast an "extensive" collection of works on racial integration and other related sociological problems. Lake Park High subscribes to "Ebony," a Negro magazine.

Controversy creates and stimulates thought and interest among students, said Lake Park Librarian George Toussaint.

But as recently as last year The New Republic and The Nation were excluded from one District 214 library as too liberal.

The works of Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner were also practically excluded from this library. Only work of Hemingway stocked was "Old Man and the Sea."

WHEELING HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARIAN Charles Adams had the task this year of preparing a nearly complete library for the opening of the new high school. Over the summer about 11,000 books were catalogued. A two-year budget of about $65,000 has been allocated by District 214. Goal by next year is about 14,000 books. (Staff photo)

WORKS OF Faulkner apparently are still subjected to heavy screening by many librarians, with his milder and more historical novels being chosen. Several area high school libraries almost if not entirely exclude Faulkner.

Most libraries had some representative works on contemporary politics and practically all had books on communism.

Books purchased on communism are practically all written from the American point of view, one librarian said. Such books should "show our reason (for our system), and of course, show how much better ours is," was the explanation.

The Lake Park High library includes the collection published in this country of the writings of Mao Tse Tung, Librarian Toussaint noted.

But if local school libraries lack opposing points of view on communism, so do they also on the subject of Negro rights. That is, a militant defense of Southern apartheid is hardly likely to be purchased.

This logically leaves high schools open to criticism of of stocking only points of view deemed correct by book reviewers.

Out of the fiction field, high school libraries have evidently stocked little in the way of foreign publications. Although about half of the area libraries subscribe to 100 or more magazines (the rest about 85), none subscribed to any periodicals published in other English speaking countries.

Several of the schools subscribe to magazine "U.S.S.R" approved under a culture exchange agreement between the United States and Russia, although at least two confine it to Russian language and sociology classes.

Foreign language periodicals are sometimes subscribed to for use in language classes.

ALL LIBRARIANS indicated they try to include representative works on the various religions and at least one treatise on each of the religions of the world. From two to four periodicals published by religious organizations were included among magazines in all the libraries.

A past common practice, it was reported, was to put certain books "behind the counter," to be given students only upon the written request of an instructor. Included have been such books as Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath," Huxley's "Brave New World," and Joyce's "Ulysses."

At Forest View High School, Mrs. Donna Marris has what she calls a "senior reading room," a room containing books which only may be read by seniors without written permission of an instructor. Books on sex and dating are restricted to sociology classes, she said.

At Fremd High School in Palatine there is an "honors" table" with material for honor roll students only.

Otherwise the general philosophy in the area seems to be to put practically everything on open shelves available to all students.

Charles Adams, Wheeling High School librarian, explained that he feels books exist to meet human needs, and the need for its information can't be categorized by age or bent.

Further, he is opposed to asking "embarrassing questions of youngsters when they check out a book."

Exceptions sometimes to the open book philosophy are books on automobiles. They are quite likely to be stolen. Expensive coin and stamp collecting books are also often kept behind the desk.

Sex is one area in which "we tend to be a little conservative," one librarian noted. ("Ann Landers Speaks to Teenagers" is one book regarding sex that may be stocked.) Another said students can get material school libraries don't stock "from the public library" and other places.

FOREST VIEW High has a special bookstore in which 300 to 400 paperback book titles are kept for students to buy. Principal Larry Jenness said many of these books are current popular ones, particularly those which are of such a temporary nature that it would be uneconomical for the school to purchase them for its permanent collection.

Book reviews on which the librarians said they mainly depend are from: The Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries, The Book List of the American Library Association, The Book Review Digest, the School Library Journal, Saturday Review, New York Times,

Adams commented that he prefers those publications which have their reviews signed by the writer. He also noted that some reviewing publications review only those books that they recommend rather than all books.

Arlington District 214 high schools have close to 15,000 books for each of four high schools, with hopes of going as high as 30,000 in the future. Lake Park High has about 14,000 volumes and hopes to reach 20,000 in the not too distant future.

Fenton High and the three Palatine District 211 high schools have about 7,000 to 8,000 volumes per school, with no present plans of increasing this number. Fenton High has about 8,000 volumes.

Use of the library at Lake Park High is further stimulated by "once-a-month "faculty forums," Toussaint said. Members of the faculty discuss and debate controversial topics. A recent one was on world overpopulation.

Statement Lists Caucus Purposes

The following is a statement of purpose adopted by the Arlington Heights Caucus in Monday's general meeting which kicked off the search for 1965 municipal election candidates:

We believe that the continuing growth of Arlington Heights has caused increasingly complex problems of village government. Therefore, it is very desirable to give every voter the opportunity to participate in the selection of candidates for all elective village offices. To implement this principle, the Arlington Heights Caucus hereby endorses and supports the following purposes:

A. To seek out candidates for all elective village offices so that the office seeks the man rather than the man seeking the office.

B. To give all proposed candidates an opportunity to present their views and qualifications.

C. To select in open meeting, by majority vote, the candidates who have the best qualifications for the offices involved.

D. To endorse the candidates in the election campaign.

E. To establish the following objectives and goals, to which all candidates selected agree to adhere:

1. Strive for maximum efficiency and economy in village government.
2. Promote civic pride and community spirit.
3. Enforce the law fairly and justly.

Air Patrol Marks 23rd Anniversary

The Civil Air Patrol marked the 23rd anniversary of its founding this week.

An official civilian auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force, the CAP was started in 1941 by air-minded patriots who volunteered their services and their private aircraft to patrol America's coastlines and borders.

During World War II, CAP pilots flew 24 million miles on anti-submarine patrol and thousands more miles on courier missions.

TODAY THE PATROL continues its work by flying search and rescue missions and cooperating with Civil Defense agencies at all levels of government. An important part of its activities is the cadet program for boys and girls ages 13 through 18.

The 82,000 CAP members include men and women as well as the teenagers. Senior members operate some 4,900 light aircraft, all but 825 privately owned. They also operate a 14,500-station radio communications network and run and maintain a fleet of 4,500 surface vehicles of all types in support of CAP flying missions.

Members of the cadet program are taught military drill and courtesy and are entitled to wear the Air Force uniform. They have weekly meetings, make observation flights, practice search and rescue missions and participate in drill competitions and parades. Their program also includes an annual week-long encampment at an Air Force base, living like men in service.

ALL CADET members may compete for college scholarships, trips to other states and trips to Europe.

The Arlington Heights unit meets Mondays from 7 to 9 p.m and visitors are welcome. Anyone of at least high school age is eligible, and those interested may call Lt. Sally Peters, information officer, 299-2363, after 5:30 p.m.

High School Libraries Drop Old Restrictions

Some Still Ban Faulkner Works

by TOM EDWARDS
Staff Writer

William Faulkner may well be the foremost of America's Nobel Prize winning authors, but you may not be able to find any of his works on the shelves of some area high school libraries.

His works are "not included in the Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries put out by the H. W. Wilson Co., one librarian explained. (Actually, a few have recently been included.)

But nevertheless an "open book" policy seems to be the trend in area high school library development in recent years, according to accounts of librarians and administrators.

A "trend" because it apparently is a change from some previous conservative practices of area high school librarians, all of whom have practically sole charge of selecting the book's to be purchased for their school libraries.

The change may be due to changes in what is being discussed in classrooms as well as a more open minded attitude of librarians. For all of the librarians contacted in the Arlington, Palatine, Lake Park and Fenton High School Districts said their first concern in ordering books is to meet the needs of the school curriculum.

PERHAPS, HOWEVER, the change in both the classroom and libraries simply reflects a greater sophistication of modern society and a greater respect for the intellect and maturity of high school students.

Besides just meeting classroom needs, librarians indicated they are attempting to also provide "materials presenting all points of view on the issues of our times" (as it is stated in a just completed draft of a proposed policy statement for Arlington High School District 214).

Books for the extracurricular reading of students, those not specifically requested by teachers, are chosen on the basis of literary merit. Almost the sole criteria of merit are book reviews, the librarians said. "A book has to have favorable reviews before I will order it," was a typical statement.

District 214 is the first of the four school districts to attempt to draft a written policy on selection and exclusion of library materials. All rely on the descretion of their individual librarians to stock their respective libraries.

The American Library Association, however, has drafted a "Library Bill of Rights" and the American Association of School Librarians has adopted and supplemented the ALA statement.

Most area librarians indicated they are deliberately seeking some controversial reading material for their libraries. Practically all boast an "extensive" collection of works on racial integration and other related sociological problems. Lake Park High subscribes to "Ebony," a Negro magazine.

Controversy creates and stimulates thought and interest among students, said Lake Park Librarian George Toussaint.

But as recently as last year The New Republic and The Nation were excluded from one District 214 library as too liberal.

The works of Ernest Hemingway and William Faulkner were also practically excluded from this library. Only work of Hemingway stocked was "Old Man and the Sea."

WHEELING HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARIAN Charles Adams had the task this year of preparing a nearly complete library for the opening of the new high school. Over the summer about 11,000 books were catalogued. A two-year budget of about $65,000 has been allocated by District 214. Goal by next year is about 14,000 books. (Staff photo)

WORKS OF Faulkner apparently are still subjected to heavy screening by many librarians, with his milder and more historical novels being chosen. Several area high school libraries almost if not entirely exclude Faulkner.

Most libraries had some representative works on contemporary politics and practically all had books on communism.

Books purchased on communism are practically all written from the American point of view, one librarian said. Such books should "show our reason (for our system), and of course, show how much better ours is," was the explanation.

The Lake Park High library includes the collection published in this country of the writings of Mao Tse Tung, Librarian Toussaint noted.

But if local school libraries lack opposing points of view on communism, so do they also on the subject of Negro rights. That is, a militant defense of Southern apartheid is hardly likely to be purchased.

This logically leaves high schools open to criticism of of stocking only points of view deemed correct by book reviewers.

Out of the fiction field, high school libraries have evidently stocked little in the way of foreign publications. Although about half of the area libraries subscribe to 100 or more magazines (the rest about 85), none subscribed to any periodicals published in other English speaking countries.

Several of the schools subscribe to magazine "U.S.S.R" approved under a culture exchange agreement between the United States and Russia, although at least two confine it to Russian language and sociology classes.

Foreign language periodicals are sometimes subscribed to for use in language classes.

ALL LIBRARIANS indicated they try to include representative works on the various religions and at least one treatise on each of the religions of the world. From two to four periodicals published by religious organizations were included among magazines in all the libraries.

A past common practice, it was reported, was to put certain books "behind the counter," to be given students only upon the written request of an instructor. Included have been such books as Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath," Huxley's "Brave New World," and Joyce's "Ulysses."

At Forest View High School, Mrs. Donna Marris has what she calls a "senior reading room," a room containing books which only may be read by seniors without written permission of an instructor. Books on sex and dating are restricted to sociology classes, she said.

At Fremd High School in Palatine there is an "honors" table" with material for honor roll students only.

Otherwise the general philosophy in the area seems to be to put practically everything on open shelves available to all students.

Charles Adams, Wheeling High School librarian, explained that he feels books exist to meet human needs, and the need for its information can't be categorized by age or bent.

Further, he is opposed to asking "embarrassing questions of youngsters when they check out a book."

Exceptions sometimes to the open book philosophy are books on automobiles. They are quite likely to be stolen. Expensive coin and stamp collecting books are also often kept behind the desk.

Sex is one area in which "we tend to be a little conservative," one librarian noted. ("Ann Landers Speaks to Teenagers" is one book regarding sex that may be stocked.) Another said students can get material school libraries don't stock "from the public library" and other places.

FOREST VIEW High has a special bookstore in which 300 to 400 paperback book titles are kept for students to buy. Principal Larry Jenness said many of these books are current popular ones, particularly those which are of such a temporary nature that it would be uneconomical for the school to purchase them for its permanent collection.

Book reviews on which the librarians said they mainly depend are from: The Standard Catalogue for High School Libraries, The Book List of the American Library Association, The Book Review Digest, the School Library Journal, Saturday Review, New York Times,

Adams commented that he prefers those publications which have their reviews signed by the writer. He also noted that some reviewing publications review only those books that they recommend rather than all books.

Arlington District 214 high schools have close to 15,000 books for each of four high schools, with hopes of going as high as 30,000 in the future. Lake Park High has about 14,000 volumes and hopes to reach 20,000 in the not too distant future.

Fenton High and the three Palatine District 211 high schools have about 7,000 to 8,000 volumes per school, with no present plans of increasing this number. Fenton High has about 8,000 volumes.

Use of the library at Lake Park High is further stimulated by "once-a-month "faculty forums," Toussaint said. Members of the faculty discuss and debate controversial topics. A recent one was on world overpopulation.

Statement Lists Caucus Purposes

The following is a statement of purpose adopted by the Arlington Heights Caucus in Monday's general meeting which kicked off the search for 1965 municipal election candidates:

We believe that the continuing growth of Arlington Heights has caused increasingly complex problems of village government. Therefore, it is very desirable to give every voter the opportunity to participate in the selection of candidates for all elective village offices. To implement this principle, the Arlington Heights Caucus hereby endorses and supports the following purposes:

A. To seek out candidates for all elective village offices so that the office seeks the man rather than the man seeking the office.

B. To give all proposed candidates an opportunity to present their views and qualifications.

C. To select in open meeting, by majority vote, the candidates who have the best qualifications for the offices involved.

D. To endorse the candidates in the election campaign.

E. To establish the following objectives and goals, to which all candidates selected agree to adhere:

1. Strive for maximum efficiency and economy in village government.
2. Promote civic pride and community spirit.
3. Enforce the law fairly and justly.
4. Conduct village affairs without favoritism.
5. Appoint only qualified persons to the various Boards and Commissions.
6. Support the village manager form of government.
7. Support measures to assure an adequate water supply.
8. Protect residential areas against unjust zoning.
9. Continue the use of sound planning principles in the control and development of the outlying and downtown areas.
10. Preserve the autonomy of village government.

Confident Democrats Prepare for New Tests

Some Intra-Party Battles Foreseen

by DAN PRIBILSKI
Staff Writer

(Second of two-part series)

Democrats are confident.

They are confident that the prevailing 2 to 1 victory margins of the Republicans in northwest suburbia can be cut.

The question is what are they going to do to keep the gains they made in the last election and what immediate goals are before them?

They know they have a growing strength in northwest suburbia. Their strength is based principally on three factors.

First, the influx of Chicagoans to suburbia provides a fertile ground for the Democratic Party. People are bringing their Democratic leanings with them and they are coming in sufficient numbers so that they are not completely submerged into what may appear to some a Republican world.

Second, the Democrats are cultivating new leaders and attracting enthusiastic and idealistic workers. The northwest suburban Democratic Party is no longer a garrison outfit with a few loyal old-timers manning the ramparts.

AND THIRD, these "new Democrats" with a suburban rather than a city image are working hard where before the party put up only token efforts. For the first time in suburbia, new and old residents in some areas are being contacted by Democratic workers and made aware that the party does exist.

The Republicans have wont to attack suburban Democrats as stooges of Mayor Richard J. Daley and the Democratic machine in Chicago.

Ed Phebus, the Bloomingdale Township chairman, commented, "Oh, yes, I've had people say to me, 'You're one of Daley's boys, aren't you?' ".

Phebus chuckles over such a proposition. He is a DuPage County boy and while he has lived in Chicago for a short time, his real roots are in DuPage County.

"I've never even met Mayor Daley," Phebus said.

Other Democrats such as Chester Chesney, Elk Grove committeeman, have had similar experiences.

Chesney said, "I have never received an order from Daley. And at central committee meetings, I have always been allowed to speak out and make recommendations. The only thing Daley is concerned about is that the people under him do a good job."

Democrats realize they must work hard to hold the gains they have made this year.

JUDGING BY returns in Wheeling, Elk Grove, Hanover, Schaumburg, Addison and and Bloomingdale townships, the Democrats have had true gains. The gains were not just flukes because of any possible voter reaction against Sen. Goldwater as the GOP Presidential standard bearer.

James Stavros, Wheeling township Committeeman, said he judges his gains purely by straight tickets.

"Count the straight votes," he said. "In Wheeling and Buffalo Grove (two communities which went for President Johnson) the Democratic straight votes are ahead of the Republicans."

Stavros, who runs a tight organization with 25 patronage workers and 200 regular volunteer workers, commented the only organization the Republicans have is a "paper" organization — and by "paper" he means newspapers.

As new leadership has appeared in Democratic ranks, some old Democrats have been pushed aside. And from this past election's experience, some heads may also roll under the hand of the new leaders.

In Addison Township, Walter Kehoe is chairman. He has been around a long time but his leadership has been criticized as non-productive. Addison Democrats will seek a new and stronger chairman, according to Bud Loftus, defeated candidate for state's attorney.

In Bloomingdale, Phebus expects to get rid of some of his precinct workers who in the last election "sloughed off." He calls them "paper committeemen" and not actual operating committeeman.

A most interesting intra-party battle and one that promises to be rugged is developing in Palatine Township.

Oliver Dilks is the committeeman. Two major anti-Dilks groups exist and are likely to become one.

THE FIRST group is in Rolling Meadows and is headed by John Rafferty. Rafferty has a strong following and is credited to some extent with providing the strong Democratic voting strength which produced a Johnson victory there.

The second group, which has some Rafferty people in it, is a recently formed Democratic Club. It is headed by George Meehan who was elected president two weeks ago. Active in founding the Democratic Club besides Meehan were Len Quenon and Richard Mugalian. All three are Palatine village residents.

Grievances against Dilks are that he runs a closed organization not open to all Democrats and that he is simply too friendly with Republicans.

Dilks is up for election in 1966.

Meehan said, "We expect a lengthy battle. When we formed this club, our people were informed that for the next two years they must expect to work constantly and hard."

Mugalian believes that the anti-Dilks forces will be sufficient to unseat him.

Rafferty was defeated by Dilks two years ago in the committeeman's race by 35 votes. He commented that he would be happy to throw his strength behind the Democratic Club.

Rafferty strongly opposes Dilks' coalition with Republicans for township offices. If such a coalition is sought again next spring, the "out" Democrats are expected pound hard at Dilks.

Regarding township elections, Elk Grove's Chester Chesney will work to get his party into power there. Loftus and Phebus will be doing the same thing in north DuPage County.

STAVROS SAID he isn't sure yet what he intends to do regarding the township races.

Men like Chesney, Stavros, and Loftus talk little of philosophical principles. They appear more as hard-nosed politicians concerned with the more immediate problems of vote-getting in practical ways.

The younger Democrats interviewed, while practical, also speak in philosophical liberal terms.

For people like Meehan, Mugalian, Phebus, Ken Haas (a Chesney worker) and Robert Ullmen (a Phebus lieutenant) the Democratic Party is the liberal party.

Besides stressing the good points of their candidates, they also will stress the philosophy which they consider the heart of the party. They will stress ideas.

This is the suburban image for the Democratic Party, the younger Democrats believe.

A15

Make Sure Social Security Card Okay

Already the various department stores, variety stores, post offices, restaurants and other places of business are looking for extra help during the pre-Christmas season.

Before taking seasonal employment a housewife or mother should be sure her social security card bears her correct name, if she was recently married or never had a card changed to her married name.

The Social Security Administration wants to impress upon all the importance of having a card up to date and to further remind seasoned employes to show it to their employer on the day they are hired. Don't give him the number from memory. The employer is required by law to report these part-time earnings to the Internal Revenue Service before the end of January, 1965.

The original card may become lost and in this instance it takes longer to get a replacement than to bring in the old card to surrender it for a new one showing a change in name. In either case, the number must be the same one originally issued.

Changes may be made by contacting the local Social Security office.

$93,853 Dispersed By Suburban Chest

The Suburban Community Chest Council distributed $92,853.79 to 87 suburban communities this week. This represents funds accrued from over 300 industries working through the Suburban Council for second quarter distribution, according to Harry L. Blout, executive director.

Funds that accrue from industry and their employes, Blout explained, are cleared quarterly to the individual Community Chests and United Funds for which they have been designated.

Most of these funds come from employes who wish to support the community of their choice and designate their contributions to a specific point, while some of it represents corporate suburban support.

UNDER A recently approved agreement between the Chicago Fund raising organization and the Suburban Community Chest Council, the 1965 campaign will unify the industrial welfare fund raising efforts to the metropolitan area consisting of Cook and DuPage Counties. Under this new single approach to industry, employes will continue to have the designation opportunity, if consistent with practices of the parent firm.

"The current suburban drive is moving along well and slightly ahead of last year," Blout said. "Under the planned industrial approach for 1965, we anticipate greater participation in both the corporate and employe support of the Red Feather drive."

Following is a list of the local participating villages and the amounts distributed to each:

Addison, $741.22; Arlington Heights, $866.50; Elk Grove Village, $405.22; Mount Prospect $932.84; Palatine, $875.50; Prospect Heights, $152,44; Streamwood, $133.20, and Wheeling - Buffalo Grove, $228.79.

Santa Throne Draws Throngs of Children

By BEVERLY TUTTLE

Despite the fact that it didn't snow, Santa Claus was still able to make his arrival at Randhurst.

Hundreds of boys and girls were on hand Friday to greet Santa and to place him securely on his throne.

The Santa Claus Throne, located in the Montgomery Ward area, is in operation 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday. It is decorated in red and white candy stripes, garland, large candy canes, and a beautiful sunburst star as background. Santa reigns on an oversized jewel-studded chair covered with red velvet and gold framework.

THE LINE of children waiting their turn to see Santa is unbelievable. They are waiting for their very own private moment with that person they have put out of their little minds since last year. Now that moment is here again and we are waiting in line!

Every day I go to the ball, and walk over to the Santa Throne, and watch the line of children waiting a chance to tell Santa their special wishes and to assure him that they are good and deserving children. Sometimes the line for Santa gets especially long and the wait seems unbearable, but the reward that a child gets has its very own magic moment.

Unfortunately, "My turn" with Santa has long since passed and I'm the one running around trying to fulfill the children's dreams and to keep up the Christmas tradition of exchanging presents.

Fortunately this weekend (Dec. 3-4-5) is Randhurst's "Christmas Value Days," and I will be able to get in on those special values to close up my Christmas shopping for another year.

PICK UP your shopping guide, that you received in the mail this week, and leaf through it — making out your "I must get" list as Christmas is just around the corner.

If by chance you get over to Randhurst and notice that you have forgotten your "Randhurst Value Days" shopping guide, you can pick one up at the Randhurst Booth located in the Wieboldt's area, or come down to the Randhurst Corporation, located on the Concourse Level, and we will be glad to give you one. Don't get caught in the panic countdown — only 22 more days 'til Christmas!

Be sure to get over to Randhurst and see the beautiful Christmas decorations! Randhurst has suddenly become a "Christmas Wonderland" with its old-fashioned Christmas trees, and beautiful ornaments, decorated garlands, twinkling lights, lighted gold sphere under the dome, glittering planters covered with snowflakes, and miniature lights, animated doll houses, and the Santa Claus Throne.

See you under the dome!

Survey Tells Teacher Situation in Suburbs

Suburban schools hired 2,581 elementary and 1,249 high school teachers to fill vacancies caused by replacement needs and increased enrollments for the 1964-65 school year.

These figures are contained in a teacher personnel survey prepared by Ray Etherton, assistant to the Cook County superintendent of schools, and just released to all schools in the county.

The new teachers represented 24 per cent of the elementary and 22 per cent of the high school staff, indicating a major task of new teacher orientation for each school system, the survey pointed out.

INCREASED . enrollments caused a five per cent increase in the number of elementary teachers hired and a 10 per cent jump in high school instructors.

Of the 3,830 new teachers employed for the 1964-65 school year, 1,955 were beginning teachers and 1,875 were experienced. Only 31 teachers did not have a degree. Of the others, 3,061 had a bachelor's and 738 a master's or more.

Marriage, maternity and moving were the major reasons for teachers leaving their positions. Only eight-tenths of one per cent gave up teaching for some other type of employment, the survey showed.

In terms of need, the greatest number of teachers were required for primary grades, 788; intermediate grades, 695; English, 329; mathematics, 201, social studies, 174, and science, 170.

IN SPITE of the large number of new teachers that had to be hired for the current school year, the suburban superintendents reported the number of qualified applicants was the best they have experienced for some years.

"This indicates that there are more persons preparing to teach than in the past," commented Dr. Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent, "and more of them wanting to come to the suburban area of Cook County."

He attributed this to the outstanding educational programs in the county, salaries equal to or better than any area in the nation and the opportunity for further study and cultural advantages offered in the Chicago area. (B10

Hospital Makes Out Christmas Gift List

Directions for groups wishing to donate materials, Christmas trees or gifts to Northwest Community Hospital during the holiday season were issued this week by the hospital administration.

In addition, groups wishing to sing Christmas carols at the hospital are being asked to make an appointment for the visit from Mrs. Norma Barnes, director of volunteers. Mrs. Barnes is available at the hospital Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The hospital telephone number is CL 9-1000.

Information about gifts and favors is also available from Mrs. Barnes.

In general, these materials are being requested by the hospital:

—Napkins, dinner size, decorated;

—Tray mats, for all patients, size 12x17 inches;

—Tray favors, of all kinds—but without any trim which could be picked off by children and put into their mouths; and —Decorations, small enough to be hung on doors and windows, and preferably red and white in color. Decorations should be non-flammable.

CANDY containers, either for tray favors or for other purposes, should not contain candy. Candy should be provided separately since some patients are not allowed to have it.

Four aluminum trees will be purchased by the hospital and set up in the main lobby, cafeteria, passenger elevator area on the first floor and in the pediatrics section. Aluminum trees will be used because they are fireproof.

Eiler Dancers To Entertain During Holidays

Rain and cold did not prevent Delores Eiler performers from helping to usher in Santa Claus at Randhurst Shopping Center in Mount Prospect Nov. 27.

The appearance was one of several slated during the holiday season.

Tonight (Thursday) they will perform at a Father-Daughter Night in Prospect Heights, and Saturday, Dec. 19, they will entertain at a Christmas party at Plum Grove Country Club. B10

Modern Etiquette

Q. When someone other than the bride's father gives her away — such as an uncle or family friend — should he be given a gift similar to those given to the best man and ushers?

A. It is not customary to give him a gift.

Q. When hard rolls are served, is it proper to cut them with a knife, or must they always be broken with the fingers?

A. They must be broken by hand.

Middle-Aged Fitness Will Be 'Y' Subject

Can heart attacks be prevented?

The answer to this and other key questions on middle-aged physical fitness will be answered Friday and Saturday at Northwest Suburban YMCA by Dr. Richard Pohndorf, colleague of Dr. Thomas K. Cureton, who is a national authority on fitness.

Dr. Cureton was scheduled to conduct the 'Y' clinic, but he has been called to present five national clinics as part of the President's program stressing physical well-being.

THE FRIDAY session at the 'Y' begins at 8:15 p.m. and will be open to the public without charge. The Saturday program of individual tests and consultation will be limited to 35 men and women of middle age, and a small charge will be made for this part of the clinic. Dr. Pohndorf describes middle age as 26 to 65 years.

Those interested in the clinic may obtain further information by calling the 'Y' office at 296-3376. (B10

Airline Pilots' Jobs Unique in Many Ways

ONE OF THE WAYS American Captain Lawrence Saucke relaxes is to get out on his boat — but it also serves as a second office where he can catch up on his reading and studying. Mark, one of Saucke's four children, shares his father's interest in flying, and is a handy man to have on the boat. "You have to know all about your plane. There is no gas station to pull into if something goes wrong up there," said Saucke. "I believe I have the best job in the world," he explained — and he, like others, does everything possible to make it the safest. (A15

September Public Aid Roll Reduced by 629 Persons

In September the public aid rolls dropped by 629 persons from previous month, according to a report released recently by Harold O. Swank, director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid.

The September reduction brought the public aid rolls down to 416,228 recipients, compared to 416,857 in August. The caseload for September, 1964, was 1,123 below the September, 1963, total of 417,351.

Public Aid expenditures in September were $23,954,262 compared to $23,767,716 the previous month. Expenditures in September, 1963, were $24,037,977. These amounts include payment for burials, foster care for ADC children removed from unsuitable homes and aid to the medically indigent in Cook County.

SEPTEMBER costs reflected the increased allowances for personal essentials for recipients of Assistance to the aged, Blind and Disabled, averaging $3.15 per person, which became effective in September.

The Aid to Dependent Children rolls declined for the sixth consecutive month to a caseload of 258,064 persons, compared to the August total of 258,308. The September, 1963, caseload was 258,478.

Expenditures for the program in September were $11,422,601 and averaged $44.26 per person, compared to August expenditures of $11,340,437, an average of $43.90 per person. In September 1963 the cost of the program was $10,863,054, and the average payment per person was $42.03.

The General Assistance and Disability Assistance rolls were the only ones out of five categories to show increases. General Assistance was granted to 351 more persons in September than in August and Disability Assistance went to 90 additional persons in September.

IN COOK County a total of 274,520 persons received some kind of public aid, and expenditures for September, 1964, amounted to $15,642.174.

In DuPage County, a total of 1,149 persons received some kind of public aid. The expenditures totaled $68,449. (A15

Work Odd Hours, Train Constantly

by LEE SECHLER

Delta flight 466 turned on its final approach to O'Hare Field with Captain Donald Terrell, of Addison, at the controls. Scant minutes later the twin-engine plane touched the end of runway 14 R.

At almost the same moment American Airlines Captain Lawrence Saucke, of Mount Prospect, readjusted his seat belt and told his copilot to raise approach control at New York.

Hundreds of miles to the north United Air Lines Captain William Thomas, of Itasca, started his jet rolling down the runway of Boston's Logan Airport for the return trip to Chicago.

In these three planes, and many others in the air, a highly complicated and sophisticated piece of safety equipment was in operation—the pilot.

Terrell, Saucke and Thomas are just three of the hundreds of pilots living in the area surrounding O'Hare Field.

Most of them take a great deal of kidding from neighbors about the time they spend at home.

"MY NEIGHBORS see me in the yard one day as they go to work and then again the next day, so it looks like I'm always home," said Captain Thomas, of Itasca.

Thomas went on to explain that on some trips he doesn't leave home until afternoon and then is back home the next afternoon. Hence, it appears that he never works.

American's Saucke, father of four, explained that he has had a schedule which allows him to leave his home in Mount Prospect around 9 a.m. (after his neighbors), have lunch in New York City, and arrive home before his neighbors get off the expressway.

In reality pilots have around eight to 10 days off each month and although the schedules seem irregular to the 9 to 5 people, they follow a pattern.

THE METHOD OF figuring the time off and the scheduling is different for each company and pilots bid for "runs"—their monthly work schedule—each month on the basis of seniority.

Federal and company regulations limit the number of hours a pilot can spend in the air. Time away from home is regulated by a contract between the pilots—made by the Air Line Pilots Association—and the company.

Captain Terrell, father of four and a Delta pilot since 1954, said he had a trip which kept him away from home three days and then gave him three days off.

"This allows us to plan short trips," he explained. This same opinion was voiced by the others.

CONSTANT TRAINING is very much a part of each pilot's routine. In many cases, each pilot knows more about his aircraft than the mechanics.

Standards of safety are established by the Federal Aviation Agency, pushed higher by the individual air lines, and pushed even higher by the pilots themselves, who are extremely interested in getting back to their families.

American's Saucke, with over 14,000 hours flying time and 24 years of flying experience, explained that his boat served as a second office where he could read manuals, journals and other pieces of information designed to make him a better pilot; only a few are required reading.

"I feel safer in the plane than in my car," he said.

THE CHILDREN of these three pilots for the most part accept what their fathers are doing as a way of life—and for the most part so have the neighborhood children.

Saucke said his interest in flying—which dates back to his third grade days in school—cost him a number of hours after school.

"Every time I heard a plane I would dash outside to see what kind it was," he explained with a grin. Thomas started flying in the service during World War II and Terrell explained that his early flight training came in the service too.

Do their wives worry?

Some, but the years each man has been flying and in command of the aircraft the fears and major worries have been replaced with confidence and the knowledge that their husbands are professionals and dedicated family men.

ONE WIFE expressed irritation at a television program about a young air line pilot which had no basis in truth.

"It doesn't show the work and training behind a pilot. It makes me mad because the public probably thinks this truly the way a pilot and his family lives," she declared.

"And nothing could be farther from the truth."

"If I get back the passengers get back, too. So I make sure I get back," stated another pilot. (A15

TAKING TIME FROM his woodworking, United Air Lines Captain William L. Thomas helps his daughter Debbie with some school work. Thomas has been with United for 19 years and spent three years flying B-24s in the South Pacific during World War II. "Woodwork used to be a hobby, now it's necessary to keep the house together," he said. About the places he flies to, Captain Thomas had this comment: "We seldom see the places . . . It was a treat recently to have a 36-hour lay over in New Orleans so I could look around."

New Postal Facility To Ease Yule Rush

The world's largest postal facility on one floor is being placed into operation on Chicago's South Side.

"The newly mechanized South Suburban Facility should assure Chicago area residents of on-time delivery of this year's Christmas rush of parcels," Postmaster Gen. John A. Gronouski said this week.

The 362,450-square foot facility will service 212 post offices in northeastern Illinois, including the Chicago Post Office.

THIS NEW postal operation is primarily a parcel post center. It will handle mail from one suburban community to another, by-passing the main Chicago Post Office which was designed for well under half the present mail volume, as well as dispatch and receive mail for points throughout the entire United States.

Gronouski will inspect the facility at 10:30 a.m. today (Thursday) and then attend a luncheon at the Sherman House. The luncheon will include a project briefing for Chicago area business and government leaders.

THE CHICAGO Industrial District, developer of Ford City, site of the postal facility, will sponsor the luncheon.

The facility is located at 7400 S. Kostner, Chicago. (A-15

22 Selected for Interviewing Task

Precinct-by-precinct, the residents present for Monday's first meeting of the Arlington Heights Caucus selected their representatives on the candidate selection committee.

For some it was an easy matter — a quick agreement among a very few residents present from the precinct.

But there were other extremes, both in the precincts which turned out a large number of people and in the one precinct without a single voter unwilling to serve on the committee.

THE LARGER individual caucuses lasted up to half-an-hour, ending in closely split votes; and before the night was over a volunteer had been found for the missing precinct.

The following are representatives on the selection committee, by village precinct:

1. John Patrick O'Brien, 165 W. Sigwalt St.; 2. Edward Urbanski, 4 W. Park St.; 3. Alfred K. Tracy, 742 S. Vail Ave.; 4. Arthur L. Johnson, 202 N. Salem Ave.; 5. William M. O'Connor, 434 S. Reuter Drive; 6. Robert A. Cagann, 315 S. Evergreen Ave.; 7. James E. Anderson, 711 E. Davis St.; 8. Mrs. Walter J. Damm Jr., 710 S. Cleveland Ave.; 9. James A. Kelly, 1416 N. Vail Ave.; 10. 40 Plead Guilty At Bicycle Court

Parent reaction is generally favorable to a new bicycle violation court session tried last Friday in Arlington Heights, according to Police Chief L. W. Calderwood.

Judge Robert C. Buckley presided over a full courtroom in the municipal building as 40 of 43 scheduled defendants appeared and entered guilty pleas.

Buckley, formerly police magistrate of Arlington Heights, is now a Circuit Court municipal division magistrate and was assigned specially for the day by Judge Harold Sullivan, associate in charge of District Two.

YOUTHFUL offenders who appeared had received moving traffic violations similar to those issued motorists. Most were stop sign and traffic light violations.

They appeared in the company of their parents, and only one received a fine—$10 and $5 costs, which was suspended.

Others received only a lesson on bicycle safety and the dangers of disregard for traffic laws.

Chief Calderwood is planning to solicit public opinion on the merits of such a court, and has tentatively set another date for Jan. 30.

HE SAID THE most frequent criticism of conduct of the court from parents in attendance was that no fines were levied.

Many thought that small fines should have been collected in amounts of $1 or $2 to be taken from allowances.

BY THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS FIRE DEPARTMENT

Today, fire is due to strike 800 American homes. Hundreds will be badly damaged, many totally destroyed. An untold number of persons will die, suffer painful burns or be maimed for life.

Statistics of the National Board of Fire Underwriters show that 20 per cent of the persons who die as a result of fires each year are children under 5 years old. Several times that many are burned; some will carry the scars for the rest of their lives.

Very few parents would allow their children to play on the edge of a busy street. But many otherwise responsible parents overlook a hazard just as threatening—leaving small children at home while they go on a brief errand to a nearby store or to a next-door neighbor's.

All too often, these few moments are all that fire needs to do its deadly work. The shocking fact is that one-third of all child fire victims were alone and unprotected when fire struck. Leaving litle children home alone is an invitation to tragedy.

PRECAUTIONS FOR PARENTS:

Never leave little children alone! Arrange for a dependable baby sitter to stay with the children while you're away. Give the sitter specific instructions on what to do in case of fire.

Be sure the sitter understands that in case of fire she should get the children out of the house, call the fire department and notify the parents, IN THAT ORDER.

Never leave matches where youngsters can find them. Put them out of reach, on a high shelf.

In selecting clothing for your children, avoid flimsy, fast-burning fabrics.

Never use lighted candles at children's parties.

Provide flashlights for use in case lighting should fail.

Show sitter all exits and how to get children out of house in case of fire.

Always come home at the hour agreed upon; telephone if delayed.

Remember; firemen can put out fires—But you can prevent them.

22 Selected for Interviewing Task

Precinct-by-precinct, the residents present for Monday's first meeting of the Arlington Heights Caucus selected their representatives on the candidate selection committee.

For some it was an easy matter — a quick agreement among a very few residents present from the precinct.

But there were other extremes, both in the precincts which turned out a large number of people and in the one precinct without a single voter unwilling to serve on the committee.

THE LARGER individual caucuses lasted up to half-an-hour, ending in closely split votes; and before the night was over a volunteer had been found for the missing precinct.

The following are representatives on the selection committee, by village precinct:

1. John Patrick O'Brien, 165 W. Sigwalt St.; 2. Edward Urbanski, 4 W. Park St.; 3. Alfred K. Tracy, 742 S. Vail Ave.; 4. Arthur L. Johnson, 202 N. Salem Ave.; 5. William M. O'Connor, 434 S. Reuter Drive; 6. Robert A. Cagann, 315 S. Evergreen Ave.; 7. James E. Anderson, 711 E. Davis St.; 8. Mrs. Walter J. Damm Jr., 710 S. Cleveland Ave.; 9. James A. Kelly, 1416 N. Vail Ave.; 10. Scott Ball, 1207 N. Walnut Ave.; 11. Wesley M. Dilley, 936 N. Fernandez Ave.; 12. Donald L. Marquis, 824 N. Patton Ave.

13. Keith L. Merckx, 1207 N. Race Ave.; 14. Ken Conrad, 1315 W. Plymouth Ct.; 15. H. F. Bunnelle, 505 N. Dunton Ave.; 16. John McNamara, 706 N. Douglas Ave.; 17. James Drake, 411 N. Beverly Lane; 18. James R. Fruchterman, 338 S. Gibbons Ave.; 19. Donald Wolff, 207 S. Phelps Ave.; 20. Veva Hembd, 671 E. Clarendon St.; 21. Eugene Ischinger, 618 N. Wilshire Ave.; 22. Henry Warga, 636 N. 40 Plead Guilty At Bicycle Court

Parent reaction is generally favorable to a new bicycle violation court session tried last Friday in Arlington Heights, according to Police Chief L. W. Calderwood.

Judge Robert C. Buckley presided over a full courtroom in the municipal building as 40 of 43 scheduled defendants appeared and entered guilty pleas.

Buckley, formerly police magistrate of Arlington Heights, is now a Circuit Court municipal division magistrate and was assigned specially for the day by Judge Harold Sullivan, associate in charge of District Two.

YOUTHFUL offenders who appeared had received moving traffic violations similar to those issued motorists. Most were stop sign and traffic light violations.

They appeared in the company of their parents, and only one received a fine—$10 and $5 costs, which was suspended.

Others received only a lesson on bicycle safety and the dangers of disregard for traffic laws.

Chief Calderwood is planning to solicit public opinion on the merits of such a court, and has tentatively set another date for Jan. 30.

HE SAID THE most frequent criticism of conduct of the court from parents in attendance was that no fines were levied.

Many thought that small fines should have been collected in amounts of $1 or $2 to be taken from allowances.

Smoke Signals

BY THE ARLINGTON HEIGHTS FIRE DEPARTMENT

Today, fire is due to strike 800 American homes. Hundreds will be badly damaged, many totally destroyed. An untold number of persons will die, suffer painful burns or be maimed for life.

Statistics of the National Board of Fire Underwriters show that 20 per cent of the persons who die as a result of fires each year are children under 5 years old. Several times that many are burned; some will carry the scars for the rest of their lives.

Very few parents would allow their children to play on the edge of a busy street. But many otherwise responsible parents overlook a hazard just as threatening—leaving small children at home while they go on a brief errand to a nearby store or to a next-door neighbor's.

All too often, these few moments are all that fire needs to do its deadly work. The shocking fact is that one-third of all child fire victims were alone and unprotected when fire struck. Leaving litle children home alone is an invitation to tragedy.

PRECAUTIONS FOR PARENTS:

Never leave little children alone! Arrange for a dependable baby sitter to stay with the children while you're away. Give the sitter specific instructions on what to do in case of fire.

Be sure the sitter understands that in case of fire she should get the children out of the house, call the fire department and notify the parents, IN THAT ORDER.

Never leave matches where youngsters can find them. Put them out of reach, on a high shelf.

In selecting clothing for your children, avoid flimsy, fast-burning fabrics.

Never use lighted candles at children's parties.

Provide flashlights for use in case lighting should fail.

Show sitter all exits and how to get children out of house in case of fire.

Always come home at the hour agreed upon; telephone if delayed.

Remember; firemen can put out fires—But you can prevent them.

DESPITE NOTICE, many Arlington Heights residents still hauled their refuse cans to the street Tuesday — the first day of single-service trash pickup away from curbs in the village. Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson reported few calls of inquiry on the new service, but added that there would probably be more through the first week. Village officials are anxious to get the cans away from the curb to help keep residential areas looking neat.

Jim flew back to Atlanta on Saturday.

FRIDAY EVENING Mrs. Larson gave a miscellaneous bridal shower for Dianne Weeks of Franklin Park, with 40 friends and relatives attending.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. Gerald Linn, mother of Dorothy Englehardt, W. Algonquin Road.

Family Pot Luck

BY HELEN HALE

Serve with Easy Flair

Blend a half an envelope of leek soup mix with an 8-ounce carton of dairy sour cream and a dash of pepper. It's good with potato chips.

Spicy cheese dip mixed with oil and vinegar will give a piquant note when tossed with broken, bite-size greens in a big bowl for a buffet salad.

Blend 8 ounces of cream cheese with 5 tablespoons of heavy cream, whipped with ¼ cup powdered sugar and a dash of vanilla and nutmeg. Spoon over wedges of lemon flavored angel food cake.

Spoon custard into pastry tart shells, top with a half of a canned peach and glaze the fruit with melted currant jelly for a 'scrumptious dessert.

Add some mandarin orange sections to cole slaw and top with jellied cranberry sauce. It's pretty!

Make small pancakes, stack them high and serve with warm honey (1 cup) blended with 1 stick of butter. Use 1 to 2 tablespoons of thin batter for each cake.

Helen's Favorite:
Cheese Bowl
(Serves 6 - 8)

- ¼ cup crumbled blue cheese
- 1 cup drained cottage cheese
- 1 cup grated American cheese
- ¼ cup light cream
- Dash of cayenne

Mash blue cheese, add cottage cheese and American cheese. Moisten with cream. Add cayenne. Serve with crisp fruit and crackers for dessert.

Be Wary and Merry

Shop Locally For Christmas

By WILLIAM G. CLARK
Illinois Attorney General

Christmas is a time to be wary as well as merry.

The gyp artists are always coming up with new angles on old schemes, and a word of warning at the start of the shopping season may save you from being the one they were fishing for.

Basically, of course, be wary of "bait" advertising and don't be rushed by door-to-door salesmen. As always, rely on your local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau for reliable information about such salesmen and sales firms.

Stop, too, in the hectic rush of shopping to consider that you can contribute much to the prosperity of your own community as well as your peace of mind if you spend your Christmas savings with local, reliable dealers.

PROPERTY owners benefit consistently from a well-balanced business district in two essential ways:

1) Local dealers pay local taxes and help establish a sound community.

2) Local dealers depend chiefly on area residents for sales and services; therefore, they stand behind their products and their guarantees.

IN SMALLER communities or old established neighborhoods in the cities, where the neighbors are on a first-name basis, the "package hoax" nets a profit for nobody but the shyster salesman. Beware of messengers who knock on your door and ask you to pay the C.O.D. charge on a package for one of your neighbors.

When you knock on your neighbor's door that evening to deliver the package and collect the C.O.D. charges, you could find you are out the entire cost and had paid for a brick, old newspapers, or a wad of cotton.

If your neighbor hasn't mentioned an expected package and left you the money for it, don't take a chance on accepting the package. Reliable firms who have delivery services will stop again and again to deliver the package to the person who ordered it, as they will be doing considerable business in the area.

IN ADAPTING the hoax for business offices, confidence men call first to see if the boss is in. During his lunch hour or while they have established that he is away from the office, an appropriately dressed messenger boy arrives with a C.O.D. package.

Should the secretary or receptionist pay for the package out of the petty cash drawer, she will earn her boss' ire. Even if he has occasionally had packages delivered, a legitimate delivery service will have a bill of lading or other forms which will identify the source.

Reliable firms will also require that delivery services secure the signature of the person who received the package for the purchaser, chiefly to protect their own interest.

AS ALWAYS, beware of high-priced items offered at low prices. Alert consumers know that, Christmas season or not, if you pay bargain prices you may end up with shoddy, bargain merchandise.

24 TV Dinners

The complete TV dinner is here to stay, reports Associated Food Retailers of Illinois.

There are now 24 different complete dinners available, in addition to the 198 prepared individual items of meats, vegetables, fruits and bakery goods in the average grocery frozen-food display.

Lighten Child's Hospital Stay

The world of children is full of happy things like lollipops and learning to read, birthdays and bicycles, grammar school and visits to grandma.

Sometimes a case of measles or mumps, or even the sniffles, invades the happy-go-lucky world of childhood and slows down a youngster for a few days. Parents hope nothing more serious than a brief stay-at-home illness will strike because a hospital stay for a young child isn't a pleasant thought.

BUT IT DOES happen. Government statistics indicate 10 per cent of all hospital patients are between the ages of 5 and 14.

A youngster's hospital stay might be caused by something as simple as a tonsillectomy, as elusive as a virus, or as complicated as a defective heart valve.

Whatever the reason for hospitalization, the importance of preparing a child for a trip to the hospital is recognized by wise parents. Kimberly-Clark Corp. offers these suggestions to help children accept and understand hospital care:

WHENEVER YOUR child visits the doctor for a regular medical check-up, emphasize that the doctor and nurse both want him to be well and happy.

After visiting a hospitalized adult, be sure your conversation in front of children emphasizes that "Aunt Minnie is getting well in the hospital" or that "Uncle Joe's pain is all gone, thanks to the doctor's care."

Explain the physical set-up of the hospital in language he understands. Tell him of hospital rules and the reasons for them —why he can't have candy, why he must eat specially-prepared meals, why he can't run around as he does at home.

LET HIM TAKE his favorite toy with him and if the hospital allows it, his own pajamas too. If he has something familiar with him, he is more likely to accept being away from home.

Tell him when you will visit him. Don't make promises that can't be kept. He'll look forward to visiting hours, so be sure to enter his room with a smile.

Bring a small gift when you visit, something that will break the monotony of the hospital day It might be a new book to read or color or a booklet his doctors and nurses can autograph for him.

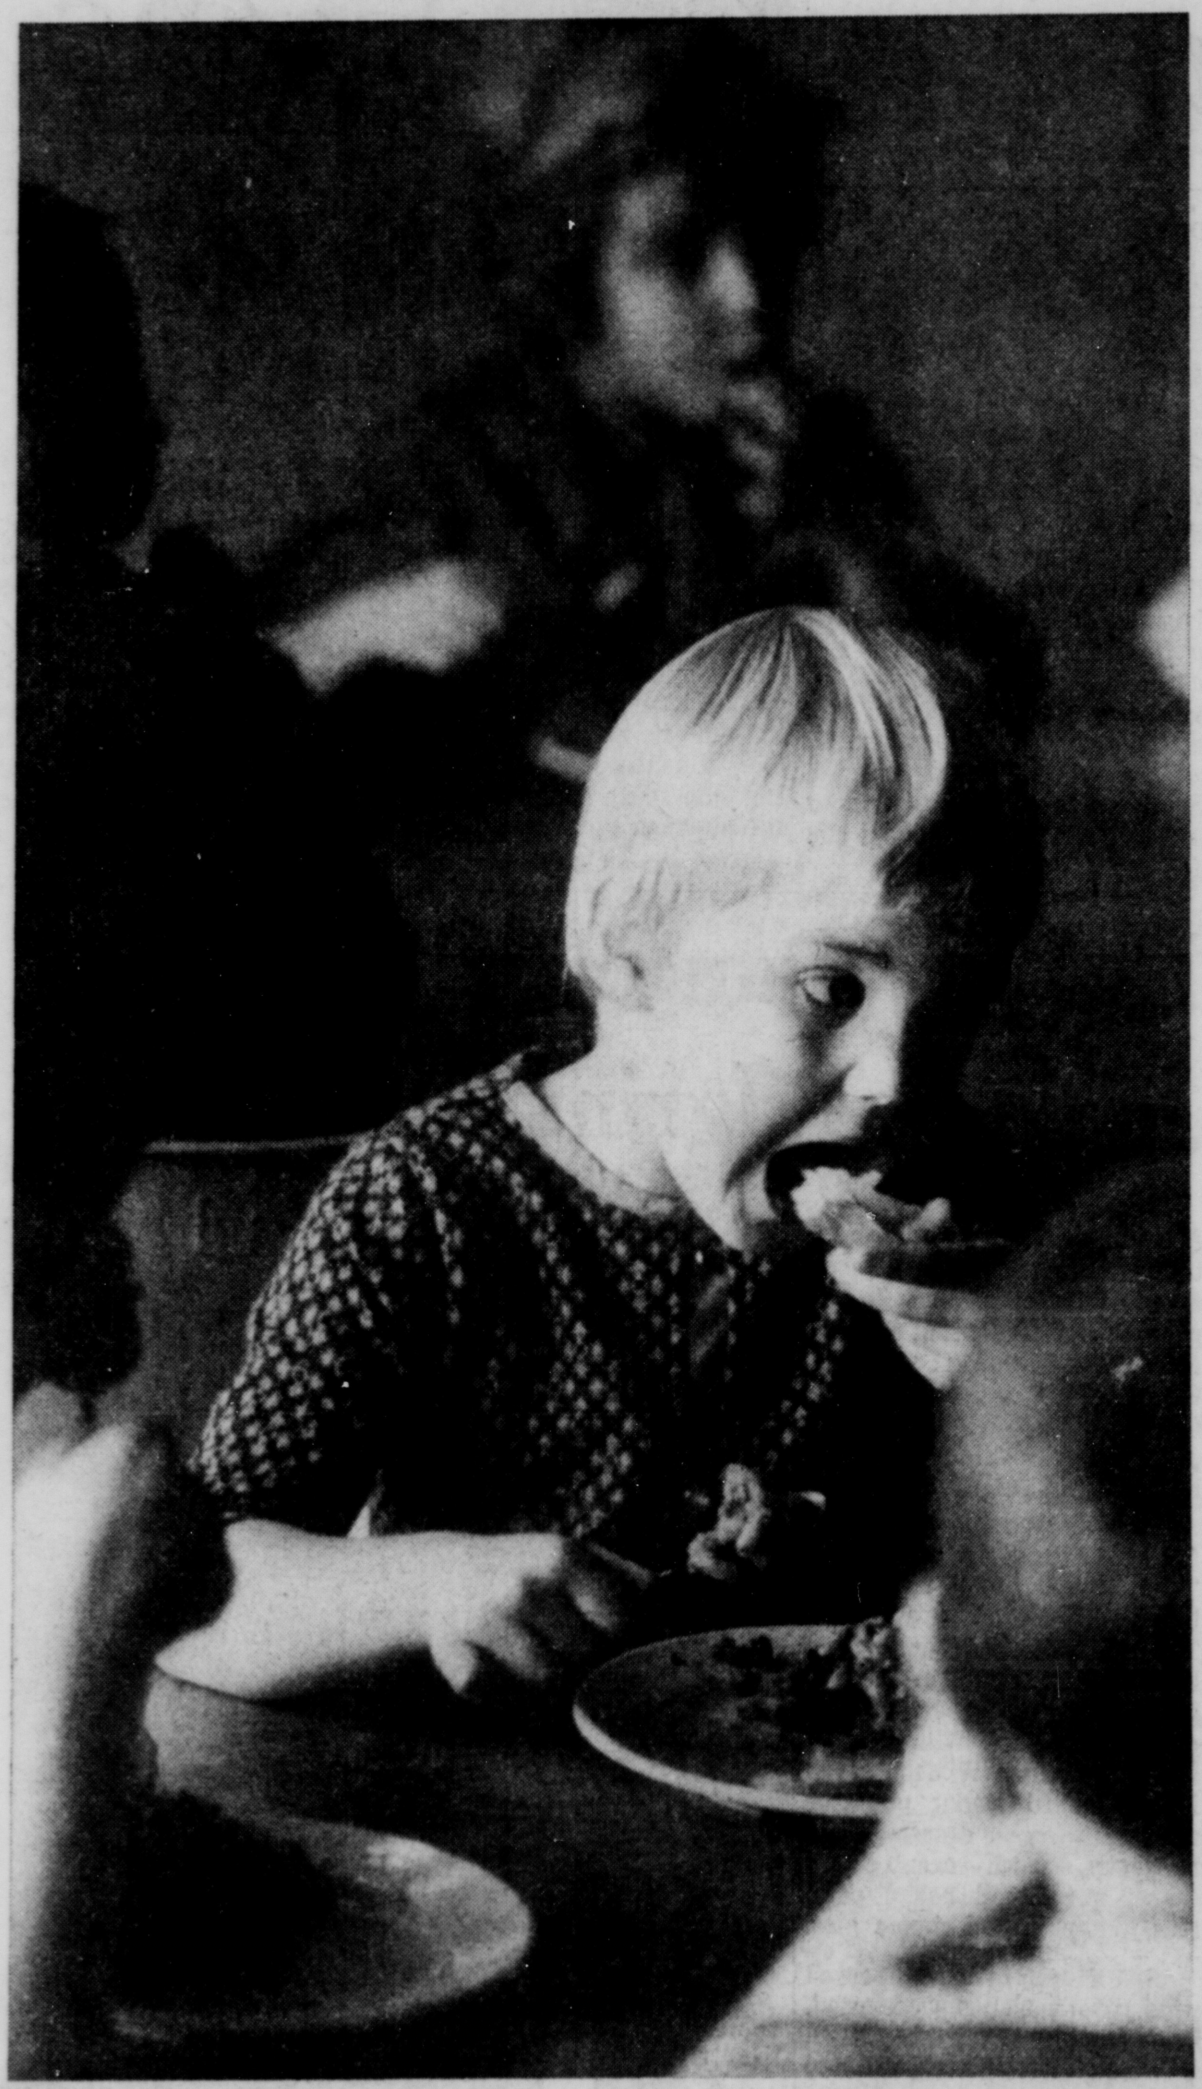
Encourage friends and relatives to send cards or letters. Children love to open mail.

PERSONAL gifts add color to a hospital room. If they're from brothers, sisters or playmates they'll have extra meaning. Brother could send a balloon that can be tied to the bedpost. Sister might contribute an original finger painting.

A get-well telegram from Grandma and Grandpa will be displayed with pride, and a bouquet of favorite flowers is a welcome surprise for a young lady patient.

Finally, don't try to fool him. If it's going to hurt, he'll find out about it. Tell him honestly the general procedure the doctor will follow, and explain that he's going to the hospital to get well.

FOLLOWING these suggestions might not make a youngster's hospital stay any shorter, but the days will go by faster, and he'll remember the hospital as the place he "got well."



HOT LUNCH TASTES mighty good after an active morning of class and play activities at the Choo Choo View Nursery School, a combination nursery school and day care center in Wood Dale. After their hot meal, the youngsters retire to the basement gym area where each has his own cot for the daily rest period. Most of the pupils have working mothers and stay at the school from early morning till mid or late afternoon. (Staff Photo)

Homemaker Service Needs, Plan Cited

Homemaker service is an area where "community leadership in the United States has fallen down on the job," according to the chief of the U.S. Children's Bureau, Mrs. Katherine B. Oettinger.

She told attendants at the third annual National Suburban Homemakers Conference in Chicago that growth of homemaker programs has been "distressingly slow. Only in recent years has it accelerated. In terms of the public need, these gains are a drop in the bucket."

At the Nov. 19-20 conference, she stressed the importance to families—and especially to children — of professional homemaker service programs sponsored by community health or welfare agencies.

"YOU SUBURBAN homemakers have the responsibility especially in this neglected area of homemaker services, to give special attention to this field because it is one in which you yourselves excel," she said.

"I hope you will not be reluctant to discharge it. You are in a position to bring the community up to your own aspiration and to bestir your fellow citizens when they are indifferent or just plain not interested."

She explained that the purpose of homemaker service is to prevent family breakdown and improve the quality of family life.

"THE HOMEMAKER'S role is to stabilize and unify families threatened by illness, death, emotional disturbances, handicaps, and other problems. These crises cut across the full width and breadth of the community.

"They are no respecter of persons—rich or poor. They can strike anyone at any time—in urban centers, city suburbs, or rural areas.

"Homemaker service means that when the mother is ill, when she is in the home but incapacitated, when the immature or deprived mother struggles to learn housekeeping, or when emergency arises, a specially trained woman is ready to step in to care for the children and generally help to hold the family together."

GOOD HOMEMAKER service is conducted by a health or welfare agency—either public or voluntary — which employs a sufficient number of homemakers to maintain continuity of service, Mrs. Oettinger said.

"The agency selects its homemakers carefully and trains them adequately. It provides for their continuing supervision by social welfare caseworkers to maintain high standards. Finally, it assures the sound fiscal and administrative operation of the program."

MRS. OETTINGER emphasized the need for homemaker service to be available in every American town and community.

RHYTHM BANDS are an important tool used by the nursery school teacher. Young pupils at the Mount Prospect Nursery School learn to play in four-quarter and three-quarter time, using such simple instruments as the triangle, maracas, small drums, wood blocks, bells, tambourines and sticks. The young man seems more interested in how his classmate is doing than in watching the teacher. (Staff Photo)

Social Development Is a Primary Goal

by PAT ADAM
Staff Writer

Children still scamper up the steps of the quaint white building at Thayer and Wille in Mount Prospect.

A new generation is learning in the school that first held classes in the 1870's at its original location at Elmhurst and Central Roads.

The atmosphere, however, is far different from those 19th century days, for the children attending class there now are pre-schoolers getting their first taste of academic life.

THE MOUNT Prospect Nursery School which holds sessions twice daily Monday through Friday is one of several such schools in the northwest suburbs helping prepare youngsters for their first formal school experience.

Its director is Mrs. Marian W. Baker, who founded her school about eight years ago after having taught at the Arlington Nursery School and done substitute teaching as well as conduct adult education classes in Chicago.

THE PHILOSOPHY she defined as the basis for the Mount Prospect Nursery School probably expresses that of four others in the area, Arlington and Village Nursery Schools, Arlington Heights; Flower Garden Nursery School, Palatine, and St. Mark Lutheran Nursery, Mount Prospect.

"The school is concerned with the feelings and behavior of young children. Its concern is for each child in his relationships to himself, to other children, to grown-ups and to his surroundings.

"It is our hope that this experience with school and home together may affect the present and future well being of the child and that the association between the child and the nursery school will be a happy, healthy and educational experience."

Who attends nursery school? The child with few or no playmates his own age, the shy youngster, the child getting insufficient attention at home, the youngster of a working mother, the immature or slow child, Mrs. Baker said.

For each, nursery school combines an experience in social adjustment with one in education. The satff tries to make it all fun.

CREATIVE expression is encouraged by simple crafts such as clay, finger paints, easel painting and crayons, by music and by dramatics. A sense of rhythm is developed through rhythm bands, listening to records, singing and dancing.

The school also is concerned with muscle development, from the tine muscles of eyes and fingers to the large muscles of the legs. Many of its activities prepare the child for learning to read.

Nursery schools are licensed and inspected by the state. They are required to have a minimum indoor area of 35 square feet per child and 45 square feet per child outdoors.

REGULATIONS also cover the number of pupils per teacher—one for every 10 children under four, one for every 15 to 18 four-year-olds, and one for every 20 to 22 five-year-olds. Each child is required to have a medical examination prior to entry.

Many of the schools also prefer to interview both parents and child before the pupil is accepted.

Nursery schools enroll children from three to five years of age, though some take only the four and five-year-olds. Morning sessions are for those who require naps in the afternoon, while the ones who can forego that after-lunch snooze come to the afternoon sessions.

THE TYPICAL nursery school schedule includes free play time, outlets for physical exertion, quiet activities and a toilet, rest and snack period.

Because the pre-schooler's attention span is short, no activity lasts very long. However, one of the aims of the nursery school experience is to lengthen that attention span and also develop the child's ability to listen and follow directions.

Except for special occasions, parents are out of the picture.

"Children behave much better when their parents are not around," Mrs. Baker explained. "They seem to resent any attention their mothers give to other children."

A DIFFERENT kind of care is provided through the combination nursery school-day care center. This center is intended primarily for children of working mothers although some youngsters do attend to take advantage of the social experience.

The day is much longer at a day care center. Some open as early as 6 a.m., and they remain open until 5 or 6 p.m. Facilities include a dormitory-like room where the children may nap, and rest time is required for all full-day pupils whether or not they actually sleep.

Day care centers also provide the children with hot lunches.

THE CHOO CHOO View Nursery at Wood Dale has 60 children, ranging from one two-year-old to some who are six. It requires that two-year-olds be completely toilet trained, said Mrs. Josephine Pope, the assistant director.

A staff of eight, including several teachers, a dietician, a bus driver and someone to clean, is necessary to operate the Choo Choo Nursery.

This particular center also interviews the parents and the child before enrolling the pupil.

Day care centers also are state licensed and inspected regularly, and the children must have medical examinations.

THE DAILY schedule includes class time, free play time—outdoors in the large play area, weather permitting — lunch and nap time.

Elk Grove Pre-School, Elk Grove Village, operates in similar fashion.

The Nazarene Nursery School, Linnemann and Dempster Streets, Mount Prospect, is one of two operated by the Church of the Nazarene in the northwest suburbs. While its program is similar to that at Choo Choo View, and Elk Grove Pre-School its day care and nursery school operations are separate, with 24 full-day enrollees and 19 in the nursery school.

Palatine Nursery and Day Care Center now limits itself to being strictly a day care center and attempts to maintain a family atmosphere for the 20 children currently enrolled, according to its director, Mrs. Jeane Kelley.

THE PLAYSCHOOL maintained by the Arlington Heights Park District offers another kind of pre-school experience. Its activities are akin to those of the nursery school, but mothers are required to assist the teachers. It meets only three days a week.

"We try to give the children as many activities as we possibly can with a limited budget," explained Mrs. Ida Mae Hamley, one of the three teachers.

Be Wary and Merry

Shop Locally For Christmas

By WILLIAM G. CLARK
Illinois Attorney General

Christmas is a time to be wary as well as merry.

The gyp artists are always coming up with new angles on old schemes, and a word of warning at the start of the shopping season may save you from being the one they were fishing for.

Basically, of course, be wary of "bait" advertising and don't be rushed by door-to-door salesmen. As always, rely on your local Chamber of Commerce or Better Business Bureau for reliable information about such salesmen and sales firms.

Stop, too, in the hectic rush of shopping to consider that you can contribute much to the prosperity of your own community as well as your peace of mind if you spend your Christmas savings with local, reliable dealers.

PROPERTY owners benefit consistently from a well-balanced business district in two essential ways:

1) Local dealers pay local taxes and help establish a sound community.

2) Local dealers depend chiefly on area residents for sales and services; therefore, they stand behind their products and their guarantees.

IN SMALLER communities or old established neighborhoods in the cities, where the neighbors are on a first-name basis, the "package hoax" nets a profit for nobody but the shyster salesman. Beware of messengers who knock on your door and ask you to pay the C.O.D. charge on a package for one of your neighbors.

When you knock on your neighbor's door that evening to deliver the package and collect the C.O.D. charges, you could find you are out the entire cost and had paid for a brick, old newspapers, or a wad of cotton.

If your neighbor hasn't mentioned an expected package and left you the money for it, don't take a chance on accepting the package. Reliable firms who have delivery services will stop again and again to deliver the package to the person who ordered it, as they will be doing considerable business in the area.

IN ADAPTING the hoax for business offices, confidence men call first to see if the boss is in. During his lunch hour or while they have established that he is away from the office, an appropriately dressed messenger boy arrives with a C.O.D. package.

Should the secretary or receptionist pay for the package out of the petty cash drawer, she will earn her boss' ire. Even if he has occasionally had packages delivered, a legitimate delivery service will have a bill of lading or other forms which will identify the source.

Reliable firms will also require that delivery services secure the signature of the person who received the package for the purchaser, chiefly to protect their own interest.

AS ALWAYS, beware of high-priced items offered at low prices. Alert consumers know that, Christmas season or not, if you pay bargain prices you may end up with shoddy, bargain merchandise.

24 TV Dinners

The complete TV dinner is here to stay, reports Associated Food Retailers of Illinois.

There are now 24 different complete dinners available, in addition to the 198 prepared individual items of meats, vegetables, fruits and bakery goods in the average grocery frozen-food display.

Lighten Child's Hospital Stay

The world of children is full of happy things like lollipops and learning to read, birthdays and bicycles, grammar school and visits to grandma.

Sometimes a case of measles or mumps, or even the sniffles, invades the happy-go-lucky world of childhood and slows down a youngster for a few days. Parents hope nothing more serious than a brief stay-at-home illness will strike because a hospital stay for a young child isn't a pleasant thought.

BUT IT DOES happen. Government statistics indicate 10 per cent of all hospital patients are between the ages of 5 and 14.

A youngster's hospital stay might be caused by something as simple as a tonsillectomy, as elusive as a virus, or as complicated as a defective heart valve.

Whatever the reason for hospitalization, the importance of preparing a child for a trip to the hospital is recognized by wise parents. Kimberly-Clark Corp. offers these suggestions to help children accept and understand hospital care:

WHENEVER YOUR child visits the doctor for a regular medical check-up, emphasize that the doctor and nurse both want him to be well and happy.

After visiting a hospitalized adult, be sure your conversation in front of children emphasizes that "Aunt Minnie is getting well in the hospital" or that "Uncle Joe's pain is all gone, thanks to the doctor's care."

Explain the physical set-up of the hospital in language he understands. Tell him of hospital rules and the reasons for them —why he can't have candy, why he must eat specially-prepared meals, why he can't run around as he does at home.

LET HIM TAKE his favorite toy with him and if the hospital allows it, his own pajamas too. If he has something familiar with him, he is more likely to accept being away from home.

Tell him when you will visit him. Don't make promises that can't be kept. He'll look forward to visiting hours, so be sure to enter his room with a smile.

Bring a small gift when you visit, something that will break the monotony of the hospital day It might be a new book to read or color or a booklet his doctors and nurses can autograph for him.

Encourage friends and relatives to send cards or letters. Children love to open mail.

PERSONAL gifts add color to a hospital room. If they're from brothers, sisters or playmates they'll have extra meaning. Brother could send a balloon that can be tied to the bedpost. Sister might contribute an original finger painting.

A get-well telegram from Grandma and Grandpa will be displayed with pride, and a bouquet of favorite flowers is a welcome surprise for a young lady patient.

Finally, don't try to fool him. If it's going to hurt, he'll find out about it. Tell him honestly the general procedure the doctor will follow, and explain that he's going to the hospital to get well.

FOLLOWING these suggestions might not make a youngster's hospital stay any shorter, but the days will go by faster, and he'll remember the hospital as the place he "got well."

Here's HAUGH to Plan a Party

Maple Leaf Tea is Dolores' Version of English Custom

By DOLORES HAUGH

The English have a good thing going, namely a little time in the afternoon for tea and it would do the American housewife good to sit down to a hot cup of tea (or coffee) and some quiet visiting. Why not plan a Maple Leaf Tea?

INVITATIONS

The invitations can be cut from bright gold colored construction paper or you may wish to purchase some maple leaf motif note paper or ready-made invitations. If you do your own, it is a simple matter to cut a maple leaf. Draw the veins in dark brown and write the following on the reverse side:

Maple leaves are dropping.
Won't you drop in too?
I'd just love to serve some tea
And have a chat with you.

State time, place and then plan ahead so you can enjoy the visit you promised to your guests. A hostess that is in the kitchen or bobbing up and down to get things she forgot can hardly carry on any kind of intelligent conversation.

PREPARATION

Get out your prettiest cups and saucers and if you collect friendship cups use them, by all means. A beautiful cut glass sugar and creamer with silver service can set any tea on the level for which it was intended.

Since you have called this a Maple Leaf Tea, plan on using maple flavoring wherever possible. If you serve little tea sandwiches, cut them with a leaf cutter and tint the fillings gold or use egg salad. Tiny petits fours with Maple leaves tucked beneath them make a lovely tray. You may use the florist-bought leaves or artificial ones. Top your cakes with maple frosting, and instead of mints serve tiny homemade squares of maple fudge.

DECORATIONS

With the trays and the cups you will want to use a simple background so choose gold or dark brown for the cloth and napkins. A sheaf of wheat on your serving tray sets the season, too. Tie the napkins with velvet ribbon in a contrasting gold or brown.

When guests arrive be sure the coffee is ready and the tea is warm in a cozy. If you have a fireplace have a bright and cheering fire and serve so that your guests may enjoy it. These are indeed nippy days when the warmth of the hearth and the heart are needful. So, enjoy a Maple Leaf Tea and have a cup for me.

Health Problems Cause 'Cold Air Prisoners'

Sportsmen, take heart!

If cold air and winds keep you from enjoying your favorite outdoor pastimes in winter, you're not just being a "sissy"—and you're certainly not alone.

According to physician-sportsman Dr. Julius M. Kowalski of Princeton, your sensitivity to cold is shared by millions of persons with heart and lung problems such as asthma, bronchitis, angina and emphysema.

HE LABELS these unfortunate individuals "cold air prisoners."

Reporting in the current issue of the Illinois Medical Journal—official publication of the Illinois State Medical Society—Dr. Kowalski said these people suffered "... pain, cough and shortness of breath every time they venture out in cold weather. Even the shortest exposure, like walking to the bus, can cause intolerable distress."

In addition, he said, many sensitive persons actually suffer allergic reactions to winter's icy blasts. The consequences of intolerance to cold air are more serious than one might think. Dr. Kowalski said the problem costs industry millions of dollars in lost work hours each year and forces thousands of children to miss school.

"JUST WHY cold air causes such crippling effects in susceptible persons has been a medical problem for many years," the physician explained. He said the answer was discovered only recently in studies of patients with angina pectoris—a painful constriction of the blood vessels of the heart.

"Anginal patients suffer attacks — or at least display changes in heart circulation—when their mouth and nose are exposed to cold air. These reactions demonstrated to medical scientists that cold air can aggravate receptors in the upper respiratory tract of persons with a variety of lung and heart problems."

SOON AFTER these observations were verified, Dr. Kowalski reported, medical science came to the rescue—with a cold air mask that fits over the nose and mouth and actually preheats cold air before it is breathed in.

"The cold air mask permits thousands of sportsmen who are sensitive to cold air or suffering from some chronic respiratory tract condition to watch or participate in their favorite cold weather sports without consequence," Dr. Kowalski asserted.

Many persons who formerly had to reject outdoor jobs are now able to make the living of their choice in relative comfort.

"Even children who formerly were 'cold air cripples' because of asthma, bronchitis and other chronic lung and heart conditions are now able to romp in the snow with other kids."

A PIONEER IN the development of the cold air mask is Dr. Louis A. Terman, an internist at Columbus Hospital in Chicago. Dr. Terman's mask—produced commercially by Carmen Commodities Corp. of Chicago—is made of knitted washable cloth and heats pre-inhaled air to a comfortable 65 degrees. Heated by a small, nickel-cadmium battery worn in the patient's pocket or coat, the unit can be used for 3½ to 5 hours without a battery recharge.

"Although not a cure for the underlying conditions affected by cold air," Dr. Kowalski asserted, "cold air masks eliminate distress and reduce chances of incapacitating attacks even in blustry winds and freezing temperatures. In this way they provide new freedom for 'cold air prisoners.'" (S

'Africa' Is Topic At Church Supper

An African student and an Arlington Heights man who spent three years in Africa were speakers at a joint potluck supper on Nov. 20 for the Women's Fellowship and Adult Fellowship of the Congregational United Church of Christ.

The two were Gary Gappert, 25-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gappert, 620 E. Lincoln Road, and Isariah Kimambo, a Tanganyikan who has spent six years as a student in this country.

Both are graduate students at Northwestern University. They spoke on "New Nations of Africa."

GAPPERT, who taught English and chemistry in a Tanganyika secondary school during his stay there, discussed historical influences of African national development. Kimambo, taking the personal view, explained how his countrymen of differing generations react to independence and self-rule.

Gappert also told about recent governmental changes which have resulted in a union between Tanganyika and its offshore West Africa neighbor, Zanzabar. To the contrary of press reports, he said, the changes have left pro-Communist elements with little power.

Both speakers are studying Africa as graduate students, with Gappert emphasizing economics and Kimambo most interested in African history.

Mrs. John Horton, Mrs. William Koch and Mrs. Thomas Dickinson were hostesses for the potluck supper, attended by 40 persons.

Judges Need Sweet Tooth For Contest

Judges will be munching dozens of homemade candies against a musical background of Christmas carols Wednesday, Dec. 9, when St. Colette Women's Club of Rolling Meadows sponsors a candy-making contest. Adams, 392-3125, and bring along a sample of their favorite homemade candy.

Music for the judging will be by the St. Colette School Choir. The contest is scheduled to be the feature event of the December meeting which is being held in the church hall.

At the group's November meeting, the Fawn Beauty Salon presented a hair-styling show which demonstrated the latest in hair fashions and gave tips on how to wear and care for hair pieces and wigs.

Card Party Tuesday

The annual Christmas card and game party sponsored by St. Mary's Altar and Rosary Society of Buffalo Grove will be held Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Blair, Inc., Finance Forum of America, who spoke on "Women and Investments."

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. William Schoepke of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Paul Siegert of Palatine and Mrs. Albert Thornton of Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Richard Milford of Winnetka, ways and means chairman, reported that proceeds from the recent "Ice Follies" benefit were turned over to the scholarship fund of the Chicago Junior School for students in need of financial aid.

THIRTEEN-DAY CRUISE in the West Indies was recently completed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dorn, 101 W. Lonnquist Parkway, Mount Prospect. Pictured on board the Grace Line's Santa Rosa, which sailed from New York, the couple visited Curacao, N.W.I.; La Guarira, Caracas, Venezuela, Aruba, N.W.I., Kingston, Jamaica, Port-au-Prince, Haiti and Port Everglades, Fort Lauderdale-Miami.

Holiday Dance Follows Juniors' Pilgrim Feast

"Research into the Pilgrim's first Thanksgiving feast shows that dinners of bygone years and those of today stick to one general pattern," said hostess Mrs. Jack Ivans of the Elk Grove Village Junior Woman's Club at the Nov. 19 meeting of the American Home Group in her home at 904 Creighton.

Set against a background of fall flowers and glowing candles, "The Country of the Month Table" consisted of a complete Thanksgiving dinner quite similar in menu to that of the Pilgrims. Hostess Mrs. Jack Ivans, co-hostesses Mrs. William Busse, Mrs. William Wildeboer and Mrs. Richard Hanat prepared roast turkey and dressing, giblet gravy, fresh cranberry sauce, sweet and baked potatoes, pumpkin and mince pies.

AS THE PILGRIMS served wine, two varieties were used. For fruit and nuts, the women substituted a Waldorf salad and served crabmeat balls in the place of eel, lobster or clams. Cornbread was substituted for the roasted corn and Indian pudding of the Pilgrims.

Guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. John Sardesin, associate Executive Director of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, spoke on "Rearing Children for Today's World."

Mrs. Nick Boudas, chairman of the group, discussed plans for the December meeting, when highlight will be a sale of handwork within the group with proceeds going to a worthy cause.

PASTEL CHRISTMAS TREES, "spun sugar" balls and candlelight will add to the romantic atmosphere of Elk Grove Village Junior Woman's Club "Prelude to Christmas" cocktail dance Saturday, Dec. 5, in Salt Creek Country Club. Mrs. Richard Hanat, Mrs. Robert Vraney, dance chairman, and Mrs. Jack Ivans display the modernistic decorations. The dance, open to the public, begins at 9 p.m. with music by the Montclairs. Tickets are available by calling 437-1643.

Palatine Couple Married 50 Years

As Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hofbauer dined with their family last week in the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan, 50 years of memories passed by in revue, for they were remembering another November in 1914 when they repeated marriage vows in Chicago's Holy Name Church. With them this Nov. 25 were their son, Clement of Mount Prospect and their daughters, Elaine Burks of Libertyville and Marilyn Decker of Rolling Meadows, along with their families and one grandchild.

Residents of Chicago until six years ago when they moved to Rolling Meadows to make their home with Marilyn, the anniversary couple is now residing in an apartment at 25 N. Greeley in Palatine. The move to Rolling Meadows climaxed for Mr. Hofbauer, a long career as a short order buyer and chauffeur for various meat packers, including Great Western Beef, Wilsons and Richters. Chicago's big hotels were among Mr. Hofbauer's regular stops and he well recalls making the meat deliveries by horse.

The couple met at a house party and were engaged two years before their marriage. Enjoying their retirement, the Hofbauers are now "taking life easy" in their Palatine apartment. (S

Heart Patients Can Maintain Normal Life

BY JIM BADE
Chicago Heart Association
(First of Two Articles)

Twenty years ago most people believed that a heart attack generally meant retirement from life.

Today, with new knowledge about heart disease, this view no longer prevails. Complete recovery is common, and having recovered from an attack, most patients can look forward to the "good life" — usually with only moderate changes in the way they lived before their coronary.

In fact, judging from the November issue of "Modern Concepts of Cardiovascular Disease," the coronary gives the heart patient an excuse to lead the life he should perhaps have been living all along — one of healthful moderation.

A REVIEW for physicians on current treatment of post-heart attack patients, the issue is authored by Drs. Clarence E. de la Chapelle and Charles A. R. Connor of New York University Schools of Medicine in New York City. The discussion will be concluded in the December number of this monthly professional bulletin published by the American Heart Association. The publication is distributed to 1,500 physicians in Cook, Lake and DuPage counties by the Chicago Heart Association.

Reflecting the changes in outlook that have occurred, the article points out that nowadays approximately 80 per cent of patients who recover from an attack return to work — and are encouraged by their physicians to do so. The majority of those able to work resume their former occupations, usually within three months.

To underscore the new atti- President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The bulk of the "Modern Concepts" piece offers a comprehensive check-list for the physician on advice to be given a patient who is "out of the woods" after his attack. Some of its recommendations follow:

WORK HABITS: Chances are if recovery has been uneventful — and it's a mild first attack — the patient can resume some business responsibilities after a short convalescence, even as short as a month. But a little caution is in order.

Total working hours should be reduced. Special assignments involving long - distance trips should be deleted from the schedule. A full hour for lunch (if not more) followed by a half hour of complete physical relaxation and rest, preferably lying down —should become a lifelong habit.

During this rest period, no distraction; that means no TV, no radio, no telephone calls. Apart from business responsibilities, too many civic and tude, the authors note that now "it is even possible for a patient who has recovered from a documented myocardial infarct (heart attack) to obtain life insurance."

As clear-cut examples of complete recovery with return to normal living, the New York physicians cite President Lyndon B. Johnson and former pilanthropic claims on the individual's free time can become a source of stress and should be kept to a minimum.

EXERCISE: Walking should remain the main form of exercise for most. Golf, swimming, hunting and fishing are mainly suitable for those persons who regularly engaged in these activities prior to their heart attack, Drs. de la Chapelle and Connor say. Strenuous, competitive games like soft ball, tennis, squash and even badminton should be avoided.

Setting-up exercises are O.K. as long as they are not strenuous — like push-ups or pull-ups. The Turkish bath, the steam room, the ice-cold needle spray or shower are best avoided by the post-coronary patient.

DRIVING: Piloting a car may work up a lot of tension — more than the driver may be aware of —especially in city traffic. It might be wise to let someone else in the family drive during the first few months.

Next Week: a capsule rundown on some other prescriptions for the man who has recovered from a heart attack—from wining and dining to sex, vacations and travel. (S

Here's HAUGH to Plan a Party

Maple Leaf Tea is Dolores' Version of English Custom

By DOLORES HAUGH

The English have a good thing going, namely a little time in the afternoon for tea and it would do the American housewife good to sit down to a hot cup of tea (or coffee) and some quiet visiting. Why not plan a Maple Leaf Tea?

INVITATIONS

The invitations can be cut from bright gold colored construction paper or you may wish to purchase some maple leaf motif note paper or ready-made invitations. If you do your own, it is a simple matter to cut a maple leaf. Draw the veins in dark brown and write the following on the reverse side:

Maple leaves are dropping.
Won't you drop in too?
I'd just love to serve some tea
And have a chat with you.

State time, place and then plan ahead so you can enjoy the visit you promised to your guests. A hostess that is in the kitchen or bobbing up and down to get things she forgot can hardly carry on any kind of intelligent conversation.

PREPARATION

Get out your prettiest cups and saucers and if you collect friendship cups use them, by all means. A beautiful cut glass sugar and creamer with silver service can set any tea on the level for which it was intended.

Since you have called this a Maple Leaf Tea, plan on using maple flavoring wherever possible. If you serve little tea sandwiches, cut them with a leaf cutter and tint the fillings gold or use egg salad. Tiny petits fours with Maple leaves tucked beneath them make a lovely tray. You may use the florist-bought leaves or artificial ones. Top your cakes with maple frosting, and instead of mints serve tiny homemade squares of maple fudge.

DECORATIONS

With the trays and the cups you will want to use a simple background so choose gold or dark brown for the cloth and napkins. A sheaf of wheat on your serving tray sets the season, too. Tie the napkins with velvet ribbon in a contrasting gold or brown.

When guests arrive be sure the coffee is ready and the tea is warm in a cozy. If you have a fireplace have a bright and cheering fire and serve so that your guests may enjoy it. These are indeed nippy days when the warmth of the hearth and the heart are needful. So, enjoy a Maple Leaf Tea and have a cup for me.

Village Friends Study Investing

Members of Chicago Junior School Village Friends met recently in the home of Mrs. Donald May, 1422 Gloria Drive, Palatine. Following dessert, Mrs. Walter Hidding of Arlington Heights, president of the group, introduced Mrs. M. E. Kalsem of Lorraine L. Blair, Inc., Finance Forum of America, who spoke on "Women and Investments."

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. William Schoepke of Arlington Heights, Mrs. Paul Siegert of Palatine and Mrs. Albert Thornton of Mount Prospect.

Mrs. Richard Milford of Winnetka, ways and means chairman, reported that proceeds from the recent "Ice Follies" benefit were turned over to the scholarship fund of the Chicago Junior School for students in need of financial aid.

THIRTEEN-DAY CRUISE in the West Indies was recently completed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dorn, 101 W. Lonnquist Parkway, Mount Prospect. Pictured on board the Grace Line's Santa Rosa, which sailed from New York, the couple visited Curacao, N.W.I.; La Guarira, Caracas, Venezuela, Aruba, N.W.I., Kingston, Jamaica, Port-au-Prince, Haiti and Port Everglades, Fort Lauderdale-Miami.

Health Problems Cause 'Cold Air Prisoners'

Sportsmen, take heart!

If cold air and winds keep you from enjoying your favorite outdoor pastimes in winter, you're not just being a "sissy"—and you're certainly not alone.

According to physician-sportsman Dr. Julius M. Kowalski of Princeton, your sensitivity to cold is shared by millions of persons with heart and lung problems such as asthma, bronchitis, angina and emphysema.

HE LABELS these unfortunate individuals "cold air prisoners."

Reporting in the current issue of the Illinois Medical Journal—official publication of the Illinois State Medical Society—Dr. Kowalski said these people suffered "... pain, cough and shortness of breath every time they venture out in cold weather. Even the shortest exposure, like walking to the bus, can cause intolerable distress."

In addition, he said, many sensitive persons actually suffer allergic reactions to winter's icy blasts. The consequences of intolerance to cold air are more serious than one might think. Dr. Kowalski said the problem costs industry millions of dollars in lost work hours each year and forces thousands of children to miss school.

"JUST WHY cold air causes such crippling effects in susceptible persons has been a medical problem for many years," the physician explained. He said the answer was discovered only recently in studies of patients with angina pectoris—a painful constriction of the blood vessels of the heart.

"Anginal patients suffer attacks — or at least display changes in heart circulation—when their mouth and nose are exposed to cold air. These reactions demonstrated to medical scientists that cold air can aggravate receptors in the upper respiratory tract of persons with a variety of lung and heart problems."

SOON AFTER these observations were verified, Dr. Kowalski reported, medical science came to the rescue—with a cold air mask that fits over the nose and mouth and actually preheats cold air before it is breathed in.

"The cold air mask permits thousands of sportsmen who are sensitive to cold air or suffering from some chronic respiratory tract condition to watch or participate in their favorite cold weather sports without consequence," Dr. Kowalski asserted.

Many persons who formerly had to reject outdoor jobs are now able to make the living of their choice in relative comfort.

"Even children who formerly were 'cold air cripples' because of asthma, bronchitis and other chronic lung and heart conditions are now able to romp in the snow with other kids."

A PIONEER IN the development of the cold air mask is Dr. Louis A. Terman, an internist at Columbus Hospital in Chicago. Dr. Terman's mask—produced commercially by Carmen Commodities Corp. of Chicago—is made of knitted washable cloth and heats pre-inhaled air to a comfortable 65 degrees. Heated by a small, nickel-cadmium battery worn in the patient's pocket or coat, the unit can be used for 3½ to 5 hours without a battery recharge.

"Although not a cure for the underlying conditions affected by cold air," Dr. Kowalski asserted, "cold air masks eliminate distress and reduce chances of incapacitating attacks even in blustry winds and freezing temperatures. In this way they provide new freedom for 'cold air prisoners.'" (S

Nursery Man Is Garden Club Guest

This is the annual dinner meeting for members and their husbands will be guests. Each member will bring a dish for the potluck dinner.

'Africa' Is Topic At Church Supper

An African student and an Arlington Heights man who spent three years in Africa were speakers at a joint potluck supper on Nov. 20 for the Women's Fellowship and Adult Fellowship of the Congregational United Church of Christ.

The two were Gary Gappert, 25-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Gappert, 620 E. Lincoln Road, and Isariah Kimambo, a Tanganyikan who has spent six years as a student in this country.

Both are graduate students at Northwestern University. They spoke on "New Nations of Africa."

GAPPERT, who taught English and chemistry in a Tanganyika secondary school during his stay there, discussed historical influences of African national development. Kimambo, taking the personal view, explained how his countrymen of differing generations react to independence and self-rule.

Gappert also told about recent governmental changes which have resulted in a union between Tanganyika and its offshore West Africa neighbor, Zanzabar. To the contrary of press reports, he said, the changes have left pro-Communist elements with little power.

Both speakers are studying Africa as graduate students, with Gappert emphasizing economics and Kimambo most interested in African history.

Mrs. John Horton, Mrs. William Koch and Mrs. Thomas Dickinson were hostesses for the potluck supper, attended by 40 persons.

Judges Need Sweet Tooth For Contest

Adams, 392-3125, and bring along a sample of their favorite homemade candy.

Music for the judging will be by the St. Colette School Choir. The contest is scheduled to be the feature event of the December meeting which is being held in the church hall.

At the group's November meeting, the Fawn Beauty Salon presented a hair-styling show which demonstrated the latest in hair fashions and gave tips on how to wear and care for hair pieces and wigs.

Card Party Tuesday

The annual Christmas card and game party sponsored by St. Mary's Altar and Rosary Society of Buffalo Grove will be held Tuesday, Dec. 8, at 8 p.m. in the school hall.

Handicraft Attempts Leave Her All Thumbs

by BETTY AINSLIE

My heart is filled with envy, and right in the midst of the Christmas season too, but I've just been attending workshops and lectures on how to make lovely decorations for your home this holiday season.

And I discovered again that I have five thumbs on each hand and no knack in whipping up homemade gifts.

Haven't you been to lectures where some woman, bristling with talent, knows how simple it really is to make wreaths, arrangements and gifts beautiful enough to gladden any holiday spirit?

After the greens have relaxed in their bath of 1 teaspoon Clorox, 1 quart of hot water, ½ cup simple syrup or Karo and 1 tablespoon of green guard they're supposed to last almost forever.

Only don't do as I did and submerge the entire branch, then discover later that just the stems were to be dipped. Nothing like Scotch pine and frothy evergreens loaded with a sticky syrup. Incidentally, this mixture works fine for your Christmas tree trunk too, or so I'm told.

I STARTED off wrong and should have abandoned the entire idea and headed for a florist to purchase readymade decorations, but ambition and the enjoyment of personal achievement die hard, so I bought more greens.

And, the demonstrators use pins (a special kind), picks with wires, thick and thin wire, tapes, glitter, dust, glue and various fruit, nuts and doodads that tax your strength and originality to find.

Spirit I have, but little talent.

ONCE THIS creative spark kindles, you may struggle but never escape until you've concocted something you can point to with pride and say, "I made that."

Every year I purchase an endless number of special things with which to be creative and each New Year I throw them all away.

I can't even glue fancy paper from those gold colored doilies onto fat candles. I end up with almost as much stickum on the candle as I have on my hands.

Even the bows I tie leave much to be desired; they wrinkle in the wrong places and grow limp under my impatient fingers. Did you ever tie and re-tie some velvet or wide satin ribbon while trying to whip up a decent bow: I now keep the iron hot so I can press out all my mistakes time and again.

I HAVE A friend who makes lovely things throughout the entire year, but at Christmas time really outdoes herself with handmade gifts and decorations.

All year long she saves bits of colored, broken glass, jewelry, pieces of colored ribbon and other trimmings. She can see something made in a demonstration and come home and make the identical object herself. She is constantly searching for small music boxes, little figures which can be used in decorated and hollowed out styrofoam balls, colored papers or different gold and silver doilies.

Slowly and painstakingly she makes many lovely things. With a steady hand and a world of patience she enjoys the time she spends creating truly different household decorations.

AND HER explanation, "really it isn't hard to make at all," has me buying materials and trying my all-thumb hands at fashioning something myself—you see I never learn.

So this year I'm out again attending the "how to" decoration workshops. Once more I'm eagerly sucked into that happy Yuletide spirit and can easily visualize all these things whipped up by me for everyone to admire this Christmas season.

Magazines offer detailed instructions for making objects pictured in full color. This year there's an angel—all I need is a few yards of discraded sheet, wallpaper, paste, wire, string, paper cone and imagination.

DIRECTIONS SOUND simple, but this year I'm making my angel with a talented friend. She can follow directions and she has five clever fingers on each hand. Who knows? This year I may be able to point with pride to a decoration made almost by me! (S

Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell will be co-ordinator of a series of scenes in which an American family discusses Christmas in this country and in other lands and learns of the various holiday traditions and customs.

ESTHER CIRCLE will present a playlet depicting life in Sweden; Rachel circle will take the group to the Netherlands with its Dutch songs and a table of Christmas objects.

A visit to Mexico will be portrayed by Susanna Wesley circle, and Ruth circle will describe a trip to England, telling the origin of the Christmas card.

Sarah circle will decorate a Christmas tree in the traditions of Germany, and Martha circle will provide the story of the first Christmas creche in Italy.

NEW MEMBERS of the six circles will be introduced by Mrs. Gordon Adams, president of the WSCS.

A table of handwork will be displayed for early Christmas shopping. Proceeds of this bazaar will go toward sending one of Trinity church's college students to the eighth quadrennial conference of the Methodist Student Movement to be held Dec. 28 in Lincoln, Neb. This meeting will be composed of students and campus ministers from state, independent and Methodist-related college and universities. (S

THIS HAPPY GROUP combined work with sun and relaxation while attending a meeting of the Jewel Tea Company held last week at the Camelback Inn near Phoenix. The nouveau Westerners are the E. L. Johnsons, the H. T. Landons and the M. L. Hadleys, all of Arlington Heights. (S

Taped Music, Program For Arlington AAUW

Howard H. Rice of Buffalo Grove will play taped selections on a high fidelity sound system to illustrate his talk on "The Muric Mu Miracle of Mozart" Thursday, Dec. 10, before the Arlington Heights branch of the American Association of University Women.

The 8 p.m. meeting at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Building will be the AAUW branch's Christmas meeting, at which music is traditionally the program subject.

Rice, whose wife, Kathy, is music group chairman for the local branch, will play the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro" in its entirety and will draw extensively on Mozart's symphonies, concertos, choral works and operatic selections for his talk's accompaniment.

"MANY PEOPLE think of Mozart's music as pretty but sterile," says Rice. "I want to challenge this. I hope to show my listeners that Mozart is, instead, dynamic, exciting and very moving."

"And furthermore," he added with a twinkle, "I promise to do this without getting carried away with either frequency selective equalizer circuits or contrapuntal theory."

"Mr. Rice is well equipped to get 'carried away,' if he chose, with either subject," commented the program chairman. She explained that the speaker is an electrical engineering graduate who is a qualified recording engineer, and that he has been musical director and staff announcer for an FM music radio station in Coral Gables, Fla. Currently he is in charge of audio-visual presentations for the Motorola Communications division and is a member of the board of directors for the National Visual Presentation Association, a professional organization. He will draw on both his musical and technical backgrounds for his AAUW presentation.

GUESTS AND prospective members are both welcome to attend the meeting. Non-members may make arrangements to attend by calling the membership chairman, Mrs. Beaver Waring of Mount Prospect, at 392-3599.

Membership in AAUW is open to women graduates of accredited colleges and universities on the Association approved list. The Arlington Heights branch has 130 members. (S

Lines Are Busy

The Japanese telephone network, second only to that in the United Sattes, is being expanded at the rate of a million phones a year.

Past Presidents Support Veterans

The Past Presidents Club of Palatine Legion Auxiliary Unit 690 planned its final meeting of the year on Dec. 1 at Spero's Supper Club. This was a dinner party in lieu of a regular meeting.

The group of former presidents emphasize rehabilitation of war veterans during their yearly projects. They contribute gifts to hospitalized vets on birthdays and holidays and support the Veterans' Craft Exchange, a non-profit shop operated by the Illinois Department, Legion Auxiliary, at 30 W. Washington St., Chicago.

ANOTHER special interest of the group is the nurses' scholarship program maintained by the Legion auxiliary. Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis among high school girls, applications taken by the individual units for consideration.

Further information is available through the local high school.

A civil defense program was planned for the Palatine Legion Auxiliary meeting of Nov. 27. A movie entitled "Seconds for Survival" was shown, along with another on the March of Dimes.

Christmas Workshop Dec. 14 for Gardeners

Members of the Arlington Heights Garden Club will meet at Pioneer Park field house, Arlington Heights, at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Dec. 14, to participate in their annual Christmas workshop.

Greens and other workshop materials should be reserved by contacting Mrs. Lawrence Brown CL 9-4039.

As part of the civics program, festive greens will be placed in the Village Hall, Library and Northwest Community Hospital. Mrs. Max Ullerich, civics chairman, announces that the Arlington village limit posts will also be adorned with greens by members of the club.

The Garden Club's monthly meetings are held the fourth Monday and are open to both men and women in the community. There will be no regular meeting in December.

THE NOVEMBER meeting of the group featured Mrs. Wiley Carr, a national flower show judge, as speaker of the evening.

"The glory of the Christmas season was brought close to all in the form of her floral creativity. Her 'Partridge in a Pear Tree,' a door piece done in green and red was as unique as her 'Madonna in a Palm Arch' with candlelight in the background," said Gilbert Krohn, president of the club.

Highlight of the evening was the lighting of a black wrought iron candelabra graced with evergreens and red carnations. Mrs. William Fricke led the singing of "Silent Night" as the hall lights dimmed and the flicker of candles glowed upon the "Manger of Bethlehem in a wreath of Straw." (S

Haven't you been to lectures where some woman, bristling with talent, knows how simple it really is to make wreaths, arrangements and gifts beautiful enough to gladden any holiday spirit?

After the greens have relaxed in their bath of 1 teaspoon Clorox, 1 quart of hot water, ½ cup simple syrup or Karo and 1 tablespoon of green guard they're supposed to last almost forever.

Only don't do as I did and submerge the entire branch, then discover later that just the stems were to be dipped. Nothing like Scotch pine and frothy evergreens loaded with a sticky syrup. Incidentally, this mixture works fine for your Christmas tree trunk too, or so I'm told.

I STARTED off wrong and should have abandoned the entire idea and headed for a florist to purchase readymade decorations, but ambition and the enjoyment of personal achievement die hard, so I bought more greens.

And, the demonstrators use pins (a special kind), picks with wires, thick and thin wire, tapes, glitter, dust, glue and various fruit, nuts and doodads that tax your strength and originality to find.

Spirit I have, but little talent.

ONCE THIS creative spark kindles, you may struggle but never escape until you've concocted something you can point to with pride and say, "I made that."

Every year I purchase an endless number of special things with which to be creative and each New Year I throw them all away.

I can't even glue fancy paper from those gold colored doilies onto fat candles. I end up with almost as much stickum on the candle as I have on my hands.

Even the bows I tie leave much to be desired; they wrinkle in the wrong places and grow limp under my impatient fingers. Did you ever tie and re-tie some velvet or wide satin ribbon while trying to whip up a decent bow: I now keep the iron hot so I can press out all my mistakes time and again.

I HAVE A friend who makes lovely things throughout the entire year, but at Christmas time really outdoes herself with handmade gifts and decorations.

All year long she saves bits of colored, broken glass, jewelry, pieces of colored ribbon and other trimmings. She can see something made in a demonstration and come home and make the identical object herself. She is constantly searching for small music boxes, little figures which can be used in decorated and hollowed out styrofoam balls, colored papers or different gold and silver doilies.

Slowly and painstakingly she makes many lovely things. With a steady hand and a world of patience she enjoys the time she spends creating truly different household decorations.

AND HER explanation, "really it isn't hard to make at all," has me buying materials and trying my all-thumb hands at fashioning something myself—you see I never learn.

So this year I'm out again attending the "how to" decoration workshops. Once more I'm eagerly sucked into that happy Yuletide spirit and can easily visualize all these things whipped up by me for everyone to admire this Christmas season.

Magazines offer detailed instructions for making objects pictured in full color. This year there's an angel—all I need is a few yards of discraded sheet, wallpaper, paste, wire, string, paper cone and imagination.

DIRECTIONS SOUND simple, but this year I'm making my angel with a talented friend. She can follow directions and she has five clever fingers on each hand. Who knows? This year I may be able to point with pride to a decoration made almost by me! (S

Taped Music, Program For Arlington AAUW

Howard H. Rice of Buffalo Grove will play taped selections on a high fidelity sound system to illustrate his talk on "The Muric Mu Miracle of Mozart" Thursday, Dec. 10, before the Arlington Heights branch of the American Association of University Women.

The 8 p.m. meeting at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Building will be the AAUW branch's Christmas meeting, at which music is traditionally the program subject.

Rice, whose wife, Kathy, is music group chairman for the local branch, will play the Overture to "The Marriage of Figaro" in its entirety and will draw extensively on Mozart's symphonies, concertos, choral works and operatic selections for his talk's accompaniment.

"MANY PEOPLE think of Mozart's music as pretty but sterile," says Rice. "I want to challenge this. I hope to show my listeners that Mozart is, instead, dynamic, exciting and very moving."

"And furthermore," he added with a twinkle, "I promise to do this without getting carried away with either frequency selective equalizer circuits or contrapuntal theory."

"Mr. Rice is well equipped to get 'carried away,' if he chose, with either subject," commented the program chairman. She explained that the speaker is an electrical engineering graduate who is a qualified recording engineer, and that he has been musical director and staff announcer for an FM music radio station in Coral Gables, Fla. Currently he is in charge of audio-visual presentations for the Motorola Communications division and is a member of the board of directors for the National Visual Presentation Association, a professional organization. He will draw on both his musical and technical backgrounds for his AAUW presentation.

GUESTS AND prospective members are both welcome to attend the meeting. Non-members may make arrangements to attend by calling the membership chairman, Mrs. Beaver Waring of Mount Prospect, at 392-3599.

Membership in AAUW is open to women graduates of accredited colleges and universities on the Association approved list. The Arlington Heights branch has 130 members. (S

Further information is available through the local high school.

A civil defense program was planned for the Palatine Legion Auxiliary meeting of Nov. 27. A movie entitled "Seconds for Survival" was shown, along with another on the March of Dimes.

Greens and other workshop materials should be reserved by contacting Mrs. Lawrence Brown CL 9-4039.

"The glory of the Christmas season was brought close to all in the form of her floral creativity. Her 'Partridge in a Pear Tree,' a door piece done in green and red was as unique as her 'Madonna in a Palm Arch' with candlelight in the background," said Gilbert Krohn, president of the club.

Highlight of the evening was the lighting of a black wrought iron candelabra graced with evergreens and red carnations. Mrs. William Fricke led the singing of "Silent Night" as the hall lights dimmed and the flicker of candles glowed upon the "Manger of Bethlehem in a wreath of Straw." (S

Cook's Holiday Recipes Are Truly Norwegian

KRUMKAGE, MADE BY an authentic Norwegian recipe, are a Christmas tradition in the Raymond G. Benson household in Mount Prospect. Mrs. Benson makes these delicacies in a special krumkage iron which imprints a floral design on the cookies. They are formed into a conical shape while hot, and are a delicate and delicious taste treat.

Krumkage Iron Is Used for Cookies

by LOIS SEILER

Her Norwegian heritage plays an important role in Mrs. Raymond G. Benson's Christmas preparations.

All of her favorite holiday recipes were taught to her by her mother, and each is a little unique as well as authentically Norwegian.

Special equipment is needed to make two of the cookie recipes — Sanbakkels and Krumkage — while the Fatiman needs only a deep fat fryer.

"My father made my sanbakkel forms in Norway, but similar forms and krumkage irons can be purchased at Marshall Fields," Mrs. Benson said.

The Krumkage is an interesting cookie which is baked on the stove in a waffle-like iron which imprints a floral design on the cookie. The batter for this cookie is very thin, and is flavored with both orange and lemon extract. For variety, sherry, almond or vanilla may be substituted.

Baked one at a time, one tablespoon of the batter is placed in the krumkage iron. Browned lightly on both sides, the cookie is removed and immediately formed into a conical shape, which quickly becomes firm.

Delicate and shell-like with a floral design imprinted on them, these dainty and delicious cookies must be handled gently or they will crumble.

THE SANBAKKEL forms are individual little cups which resemble miniature cupcake forms and are fluted around the sides.

A rich and flavorful cookie batter is pressed into the forms to make a fluted cookie cup which is baked until a very light brown. When done, they are removed immediately from the form. This is done by turning it over and giving a sharp tap. Mrs. Benson warns that the forms should never be washed — only wiped out — to insure easy removal of the cookies.

This good cook has added to the original recipe by including chopped pecans in the batter. However, this ingredient is optional.

Similar to a butter cookie only more interesting in design, the delightful sanbakkels can be included in a cookie assortment or filled with strawberries and whipped cream and served as a dessert.

FOR THOSE who choose, this recipe may be used without the sanbakkel forms. The cookie batter may simply be rolled, refrigerated, sliced and baked.

Translated, Fatiman means a rich man's cookie, and this little delicacy is indeed a treat to any man.

The batter is flavored with a pinch of cardamom and a bit of brandy or vanilla. The dough, which is rubbery in texture, is rolled out thin.

"The thinner the dough, the better the cookie, my mother always said," commented Mrs. Benson.

Cut into diamond shapes with a pastry wheel, Fatiman is deep fried for just two minutes until lightly-browned.

SPRINKLED WITH powdered sugar, these delicate and delectable tidbits are an attractive addition to any cookie assortment.

In addition to her culinary and homemaking activities, Mrs. Benson participates in several organizations. She is program chairman for the Mount Prospect Homemakers' Extension Service, a 4-H leader, and teaches Sunday school at St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

The Bensons live at 1050 Meadow Lane in Mount Prospect. They have three children: Cynthia, 16, a high school junior; Pamela, 15, in her sophomore year, and Marsha, 13, who is in eighth grade.

KRUMKAGE

3 eggs, well beaten
½ cup butter
½ cup sugar
½ cup unsifted flour
½ teaspoon lemon extract
½ teaspoon orange extract

Add sugar to beaten eggs and beat well. Melt butter and add to mixture. Then add flour and flavoring. This will be a thin batter. For variation, sherry, almond or vanilla may be used to flavor the batter.

Place one tablespoon of the batter on a hot krumkage iron. Place the top down. Bake over range, one at a time, until done on both sides. (Should be light brown.)

When done, remove with knife from iron and roll cookie around your finger to form a cone immediately. Place on a cookie sheet and let cool. Cookies will get firm immediately. Handle gently; cookies are very delicate. Yield: 30 to 35 cookies.

SANBAKKEL

1 cup butter
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup brown sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup pecans, ground very fine (optional)
Additional flour (1 to 1½ cups)

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg, water and vanilla and beat until smooth. Sift the 2 cups flour and baking powder together and add to creamed mixture. Add pecans and mix.

Add approximately 1 to 1½ cups more flour to make batter the consistency of a rolled cookie so that it can be worked easily with your hands.

To make the sanbakkels, either of two methods can be used. The dough can be formed into small balls, 1-inch in diameter, and pressed into the sanbakkel forms.

OR, THE BATTER CAN be formed into rolls about 1½ inches in diameter, placed in the refrigerator for a few hours or overnight, sliced thin and pressed into sanbakkel forms.

Press the inside of the cup with your thumb until dough is even all around, forming a cup-like shape. Bake at 350 degrees until a very light brown, about 8 to 10 minutes. Immediately remove from forms by turning form over and giving a hard tap. Cookies will come out easily.

If the cups are made heavy enough, they can be filled with fresh strawberries and whipped cream or the filling of your choice.

This dough may also be formed into rolls, refrigerated, sliced and baked for a simple butter cookie.

The recipe makes 60 sanbakkels.

FATIMAN

1 whole egg
2 egg yolks
3 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons whipping cream
½ teaspoon brandy or vanilla
Tiny pinch of cardamom
1½ to 2 cups flour

Beat eggs until light and fluffy. Add sugar and beat well. Add cream and brandy and beat. Blend in flour and cardamom and mix well.

Roll out a small amount at a time to less than ⅛-inch in thickness. (Dough will be rubbery.) Cut in strips, 1 to 1½ inches in width, with a pastry wheel. Cut across dough diagonally to make diamond shapes. Make a slit in the center of each diamond. One corner of the diamond-shaped cookie may be pulled through the slit, if desired, or they may be left flat.

Fry in deep, hot fat, 350 degrees, for two minutes or until lightly-browned. When cold, sprinkle with powdered sugar. Yield: Approximately four dozen fatiman. (SH

Add sugar to beaten eggs and beat well. Melt butter and add to mixture. Then add flour and flavoring. This will be a thin batter. For variation, sherry, almond or vanilla may be used to flavor the batter.

Place one tablespoon of the batter on a hot krumkage iron. Place the top down. Bake over range, one at a time, until done on both sides. (Should be light brown.)

When done, remove with knife from iron and roll cookie around your finger to form a cone immediately. Place on a cookie sheet and let cool. Cookies will get firm immediately. Handle gently; cookies are very delicate. Yield: 30 to 35 cookies.

SANBAKKEL

1 cup butter
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup brown sugar
1 egg
2 tablespoons water
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup pecans, ground very fine (optional)
Additional flour (1 to 1½ cups)

Cream butter and sugar until light and fluffy. Add egg, water and vanilla and beat until smooth. Sift the 2 cups flour and baking powder together and add to creamed mixture. Add pecans and mix.

Add approximately 1 to 1½ cups more flour to make batter the consistency of a rolled cookie so that it can be worked easily with your hands.

To make the sanbakkels, either of two methods can be used. The dough can be formed into small balls, 1-inch in diameter, and pressed into the sanbakkel forms.

OR, THE BATTER CAN be formed into rolls about 1½ inches in diameter, placed in the refrigerator for a few hours or overnight, sliced thin and pressed into sanbakkel forms.

Press the inside of the cup with your thumb until dough is even all around, forming a cup-like shape. Bake at 350 degrees until a very light brown, about 8 to 10 minutes. Immediately remove from forms by turning form over and giving a hard tap. Cookies will come out easily.

If the cups are made heavy enough, they can be filled with fresh strawberries and whipped cream or the filling of your choice.

This dough may also be formed into rolls, refrigerated, sliced and baked for a simple butter cookie.

The recipe makes 60 sanbakkels.

FATIMAN

1 whole egg
2 egg yolks
3 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons whipping cream
½ teaspoon brandy or vanilla
Tiny pinch of cardamom
1½ to 2 cups flour

Beat eggs until light and fluffy. Add sugar and beat well. Add cream and brandy and beat. Blend in flour and cardamom and mix well.

Roll out a small amount at a time to less than ⅛-inch in thickness. (Dough will be rubbery.) Cut in strips, 1 to 1½ inches in width, with a pastry wheel. Cut across dough diagonally to make diamond shapes. Make a slit in the center of each diamond. One corner of the diamond-shaped cookie may be pulled through the slit, if desired, or they may be left flat.

Fry in deep, hot fat, 350 degrees, for two minutes or until lightly-browned. When cold, sprinkle with powdered sugar. Yield: Approximately four dozen fatiman. (SH

Juniors Welcome 8 New Members

Eight new members of the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's Club were guests of honor Monday evening, Nov. 16, at a "New Member's Social" held in the home of Mrs. Robert Brandt, 4374 Lincoln Court, Rolling Meadows.

The club is a member of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs and the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

NEW MEMBERS were greeted by Mrs. Edward Bansfield, membership chairman, and her committee.

Women interested in joining the Jrs. may contact Mrs. Bansfield at 255-8514.

Jaycee-ettes Plan 'Elephant' Auction

Have you seen any white elephants recently? That's the question Hoffman Estates Jaycee-ettes are asking their friends and neighbors.

The Jaycee-ette white elephant is a usable item in good condition that is wrapped and can be auctioned for up to 50 cents.

Auctioning of white elephants will be the highlight of the Jaycee-ettes' Third Annual White Elephant Card Party Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 8:30 p.m. in Hoffman School. "In the past, party guests have thoroughly enjoyed the excitement and surprise of bidding on a mysterious package. Such items as cooking pots, jewelry, dish towels, and knick knacks have been discovered under their camouflaging wrappings," commented the chairmen, Mrs. William Schumacher.

IN ADDITION to the auction, the evening will feature cards, games and refreshments. Proceeds will be used to pay the Jaycee-ettes' pledge for a bassinette for the Alexian Brothers Hospital.

All women are invited. Tickets are available from any Jaycee-ette or by calling Mrs. Schumacher, 894-3750 or ticket chairman, Mrs. Richard Terlaw, 894-5761. (S

Sorority Activities

Gamma Phi Gloves Are Sure to Turn Up Again

GAMMA PHI

"Is it true that 'good things come in small packages' or do gloves come in them?" is the two-fold question Gamma Phi Betas are asking. The gloves, tattered blue crocheted ones that have traditionally shown up in elaborate disguise at the Gamma Phi Beta December White Elephant sale, are expected to be among the gift-wrapped packages at the group's Wednesday, Dec. 9, meeting.

The meeting is being held in the Park Ridge home of Mrs. Walter Christopher where members will bid mere pennies for the "elephants." At another table will be homemade items, edible, wearable or decorative, which will require bids of $1 minimum.

All Gamma Phi alumnae are invited to participate by bringing their own surplus "treasures" plus a homemade item.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

A "Make It and Take It" party will be held Tuesday, Dec. 8, in the Park Ridge home of Mrs. Robert Ingolia as a special feature of the monthly meeting of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Profits of the venture will be donated to a needy family for Christmas. All Zetas attending are asked to bring two items, one to be auctioned off to the Zetas, and the other to be given to a needy family.

The group is also inviting any alumnae of Beta Sigma Omicron to the party.

ALPHA PHI

An early holiday party is the interest of the Alpha Phi alumnae. Husbands and wives will gather at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 5, in the Park Ridge home of Mr. and Mrs. David Elvart.

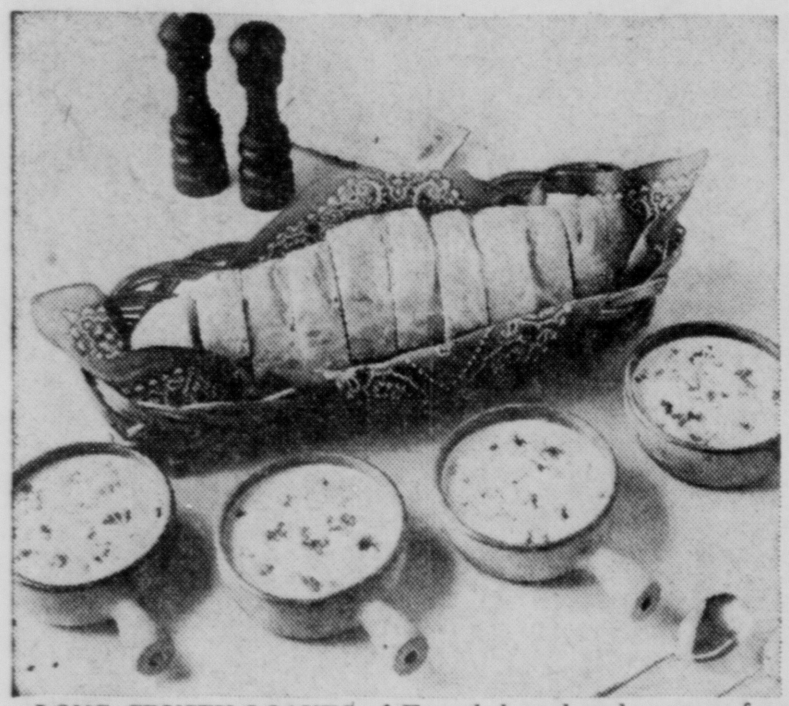
Young America Bakes Crusty French Bread



LONG CRUSTY LOAVES of French bread and cream of potato soup are ideal luncheon partners. Complete the menu with a green salad and platter of cold meats.

The French call their long, slender loaves of crusty bread "pain ordinaire" or "everyday bread." They serve it at almost every meal, including breakfast, and frequently for dessert with fruit and cheese.

Since fuel is scarce in rural France, and kitchen ovens inadequate, bread baking is a community affair.

OF NECESSITY, bread is still baked in old-fashioned outside ovens lined with bricks which are heated by wood fires underneath. The business of readying the ovens is such hard work that the wives of the community take turns each week baking enough bread for all.

In the outlying French provinces, where farming is the chief occupation, a typical breadfast consists of hunks of French bread with hot leek and potato soup.

The men in the family rise at dawn to milk the cows and attend to chores, then return home after the sun is up demanding just such a hot and hearty breakfast.

WHILE THIS menu might not be our idea of breakfast, it is not such a far cry from the combination of hot cereal and toast which we enjoy. French bread and soup are also ideal partners for lunches—perhaps with a green salad or platter of cold meats added.

FRENCH BREAD
(Makes 2 loaves)

2½ cups warm water (105 degrees-115 degrees F.)
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon margarine
7 cups unsifted flour
Corn meal
1 egg white
1 tablespoon cold water

Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add salt and margarine. Add flour and stir until flour is well blended (dough will be sticky.)

Place dough in greased bowl. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

TURN DOUGH onto lightly floured board. Divide into 2 equal portions. Roll each into an oblong 15 x 10 inches. Beginning at wide side, roll each up tightly towards you; seal edges by pinching together.

Taper ends by rolling gently back and forth. Place loaves on greased baking sheets sprinkled with cornmeal. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

With razor make 4 diagonal cuts on top of each loaf. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Remove from oven and brush with egg white mixed with cold water. Return to oven, bake 5 minutes longer.

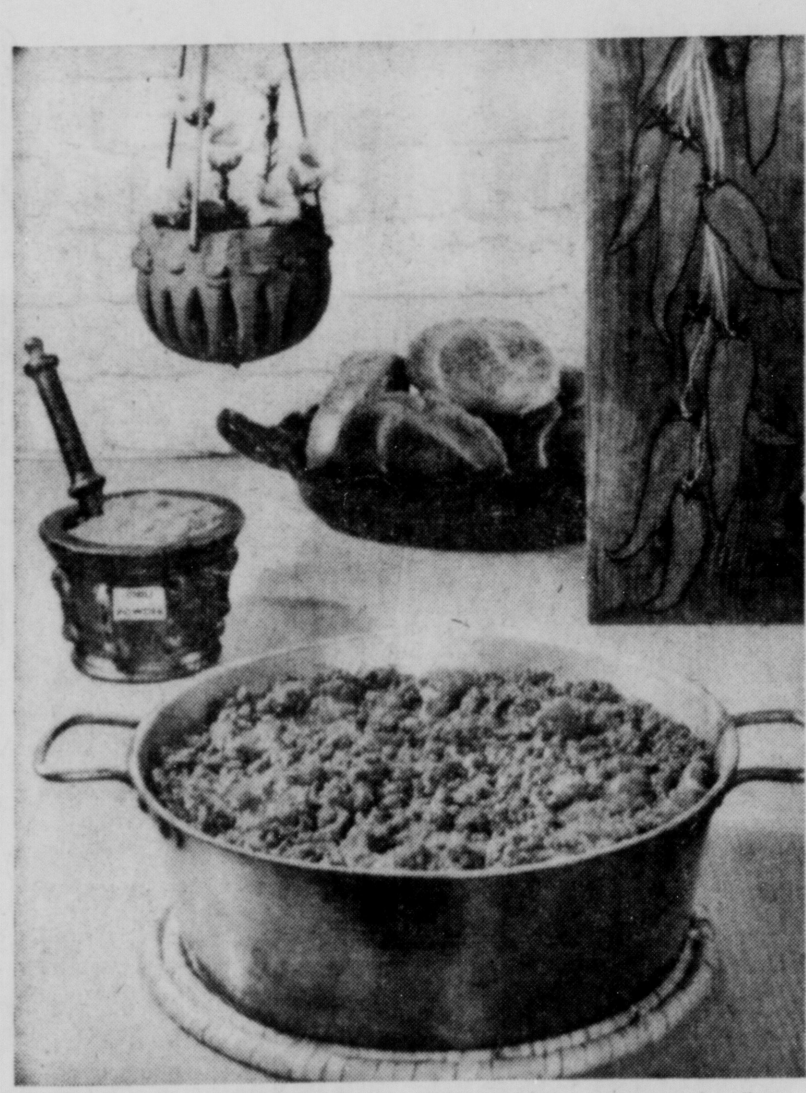
THURS., DEC. 3, 1964



THE MANY-SPICED BLEND, chili powder, steps-up the flavor of popular chili con carne. Here, two new versions to select from use ground beef in one, cubed beef stew on the other.

South of Border Classic Uses Ground, Cubed Meats

Except for the use of meat and the many - spiced blend, chili powder, no two chili con carne recipes are exactly alike. (Some like it hot, some like it not so hot.) Some cooks add beans, others say beans should be cooked and served separately.

Chili powder is a blend of spices consisting of chili peppers as the basic ingredient, ground cumin seed, ground oregano and garlic powder. Depending on the manufacturer, ground cloves, allspice, powdered onion or other spices may also be added.

THIS IS AN intriguingly balanced seasoning, and very all-in-one, but there's no law against stepping up any one of these flavors by adding more ground cumin, or oregano or an extra flick of garlic powder. If you like a more pungent chili con carne you will have to reach for a red or cayenne pepper, since regular chili powder blends are relatively mild.

SPANISH STYLE CHILI

2 lbs. ground chuck
1 tablespoon bacon fat
4 cups (2 cans, 1 lb. each) tomatoes
½ cup onion flakes
4 teaspoons salt
3/4 teaspoon instant minced garlic
1 teaspoon oregano leaves
2 tablespoons chili powder
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
2 cups (1 lb. can) kidney pink or pinto beans
½ cup sliced olives

Brown meat in fat in a 3-quart saucepan or Dutch oven. Add tomatoes, onion flakes, salt, instant minced garlic and oregano leaves. Cook 15 minutes. Stir in chili powder, black pepper, undrained kidney beans and sliced olives. Cook 10 minutes. Serve over hot cooked rice.

Yield: 12 servings.

CHILI BEEF STEW

2 lbs. boneless beef stew meat
½ cup flour
2½ teaspoons salt
1/3 cup beef fat
½ cup boiling water
1 cup diced potatoes
1 cup whole kernel corn
1 cup sliced carrots
2 cups canned tomatoes
3 teaspoons chili powder
½ teaspoon ground back pepper
¼ teaspoon instant garlic powder
1/3 cup onion flakes

Trim off excess fat from meat. Save 1/3 cup to use for browning meat. Cut meat into 1-inch pieces. Mix flour with salt, add meat and mix until well floured. Melt the 1/3 cup beef fat in a deep 9 or 10-inch skillet. Add meat and brown on all sides.

Add boiling water. Cover and cook slowly 1 hour or until meat is tender. Add potatoes, corn, carrots, tomatoes, chili powder, black pepper, instant garlic powder and onion flakes. Cover and cook until vegetables are tender, 25 minutes. Serve hot as the main dish.

Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Braised Hearts Are Economical

"A dish made of meat, cut in pieces and braised," is the way "fricassee" is described by meat experts.

One of the variety meats, heart, is an excellent choice for fricassee, because liquid and a longer cooking process make the meat tender.

Low in calories, high in protein, this variety meat also furnishes iron and the B-complex vitamins, thiamine, riboflavin and niacin. As the name suggests, it can also add versatility to the menu.

HEART FRICASSEE

1 small beef heart or 2 veal hearts
3 tablespoons flour
¼ cup lard or drippings
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
½ cup sliced onion
1 cup diced carrots
1 cup canned tomatoes

Wash the heart and remove the hard parts. Slice across grain. Dredge in flour and brown in lard or drippings. Season with salt and pepjer. Add onion and brown.

Pour off drippings. Add carrots and tomatoes. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1½ to 2½ hours or until tender. six to 8 servings.

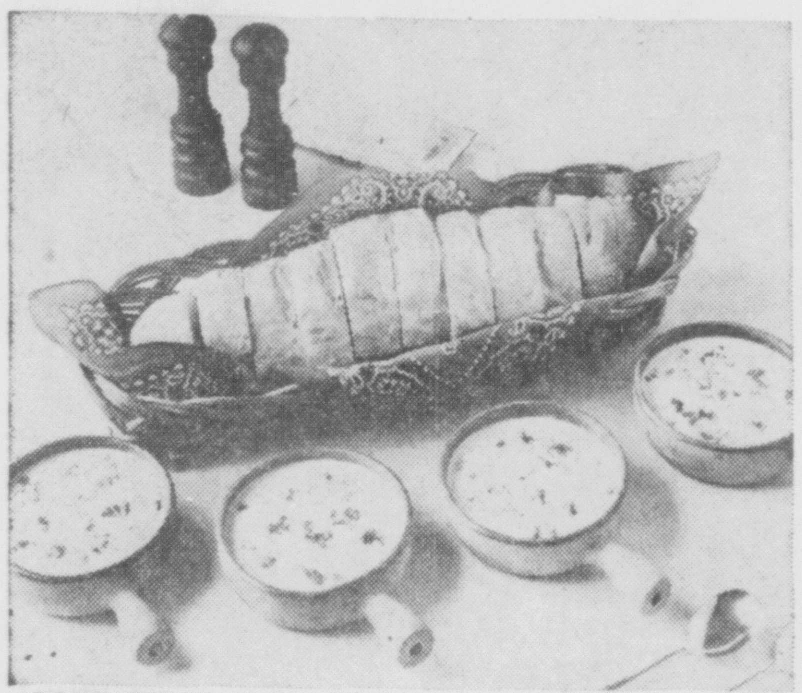
Young America Bakes Crusty French Bread



LONG CRUSTY LOAVES of French bread and cream of potato soup are ideal luncheon partners. Complete the menu with a green salad and platter of cold meats.

The French call their long, slender loaves of crusty bread "pain ordinaire" or "everyday bread." They serve it at almost every meal, including breakfast, and frequently for dessert with fruit and cheese.

Since fuel is scarce in rural France, and kitchen ovens inadequate, bread baking is a community affair.

OF NECESSITY, bread is still baked in old-fashioned outside ovens lined with bricks which are heated by wood fires underneath. The business of readying the ovens is such hard work that the wives of the community take turns each week baking enough bread for all.

In the outlying French provinces, where farming is the chief occupation, a typical breadfast consists of hunks of French bread with hot leek and potato soup.

The men in the family rise at dawn to milk the cows and attend to chores, then return home after the sun is up demanding just such a hot and hearty breakfast.

WHILE THIS menu might not be our idea of breakfast, it is not such a far cry from the combination of hot cereal and toast which we enjoy. French bread and soup are also ideal partners for lunches—perhaps with a green salad or platter of cold meats added.

FRENCH BREAD
(Makes 2 loaves)

2½ cups warm water (105 degrees-115 degrees F.)
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon margarine
7 cups unsifted flour
Corn meal
1 egg white
1 tablespoon cold water

Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Add salt and margarine. Add flour and stir until flour is well blended (dough will be sticky.)

Place dough in greased bowl. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

TURN DOUGH onto lightly floured board. Divide into 2 equal portions. Roll each into an oblong 15 x 10 inches. Beginning at wide side, roll each up tightly towards you; seal edges by pinching together.

Taper ends by rolling gently back and forth. Place loaves on greased baking sheets sprinkled with cornmeal. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

With razor make 4 diagonal cuts on top of each loaf. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Remove from oven and brush with egg white mixed with cold water. Return to oven, bake 5 minutes longer.

THE MANY-SPICED BLEND, chili powder, steps-up the flavor of popular chili con carne. Here, two new versions to select from use ground beef in one, cubed beef stew on the other.

South of Border Classic Uses Ground, Cubed Meats

Except for the use of meat and the many-spiced blend, chili powder, no two chili con carne recipes are exactly alike. (Some like it hot, some like it not so hot.) Some cooks add beans, others say beans should be cooked and served separately.

Chili powder is a blend of spices consisting of chili peppers as the basic ingredient, ground cumin seed, ground oregano and garlic powder. Depending on the manufacturer, ground cloves, allspice, powdered onion or other spices may also be added.

THIS IS AN intriguingly balanced seasoning, and very all-in-one, but there's no law against stepping up any one of these flavors by adding more ground cumin, or oregano or an extra flick of garlic powder. If you like a more pungent chili con carne you will have to reach for a red or cayenne pepper, since regular chili powder blends are relatively mild.

SPANISH STYLE CHILI

2 lbs. ground chuck
1 tablespoon bacon fat
4 cups (2 cans, 1 lb. each) tomatoes
½ cup onion flakes
4 teaspoons salt
3/4 teaspoon instant minced garlic
1 teaspoon oregano leaves
2 tablespoons chili powder
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
2 cups (1 lb. can) kidney pink or pinto beans
½ cup sliced olives

Brown meat in fat in a 3-quart saucepan or Dutch oven. Add tomatoes, onion flakes, salt, instant minced garlic and oregano leaves. Cook 15 minutes. Stir in chili powder, black pepper, undrained kidney beans and sliced olives. Cook 10 minutes. Serve over hot cooked rice.

Yield: 12 servings.

CHILI BEEF STEW

2 lbs. boneless beef stew meat
½ cup flour
2½ teaspoons salt
1/3 cup beef fat
½ cup boiling water
1 cup diced potatoes
1 cup whole kernel corn
1 cup sliced carrots
2 cups canned tomatoes
3 teaspoons chili powder
½ teaspoon ground back pepper
¼ teaspoon instant garlic powder
1/3 cup onion flakes

Trim off excess fat from meat. Save 1/3 cup to use for browning meat. Cut meat into 1-inch pieces. Mix flour with salt, add meat and mix until well floured. Melt the 1/3 cup beef fat in a deep 9 or 10-inch skillet. Add meat and brown on all sides.

Add boiling water. Cover and cook slowly 1 hour or until meat is tender. Add potatoes, corn, carrots, tomatoes, chili powder, black pepper, instant garlic powder and onion flakes. Cover and cook until vegetables are tender, 25 minutes. Serve hot as the main dish.

Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Kathleen Barney Weds In Lake Forest Rites

The Church of St. Patrick in Lake Forest was the setting for the Nov. 7 wedding of an Arlington Heights girl, Kathleen Louise Barney, and Edward Dennis Jacks Jr., sports editor of the Barrington Press.

The bride is the daughter of the John Maynard Barneys of 1704 N. Ridge Ave., and the groom's parents, the senior Edward Jackses, reside in Lake Forest.

After the 3 o'clock rites a reception for 150 guests took place at Deerpath Inn in the North Shore suburb.

The newlyweds will live at 30 Lake St., Lake Zurich.

THE BRIDE attended Lake Forest College and is now a medical technician in the Highland Park Doctors' Building. Her bridegroom attended Southern Illinois University for two years.

In the bridal procession there were five attendants, all gowned alike in empire styled floor-length dresses with a narrow A-line skirt. The bodice was of moss green satin and the crepe skirt in a mortar shade. Each girl carried a bouquet of green fuji mums, bittersweet and wheat.

ALICE PRESSMAN of Philadelphia was maid of honor, while Elizabeth Getz, Nancy Jacks and Mary Jane Taber, all of Lake Forest, and Toni Waldier of New York were bridesmaids.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheer wool floor-length dress simply styled with an empire waistline gathered at the back to form a very full train. Her butterfly veil was attached to a small headpiece of roses.

The bride carried white roses with ivy in a cascade bouquet.

ROBERT JACKS was his brother's best man, while the bride's brother, Frederick Barney, ushered along with Thomas Mather of Florida, John Fenney of New Jersey and Peter Snow of Lake Forest.

Witnessing her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Barney wore a cranberry colored dress and full-length coat in brocaded satin. Mrs. Jacks wore a brocaded jacket dress of gold, green and beige.

Before returning to work, the newlyweds spent a week's honeymoon in Missouri.

Newcomers Await 2 Holiday Events

Two events are planned within the week by Arlington Heights Newcomers' Club. A Christmas dance, "St. Nick's Frolics" is slated for Saturday at Old Orchard Country Club, and the following Wednesday, Dec. 9, Old Orchard will be the setting for the next luncheon of the newcomers.

The dance will feature cocktails from 7 to 8 p.m., dinner from 8 to 9 and dancing to the music of Eugene Heft Combo cromo from 9 to 1 a.m.

The Dec. 9 luncheon begins at 12:30 p.m. with cocktails to be served in a festive setting.

THE HOME and garden group of the club met Tuesday evening and saw Mrs. Norris of Frannz Creative Corner, Randhurst, demonstrate the making of gift ties, wrappings and decorations.

At the club's Thanksgiving luncheon of Nov. 11, bridge winners were Mr. C. Boenig, Mrs. G. Walker, Mrs. J. Schmidt and Mrs. J. Ostermann; pinochle winners, Mrs. D. Borders and Mrs. S. MacDonald; canasta, Mrs. A. Jackson and Mrs. H. Ewing. Early bird winner was Mrs. E. Dudek.

At the Nov. 19 evening business meeting Mrs. Leonard Kerpiewski was early bird winner.

CARD PRIZES went to Mrs. J. Schmidt, Mrs. J. Cottingham, Mrs. P. Griffin and Mrs. D. Hochsteler for birdge; Mrs. W. Muhr and Mrs. T. Tilly, pinochle; Mrs. R. Laier and Mrs. D. Peterson, canasta.

Newcomers with less than 18 months' residency in Arlington Heights may call Mrs. James Sanders, 392-1043, for membership information.

Nurses' Club Sees Film on Ship HOPE

Two color films were shown by Ken Retzke at the Rolling Meadows Nurses' Club meeting Nov. 19 in the home of Mrs. Ronald Geske.

The first, "Hope In Peru," was a film about the hospital ship, Project HOPE. The prime objective of this ship is to bring the skills and techniques developed by American medical, dental, nursing and paramedical professions to the people of other nations in their own environments, adapted specifically to their needs and way of life.

IN ADDITION to surgical and medical care given on shipboard, HOPE medical teams go into cities and give free inoculations against communicable diseases. They also distribute free milk.

American doctors volunteer their services for two or three months at a time to serve on HOPE. Cost of this project is financed solely through donations of private citizens and corporations.

THE SECOND film shown was a colorful travelogue about Jamaica.

Now that icy streets and sidewalks have returned, Meadows residents are reminded to call 392-1390 or 392-0313 if they need crutches or other medical equipment from the nurses' lending locker.

Double Dydee Plans Double Grab-Bag Party

Double Dydee Mothers of Twins Club will celebrate its annual Christmas party with a double grab-bag at 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 10, in the Lauterburg and Oehler meeting room. Kathleen Barney Weds In Lake Forest Rites

The Church of St. Patrick in Lake Forest was the setting for the Nov. 7 wedding of an Arlington Heights girl, Kathleen Louise Barney, and Edward Dennis Jacks Jr., sports editor of the Barrington Press.

The bride is the daughter of the John Maynard Barneys of 1704 N. Ridge Ave., and the groom's parents, the senior Edward Jackses, reside in Lake Forest.

After the 3 o'clock rites a reception for 150 guests took place at Deerpath Inn in the North Shore suburb.

The newlyweds will live at 30 Lake St., Lake Zurich.

THE BRIDE attended Lake Forest College and is now a medical technician in the Highland Park Doctors' Building. Her bridegroom attended Southern Illinois University for two years.

In the bridal procession there were five attendants, all gowned alike in empire styled floor-length dresses with a narrow A-line skirt. The bodice was of moss green satin and the crepe skirt in a mortar shade. Each girl carried a bouquet of green fuji mums, bittersweet and wheat.

ALICE PRESSMAN of Philadelphia was maid of honor, while Elizabeth Getz, Nancy Jacks and Mary Jane Taber, all of Lake Forest, and Toni Waldier of New York were bridesmaids.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sheer wool floor-length dress simply styled with an empire waistline gathered at the back to form a very full train. Her butterfly veil was attached to a small headpiece of roses.

The bride carried white roses with ivy in a cascade bouquet.

ROBERT JACKS was his brother's best man, while the bride's brother, Frederick Barney, ushered along with Thomas Mather of Florida, John Fenney of New Jersey and Peter Snow of Lake Forest.

Witnessing her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Barney wore a cranberry colored dress and full-length coat in brocaded satin. Mrs. Jacks wore a brocaded jacket dress of gold, green and beige.

Before returning to work, the newlyweds spent a week's honeymoon in Missouri.

Newcomers Await 2 Holiday Events

Two events are planned within the week by Arlington Heights Newcomers' Club. A Christmas dance, "St. Nick's Frolics" is slated for Saturday at Old Orchard Country Club, and the following Wednesday, Dec. 9, Old Orchard will be the setting for the next luncheon of the newcomers.

The dance will feature cocktails from 7 to 8 p.m., dinner from 8 to 9 and dancing to the music of Eugene Heft Combo cromo from 9 to 1 a.m.

The Dec. 9 luncheon begins at 12:30 p.m. with cocktails to be served in a festive setting.

THE HOME and garden group of the club met Tuesday evening and saw Mrs. Norris of Frannz Creative Corner, Randhurst, demonstrate the making of gift ties, wrappings and decorations.

At the club's Thanksgiving luncheon of Nov. 11, bridge winners were Mr. C. Boenig, Mrs. G. Walker, Mrs J. Schmidt and Mrs. J. Ostermann; pinochle winners, Mrs. D. Borders and Mrs. S. MacDonald; canasta, Mrs. A. Jackson and Mrs. H. Ewing. Early bird winner was Mrs. E. Dudek.

At the Nov. 19 evening business meeting Mrs. Leonard Kerpiewski was early bird winner.

CARD PRIZES went to Mrs. J. Schmidt, Mrs. J. Cottingham, Mrs. P. Griffin and Mrs. D. Hochsteler for birdge; Mrs. W. Muhr and Mrs. T. Tilly, pinochle; Mrs. R. Laier and Mrs. D. Peterson, canasta.

Newcomers with less than 18 months' residency in Arlington Heights may call Mrs. James Sanders, 392-1043, for membership information.

Nurses' Club Sees Film on Ship HOPE

Two color films were shown by Ken Retzke at the Rolling Meadows Nurses' Club meeting Nov. 19 in the home of Mrs. Ronald Geske.

The first, "Hope In Peru," was a film about the hospital ship, Project HOPE. The prime objective of this ship is to bring the skills and techniques developed by American medical, dental, nursing and paramedical professions to the people of other nations in their own environments, adapted specifically to their needs and way of life.

IN ADDITION to surgical and medical care given on shipboard, HOPE medical teams go into cities and give free inoculations against communicable diseases. They also distribute free milk.

American doctors volunteer their services for two or three months at a time to serve on HOPE. Cost of this project is financed solely through donations of private citizens and corporations.

THE SECOND film shown was a colorful travelogue about Jamaica.

Now that icy streets and sidewalks have returned, Meadows residents are reminded to call 392-1390 or 392-0313 if they need crutches or other medical equipment from the nurses' lending locker.

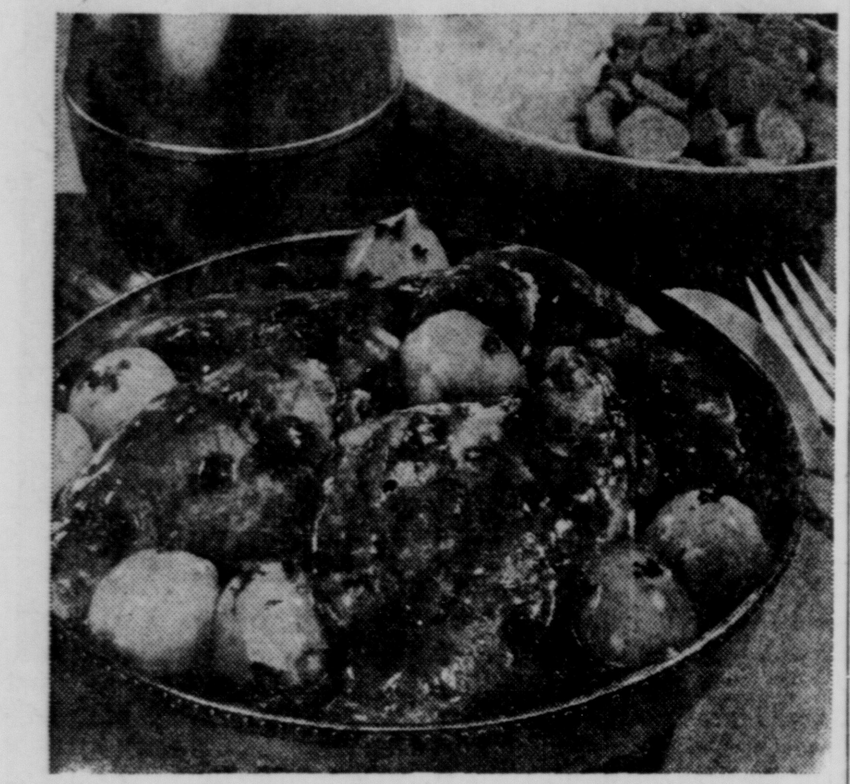
Giblet Gravy A New Product



What used to be one of the most nerve-wracking experiences for novice cooks (and even some old timers) was that of making gravy. The problems were many: Keeping the flavor in, the lumps out, and making sure there was enough to go around.

Canned giblet gravy has arrived (joining the sustaining members of the clan—chicken, beed, and mushroom). Rich, flavorful, perfectly smooth-every-time giblet gravy comes right from the can, full of chopped giblets.

With all this work done for the homemaker, she's free to take off on dishes, which would otherwise involve too much time.

This elegant Chicken Supreme can be made in a wink—just brown the chicken breasts, add the gravy, sage, and some small whole white onions. Cover, simmer, and serve. What could be quicker?

Sliced carrots and whipped potatoes are perfect vegetable accompaniments.

CHICKEN SUPREME

2 whole chicken breasts (about 1½ pounds), split
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10½ ounces) giblet gravy
1/8 teaspoon sage
8 whole small white onions
Chopped parsley

In skillet, brown chicken in butter. Add gravy, sage, and onions. Cover, cook over low heat 45 minutes or until tender. Stir now and then. Garnish with parsley. Makes 4 servings.

Wise Choice for Buffet—Raised Pineapple Crown

A pattern of pineapple tidbits punctuated here and there with a red cherry puts the Raised Pineapple Crown into the regal class.

This enticing pineapple coffee cake, an excellent choice for a buffet menu, is baked upside down but turned out right side up to reveal a crown of vivid color.

IN MAKING the batter for this specialty, the syrup drained from the pineapple is used, lending a wonderful flavor and fragrance throughout. The bottom of a ring mold is coated with a rich butterscotch syrup and covered with canned pineapple tidbits, bright red cherries and coconut.

The quick yeast batter goes on top, and after baking, is served warm.

A WISE CHOICE for the buffet menu is the Raised Pineapple Crown, superb in both flavor and appearance.

RAISED PINEAPPLE CROWN

1/3 cup melted butter or margarine
½ cup brown sugar (packed)
2 tablespoons white corn syrup
1 (13½-ounce) can pineapple tidbits
¼ cup flaked coconut
¼ cup halved maraschino cherries
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
¼ cup warm water
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel
2¼ cups sifted flour
1 egg
¼ cup soft butter of shortening

Pour 1/3 cup melted butter into bottom of 1½ quart ring mold; tip mold to spread butter evenly over bottom. Sprinkle with brown sugar. Drizzle on corn syrup. Drain pineapple, saving ½ cup syrup. Heat syrup to lukewarm.

Spoon pineapple tidbits on top of sugar coating; sprinkle with coconut and distribute cherries. Set aside while preparing yeast batter. Dissolve yeast in warm water in warm bowl. Stir in lukewarm syrup, sugar, salt, lemon peel and half the flour.

BEAT IN mixer, or vigorously by hand, for 2 minutes. Add beaten egg and butter. Gradually beat in remaining flour until smooth. Spoon batter on top of pineapple in ring mold. Cover and let rise in warm place until dough doubles in size, about 50 to 60 minutes.

Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 30 to 35 minutes. Run knife around inside edge of mold. Turn out upside down onto serving platter. Serve warm. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

EXIGUITY; scantiness in umount. (Pronounce eks - igg-yu-i-ti, accent second syllable). "The employes complained of the exiguity of benefits under the new plan."

Wayside Women Plan Two Events for Week

Members of Our Lady of the Wayside Catholic Club, will give their taste buds a treat at 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 10, at their regular monthly meeting, with a "Wine Tasting Demonstration," which will be given through the courtesy of Christian Brothers winery. For more than 80 years, Christian Brothers, a religious order of the Roman Catholic Church, has produced wines in California, wines that rank with the finest the Old or New World can offer, according to literature from the Brothers.

The literature points out that in 1882, The Brothers started making wines for sacramental purposes, in the heart of California's finest wine district. The integrity of the Brothers as vintners and the reputation of the quality of their wines created public interest in these products. This has led to the introduction of their wines into the commercial market as well.

THE CHRISTIAN Brothers' primary responsibility and interest lie in Christian education - "To give a Christian education to youth, especially the poor," in the words of the Order's most revered founder, St. Jean Baptiste de La Salle, who set forth this aim at Reims, France nearly 300 years ago. How well his successors have carried out this commission is evident today by the fact that the Christian Brothers operate nearly 1,500 schools or colleges in some 72 countries throughout the world. The Order teaches in 119 institutions of learning in the U. S. alone. Proceeds from the sales of their famous products are used by The Christian Brothers in furthering their educational aims.

"Whether they teach or engage in winemaking, the Brothers personally receive no compensation. Old in the art of wine making, they carry on a centuries-old tradition, identified with the lives and labors of the monks of the Old World who, in the Middle Ages, and before, practiced the art of the vintager and gladdened the heart of man."

when it's a "matter of forms"... see us

During the last year our business forms division has shipped printed forms to more than 20 states from New York to California.

We design business forms to fit specific needs—from peg board punched load sheets for a nationally prominent dairy organization in Louisville, to scale tickets for a Cincinnati stock yard, to a snapout tax form for a Florida firm.

This national acceptance is the result of quick, efficient service plus our ability to meet the many demanding and varying requirements of today's modern business.

Call us for your next business forms requirement and let us show you the brand of service that guarantees satisfaction.

The Way We See It

Zoning Laws Need Firmer Foundation

Zoning has more than usual importance in rapidly growing communities. When a large crowd of citizens is attracted to some meeting at a suburban village hall, the chances are that a zoning matter is being discussed.

If one listens to a number of heated hearings on zoning, he will gradually discover that Public Enemy No. 1 is not the particular apartment building or office building or even gas station that is being proposed. It is uncertainty, engendered by the prospect of some drastic and sudden change of direction in neighborhood or municipal development.

A recent issue of the Northwestern University Law Review discussed some fundamental questions about zoning in a symposium entitled "Apartments in Suburbia: Local Responsibility and Judicial Restraint." Some of the points made in this symposium are relevant to the matter of zoning uncertainty.

Zoning controversy basically is a tug-of-war between the owner of land who asserts his right to use his property as he sees fit and municipal authorities who assert their right to protect "public health, safety, morals and welfare." The concepts advanced by both parties are broad and subject to various interpretations. When they cannot be reconciled in a particular case, the matter is apt to wind up in court.

The Law Review article is critical of the present status of zoning law and of the prevalent attitudes of courts in zoning cases.

The authors criticize the courts for two apparently opposite but actually related shortcomings. They say the courts shrink from tackling the real legal issues at stake in zoning. The other criticism is of courts that set themselves up as sort of super zoning bodies, hearing any and all issues.

Obviously, the courts have no valid role as super zoning bodies, listening to all details on distances, detriments, and densities that are the stock-in-trade of zoning testimony. The sheer volume of zoning cases would quickly inundate the court that undertook to hear them.

However, the courts, when they shirk the task of providing guidelines on zoning for municipal authorities, are contributing to fruitless litigation. The courts share with the legislature the responsibility of spelling out more precisely the legal principles on which zoning laws must rest.

Illinois suburban municipalities seem to be faring better in court than they did a few years ago. However, unless prevailing zoning practices rest on a sound basis, they may be suddenly overturned.

Suburban officials would be wise to draw the attention of the courts and legislators to the need for firmer foundations under the zoning laws. Otherwise the specter of uncertainty may arise to haunt the suburbs in the future.

Fire Protection Folly

The time has come for the Illinois General Assembly and the courts to take a hard look at fire protection districts.

Too many home owners in northwest suburbs are needlessly paying for outmoded and sometimes foolish fire fighting arrangements.

To cite one example, 138 homes in Hoffman Estates are only one-half mile or less from a fire station. Yet they come under the protection of the Roselle Rural Fire Protection District, whose station is five miles away.

Some suburban sections have too many fire departments; why should there be 10 fire districts to serve Wheeling Township?

A few home owners still must pay double taxation. About 50 homes in Hatlen Heights are taxed by two fire districts. Residents of Hasbrook Subdivision in Arlington Heights used to pay taxes for both the village fire department and the Palatine Rural fire department.

Worse yet, a few suburban homes are in no fire district. This includes some of the expensive homes in Scarsdale Estates, near Arlington Heights.

For a home owner, the cost of taxes to support a good fire department is less than the added fire insurance rates which results from inadequate protec-

Trustees of fire districts usually are opposed to any re-organization which means giving taxable real estate to another district. Trustees are appointed by the county judge, with partisan political ties. Sometimes, trustees use fire districts to hold political power on a small scale.

But fire departments should exist to serve people, not politicians.

Value of Management

We were glad to report last week that municipal and state highway department officials are generally agreed on the need for state surveillance of motor fuel tax expenditures in the cities and villages.

Reporter Tom Edwards noted, however, that there is some grumbling at the local level over delays. George Wildeson, state highway department engineer, claimed that most delays result from failure of the villages to plan ahead.

Every spring, street construction plans come pouring into the state highway department for approval, many of which should have been submitted the previous fall or winter.

We can remember several examples of such delays in this immediate area. Interestingly, they invariably take place in those communities which have rejected the idea of a village manager, contending that a part-time trustee or alderman can head up the street department satisfactorily.

Experience with street delays simply adds more evidence that the village manager system pays for itself and that very few communities are so small they can't afford professional administration.

Metro Police For Suburbs?

by NANCY ANDERSON
Staff Editor

The possibility of organizing one metropolitan area police force — covering Chicago and its suburbs — has often been proposed as a solution to the complex problems of law enforcement.

Such a department eventually would replace the multiplicity of local police forces and provide the new techniques and sufficient manpower so often lacking in smaller villages and unincorporated areas, according to its proponents.

ANDERSON

Residents of the northwest area questioned on their attitudes toward this proposal this week were split — a police chief and several housewives greeted it with the opposition usually voiced by suburban police officials and citizens, but three men gave it their firm support.

The women indicated a feeling of community spirit, the identification of individuals with a corporate entity even within a sprawling metropolis, as their main reason for objection.

MRS. EDWARD E. Schroeder of 21 Ridgewood, Elk Grove Village, was emphatically opposed.

"I don't think well if it at all," she said. "Each village must maintain its own force. The metropolitan scope would be much too wide. The men couldn't possibly keep track of each area. And I would think they would much prefer working in one specified area."

"And financially, it would cost a fortune to hire extra men to cover all that territory," she added.

Mrs. Joseph M. Graffeo of 5 N. Williams, Mount Prospect, suggested the village police organization is "far more personal. And, if you need them, they're here in minutes."

"Here," she said, "the police patrol the streets constantly, which gives you a feeling of security. I don't know if it would be the same with a metropolitan force, but when I lived in the city, I didn't see this."

ALTHOUGH suggesting some smaller departments need to reorganize, Mrs. Robert T. Chernesky of 1228 Chicago, Arlington Heights, agreed that "it works out better localized."

So did a retired Wheeling woman, who asked not to be identified.

"The city is too big already," she said. "If we set up this kind of police, we'd just bring more of it out here. And we have a good local department — we don't need them."

Mrs. DeWayne A. Reynolds of 221 Broker, Itasca, said, "Villages should keep their own forces. After all, we're really not that close to Chicago."

The Rolling Meadows chief of police, Cy Campbell, "can't see that anything would be accomplished" by organization of a metropolitan force.

"I think more cooperation is needed among departments," he said, "and this is becoming more evident, as we've been working more together, with the teletype system, juvenile information file and local meetings together."

STILL, HE said, "The cost and pitfalls of a metropolitan force would far outweigh any benefits. Who would establish policy, pay scale, requirements? And we'd always have problems because of size."

He hit on the feeling of community spirit when he suggested "the biggest danger in metropolitan government is that it takes away the home touch."

And he blamed the lack of spirit and cooperation for failure of the original juvenile information file effort, started in 1958 by proponents of a metropolitan force. It was started again in 1960, successfully, by several northwest suburbs and has spread statewide, he said.

On the other side of the question, Laurence N. Dunn of 357 Walnut, Wood Dale, said, "I think it would be wonderful. There would be more cooperation with one force altogether under one head, and a lot speedier justice."

He suggested there is "seldom cooperation" among village police departments because "each wants the glory."

DUNN ADMITTED "there are also arguments against" a metropolitan force, such as the problem of having too much power in one man or office. But, he said, the organization could be set up like the state police or Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Grant L. Thomas of 463 S. Prospect, Roselle, said he favored the proposal simply because, "We don't have much without it." He pointed out Los Angeles, "where the suburbs are all within the big city," as an example of an over-all metropolitan force operating very well.

And a resident of unincorporated Prospect Heights also gave his strong support. He said, the idea of a community force is "outmoded, with an area this complex. And there wouldn't be any real problem because the whole area would probably be split into districts with men working out of local posts, like the state troopers."

A meeting with Hazel Brannon Smith is an experience not soon forgotten.

She is more than an award-winning newspaperwoman from Mississippi; she is a woman of rare courage and determination who has placed conviction above comfort and honor above ease in the best American tradition. In a confused world which often appears to abandon such tradition, she emerges as an example of excellence for her profession and an inspiration to all Americans.

In 1954 Hazel Brannon Smith's life could have been held up as a shining example of a successful small town editor-publisher.

Hayes

She was one of the best-known and most active weekly newspaper people in America. She had served as state chairman of the National Editorial Association and was a charter member and former president of the Mississippi Press Women.

MRS. SMITH'S newspaper career began after high school, when she went to work for her hometown weekly in Gadsden, Ala. After graduation from the University of Alabama, she borrowed $3,000 in 1936 and bought the weekly Durant, Miss., News.

Subsequently, she purchased three other weekly newspapers in Mississippi.

Her business grew and prospered for 18 years. Her forthright editorial stands against slot machine operators, liquor racketeers, gamblers and corrupt local politicians added prestige to her papers and brought her a host of press awards, the admiration and support of her fellow Mississippians, and a comfortable life.

That was before 1954.

In the past 10 years, she and her husband have lived anything but a comfortable life.

IN 1954 THE county sheriff needlessly shot a young local Negro—a not uncommon occurrence in much of Mississippi.

But Hazel Brannon Smith printed the story in her newspaper and editorially deplored the shooting as unwarranted, insisting on equal rights for all citizens.

"It never occurred to me not to print the story," she recalls. "But I had gone against the prevailing code in the community. Suddenly they were calling me Nigger Lover."

The Mississippi White Citizens Council, organized in 1954, made "Hazel, the Nigger Lover" one of its targets. It initiated a successful advertising boycott against her newspapers which is still in effect today.

MANY OF THE civic and business leaders, clergy, and public officials who had only recently lauded and supported her suddenly became silent, withdrawn, fearful. Some were openly hostile.

In 1956 her husband was fired as administrator of Holmes County Hospital because "his wife had become too controversial a figure."

Costly legal controversies and "nuisance" suits drained her resources and hampered business operations.

In 1958 an opposition newspaper was started, her business manager hired away, and all county legal advertising transferred.

IN 1960 AN 8-foot cross, symbol of the Ku Klux Klan, was burned on the lawn of the Smith home. In August, 1964, the newspaper plant was wrecked when a bomb was hurled into the rear window of the building.

She and her husband now put out their papers with a skeleton force of three other employes. Everything they own is now mortgaged to the hilt. Notes are past due. They are deeply in debt.

But Hazel Brannon Smith is still in Mississippi, still seeking through her newspapers to publish the truth on controversial issues, still adding fearless editorial comment to factual reporting, still exposing crime and corruption and injustice.

She persists in adhering to the principles of freedom of the press in the face of physical danger, economic boycott, social ostracism.

MRS. SMITH has refused to move from her native state or let her voice be silenced. She has castigated the extremist hate groups rife in Mississippi, has defended the law, supported equal justice for all, and protested racial violence, the bombing of a local Negro's home, the bombing and burning of Negro churches, the intimidation of decent elements in the community.

In her individually modest way, Hazel Brannon Smith sees herself only as an editor printing what she believes to be the truth.

"My job as an editor is to see that the rights of all citizens in the community are protected. I believe in equal justice under the law. There is nothing revolutionary about a man's right to walk down the street safely. As I have written in my newspapers, the laws of America are for everyone—rich, poor, strong, weak, black, white."

She has never regarded herself as a crusader.

"I don't lay claim to being a crusading editor. I try to meet the issues as they arise in my path instead of turning my back on them. A crusader is concerned with the wrongs of the world. I have enough problems in my own community. I just try to meet

Mariner 4 is rushing through space at a speed of 7,000 miles per hour on its journey to take pictures of Mars.

CUMMINS

As the months go by and the space craft gets ever closer to its goal, the suspense will become terrific. "What secrets will Mariner 4 discover?" everyone will want to know.

"What is Mars really like?" a thousand tongues will be asking.

PREDICTIONS OF WHAT MARS IS LIKE

1—The people of Mars are divided into two biological categories based on differences in "wudge," or what we would call sex. Members of the male wudge are called "chentles" and members of the female wudge are called "tolzies." The chentles and the tolzies engage in unremitting warfare, which the Martians call "The Battle of the Wudges."

2—Martians are addicted to a game called "baco ball." The baco is an anatomical peculiarity of Martians. It is a jointed protuberance extending backward from their shoulder blades. Baco ball is a game in which chentles bat a ball around with their bacos and try to knock it into a goal. Tens of thousands of Martians gather in stadiums to watch games of baco ball.

3—Those Martians who do not go to the stadiums are apt to be found sitting in the living rooms of their "cloyds" (dwellings) watching the game of baco ball on their TV sets.

4—Many chentles, while they are watching the baco ball game on TV, like to sip a drink which they call "sliss." Most Martian stores offer packages of sliss for sale. Each package contains six cans of sliss.

5—Martian cloyds are built with apertures designed to admit light and air. These apertures are called "ruzzles." With the approach of winter, Martians attempt to obtain better insulation for their cloyds by installing a second set of ruzzles, called "sturm ruzzles."

6—It is not unknown on Mars, when a chentle is watching a game of baco ball on TV, for his tolzy to come into the room and say, "Here it is November and you still haven't put up the sturm ruzzles!"

7—Such a remark by a tolzy, especially if it comes at a critical moment in the game of baco ball, is called a "bawkle." In English, and indeed in the other languages spoken by earth people, there is no synonym for the Martian "bawkle." The bawkle is considered one of the tolzies' chief weapons in "The Battle of the Wudges." It is the reason the tolzies are winning.

THESE paragraphs offer but a brief glimpse of what awaits the voyageur to Mars. These are just a taste of the strange and wonderful mysteries of life in outer space which we Earthlings, in awe and in wonder, are on the threshold of discovering.

The Way We See It

Zoning Laws Need Firmer Foundation

Zoning has more than usual importance in rapidly growing communities. When a large crowd of citizens is attracted to some meeting at a suburban village hall, the chances are that a zoning matter is being discussed.

If one listens to a number of heated hearings on zoning, he will gradually discover that Public Enemy No. 1 is not the particular apartment building or office building or even gas station that is being proposed. It is uncertainty, engendered by the prospect of some drastic and sudden change of direction in neighborhood or municipal development.

A recent issue of the Northwestern University Law Review discussed some fundamental questions about zoning in a symposium entitled "Apartments in Suburbia: Local Responsibility and Judicial Restraint." Some of the points made in this symposium are relevant to the matter of zoning uncertainty.

Zoning controversy basically is a tug-of-war between the owner of land who asserts his right to use his property as he sees fit and municipal authorities who assert their right to protect "public health, safety, morals and welfare." The concepts advanced by both parties are broad and subject to various interpretations. When they cannot be reconciled in a particular case, the matter is apt to wind up in court.

The Law Review article is critical of the present status of zoning law and of the prevalent attitudes of courts in zoning cases.

The authors criticize the courts for two apparently opposite but actually related shortcomings. They say the courts shrink from tackling the real legal issues at stake in zoning. The other criticism is of courts that set themselves up as sort of super zoning bodies, hearing any and all issues.

Obviously, the courts have no valid role as super zoning bodies, listening to all details on distances, detriments, and densities that are the stock-in-trade of zoning testimony. The sheer volume of zoning cases would quickly inundate the court that undertook to hear them.

However, the courts, when they shirk the task of providing guidelines on zoning for municipal authorities, are contributing to fruitless litigation. The courts share with the legislature the responsibility of spelling out more precisely the legal principles on which zoning laws must rest.

Illinois suburban municipalities seem to be faring better in court than they did a few years ago. However, unless prevailing zoning practices rest on a sound basis, they may be suddenly overturned.

Suburban officials would be wise to draw the attention of the courts and legislators to the need for firmer foundations under the zoning laws. Otherwise the specter of uncertainty may arise to haunt the suburbs in the future.

Fire Protection Folly

The time has come for the Illinois General Assembly and the courts to take a hard look at fire protection districts.

Too many home owners in northwest suburbs are needlessly paying for outmoded and sometimes foolish fire fighting arrangements.

To cite one example, 138 homes in Hoffman Estates are only one-half mile or less from a fire station. Yet they come under the protection of the Roselle Rural Fire Protection District, whose station is five miles away.

Some suburban sections have too many fire departments; why should there be 10 fire districts to serve Wheeling Township?

A few home owners still must pay double taxation. About 50 homes in Hatlen Heights are taxed by two fire districts. Residents of Hasbrook Subdivision in Arlington Heights used to pay taxes for both the village fire department and the Palatine Rural fire department.

Worse yet, a few suburban homes are in no fire district. This includes some of the expensive homes in Scarsdale Estates, near Arlington Heights.

For a home owner, the cost of taxes to support a good fire department is less than the added fire insurance rates which results from inadequate protection.

Trustees of fire districts usually are opposed to any re-organization which means giving taxable real estate to another district. Trustees are appointed by the county judge, with partisan political ties. Sometimes, trustees use fire districts to hold political power on a small scale.

But fire departments should exist to serve people, not politicians.

Letters to the Editor

'Representation Needed for Country's Largest Minority'

It certainly is "stimulating" to read the flood of editorials telling Republicans how to rebuild their party. Judging from the interest, each Republican organization can expect well known writers in attendance at meetings, volunteering for door-knocking, fund-raising and other miscellaneous duties. Perhaps they'll even give favored treatment to Republicans in their editorials.

Paddock's Executive Editor and the numerous other literary hatchetmen who dug the hole to "Bury" Goldwater and hundreds of other Republican candidates, now tell us to rebuild—according to their specifications.

I trust that many of the editorialists including Mr. Hayes, are sincere in their belief that the best chance for the Republican party is to offer welfare programs, co-existence with communism and increased reliance upon government "planners." Their proposals could possibly lead to success in subsequent elections, but I doubt if it would be fair to the people.

Republicans who supported Senator Goldwater are sincere in their belief that past administrations have been leading us down a path of decay and destruction. It's not easy nor pleasant to tell this to people who are eating well, driving the latest model cars and enjoying more material pleasures than any society on earth. What is our choice? Do we tell people only what they want to hear? Where does our responsibility lie?

I resent the editor's implication that the Republican image is one of "being a spokesman for wealth and privilege." Republicans are concerned for the poor and underprivileged, but we refuse to deceive, lie and promise heaven on earth in order to mold a political dynasty. This false image is the creation of the communications media, not the Republican Party. It should be remembered how these media were able to create the "savior" image of the Cuban Dictator.

No, Mr. Editor, we don't need two Democratic parties; we need representation for this country's largest minority group—conservatives. We need some place for the people to turn when the enchantment of welfare programs, coexistence and government planning wears thin and realization sets in. The Party must not abandon vital principles for the sake of expediency.

We need the help of editors like yourself; not to agree with us if you cannot, but to attempt to understand our position and provide a platform from which we can communicate with others. Surely you wouldn't deny your readers a chance to evaluate two conflicting positions!

There is no question in which direction the tide is flowing and you have helped create that flow. Your responsibility is great. Be certain where you're taking us because not even the power of the press can reverse the tide it established in Communist Cuba.

honestly the issues as they arise and to report the truth rather than take a popular line."

TAKING AN "unpopular line" in the racially-tense atmosphere of Mississippi has brought her 10 years of discouragement, despair, and struggle. It has also brought her even bigger awards and the admiration of people far removed from Mississippi.

Numerous citations for courage in journalism include one from Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society; the 1960 Elijah Parish Lovejoy Award from the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors; a 1962 award—her third—from the National Federation of Press Women; the 1963 Golden Quill Award; and in 1964, the Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing.

This fall she received the 1964 "Woman of Conscience" Award from the National Council of Women of the United States.

It's hard to imagine this feminine Southern gentlewoman as a resolute fighter whose determination, tough quality of courage and stubbornness have made her one of America's outstanding women and renowned journalists.

FACED WITH overwhelming obstacles, Mrs. Smith never loses her composure, charm, or graciousness and still maintains her sense of fair play and reasonableness in spite of all that has happened.

Rational and moderate, she does not permit herself to be used in an extreme or radical way. She has a sense of persepective about her county and state, is fair and objective in appraising it.

In explaining her reason for remaining in Mississippi, she says simply: "It is my home."

QUIETLY, gently she struggles on.

Thankful for Neighbors at Time of Crisis

To all the wonderful people of Wheeling who rallied to our side when our little daughter, Nancy, was struck by a car on Saturday, Oct. 31, at Route 83 and N. Dennis, our heartfelt thanks.

We will never be able to convey our feelings to the Police and Fire Departments, nor to our neighbors and friends who cared for and fed our other children while we spent our afternoons and evenings at the hospital. We will never be able to thank the same people whose prayers joined ours and made our little girl well enough to come home.

The gifts and cards that poured into the hospital will forever be cherished and the absolute strangers who called us offering their help will long be remembered. May God bless you all.

Boys Sports Year Has Been Most Successful

The Arlington Heights Boys Baseball League is nearing the close of another year. It has been a most successful baseball and football season and much of the success is due to the continued fine cooperation received from you and members of your staff.

Hundreds of boys again had the opportunity of participating in what we are sure is the finest, program of its kind, at least in this part of the country. Volunteer adults who contribute time, talent and money to the administration of the program are proud of the league accomplishments.

Thank you again for your generous efforts in publicizing the various league activities through the Arlington Heights Herald. I am sure I speak for the entire league in expressing our appreciation.

Resents Ad On Freedom Of Residence

In a paid, full-page advertisement appearing in the November 25th issue of the Herald, some 600 of my neighbors stated:

"As residents of the Northwest Suburban Community we want it known that we do not want persons excluded from living in our Community on the basis of their race, color or creed."

"The basic tenet of the American Way is the right to equal freedom for all men."

"We believe in the American Way."

"We invite the support of all people of good will."

This statement seems noble at face value but carries with it serious implications which should not go unrecognized.

I, for one, resent this effort by civic "leaders" to once again inject into our communities an issue that divides people.

It is little consolation to me - a man of implied ill will - bent on depriving my fellow man of equal freedom - unbelieving in the American Way, to know that this group of citizens are collectively determined to see that I - un-American as I am - do not abridge the right of fair housing on the basis of race, color or creed.

I resent the implication made by these citizens that I and thousands of my neighbors have been judged guilty of discrimination without so much as soliciting our opinion. — If they have not made this judgment there would be no need for their advertisement.

Their effort is another deliberate attempt to draw up sides into opposing groups for the purpose of waging conflict so that a few might impose their will upon the many who abhor conflict. God bless those who silently pursue the work of God and man without regard to earthly recognition!

No doubt most of the signators to this ad are well-intentioned persons who possess their own concept of what other people believe. They apparently believe that they are the clear thinking elite who possess the heroic fortitude to guide the rest of us to new plateaus of human understanding. They obviously conclude that we are incapable of fair judgment without coercion and the threat of being labeled un-American, un-christian, inhuman, bigoted and radical.

I have never in my life been guilty of racial discrimination, nor do I intend to be, but I will resist in any way I can dictatorial pressure groups that attempt to impose a social order upon myself and my neighbors.

Although their intentions may be noble, these human relation "experts" have created havoc throughout the country over the past four years. Their dialectics create discord where cooperation is so badly needed.

The northwest suburban area is plagued by a multitude of real problems: Schools, parks, transportation, commerce, industry, recreation, taxes, young people, old people, churches, politics, government and many others. Success in these areas require congenial cooperation, not hindering discord.

I would suggest that these citizens direct their efforts constructively and show a little more tolerance and respect for the rest of us.

Public Health Threat

(From the Chicago Committee on Alcoholism)

The week of Nov. 29-Dec. 5 has been designated as Alcoholism Information Week by the Chicago Committee on Alcoholism. Unlike many "weeks," this one makes good sense, and we take the occasion to pass on information which should be in the possession of every man, woman and child.

The picture of the "drunk" cavorting merrily in a lamp shade to the laughter of his friends and neighbors is outdated. Thoughtful citizens stopped laughing long ago.

Alcoholism has become one of the four most serious threats to public health . . . in Chicago and in the nation.

One out of every 25 people living in metropolitan Chicago is an alcoholic . . . a total of more than 250,000 men and women. This is a conservative estimate of a number that is growing daily.

No item is produced in America, from toothbrushes to automobiles . . . no service is sold . . . that does not include in its cost a percentage directly chargeable to the mistakes and failures of alcoholic employees.

Every tax dollar we pay is spent in part to repair the ravages of alcoholism. Crime, divorce, delinquency, the high accident rate on the highways . . . alcoholism contributes to all the social problems we face.

The Chicago Committee on Alcoholism wants us to know these facts. It also wants us to know that alcoholism is a treatable disease. Alcoholics can be helped and the help is available to them, to their families and employers. Call information and referral office of the Committee at RAndolph 6-1368.

We will add that any money you are able to contribute to the Committee's work of public education, community service and research will pay you and the entire metropolitan area rich dividends.

Imagine . . . $10.00 to do whatever you want with, and to see your letter printed in the Paddock papers.

Letters to the Editor

'Representation Needed for Country's Largest Minority'

It certainly is "stimulating" to read the flood of editorials telling Republicans how to rebuild their party. Judging from the interest, each Republican organization can expect well known writers in attendance at meetings, volunteering for door-knocking, fund-raising and other miscellaneous duties. Perhaps they'll even give favored treatment to Republicans in their editorials.

Paddock's Executive Editor and the numerous other literary hatchetmen who dug the hole to "Bury" Goldwater and hundreds of other Republican candidates, now tell us to rebuild—according to their specifications.

I trust that many of the editorialists including Mr. Hayes, are sincere in their belief that the best chance for the Republican party is to offer welfare programs, co-existence with communism and increased reliance upon government "planners." Their proposals could possibly lead to success in subsequent elections, but I doubt if it would be fair to the people.

Republicans who supported Senator Goldwater are sincere in their belief that past administrations have been leading us down a path of decay and destruction. It's not easy nor pleasant to tell this to people who are eating well, driving the latest model cars and enjoying more material pleasures than any society on earth. What is our choice? Do we tell people only what they want to hear? Where does our responsibility lie?

I resent the editor's implication that the Republican image is one of "being a spokesman for wealth and privilege." Republicans are concerned for the poor and underprivileged, but we refuse to deceive, lie and promise heaven on earth in order to mold a political dynasty. This false image is the creation of the communications media, not the Republican Party. It should be remembered how these media were able to create the "savior" image of the Cuban Dictator.

No, Mr. Editor, we don't need two Democratic parties; we need representation for this country's largest minority group —conservatives. We need some place for the people to turn when the enchantment of welfare programs, coexistence and government planning wears thin and realization sets in. The Party must not abandon vital principles for the sake of expediency.

We need the help of editors like yourself; not to agree with us if you cannot, but to attempt to understand our position and provide a platform from which we can communicate with others. Surely you wouldn't deny your readers a chance to evaluate two conflicting positions!

There is no question in which direction the tide is flowing and you have helped create that flow. Your responsibility is great. Be certain where you're taking us because not even the power of the press can reverse the tide it established in Communist Cuba.

TAKING AN "unpopular line" in the racially-tense atmosphere of Mississippi has brought her 10 years of discouragement, despair, and struggle. It has also brought her even bigger awards and the admiration of people far removed from Mississippi.

Numerous citations for courage in journalism include one from Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society; the 1960 Elijah Parish Lovejoy Award from the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors; a 1962 award—her third—from the National Federation of Press Women; the 1963 Golden Quill Award; and in 1964, the Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing.

This fall she received the 1964 "Woman of Conscience" Award from the National Council of Women of the United States.

It's hard to imagine this feminine Southern gentlewoman as a resolute fighter whose determination, tough quality of courage and stubbornness have made her one of America's outstanding women and renowned journalists.

FACED WITH overwhelming obstacles, Mrs. Smith never loses her composure, charm, or graciousness and still maintains her sense of fair play and reasonableness in spite of all that has happened.

Rational and moderate, she does not permit herself to be used in an extreme or radical way. She has a sense of persepective about her county and state, is fair and objective in appraising it.

In explaining her reason for remaining in Mississippi, she says simply: "It is my home."

The committee, composed of Mrs. James Bailey, Mrs. Aub Johnson, Mrs. Per Ohrstrom, and Mrs. David Birkeness, say the food and the table decorations will be authentically Scandinavian, and Mrs. Per Ohrstrom will offer a prayer in Norwegian preceding the luncheon.

She has taken groups to Sweden to study their educational systems and has also sponsored groups from the Scandinavian countries to study in Chicago. She now teaches practical arts in the seventh and eighth grades at the Smyser and Reinberg schools in Chicago. (S

Annabel Smith Is Nov. 21 Bride of Eugene LaPlante

(Bak Studios

Seventh grade students at Alan B. Shepard Junior High School, Deerfield, no longer address their French teacher as Miss Smith, since she was married two weeks ago to Eugene B. LaPlante of Antioch. In an 11 a.m. ceremony Nov. 21 in St. Athnasius Church, Evanston, the former Annabel Smith, daughter of the Verne R. Smiths of 100 N. Elm St., Prospect Heights, became Mrs. LaPlante, and her students are now learning to call her by the new name.

Fr. John Crosby united the couple in double ring rites. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white peau de soie and chantilly lace gown with empire bodice and A-line skirt. The lace bodice was styled with a sabrina neckline and elbow-length sleeves, and the peau skirt ended in a square court train which was edged with lace.

A HEADPIECE fashioned of peau de soie petals, set with seed pearls, held her bouffant silk illusion veil in place. The bride's bouquet was composed of miniature white carnations and phalaenopsis orchids with ivy.

Royal blue floor-length crepe gowns, styled on empire lines, were worn by the bridal attendants. Each girl had a cabbage rose of royal blue crepe to hold her blusher veil in place and carried miniature white carnations with ivy.

Colette LaPlante, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and the four bridesmaids included Mrs. Robert Baldacci of San Jose, Calif., Patricia Donegan of New York City, Sue Ann Zanocco of Rockford and Betsy Schaefer of Lansing, Mich.

Gregory LaPlante served as his brother's best man, and another brother, Justin LaPlante, was an usher along with the bride's two brothers, Rusty and Stephen Smith, and Oliver Mitchell of Worth, Ill. The parents of the groom are deceased.

Following the wedding, the couple were greeted by 125 guests at a buffet reception in Long Grove Country Club. Mrs. Smith received the guests in a rose beige peau de soie dress with lace trim and a corsage of gardenias.

Following a week's honeymoon in the Bahamas, the couple is now living in Des Plaines. The groom, a graduate of Marquette University, is employed by Kanneer Co. in Chicago. The bride was graduated from Creighton University in Omaha.

Annabel Smith Is Nov. 21 Bride of Eugene LaPlante

(Bak Studios

Seventh grade students at Alan B. Shepard Junior High School, Deerfield, no longer address their French teacher as Miss Smith, since she was married two weeks ago to Eugene B. LaPlante of Antioch. In an 11 a.m. ceremony Nov. 21 in St. Athnasius Church, Evanston, the former Annabel Smith, daughter of the Verne R. Smiths of 100 N. The luncheon will be followed by a short business meeting and, in lieu of the regular devotional period, an explanation will be given of a Christmas tree decorated with Chrismons, ornaments of different designs made of white styrofoam and gold sequins by the LCW members.

Mrs. James Garrison, who headed this project, describes each as being a "symbol of our Christian religion depicting Christ's appearance on earth."

Launch League Cage Schedules Friday

KICKIN' IT AROUND

BY BOB FRISK

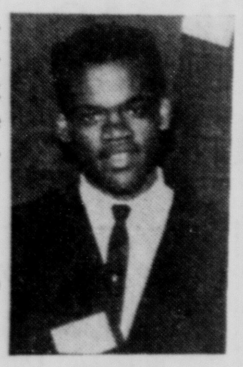
YOU DON'T GET ANY ARGUMENTS if you label St. Patrick's and DeLaSalle as the two clubs most likely to succeed—again—in the Chicagoland Prep League basketball race. You might get some argument about which one, but the Shamrocks and Meteors look like the class of the division in 1964-65.

This should come as no earthshaking pronouncement for Chicagoland basketball fans. They watched St. Pat's, guided by Max Kurland, sweep to 24 victories in 27 games last winter and a berth in the Arlington Sectional. They watched DeLaSalle, handled by Jerry Tokars, knock off 18 opponents in 26 outings and bow out of sectional action with an overtime loss to Bradley.

The Chicagoland coaches are high in their praise of the Shamrocks and Meteors. "Size and experience," they emphasized. But these same coaches also emphasized that the league boasts fine balance down the line.

"Sure, St. Pat's and DeLaSalle are the ones to beat," one head man admitted, "but there are several other fine teams too. And there's good size on most of the clubs."

PETRITIS



BOYD

Just to keep things interesting St. Pat's and DeLaSalle both lost last week in the initial action of the season. East Leyden tripped the Shamrocks by two, and DeLaSalle fell in two cliff-hangers to Peoria Richwoods (52-49) and Lincoln-Way (64-62). Don't let those scores mislead you. These two Chicagoland quintets are still rugged.

Kurland has good size to work with at St. Pat's. He's been operating with a front-line of Jerry Shea (6-3), Dan Pierce (6-4), and Joe Burke (6-6) with John Lucas (6-4) the top reserve. Burke is only a junior and he's "going to be a good one" according to Kurland. Pierce was a second team choice on the all-conference team, and he bagged 17 points as St. Pat's bowed out of tourney play with a 79-64 loss to Evanston at the Arlington Sectional.

Bill McManaman (6-1), third team all-conference, and Howard Rosenmayer (6-0) have been working at the guard slots although Pierce also gets an occasional call to join McManaman in the backcourt.

DeLaSalle's Tokars went with a young team last winter, and the Meteors reached the sectional before falling in overtime. Jerry wasn't encouraged by his squad's effort last weekend, but he's hopeful they'll bounce back before moving into conference scuffling.

Dave Gilmore (6-5) and Tom Hunter (6-4) are the key men in the Meteor attack. They were regulars last year and can be expected to carry much of the scoring load again this time around. They combined for 37 of DeLaSalle's 56 points in that overtime loss to Bradley in sectional play. Gilmore was a first team all-conference selection as a junior, and Hunter picked up second team honors as a soph.

Joining these two standouts are Vyto Abramavicious (6-4), Dan Sutter (6-0), Wilmar Allen (5-11), Sevira Brown (6-4), Tom Rhodes (6-2), and John Ryan (5-8). "We're still shuffling the kids around," Tokars said.

St. Viator's Larry Nomellini watched his club divide two tourney games last weekend and was encouraged by the Lions' effort Saturday in a win over St. Procopius. Larry has only one vet on his club (6-3 Charley Grandt) in a league loaded with vets, but he has two promising juniors up front and two seniors in the backcourt.

Grandt is one of the league's finest, and Larry needs this youngster for four quarters. Chuck fouled out of both games last weekend, and he had four early in the loss to Immaculate Conception.

Two juniors Paul Dumke (6-3) and Paul Pomplun (6-5) join Grandt under the basket. Dumke rebounded from a shaky start with 20 points Saturday and it's hoped he'll be a steady scorer all season. Pomplun has yet to add much to the offensive columns although he didn't do a bad job on the boards. Paul should show steady progress with additional game experience.

John Erfort (6-0), a standout in the tourney, Mike Hogan (6-0), and John Loughman (5-9) are the top guard prospects at St. Viator.

St. Mel's Vern Gaugush says he has his "best team in four years." The Knights lost to Argo (56-50) and Elgin Larkin (61-51) last weekend, but Gaugish admits his boys "didn't do a bad job."

Jim Crivoleo, a 5-foot-9 guard, was a stickout in both games with 26 against Argo and 25 against Larkin. He's joined by Denny white (5-9), the flashy football halfback, at the guard position.

Gaugush is working with Tony Vymola (6-1) and Tom Janata (6-3) at the forwards and Mike Harrison (6-2) at center. Mike Eaker (5-10) and Art Walker (5-11) are leading reserves.

Turnley Boyd, a 6-foot-3 center who was a third team all-conference selection, is the key returnee at St. Ignatius although new head coach Jim Enright also boasts some other promising prospects.

"We're trying to establish some balance in our attack," Enright says. In addition to Boyd, Jim has Dennis Stankiewicz (6-2), Ed Pleas (6-1), Gene O'Malley (6-1), and Jack Finnie (6-0) available for duty under the boards and Joe Coglianese (5-11), O'Malley, and Danny Walsh (5-8) in the backcourt.

St. Ignatius toppled Reavis and West Chicago and fell to St. Francis of Wheaton, 49-47, in early season contests.

All-league selection Frank Petritis (6-0) is the key man in the Holy Cross plans. Frank averaged 18 points per game last winter. Other top candidates for coach Don Halverson are Don Storino (6-0), Al Knipp (5-11), Tom Kurcz (6-1), Mike Dalke (6-1), and Joe Sanchez (5-9), the junior transfer from St. Viator.

"We need some size," Halverson admits. "If one boy becomes eligible (6-4 Marty Nowakowski) it would help a lot. We

Bulldogs Host Cardinal Five

Arlington Journeys to Prospect High Saturday

by BOB FRISK

They're poised at the starting line in the West Suburban Conference. Eight schoolboy basketball teams are awaiting the starter's gun that signals the start of another league title chase.

The preliminaries are over. The eight West Suburban entries get down to the serious business of finding a conference champion Friday evening.

Each West Suburban outfit will be in action Friday as league play opens at four sites. Most buffs favor LaGrange, but a battle to the wire is expected. The conference schedule will terminate on Friday, Feb. 26.

ARLINGTON High School's Cardinals, a seventh place finisher last winter with a 2-12 record, hit the road for their opener. Ted Wissen's crew will journey to Riverside-Brookfield. Arlington faces host Prospect Saturday in a non-conference feature.

"No, I'm not discouraged," Arlington's Wissen said in looking back to a pair of losses last week. "Our defense was very disappointing, but we feel better going into this week. We know what we have to do. There are some things to straighten out."

Arlington dropped games to Palatine and Willowbrook to kick off the season, but both tilts could have gone the other way. Arlington had Palatine, 44-43, with 3:02 remaining in the third period but wilted in the closing minutes and fell, 73-63. The Cards had Willowbrook by six points, 64-58, with only five minutes left when the Warriors got hot and pulled away, 75-68.

WISSEN DOESN'T plan any lineup changes for the conference opener. That means he'll go with Bob Conner (6-4), Bruce Hubbard (6-4) and Chuck Lloyd (6-7) up front and the sophs, Dave Lockwood (6-0) and Steve Allen (6-2) at guards. Hubbard moved into a starting slot against Willowbrook and responded with nine points and some effective work on the boards.

Conner is Arlington's top scorer after two outings with 43 points. Lloyd, who was hampered by fouls and collected only six points against Palatine, is next in line with 27. Chuck has 21 against Willowbrook.

The sophs did some scoring in both games and actually kept Arlington in contention in the fourth quarter against Willowbrook. The Brooks found the range again after a cold third period, but Allen and Lockwood matched them with baskets. Allen has 21 points and Lockwood 15 after two games.

RIVERSIDE'S head man Ron Nikcevich, who lost his entire starting five by graduation, has been "pleased with the progress" of his Bulldog unit. "We've been showing pretty good balance," Ron says.

Riverside posted an 11-3 record and tie for second in the West Suburban last winter with All-Stater Tommy Kondla (6-7) the key performer. Kondla has graduated, and Nikcevich is working with both Al Buresh (6-6) and Phil Kweton (6-5) in the pivot.

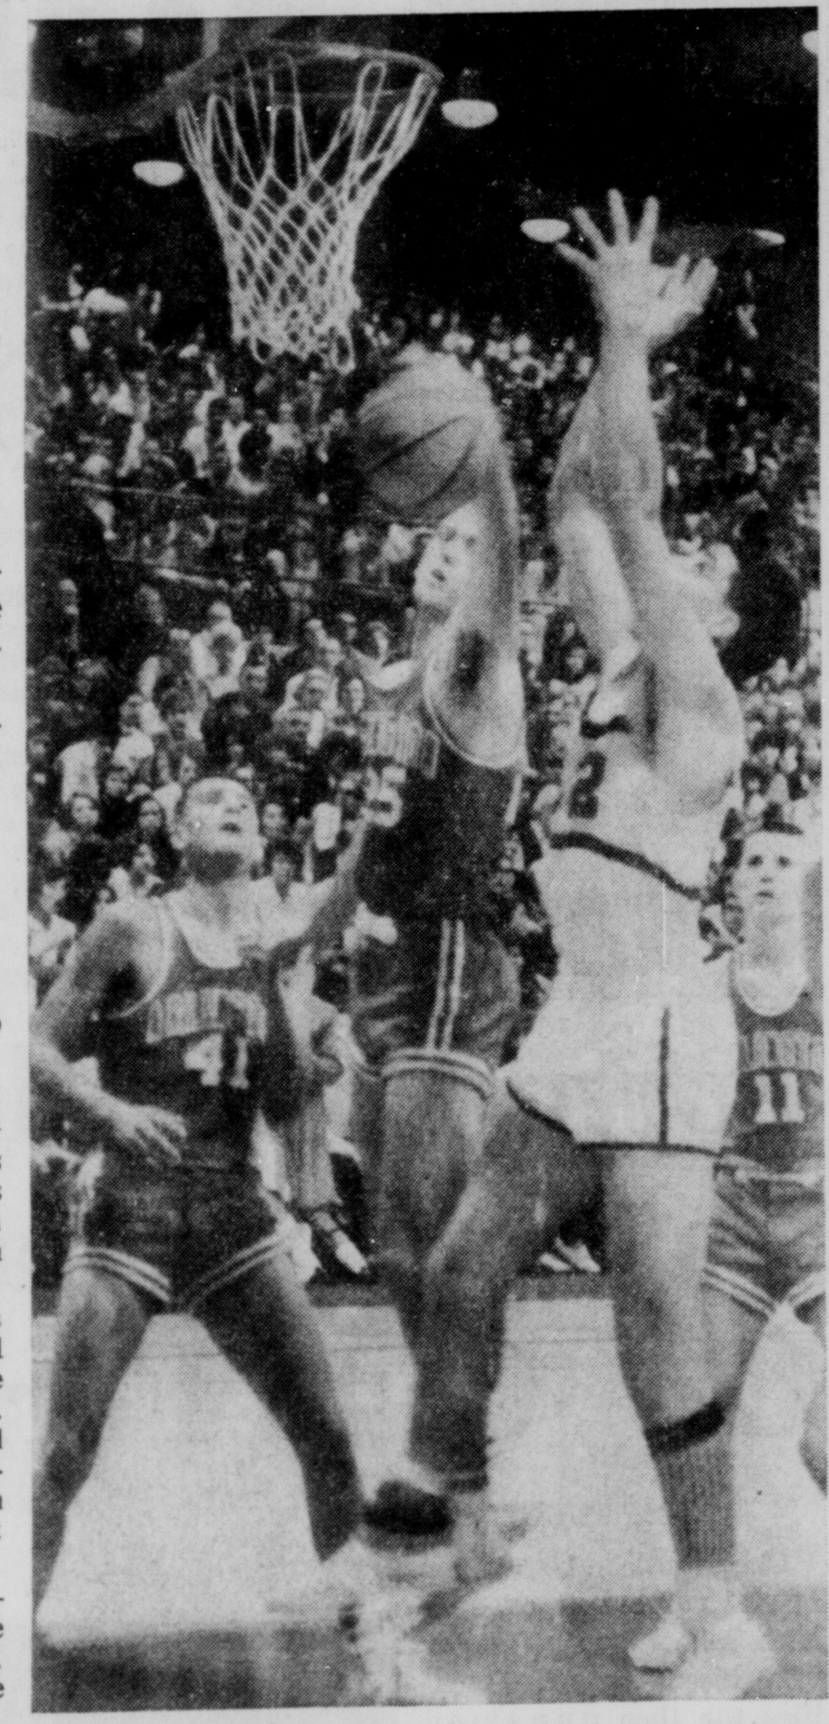
TIME:
Frosh-Soph game, 7 p.m., Friday.

At the forward slots Ron has been going with letterman Joel Klecka (6-3) and Jim O'Toole (6-2), the All-State quarterback. "Klecka has a bad ankle and I don't know if he'll start Friday," Riverside's head coach said. "If he doesn't I'll start Ken Wall, who is 6-1."

Fred Flick (6-0), another letterman, and senior Phil Lange (5-10) are the Riverside guards. Dave Holub (6-2) is available on the bench.

Riverside lost to New Trier (53-47) but has knocked over both Morton West (55-48) and Proviso West (76-56). The Bulldogs catch Oak Park Saturday evening.



IN THIS SCRAMBLE under the basket Arlington's Bob Conner (center) pulls down the ball with Palatine's Dave Willy and the Cardinals' Bruce Hubbard (41) also in the action. The host Pirates toppled Arlington Thanksgiving Eve, 73-63, for their first victory in ten years in the hardwood series. (Staff Photo)

St. Viator Battles Senn High Saturday In First Home Game

by BOB FRISK

When you're talking about Public League basketball in Chicago, the name of Nicholas Senn High School rarely cracks the conversation.

It's no secret the Bulldogs are not considered among the elite of schoolboy basketball in the Windy City.

Senn coach Bert Ellis has been engaged in the arduous task of putting together the basketball program at the Chicago school, and he may show some definite progress in the 1964-65 season.

"AT LEAST we've got some size this year," Ellis says as he looks over the Senn aggregation that visits St. Viator Saturday evening in the Lions' home opener.

"Why we've had starting fives in the past that didn't even average six feet," Ellis admits.

Ellis will have youngsters 6-5 and 6-4 in his starting alignment Saturday as the Bulldogs battle Larry Nomellini's Lions. And he complements these two rangy front-liners with one of the highest scorers in the city.

"Mike Kurtz (6-0) was the fifth leading scorer in Blue Division play last year," Ellis points out. "He's a good one."

KURTZ, BOB HANSON (6-4), and Bob Landers (6-5) work under the basket for Senn. Hanson has been with the varsity for three years, and Landers is "just starting to develop" according to Ellis.

At the backcourt slots for Senn are Lee Harris (5-8) and Larry Bailey (5-11). Harris was a starter last year.

Prospect to Test Wheeling

Match Features Duel Between Kerr Brothers

by TOM TULLY

There will be little togetherness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Kerr at 1107 Linden Lane in Mount Prospect this week. Sons Steve and Jerry are again on opposite sides of the fence.

Steve, a senior, and Jerry, a junior, split the blanket this fall when the new Wheeling High School claimed the younger brother. They were on the same football field in October, but that was about all. Steve was a regular end for the Knights, Jerry a spare halfback for the Wildcats.

The collision figures to be considerably more personal when Prospect and Wheeling get together in the first District 214 game of the season. Steve will take the floor in the Prospect fieldhouse as the leading Knight scorer. Jerry is considered by Wildcat coach Mike Owens to be the Cats' best defensive man. So .... it would not be surprising to see them as close as brothers when Prospect has the ball.

MORE IMPORTANT than the Kerr meeting, or the first intra-district battle of the season, is the fact that this one opens the Mid-Suburban conference season.

Prospect goes in with a 2-1 slate, having beaten Libertyville and St. Charles and losing to Proviso East. Wheeling is 1-2. The Cats have whipped Conant and lost to Rich Central and Maine South.

The Knights, always a Mid-Suburban power and a preseason favorite on the basis of crack jayvee squade a year ago, would appear to hold all the aces despite a rash of football injuries.

Warren Collier, in his first year as successor to Dick Kinneman, has the feeling that the Knights have the potential if he could put them all on the floor at the same time.

TWO BOYS, Keith Bergen and Jim LaRocco, haven't been available at all. Bergen has a leg injury and LaRocco is recovering from a foot operation. Neither is expected to see action until after Christmas. Bergen was a regular last year.

Forward Steve Johnson missed the first game, but has returned to score 26 points in the last two. Guard Wayne Kuklinski will miss this week's practice because of a bad tooth. He will, however, be ready for action this weekend.

Still, the Knights figure to be too strong for the youthful Cats. Wheeling got a taste of good competition last Saturday evening and was drilled 95-33 by Maine South.

Johnson will open at forward along with Rick Mader or Tom Lundstedt. Doug MacKay is the center and Kerr and veteran Bill Phillips work in the back court.

Wheeling has received good scoring from Scott Bischoff and Mark Newman. Both have been in double figures twice. They will be joined in the lineup by Kerr, Horst Schneeweis and either Al Gibbon or Bill Brown.

Prospect will be back on home boards on Saturday evening, entertaining Arlington in another intra-district clash. Wheeling takes the night off.

Forest View Travels In First League Tilt

by MICHAEL HESS

The Forest View basketball express has come to a screeching halt. But the Falcons better get started again by tomorrow night because that's when they must start a race.

The Falcons travel to Niles North tomorrow evening for the start of the Mid-Suburban League basketball race. To be in the midst of that scramble from the start, FV must come up with a complete reversal of recent form.

Coach Ken Arneson's cagers came to a total standstill in their last outing when they suffered a 62-43 whipping at the hands of Elgin. Unless the Falcons can improve considerably from that miserable showing, they might as well become just spectators to the M-SL battle.

IN THE NILES lid-lifter, Forest View will face a Viking squad which has seen very little court action. "Inexperience is our biggest problem," said Niles coach Babe Baptist. "No one on the team had ever played in a varsity game before this year. We also don't have much size."

Due to these handicaps, the Vikings run from a slow, deliberate, ball control offense which works to make every shot a good one.

Since, of the top seven opponents, five are juniors, and one is a sophomore and since all seven average a shade under six feet tall, coach Arneson agreed that his Falcons have an advantage.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

BY BOB FRISK

YOU DON'T GET ANY ARGUMENTS if you label St. Patrick's and DeLaSalle as the two clubs most likely to succeed—again—in the Chicagoland Prep League basketball race. You might get some argument about which one, but the Shamrocks and Meteors look like the class of the division in 1964-65.

This should come as no earthshaking pronouncement for Chicagoland basketball fans. They watched St. Pat's, guided by Max Kurland, sweep to 24 victories in 27 games last winter and a berth in the Arlington Sectional. They watched DeLaSalle, handled by Jerry Tokars, knock off 18 opponents in 26 outings and bow out of sectional action with an overtime loss to Bradley.

The Chicagoland coaches are high in their praise of the Shamrocks and Meteors. "Size and experience," they emphasized. But these same coaches also emphasized that the league boasts fine balance down the line.

"Sure, St. Pat's and DeLaSalle are the ones to beat," one head man admitted, "but there are several other fine teams too. And there's good size on most of the clubs."

PETRITIS

BOYD

Just to keep things interesting St. Pat's and DeLaSalle both lost last week in the initial action of the season. East Leyden tripped the Shamrocks by two, and DeLaSalle fell in two cliff-hangers to Peoria Richwoods (52-49) and Lincoln-Way (64-62). Don't let those scores mislead you. These two Chicagoland quintets are still rugged.

Kurland has good size to work with at St. Pat's. He's been operating with a front-line of Jerry Shea (6-3), Dan Pierce (6-4), and Joe Burke (6-6) with John Lucas (6-4) the top reserve. Burke is only a junior and he's "going to be a good one" according to Kurland. Pierce was a second team choice on the all-conference team, and he bagged 17 points as St. Pat's bowed out of tourney play with a 79-64 loss to Evanston at the Arlington Sectional.

Bill McManaman (6-1), third team all-conference, and Howard Rosenmayer (6-0) have been working at the guard slots although Pierce also gets an occasional call to join McManaman in the backcourt.

DeLaSalle's Tokars went with a young team last winter, and the Meteors reached the sectional before falling in overtime. Jerry wasn't encouraged by his squad's effort last weekend, but he's hopeful they'll bounce back before moving into conference scuffling.

Dave Gilmore (6-5) and Tom Hunter (6-4) are the key men in the Meteor attack. They were regulars last year and can be expected to carry much of the scoring load again this time around. They combined for 37 of DeLaSalle's 56 points in that overtime loss to Bradley in sectional play. Gilmore was a first team all-conference selection as a junior, and Hunter picked up second team honors as a soph.

Joining these two standouts are Vyto Abramavicious (6-4), Dan Sutter (6-0), Wilmar Allen (5-11), Sevira Brown (6-4), Tom Rhodes (6-2), and John Ryan (5-8). "We're still shuffling the kids around," Tokars said.

St. Viator's Larry Nomellini watched his club divide two tourney games last weekend and was encouraged by the Lions' effort Saturday in a win over St. Procopius. Larry has only one vet on his club (6-3 Charley Grandt) in a league loaded with vets, but he has two promising juniors up front and two seniors in the backcourt.

Grandt is one of the league's finest, and Larry needs this youngster for four quarters. Chuck fouled out of both games last weekend, and he had four early in the loss to Immaculate Conception.

Two juniors Paul Dumke (6-3) and Paul Pomplun (6-5) join Grandt under the basket. Dumke rebounded from a shaky start with 20 points Saturday and it's hoped he'll be a steady scorer all season. Pomplun has yet to add much to the offensive columns although he didn't do a bad job on the boards. Paul should show steady progress with additional game experience.

John Erfort (6-0), a standout in the tourney, Mike Hogan (6-0), and John Loughman (5-9) are the top guard prospects at St. Viator.

St. Mel's Vern Gaugush says he has his "best team in four years." The Knights lost to Argo (56-50) and Elgin Larkin (61-51) last weekend, but Gaugish admits his boys "didn't do a bad job."

Jim Crivoleo, a 5-foot-9 guard, was a stickout in both games with 26 against Argo and 25 against Larkin. He's joined by Denny white (5-9), the flashy football halfback, at the guard position.

Gaugush is working with Tony Vymola (6-1) and Tom Janata (6-3) at the forwards and Mike Harrison (6-2) at center. Mike Eaker (5-10) and Art Walker (5-11) are leading reserves.

Turnley Boyd, a 6-foot-3 center who was a third team all-conference selection, is the key returnee at St. Ignatius although new head coach Jim Enright also boasts some other promising prospects.

"We're trying to establish some balance in our attack," Enright says. In addition to Boyd, Jim has Dennis Stankiewicz (6-2), Ed Pleas (6-1), Gene O'Malley (6-1), and Jack Finnie (6-0) available for duty under the boards and Joe Coglianese (5-11), O'Malley, and Danny Walsh (5-8) in the backcourt.

St. Ignatius toppled Reavis and West Chicago and fell to St. Francis of Wheaton, 49-47, in early season contests.

All-league selection Frank Petritis (6-0) is the key man in the Holy Cross plans. Frank averaged 18 points per game last winter. Other top candidates for coach Don Halverson are Don Storino (6-0), Al Knipp (5-11), Tom Kurcz (6-1), Mike Dalke (6-1), and Joe Sanchez (5-9), the junior transfer from St. Viator.

"We need some size," Halverson admits. "If one boy becomes eligible (6-4 Marty Nowakowski) it would help a lot. We

Arlington Journeys to Prospect High Saturday

by BOB FRISK

They're poised at the starting line in the West Suburban Conference. Eight schoolboy basketball teams are awaiting the starter's gun that signals the start of another league title chase.

The preliminaries are over. The eight West Suburban entries get down to the serious business of finding a conference champion Friday evening.

Each West Suburban outfit will be in action Friday as league play opens at four sites. Most buffs favor LaGrange, but a battle to the wire is expected. The conference schedule will terminate on Friday, Feb. 26.

6-7	Lloyd	C	Buresh or Kweton	6-6 6-5
6-2	Allen	G	Flick	6-0
6-0	Lockwood	G	Lange	5-10

TIME:
Frosh-Soph game, 7 p.m., Friday.

ARLINGTON High School's Cardinals, a seventh place finisher last winter with a 2-12 record, hit the road for their opener. Ted Wissen's crew will journey to Riverside-Brookfield. Arlington faces host Prospect Saturday in a non-conference feature.

"No, I'm not discouraged," Arlington's Wissen said in looking back to a pair of losses last week. "Our defense was very disappointing, but we feel better going into this week. We know what we have to do. There are some things to straighten out."

Arlington dropped games to Palatine and Willowbrook to kick off the season, but both tilts could have gone the other way. Arlington had Palatine, 44-43, with 3:02 remaining in the third period but wilted in the closing minutes and fell, 73-63. The Cards had Willowbrook by six points, 64-58, with only five minutes left when the Warriors got hot and pulled away, 75-68.

WISSEN DOESN'T plan any lineup changes for the conference opener. That means he'll go with Bob Conner (6-4), Bruce Hubbard (6-4) and Chuck Lloyd (6-7) up front and the sophs, Dave Lockwood (6-0) and Steve Allen (6-2) at guards. Hubbard moved into a starting slot against Willowbrook and responded with nine points and some effective work on the boards.

Conner is Arlington's top scorer after two outings with 43 points. Lloyd, who was hampered by fouls and collected only six points against Palatine, is next in line with 27. Chuck has 21 against Willowbrook.

The sophs did some scoring in both games and actually kept Arlington in contention in the fourth quarter against Willowbrook. The Brooks found the range again after a cold third period, but Allen and Lockwood matched them with baskets. Allen has 21 points and Lockwood 15 after two games.

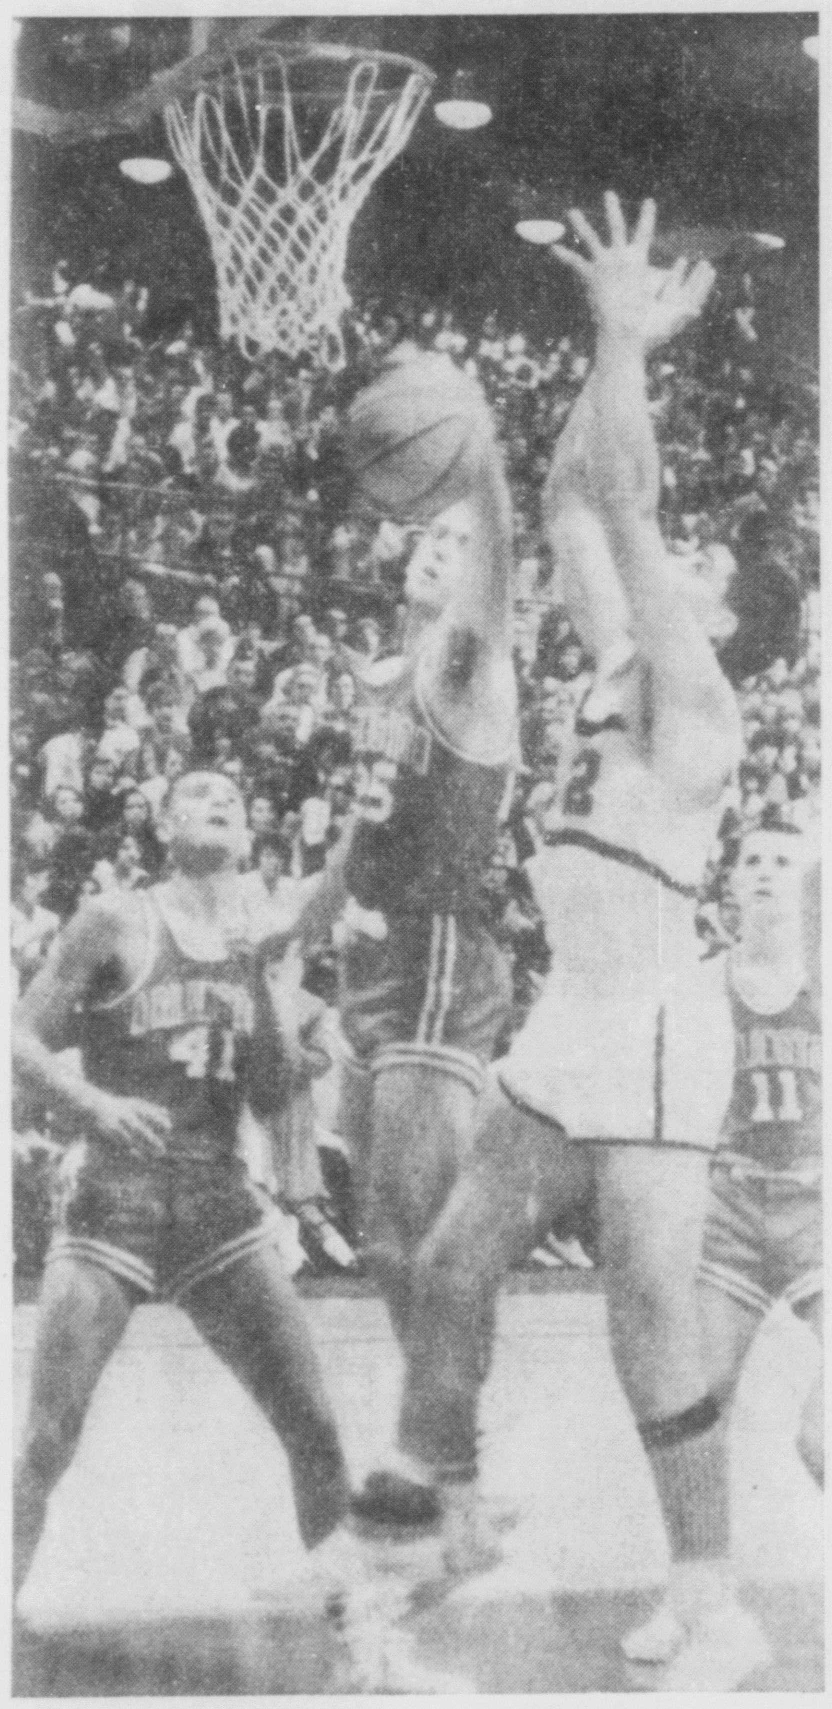
RIVERSIDE'S head man Ron Nikcevich, who lost his entire starting five by graduation, has been "pleased with the progress" of his Bulldog unit. "We've been showing pretty good balance," Ron says.

Riverside posted an 11-3 record and tie for second in the West Suburban last winter with All-Stater Tommy Kondla (6-7) the key performer. Kondla has graduated, and Nikcevich is working with both Al Buresh (6-6) and Phil Kweton (6-5) in the pivot.

At the forward slots Ron has been going with letterman Joel Klecka (6-3) and Jim O'Toole (6-2), the All-State quarterback. "Klecka has a bad ankle and I don't know if he'll start Friday," Riverside's head coach said. "If he doesn't I'll start Ken Wall, who is 6-1."

Fred Flick (6-0), another letterman, and senior Phil Lange (5-10) are the Riverside guards. Dave Holub (6-2) is available on the bench.

Riverside lost to New Trier (53-47) but has knocked over both Morton West (55-48) and Proviso West (76-56). The Bulldogs catch Oak Park Saturday evening.



IN THIS SCRAMBLE under the basket Arlington's Bob Conner (center) pulls down the ball with Palatine's Dave Willy and the Cardinals' Bruce Hubbard (41) also in the action. The host Pirates toppled Arlington Thanksgiving Eve, 73-63, for their first victory in ten years in the hardwood series. (Staff Photo)

Match Features Duel Between Kerr Brothers

by TOM TULLY

There will be little togetherness in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Kerr at 1107 Linden Lane in Mount Prospect this week. Sons Steve and Jerry are again on opposite sides of the fence.

Steve, a senior, and Jerry, a junior, split the blanket this fall when the new Wheeling High School claimed the younger brother. They were on the same football field in October, but that was about all. Steve was a regular end for the Knights, Jerry a spare halfback for the Wildcats.

5- 7	Schneeweis	G	Kerr	5-11
5-11	Newman	G	Phillips	5-11

TIME: Preliminary Game, 7 p.m.
Coaches: Wheeling, Mike Owens; Prospect, Warren Collier.

The collision figures to be considerably more personal when Prospect and Wheeling get together in the first District 214 game of the season. Steve will take the floor in the Prospect fieldhouse as the leading Knight scorer. Jerry is considered by Wildcat coach Mike Owens to be the Cats' best defensive man. So .... it would not be surprising to see them as close as brothers when Prospect has the ball.

MORE IMPORTANT than the Kerr meeting, or the first intradistrict battle of the season, is the fact that this one opens the Mid-Suburban conference season.

Prospect goes in with a 2-1 slate, having beaten Libertyville and St. Charles and losing to Proviso East. Wheeling is 1-2. The Cats have whipped Conant and lost to Rich Central and Maine South.

The Knights, always a Mid-Suburban power and a preseason favorite on the basis of crack jayvee squade a year ago, would appear to hold all the aces despite a rash of football injuries.

Warren Collier, in his first year as successor to Dick Kinneman, has the feeling that the Knights have the potential if he could put them all on the floor at the same time.

TWO BOYS, Keith Bergen and Jim LaRocco, haven't been available at all. Bergen has a leg injury and LaRocco is recovering from a foot operation. Neither is expected to see action until after Christmas. Bergen was a regular last year.

Forward Steve Johnson missed the first game, but has returned to score 26 points in the last two. Guard Wayne Kuklinski will miss this week's practice because of a bad tooth. He will, however, be ready for action this weekend.

Still, the Knights figure to be too strong for the youthful Cats. Wheeling got a taste of good competition last Saturday evening and was drilled 95-33 by Maine South.

St. Viator Battles Senn High Saturday In First Home Game

by BOB FRISK

When you're talking about Public League basketball in Chicago, the name of Nicholas Senn High School rarely cracks the conversation.

It's no secret the Bulldogs are not considered among the elite of schoolboy basketball in the Windy City.

At St. Viator

	St. Viator		Senn

6-0	Hogan	G	Bailey	5-11

PLACE:
St. Viator High School
COACHES:
St. Viator, Larry Nomellini; Senn, Bert Ellis.

Senn coach Bert Ellis has been engaged in the arduous task of putting together the basketball program at the Chicago school, and he may show some definite progress in the 1964-65 season.

"AT LEAST we've got some size this year," Ellis says as he looks over the Senn aggregation that visits St. Viator Saturday evening in the Lions' home opener.

"Why we've had starting fives in the past that didn't even average six feet," Ellis admits.

Ellis will have youngsters 6-5 and 6-4 in his starting alignment Saturday as the Bulldogs battle Larry Nomellini's Lions. And he complements these two rangy front-liners with one of the highest scorers in the city.

"Mike Kurtz (6-0) was the fifth leading scorer in Blue Division play last year," Ellis points out. "He's a good one."

KURTZ, BOB HANSON (6-4), and Bob Landers (6-5) work under the basket for Senn. Hanson has been with the varsity for three years, and Landers is "just starting to develop" according to Ellis.

At the backcourt slots for Senn are Lee Harris (5-8) and Larry Bailey (5-11). Harris was a starter last year.

"We haven't had any games yet so it's difficult to tell just how the kids will do," Ellis said Monday. Senn was slated to kick off its season Tuesday afternoon at Lane Tech.

"Potentially this should be one of our better teams," Ellis summed up. "We've got some size and experience. We'll just have to wait and see."

Cats Top Conant By 51-48 Count

by TOM TULLY

A strong fourth quarter performance by playmaker Mark Newman gave Wheeling a little dessert before the turkey dinner as the Cats nipped visiting Conant 51-48 last Wednesday evening.

The win was the first in two outings for Mike Owens' Cats. Conant, playing without discipline case Larry Powell, 6-6½ center, dropped its third straight.

Sophomore Scott Bischoff paced the winners with 20, but it was Newman, a 14 point producer, who brought the Cats their first win. Eight of his tallies came in the final period. Included were Wheeling's last six of the game and they served to halt a Conant comeback sparked by the outside shooting of John Glasshoff.

IT LOOKED like a waltz for the hosts in the early going. With Bischoff lobbing southpaw bombs from both corners, the Cats moved to a 12-7 lead after one period and soon extended it to 20-9 and then 22-11 before the blue clad Cougars got rolling.

Jim Garcia hit a ten footer. Walt Ramsey cashed one of two from the line. Glasshoff and John Fabing drove for scores and Dave Sander threw in a rebound to cut the deficit to 22-20.

Wheeling twice increased the lead to four before Dick Helmer came off the Conant bench to drop in five points in the final :41 to give the Cougars a 29-28 halftime edge.

The third quarter started slowly and Conant was clinging to a 30-29 edge when Bischoff connected from five feet at the 5:22 mark. Bill Brown got an easy one and Newman and Bischoff each tallied a pair from the line. The score was 37-30 and Wheeling appeared to be making a move. But Walt Riley hit a pair of buckets and a foul shot and the Cougars were within three at 39-36 at the end of three.

RILEY HIT another short jumper at the start of the fourth session to shave the spread to one, but goals by Brown, Bischoff and Newman put Wheeling on top 45-38 with 5:34 remaining.

The Cougars still weren't finished. Sander hit two foul shots. Riley got a layup off a steal. Glasshoff hit a 23 footer with 4:28 showing on the clock and suddenly it was 45-44.

Owens was screaming for time as Wheeling put the ball in play, but the Cats didn't hear him and Newman dropped on in from the side. Conant had several chances to cut the gap, but a violation cost one possession and two shots were missed from right under the goal.

When Conant got it back, Newman started playing keep-away. Riley fouled him at 2:47 and Mark hit one of two to make it 48-44.

A COUGAR shot missed the mark and Newman was back in action. This time Glasshoff nailed him and Newman cashed both tosses making it 50-44 at 2:19.

Glasshoff quickly replied with a jumper from the side at 2:06. Wheeling held the ball until Riley fouled out on Newman with :43 remaining. Newman hit the first and Glasshoff's long jumper :14 later served only to make it closer.

Glasshoff led Rol Berg's club with 15. Riley chipped in with 11.

Shers, Carda Pace Victory

Coming from three points back in the final period, the Prospect sophomore cagers picked up their second win of the season by beating St. Charles 59-53.

Center Al Shers and guard Dan Carda paced the sophs with 23 and 12 points respectively.

The Knights' sophomores try for their third straight win this Saturday against Wheeling, at home, at 9:30 a.m.

Arlington in Soph Gym Win Over Palatine

Arlington's sophomore gymnasts overwhelmed Palatine last week in the season opener, 94-38.

The Cards swept the top three positions in four of the six events, yielding thirds on the side horse and rings.

Dave Johnson paced Arlington with 18 points and Bill Morrisett collected 11.

Scoring firsts in the meet were Morrisett (trampoline), Taylor (side horse), Weidner (horizontal bar), Johnson (parallel bars and rings), and Nastal (tumbling).

Forest View Jayvees Win

The Forest View junior varsity basketball team captured its second and third straight wins of the young season in action last week.

First the JV five hammered Proviso West 55 to 28 and then, last Monday, they beat Elgin 56-41.

Dan Huenink scored half of the Falcon's total in a 20 point second quarter splurge which wrapped up the game with Proviso. Jim Buckholz led the way against Elgin by popping in 21 points.

Barker, Jon Keys, and Bressler scored in the final minutes as the Cards pulled away for a nine-point decision.

Arlington held a 25-22 halftime lead and carried a 35-28 advantage into the decisive quarter.

Barker collected seven baskets and nine free throws for his 23 points. John Blomquist added 11. Doug Englebaugh was high for Willowbrook with 15.

St. George may be a club to watch. Ed Slingerland lost a brilliant guard in Tony Barone but has two regulars back and some good size. "This is more depth than I've ever had," Ed says, "but we still may be a year away."

The Dragons' tentative starting alignment includes vets Don Geist a junior, (6-4), and Art McGivern (6-2), a senior, at forwards, junior Pete Karch (6-4) at center, and junior Jerry McGrath (5-10) and senior Jim Bachta (5-8) at guards. Slingerland also expects soph Jerry Heber (5-8) and senior Terry O'Meara (6-0) to help out.

St. George was slated to kick off its season yesterday (Wednesday) against Foreman.

St. Joseph coach Pat Callahan lost high-scoring Dick Sebek and Paul Klassovity, another all-league performer, by graduation, and they'll be difficult to replace. Sebek hit 317 points in 14 league games and fired in 53 against Holy Cross in a single outing.

Tom Miller, a 6-foot-4 junior center who has some good moves, gives Callahan his size this year with Dennis Desmond (6-1) and John Graziano (5-9) at the other forward slots in last week's Immaculate Conception tourney. Don Olsen (5-10) and veteran Tom Kerstein (5-10) are the guards.

You can't lose players like Sebek and Klassovity without feeling it, but Callahan's club didn't look too bad in the tourney firing. This team may get stronger as the season progresses.

Former Bradley Star Takes Command Of Cat Cage Fortunes

by TOM TULLY

FORMER BRADLEY CAPTAIN MIKE OWENS
Handles Cat Cage Fortunes

One afternoon last winter several coaches at an area high school and a visitor were discussing what qualities the then unnamed coach of the new Wheeling High School would have to possess. After several ideas were kicked around, it was decided that he could get by with the faith of a prophet, the patience of Job, the confidence of a shell artist — and a magic wand. It was also suggested that he bring along a few assets that coaches lovingly call "horses." In short, the available talent for the 1964-65 basketball season was figured to be located in other places.

Perhaps with this in mind, Wheeling Athletic Director Bus Ormsbee, applying the theory that you buy shoes in a shoe store, went into basketball country in search of a coach.

The search ended when he put a rope on Mike Owens, the youthful coach at Peoria Limestone. It's doubtful that Bus frisked Owens for a wand, but the very fact that he accepted the challenge indicates that the latter is suffering no lack of faith, patience or confidence.

IN LIEU of a magic stick, Mike brings to Wheeling a basketball background that is perhaps unequalled in the area. He got his baptism on the hardwood in Galesburg, a central Illinois city of 50,000 and a pleasant place to visit from April until November. The rest of the year the folks get a little excited about their basketball team and rumor has it they make their Champaign reservations five years in advance.

Owens also put in a tour at Bradley in the Missouri Valley, a league where legalized fratricide is a bylaw and outsiders are generally treated in similar fashion.

After a shot at minor league baseball, Mike took the job at Limestone where, although the basketball program was older, it wasn't much better than the one at Wheeling. In three seasons he had a conference co-title and victory over the state champion in a league that has produced a fourth, a third and a first place at the state meet in the last years.

Owens first bolted in prominence as a regular on the Galesburg team that advanced to the quarterfinals of the state meet in 1955. Elgin took the Streaks out the meet by a 66-64 score and went on to fnish second to West Rockford.

THE NEXT YEAR Galesburg took a 26-2 mark into the Super-Sectional against the defending state champion Rockford gang paced by Nolden Gentry and Johnny Wessels. Gentry stuffed in a rebound in a sudden death overtime and Galesburg went to the sidelines by the same 66-64 score that eliminated the Streaks the year before. Rockford went on to another state title.

Four members of that Galesburg team went on to better things in college. Bill Graning was captain and most valuable player at Knox, Russ Lind was captain and MVP at Colorado, Jerry O'Dell was MVP at Illinois Normal and Owens was captain and MVP at Bradley.

As a sophomore, Owens was figured to be just another sub on what figured to be a great Brave team. Some of the seniors failed to repeat earlier seasons however, and the Galesburg redhead cracked the starting lineup in the third game. The Braves turned in a 20-7 record and finished second in the Valley. Xavier eliminated the Braves in the first round of the NIT.

The following year Bradley had a 25-4 mark, its annual second place finish behind Cincinnati in the Valley and a runner-up to St. John's in the NIT. Owens led the Valley in shooting percentage.

AS A SENIOR, Owens captained the finest Brave team (record wise) in the history of the school. The 27-2 slate wasn't good enough to win the conference, but it was enough for all the marbles in the Braves' annual March visit to Madison Square Garden. That was the year of the "orange juice" scandal when it was suspected that Bradley sophomore star Chet Walker had been poisoned prior to the semi-final game with St. Bonaventure.

As Mike tells it, there was nothing wrong with the juice. Walker had been suffering from the flu all week and, aside from being scared stiff, showed no ill effects from the orange juice.

That semi-final game against the Bonnies was probably the finest of Owens' career. The New Yorkers, led by Tom and Sam Stith, had the nation's longest winning streak — 19 games. They threw a withering press at the Braves, but it was to no avail. Bradley went on to whip Providence in a final that saw them come from twelve down with six minutes to go to a 15 point victory. Owens capped his career by leading the Valley in shooting percentage for the second time.

In the meantime, Owens was spending his springs in a baseball uniform. His batting average was never particularly impressive, but the Pirates were interested enough to sign him to a modest bonus in 1961.

OWENS SPLIT that season between Batavia, N. Y. of the Pony League and Hobbs, N. M. of the Sophomore League. He hit. 299 in both places and led both leagues in fielding as a third baseman, but decided to quit when the basketball job at Limestone opened up. The Rockets had been a weak sister in the Peoria area since the school opened in 1951 and to boot had lost everything from the year before. Owens went with youth in much the same manner as he will have to do at Wheeling. He cast his lot with three sophomores and two juniors and they put together a 9-16 record.

The next year Limestone had a 21-6 mark and a share of its first conference title. Last season the Rockets slipped to 14-13, but included in their victims state champion Pekin. They also took the Chinks down to the wire on two other occasions, one an 85-80 loss in the regional final. Star of the team was all-state guard Ron Wendelin, now a member of the Duke freshman squad.

Owens is young — he's 26— and not at all discouraged by the fact that there are no Wendelins on the Wildcat squad. He's not expecting a Mid-Suburban title from his youthful group, but has the feeling that come January and February they may win a few they are not supposed to.

'Sleigh Bells' Goes Back to Palatine; Pirates Win 73-63

by BOB FRISK

Bud Mueller and Ted Wissen have something in common now. It's called "third quarter blues" and it strikes with suddenness and without warning.

Mueller, rookie basketball coach at Palatine, was the first to succumb. He saw his Pirates fall apart in the third quarter of the season opener at Forest View and drop a 74-64 decision.

Palatine held a 31-28 halftime lead in the opener and was outscored 28-13 in the third stanza.

Wissen, starting his second year as Arlington's cage boss, was afflicted with those agonizing "third quarter blues" on Thanksgiving Eve in the annual "Sleigh Bells" feature with Palatine.

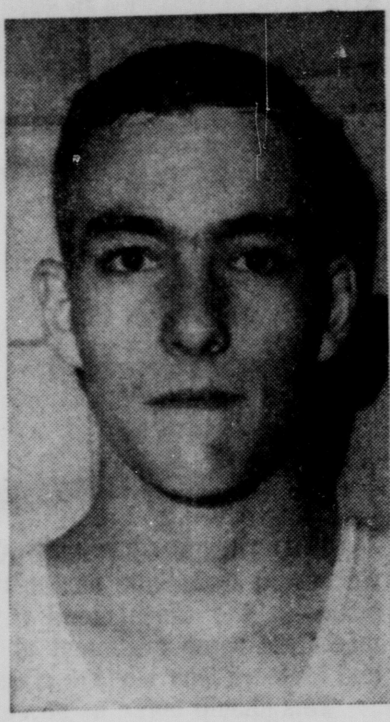
ARLINGTON held a 32-29 halftime lead but was outscored 15-4 in the final four minutes of the third period. Palatine coasted after that to a 73-63 win.

With the victory over Arlington, Mueller's Pirates returned the coveted "Sleigh Bells" trophy to Palatine High School after an absence of ten years.

There have been better basketball games than the one that unfolded before a packed house at William Fremd High School on Thanksgiving Eve. But despite the mistakes so common with early-season games and frequent, time-consuming trips to the free throw line the fans enjoyed an entertaining evening.

ARLINGTON sported some impressive size under the basket, but the Cards were whipped at the boards by the aroused Pirates in the whirlwind windup. It was a case of one shot and hurry back on defense for the visitors as the hosts took control in the final 12 minutes.

Arlington obviously suffered from the lack of any previous games, but this was Palatine's night. The Pirates deserved their victory. And two boys in particular sparkled for Mueller's quintet.



BOB WIRSING

Craig Gaare, a well-built 6-foot-3 center who would be the first to admit he was sub-par in the opener at Forest View, did a yeoman job under the boards against Arlington. He also contributed 21 valuable points.

THEN THERE was Bob Wirsing, a slender 6-foot-1 forward who is off to a brilliant start. Wirsing tossed in 22 points in the loss at Forest View and came back with 30 against Arlington. He hit 14 in those final 12 minutes as Palatine staged its furious rally.

Wirsing's jumper from the side touched off the Pirate explosion with four minutes left in the third quarter. Arlington was enjoying a 44-39 lead, and Cardinal fans were waiting for the decisive push. It never came.

Wirsing's two-pointer cut the Card's advantage to three, and then the Pirates hit again and again with lightning speed. Their full-court press, clamped on at the outset, finally began to pay big dividends as repeated steals helped add to the cushion.

WIRSING'S layup after another steal gave Palatine a 56-46 lead with 52 seconds left in the third quarter. Arlington concluded the scoring as soph guard Steve Allen, banged up earlier in a mid-court collision, drilled from 17 feet.

Allen's fielder was the first in over four minutes for Arlington. Steve had the last three baskets for the Cards in the third quarter.

Palatine pulled out in front by 13 points (67-54) with 3:09 left in the game, but the Cards staged a mild push. Two baskets by forward Bob Conner cut the Pirate lead to 69-61 with 2:01 remaining, but the hosts held on in the wild finish.

Wirsing's 30 paced both teams, and Conner dialed 24 for Arlington. Gaare was next in line with his 21.

Both clubs failed to profit from numerous trips to the charity line. Arlington missed 14 free throws in 37 attempts and Palatine blew 17.

last two games.

Even with these totals, however, the Falcons have a 2-1 record which indicates that they are able to hold down the opposition. "I was pleased with our defense in the last game," said the coach, "especially the defensive play of Pat Dunnigan and all of our guards."

On defense the Baptist squad will use a continual full court press. Such a maneuver has bothered Forest View in its early games.

THE FOREST VIEW shooters who must contend with the Vikings' press are led by center Jim Baumgardt. His 50 point total in action to date is top on his team. Of the other starters, Byron Borgardt has 29 points, Dunnigan and Steve Jacobsen each have 26 and Jack MacRae has 15.

The top FV reserves, all of whom impressed Arneson in the Falcons' losing effort against Elgin, have racked up 17 points between them. The leading subs are Jeff Grismer, the pick to replace Jacobsen who often tires, Bill Widenski, a guard, and forward Bob O'Keefe who will step in should Dunnigan falter.

Coach Baptist would not pick any standouts on his team which has lost its first two games. "We've had balanced scoring and balanced rebounding," said the coach. "No one boy has been outstanding."

BAPTIST DID comment on the efforts of Mike Weil, a sophomore who has responded well in action so far and is becoming a much improved player. Of the other Niles personnel, the only senior is guard Rodger Thomas. Baptist calls him the team playmaker and Rodger should be accustomed to leading since he called the signals on the Niles football team.

The race, then, begins tomorrow night. Even against a team like Niles the Falcons will have to come back from their recent shoddy performances and, especially after Elgin, Forest View has a long way to go.

ception, was encouraged by their effort Saturday.

"That first game experience did a lot for us," Nomellini admitted. "We looked much better. We've still got some work to do, but I was pleased with the way the boys came back."

Two impressive performers in the tourney at I.C. were guard John Erfort and forward Paul Dumke.

ERFORT WHIPPED in 29 points in the two outings, 18 against I.C. in the opener, and was a hustler in both contests. John only saw part-time service with the Lions last winter and may be one of the big surprises on the St. Viator quintet.

Dumke, who showed first game jitters against I.C., came back with 20 points in Saturday's win and is the squad's leading scorer after two contests with 31 markers.

"Paul was much more relaxed Saturday," Nomellini said. "He still made some mistakes but he's coming around."

Nomellini will open again with Dumke, Paul Pomplun, and Charley Grandt under the basket with Erfort and Mike Hogan at the guards. John Loughman came off the bench in both games last weekend as a backcourt reserve.

Conant Frosh Top Wildcats

Conant edged Wheeling in both ends of a freshman doubleheader on the Cougar courts last Wednesday.

The Cougar 'A' squad captured a 29-26 decision with Chris Shadwell and Darrell Bork leading the way with nine and seven points respectively. Steve Provost and Phil Smith had eight each for the Cats.

The 'B' game went to Conant by a 26-22 count. Russ Laus had eight points for the winners and Terry Linsky seven. Mike Hatten of Wheeling led all scorers with nine. Teammate Ron Kensli had eight.

Lion JVs Win, 62-18

St. Viator's junior-varsity Lions bombed Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst last week, 62-18, building up an 18-point lead at the intermission.

Balanced scoring paid off for Larry Nomellini's outfit with Mike McDevitt the leading scorer with 15 markers.

Also chipping in points for the Lions were Jim McNamara with 10 and Frank Hogan and Dick Merkel with eight each.

Cardinal Frosh Handle Falcons

Arlington's frosh basketball teams pulled out two victories against Forest View last week.

The Cardinal 'As' triumphed, 53-21, after jumping in front 33-12 at halftime, and the 'Bs' tripped the Falcons, 37-36.

Gary Price tossed in 16 points and Greg Lemein added 11 for Arlington's victorious 'A' team. They also sparkled on the boards.

Prospect Jayvees Win, 56-54

The Prospect Jaycee basketball team won a hair-raising 56-54 preliminary game over Proviso East last Saturday evening in the Prospect fieldhouse.

The junior Knights took a one point lead in the first quarter, stretched it to a seven point margin at half time, but found themselves in a 35-35 tie when the final period got under way.

The lead changed hands several times during the final period of play, but with 25 seconds remaining, substitute guard James Thorne pumped in a pair of free throws for a 54-52 Prospect lead, and Dan Agard added two more free throws to insure the Knight victory.

Ray Kleinhusen and Agard led the Prospect scoring with 12 and 11 points respectively, but it was Thorne who came off the bench and fired in nine points in the last quarter that provided the winning spark for the Knights.

Cats Top Conant By 51-48 Count

by TOM TULLY

A strong fourth quarter performance by playmaker Mark Newman gave Wheeling a little dessert before the turkey dinner as the Cats nipped visiting Conant 51-48 last Wednesday evening.

The win was the first in two outings for Mike Owens' Cats. Conant, playing without discipline case Larry Powell, 6-6½ center, dropped its third straight.

Sophomore Scott Bischoff paced the winners with 20, but it was Newman, a 14 point producer, who brought the Cats their first win. Eight of his tallies came in the final period. Included were Wheeling's last six of the game and they served to halt a Conant comeback sparked by the outside shooting of John Glasshoff.

IT LOOKED like a waltz for the hosts in the early going. With Bischoff lobbing southpaw bombs from both corners, the Cats moved to a 12-7 lead after one period and soon extended it to 20-9 and then 22-11 before the blue clad Cougars got rolling.

Jim Garcia hit a ten footer. Walt Ramsey cashed one of two from the line. Glasshoff and John Fabing drove for scores and Dave Sander threw in a rebound to cut the deficit to 22-20.

Wheeling twice increased the lead to four before Dick Helmer came off the Conant bench to drop in five points in the final :41 to give the Cougars a 29-28 halftime edge.

The third quarter started slowly and Conant was clinging to a 30-29 edge when Bischoff connected from five feet at the 5:22 mark. Bill Brown got an easy one and Newman and Bischoff each tallied a pair from the line. The score was 37-30 and Wheeling appeared to be making a move. But Walt Riley hit a pair of buckets and a foul shot and the Cougars were within three at 39-36 at the end of three.

RILEY HIT another short jumper at the start of the fourth session to shave the spread to one, but goals by Brown, Bischoff and Newman put Wheeling on top 45-38 with 5:34 remaining.

The Cougars still weren't finished. Sander hit two foul shots. Riley got a layup off a steal. Glasshoff hit a 23 footer with 4:28 showing on the clock and suddenly it was 45-44.

Owens was screaming for time as Wheeling put the ball in play, but the Cats didn't hear him and Newman dropped on in from the side. Conant had several chances to cut the gap, but a violation cost one possession and two shots were missed from right under the goal.

When Conant got it back, Newman started playing keep-away. Riley fouled him at 2:47 and Mark hit one of two to make it 48-44.

A COUGAR shot missed the mark and Newman was back in action. This time Glasshoff nailed him and Newman cashed both tosses making it 50-44 at 2:19.

Glasshoff quickly replied with a jumper from the side at 2:06. Wheeling held the ball until Riley fouled out on Newman with :43 remaining. Newman hit the first and Glasshoff's long jumper :14 later served only to make it closer.

Glasshoff led Rol Berg's club with 15. Riley chipped in with 11.

Shers, Carda Pace Victory

Coming from three points back in the final period, the Prospect sophomore cagers picked up their second win of the season by beating St. Charles 59-53.

Center Al Shers and guard Dan Carda paced the sophs with 23 and 12 points respectively.

The Knights' sophomores try for their third straight win this Saturday against Wheeling, at home, at 9:30 a.m.

Arlington in Soph Gym Win Over Palatine

Arlington's sophomore gymnasts overwhelmed Palatine last week in the season opener, 94-38.

The Cards swept the top three positions in four of the six events, yielding thirds on the side horse and rings.

Dave Johnson paced Arlington with 18 points and Bill Morrisett collected 11.

Scoring firsts in the meet were Morrisett (trampoline), Taylor (side horse), Weidner (horizontal bar), Johnson (parallel bars and rings), and Nastal (tumbling).

Forest View Jayvees Win

The Forest View junior varsity basketball team captured its second and third straight wins of the young season in action last week.

First the JV five hammered Proviso West 55 to 28 and then, last Monday, they beat Elgin 56-41.

Dan Huenink scored half of the Falcon's total in a 20 point second quarter splurge which wrapped up the game with Proviso. Jim Buckholz led the way against Elgin by popping in 21 points.

The Falcons' junior varsity opens its conference season tomorrow evening at Niles North. Game time is 7 p.m.

Card JV Five Tops Willowbrook

Guard Pete Barker poured in 23 points in leading Arlington's jayvee basketball team to a 48-39 victory over visiting Willowbrook Saturday evening.

Coach Al Allen's Cardinals were in command throughout most of the contest but yielded the lead with 5:33 remaining.

Jim Bressler got a tie back with a jump shot from the side, and John Blomquist netted a drive that gave Arlington a lead it didn't relinquish.

Barker, Jon Keys, and Bressler scored in the final minutes as the Cards pulled away for a nine-point decision.

Arlington held a 25-22 halftime lead and carried a 35-28 advantage into the decisive quarter.

Barker collected seven baskets and nine free throws for his 23 points. John Blomquist added 11. Doug Englebaugh was high for Willowbrook with 15.

definitely could use his height."

St. George may be a club to watch. Ed Slingerland lost a brilliant guard in Tony Barone but has two regulars back and some good size. "This is more depth than I've ever had," Ed says, "but we still may be a year away."

The Dragons' tentative starting alignment includes vets Don Geist a junior, (6-4), and Art McGivern (6-2), a senior, at forwards, junior Pete Karch (6-4) at center, and junior Jerry McGrath (5-10) and senior Jim Bachta (5-8) at guards. Slingerland also expects soph Jerry Heber (5-8) and senior Terry O'Meara (6-0) to help out.

St. George was slated to kick off its season yesterday (Wednesday) against Foreman.

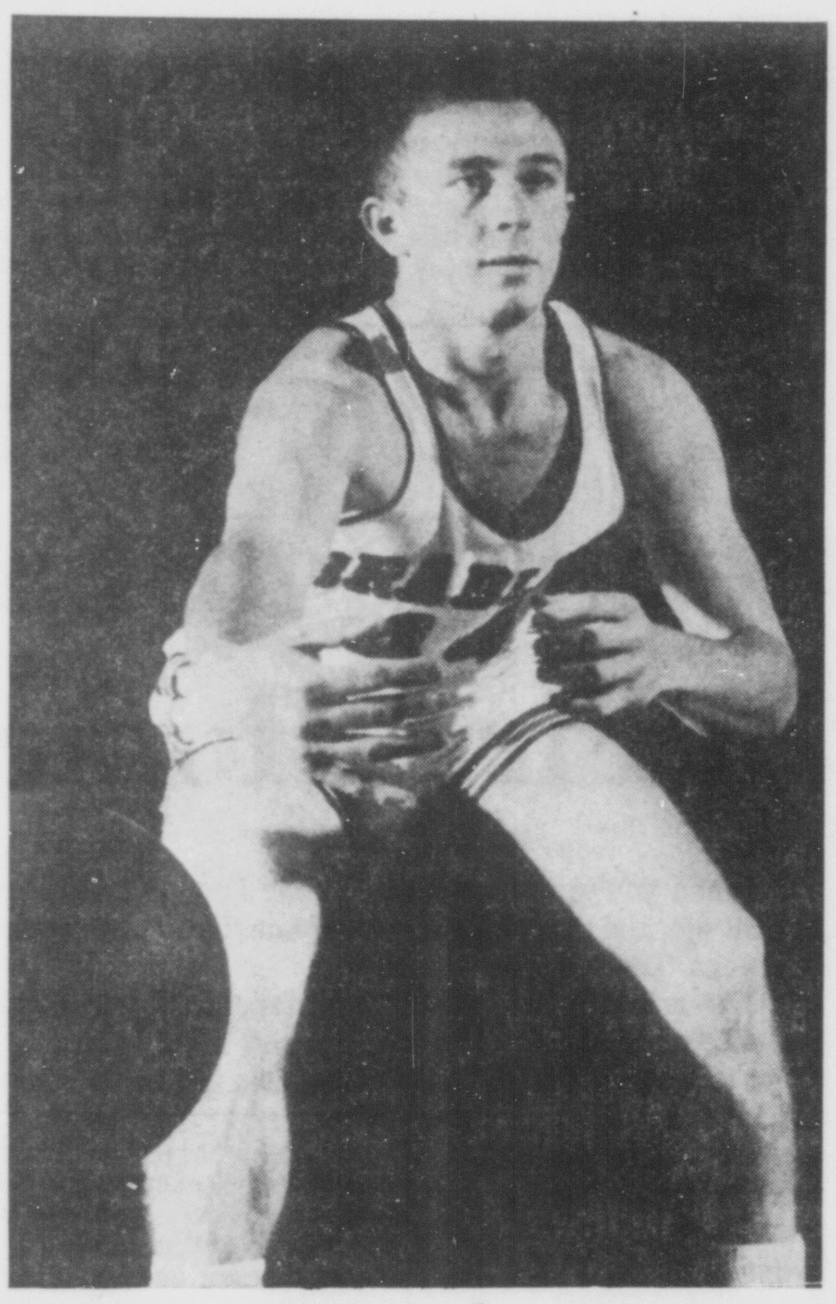
St. Joseph coach Pat Callahan lost high-scoring Dick Sebek and Paul Klassovity, another all-league performer, by graduation, and they'll be difficult to replace. Sebek hit 317 points in 14 league games and fired in 53 against Holy Cross in a single outing.

Tom Miller, a 6-foot-4 junior center who has some good moves, gives Callahan his size this year with Dennis Desmond (6-1) and John Graziano (5-9) at the other forward slots in last week's Immaculate Conception tourney. Don Olsen (5-10) and veteran Tom Kerstein (5-10) are the guards.

You can't lose players like Sebek and Klassovity without feeling it, but Callahan's club didn't look too bad in the tourney firing. This team may get stronger as the season progresses.

Former Bradley Star Takes Command Of Cat Cage Fortunes

by TOM TULLY



FORMER BRADLEY CAPTAIN MIKE OWENS
Handles Cat Cage Fortunes

One afternoon last winter several coaches at an area high school and a visitor were discussing what qualities the then unnamed coach of the new Wheeling High School would have to possess. After several ideas were kicked around, it was decided that he could get by with the faith of a prophet, the patience of Job, the confidence of a shell artist — and a magic wand. It was also suggested that he bring along a few assets that coaches lovingly call "horses." In short, the available talent for the 1964-65 basketball season was figured to be located in other places.

THEN THERE was Bob Wirsing, a slender 6-foot-1 forward who is off to a brilliant start. Wirsing tossed in 22 points in the loss at Forest View and came back with 30 against Arlington. He hit 14 in those final 12 minutes as Palatine staged its furious rally.

Wirsing's jumper from the side touched off the Pirate explosion with four minutes left in the third quarter. Arlington was enjoying a 44-39 lead, and Cardinal fans were waiting for the decisive push. It never came.

Wirsing's two-pointer cut the Card's advantage to three, and then the Pirates hit again and again with lightning speed. Their full-court press, clamped on at the outset, finally began to pay big dividends as repeated steals helped add to the cushion.

WIRSING'S layup after another steal gave Palatine a 56-46 lead with 52 seconds left in the third quarter. Arlington concluded the scoring as soph guard Steve Allen, banged up earlier in a mid-court collision, drilled from 17 feet.

Allen's fielder was the first in over four minutes for Arlington. Steve had the last three baskets for the Cards in the third quarter.

Palatine pulled out in front by 13 points (67-54) with 3:09 left in the game, but the Cards staged a mild push. Two baskets by forward Bob Conner cut the Pirate lead to 69-61 with 2:01 remaining, but the hosts held on in the wild finish.

Wirsing's 30 paced both teams, and Conner dialed 24 for Arlington. Gaare was next in line with his 21.

Both clubs failed to profit from numerous trips to the charity line. Arlington missed 14 free throws in 37 attempts and Palatine blew 17.

last two games.

Even with these totals, however, the Falcons have a 2-1 record which indicates that they are able to hold down the opposition. "I was pleased with our defense in the last game," said the coach, "especially the defensive play of Pat Dunnigan and all of our guards."

On defense the Baptist squad will use a continual full court press. Such a maneuver has bothered Forest View in its early games.

THE FOREST VIEW shooters who must contend with the Vikings' press are led by center Jim Baumgardt. His 50 point total in action to date is top on his team. Of the other starters, Byron Borgardt has 29 points, Dunnigan and Steve Jacobsen each have 26 and Jack MacRae has 15.

The top FV reserves, all of whom impressed Arneson in the Falcons' losing effort against Elgin, have racked up 17 points between them. The leading subs are Jeff Grismer, the pick to replace Jacobsen who often tires, Bill Widenski, a guard, and forward Bob O'Keefe who will step in should Dunnigan falter.

Coach Baptist would not pick any standouts on his team which has lost its first two games. "We've had balanced scoring and balanced rebounding," said the coach. "No one boy has been outstanding."

BAPTIST DID comment on the efforts of Mike Weil, a sophomore who has responded well in action so far and is becoming a much improved player. Of the other Niles personnel, the only senior is guard Rodger Thomas. Baptist calls him the team playmaker and Rodger should be accustomed to leading since he called the signals on the Niles football team.

The race, then, begins tomorrow night. Even against a team like Niles the Falcons will have to come back from their recent shoddy performances and, especially after Elgin, Forest View has a long way to go.

ception, was encouraged by their effort Saturday.

"That first game experience did a lot for us," Nomellini admitted. "We looked much better. We've still got some work to do, but I was pleased with the way the boys came back."

Two impressive performers in the tourney at I.C. were guard John Erfort and forward Paul Dumke.

ERFORT WHIPPED in 29 points in the two outings, 18 against I.C. in the opener, and was a hustler in both contests. John only saw part-time service with the Lions last winter and may be one of the big surprises on the St. Viator quintet.

Dumke, who showed first game jitters against I.C., came back with 20 points in Saturday's win and is the squad's leading scorer after two contests with 31 markers.

"Paul was much more relaxed Saturday," Nomellini said. "He still made some mistakes but he's coming around."

Nomellini will open again with Dumke, Paul Pomplun, and Charley Grandt under the basket with Erfort and Mike Hogan at the guards. John Loughman came off the bench in both games last weekend as a backcourt reserve.

Conant Frosh Top Wildcats

Conant edged Wheeling in both ends of a freshman doubleheader on the Cougar courts last Wednesday.

The Cougar 'A' squad captured a 29-26 decision with Chris Shadwell and Darrell Bork leading the way with nine and seven points respectively. Steve Provost and Phil Smith had eight each for the Cats.

The 'B' game went to Conant by a 26-22 count. Russ Laus had eight points for the winners and Terry Linsky seven. Mike Hatten of Wheeling led all scorers with nine. Teammate Ron Kensli had eight.

Lion JVs Win, 62-18

St. Viator's junior-varsity Lions bombed Immaculate Conception of Elmhurst last week, 62-18, building up an 18-point lead at the intermission.

Balanced scoring paid off for Larry Nomellini's outfit with Mike McDevitt the leading scorer with 15 markers.

Also chipping in points for the Lions were Jim McNamara with 10 and Frank Hogan and Dick Merkel with eight each.

Gary Price tossed in 16 points and Greg Lemein added 11 for Arlington's victorious 'A' team. They also sparkled on the boards.

Prospect Jayvees Win, 56-54

The Prospect Jaycee basketball team won a hair-raising 56-54 preliminary game over Proviso East last Saturday evening in the Prospect fieldhouse.

The junior Knights took a one point lead in the first quarter, stretched it to a seven point margin at half time, but found themselves in a 35-35 tie when the final period got under way.

The lead changed hands several times during the final period of play, but with 25 seconds remaining, substitute guard James Thorne pumped in a pair of free throws for a 54-52 Prospect lead, and Dan Agard added two more free throws to insure the Knight victory.

Ray Kleinhusen and Agard led the Prospect scoring with 12 and 11 points respectively, but it was Thorne who came off the bench and fired in nine points in the last quarter that provided the winning spark for the Knights.

St. Viator Third In Tourney; I.C. Captures Top Prize

by BOB FRISK

Third place in a four-team tournament doesn't sound like much, but St. Viator coach Larry Nomellini wasn't too discouraged with his Lions' performance at Immaculate Conception last weekend.

"We bounced back Saturday with a much better effort," Nomellini said. "That was the satisfying thing from the tourney."

Host Immaculate Conception rocked the Lions on Friday, 76-62, but Nomellini's outfit rebounded to grab consolation honors with a 57-42 conquest of St. Procopius.

JOHN ERFORT

I.C., SPARKED by high-scoring Jay Popp, captured its own tourney title with a 70-56 victory over St. Joseph Saturday. St. Joseph advanced into the championship tussle with a 54-41 win over St. Procopius.

"We looked much better Saturday," Nomellini said. "I was concerned after the opener. We made a lot of mistakes and made I.C. look pretty good. What I didn't like was the way that first game got out of hand. We were within two late in the second quarter and then everything started to go wrong."

St. Viator kept pace with Immaculate Conception throughout most of the first half before the roof caved in. John Erfort, Lion guard who was a stickout in defeat, had just bagged a drive when I.C. exploded. The hosts held a precarious 33-31 lead at the time.

RICK KLEIN, who flipped in 29 points to pace the Knights, whipped the Lion defense for two quick baskets, and Terry Tyrrell recorded two free throws in the closing seconds to give I.C. a 39-31 halftime advantage.

St. Viator never had a chance in the second half. Popp banged in his first two shots with a nifty southpaw hook and jumper from the side, and the Knights were off and running. They pulled out in front by 25 points, 63-38, heading into the final eight minutes.

The Lions posted a mild flurry in the final period with numerous trips to the free throw line. They hit the last ten points of the game.

KLEIN WAS high for both teams with 29 points and had the unusual distinction of leading teammate Popp in scoring. Popp, who still looks like one of the best around, tossed in 18.

Erfort's 18 sparked the Lions, and John was a hustler throughout the contest. "He played a fine game for us," Nomellini praised.

John Loughman, Chuck Grandt, and Paul Dumke added 11 each for the losers and Grandt was plagued with fouls. The 6-foot-3 senior picked up his fourth foul with seconds remaining in the first period but held on before fouling out late in the third stanza.

ST. VIATOR never trailed Saturday in the battle for third place. They hit St. Procopius with a 17-9 first quarter and had a 28-19 bulge at the intermission.

Proco closed to within three in the second stanza before Grandt and Dumke went to work. Chuck had five points in the second period and Paul six.

The Lions increased their lead to 12 points, 39-27, at the end of three stanzas with Grandt again leading the way and then held on for the victory.

Dumke, junior forward, was high for the winners with 20 points on nine baskets and two charity throws. Grandt added 15 before fouling out for the second straight night, and Erfort hit 11, seven in the first quarter.

In Gymnastics

Forest View Outlook Dim

It could be a long, cold season for Forest View's gymnastics team.

As the Falcons' coach Gay Hughes put it: "We're hurting this year. We lost some boys through graduation, others moved, some transferred. And our first meets are really tough."

GAY HUGHES

Those first meets will take place today at 4:30 p.m. against Proviso East, one of the best squads around, and Saturday at 2:00 p.m. versus Willowbrook, defending Illinois champs. The Proviso East contest will be at home and Willowbrook will be met in its own gym.

EVEN WITH these two for early opponents, Hughes isn't completely pessimistic. "I shall feel that we can improve," said the coach. With 0-14 and 2-12 seasons behind them the Falcons can hardly get worse so that improvement seems a distinct possibility.

"But we're badly short of boys," continued Hughes, "especially in two events, tumbling and trampoline."

In those events, only letterman Dave Hippensteel is a sure starter. Dave, one of only two juniors on the varsity, is a specialist on the trampoline. Hughes is still searching for the five boys needed to fill the holes for these events.

DEFINITELY the Falcons' strongest spot is on the parallel bars. Here senior letterman Dick Antti, called by Hughes the top all-around boy on the squad, leads the way. Two other lettermen, senior Randy Jeskey and junior Garth Freeman, complete the parallel bar trio.

Senior John Medley and Antti will be the side horse contestants. The third post here is also a question mark.

The horizontal bar will be used by Tom Hempel, letterman Bob Olszewski, both seniors, and Freeman.

Olszewski, Antti and senior Jeff Weaver will be on the still rings against Proviso.

Concluded coach Hughes, "Since dual meet scoring calls for depth, which we don't have, we'll probably do best in tournaments."

Grayslake Tops Cats On Mats

Grayslake handed Wheeling its second wrestling setback of the season, stopping the Cats 30-16 lat Friday.

The non-league dual featured close matches. Ricardo Bosh of Wheeling opened with a 4-2 win at 95. Grayslake won the next two bouts when Larry Scot tpinned Ted Fraser and Steve Richards outpointed Dave Eaton 10-8.

Jerry Hawkinson tied the score at 8-8 for Wheeling when he won by forfeit. Hawkinson had a 5-4 lead when Nick Zasco was injured and forced to retire.

Grayslake went up 11-8 when Burt Gyllin topped Dick Ritter 4-3 on riding time and doubled the score Jack Saltz put Alan Eisenstein on the sidelines in :59. Mike Flugel narrowed the Wheeling deficit to 16-11 with a 5-4 win over Tom Brusoe, it mounted to 22-11 when Charlie Thomas edged Ken Berntt 2-1 at 145 and Bill Samuelson beat Rich Haddock 4-2 at 154.

Larry Knaack gave Wheeling a chance by pinning Jerry Clark in 1:50, but Ted Armstrong and Frank Abboreno were beaten.

The Wheeling freshman and sophomore teams both won decisively. The frosh spotted Grayslake ten points then came on to win 50-10. Four forfeits helped, but the Cats got pins from Steve Johnson, Jerry Westhouse, Dan Leaf, Tom Russel, Dan Stavros, Joe Meyer and Steve Storm. Johnson's came in :27.

The sophs won 34-18. Thad Michols had a :28 pin and Ray Weidner, Phil Reed and Joe Coffman also won on falls.

St. Viator's Jayvees Trip Cards, 53-46

St. Viator exploded in the first quarter and held on for a 53-46 jayvee basketball victory over Arlington High School last week.

The Lions outscored Arlington 17-5 in the first period and held a 36-21 lead at the intermission.

The Cardinals battled back in the final half but couldn't catch St. Viator.

Jim McNamara was high man for Larry Nomellini's Lions with 17 points on eight baskets and one free throw. Frank Hogan and Kevin O'Connell had 10 each.

John Blomquist topped Al Allen's Cards with eight baskets and three free throws for 19.

Knights Win, 73-54

St. Charles Falls To Prospect Varsity

by MARV PRELLBERG, Jr.

The Prospect varsity cage squad picked up its second straight victory with a 73-54 conquest of St. Charles High in a pre-Thanksgiving eve tilt in the St. Charles gymnasium.

Coach Warren Collier's Knights had squeaked by Libertyville 59-57 four days earlier in the season opener, but found the St. Charles five somewhat easier to handle in this non-conference battle.

However, the Prospect five by no means had it all their way in this encounter, as the Little Seven Conference representatives kept within range of the Knights until early in the final quarter.

THE KNIGHTS could claim only a six point, 47-41 margin in the opening minute of the fourth quarter, but then poured through 11 straight points against the tiring Saint aggregation and coasted to the win during the remainder of the period.

A welcome sight for Prospect's coach Collier must have been in the person of forward Steve Johnson. Johnson has been one of the several Knights who were listed on the injured roster. He missed the Libertyville game but made his 1964-65 debut in this fracas, and, before the night's fireworks were over, Johnson had contributed 16 points towards the Prospect victory total.

Also highlighting this performance was another fine showing by Prospect guard Steve Kerr. The 5 foot 11 inch southpaw backcourt cager came off his 19 point performance against Libertyville and again paced the Knights scoring parade in this contest with seven field goals and six free throws for a 20 point effort.

AS A TEAM the Knights shot at a 45 per cent clip from the field against a 37 per cent record for St. Charles. Prospect also led in the charity toss department with a 59 per cent performance to the Saints 54 per cent figure.

St. Charles commenced the scoring activity in the opening quarter with guard Bob Krahenbul tallying on a fast break, and midway through the period the Saints had jumped out to a five point lead 11-6.

Johnson, Greg Kowal and Kerr then proceeded to wipe out this deficit for the Knights, and soon Prospect forged out in front 14-11.

THE SAINTS kept within range of Prospect throughout the first half and at halftime the Knights held a slim 30-27 lead.

The Knights immediately increased their lead in the opening minutes of the third frame when John MacKay, Johnson and Kowal each scored a field goal before the Saints' Terry Burke finally found the range. The remainder of the quarter was nip-and-tuck and ended with Prospect holding a 47-39 margin.

Jeff Locke's basket brought St. Charles within six points when the final quarter opened, but the Knights then tallied three field goals and five free throws to make the count stand at 58-41. This 11 point spurt was too much for the host squad to overcome, and the Knights wrapped up a 73-54 victory package by scoring the last eight points of the contest.

Krahenbul's 12 point production paced St. Charles in its losing effort. He was followed by Bob Linder and Locke with 11 each.

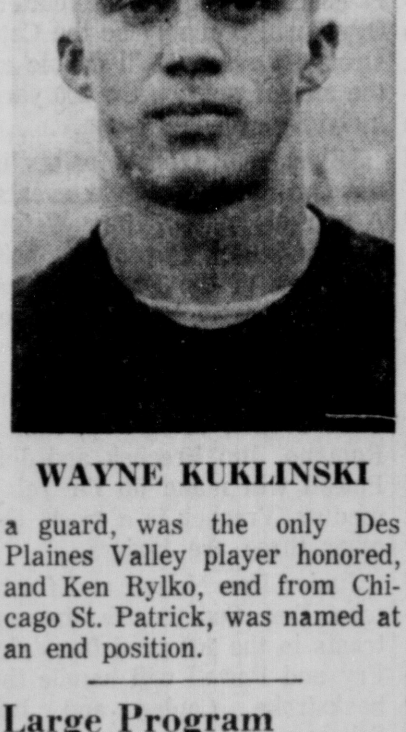
Honor Kuklinski

Prospect Back On All-State!

Wayne Kuklinski, Prospect High School halfback, was named to the All-State football team last week selected by the Rockford Register-Republic and Rockford Morning Star newspapers.

The 5-foot-10, 185-pound senior was one of 10 halfbacks honored on the coveted post-season hoonr squad.

The Rockford newspapers have been selecting All-State Football teams for three years. They honored 44 boys on the 1964 unit.



WAYNE KUKLINSKI

KUKLINSKI was a key man on Prospect High's co-champs in the Mid-Suburban Conference. A regular for two seasons, Wayne picked up 358 yards rushing in 1964, 99 via six pass receptions, and scored eight touchdowns. He also averaged 32.2 yards on 33 punts.

Kuklinski, who also sparkled on defense for Don Williams' outfit, was a unanimous all-league selection.

In two years of varsity football Kuklinski picked up 710 yards rushing in 122 carries, a healthy 5.8 average. He scored ten touchdowns.

TED BOHN, 6-0, 200-pound ban Conference were tackle center from Glenbrook South, was the other Mid-Suburban player honored on the Rockford All-State team.

Named from the West Subur-Hank Friebus of Glenbard West and backs Jim O'Toole of Riverside - Brookfield and John Wintermute of La Grange.

Bill Janoucek of Morton West, a guard, was the only Des Plaines Valley player honored, and Ken Rylko, end from Chicago St. Patrick, was named at an end position.

Cards Edge Forest View

They don't come much closer. Arlington's varsity wrestlers shaded neighboring Forest View Friday afternoon, 23-21, with the meet decided by the final bout and that final bout decided by one point.

Arlington's Mark Frase pulled out an exciting 6-5 victory over the Falcons' Fred Prete in the decisive heavyweight bout.

Frase posted a first period takedown and second period reversal for a 4-1 lead heading into the final stanza, but needed another takedown for the win. Prete fashioned two escapes and a takedown in the concluding period.

THE MEET WAS tight throughout although Arlington did take a 14-8 lead after six bouts. Forest View closed the gap and took the lead at 21-20 on Leonardson's pin at 5:31 in the 180-pound bracket.

Ray Herda gave the Cardinals a quick 5-0 lead with a snappy pin in 1:08 at 95 pounds, but the Falcons came back thanks to highly regarded Omar Aviles at 103. Aviles flattened his opponent in 2:43.

Dave Knudsen of Forest View and Ken Neal of Arlington traded victories in the next two weights (112 and 120) to keep the match even, but Bruce Conti gave the hosts an 11-8 lead with his 5-4 victory over Jim Kubic at 127. A third period reversal and infraction was the difference for Conti.

DOUG DUSS of Arlington toppled Forest View's Dean Jacobsen 6-3 at 133, but the Falcons came right back thanks to Bob Coon's pin in 5:25 at 138. Coon had a 6-4 lead when he applied the clincher on Chip Douglas.

Arlington rolled to two straight victories thanks to Don Lindmark at 145 and Charley Hood at 154 to push its lead to 20-13 with three bouts remaining. Mike Colovos got Forest View back on the board with an impressive 11-1 conquest of Kirk Wolter at 165, and this set the stage for the dramatic windup at 180 and heavyweight.

ST. VIATOR never trailed Saturday in the battle for third place. They hit St. Procopius with a 17-9 first quarter and had a 28-19 bulge at the intermission.

Proco closed to within three in the second stanza before Grandt and Dumke went to work. Chuck had five points in the second period and Paul six.

The Lions increased their lead to 12 points, 39-27, at the end of three stanzas with Grandt again leading the way and then held on for the victory.

Dumke, junior forward, was high for the winners with 20 points on nine baskets and two charity throws. Grandt added 15 before fouling out for the second straight night, and Erfort hit 11, seven in the first quarter.

In Gymnastics

Forest View Outlook Dim

It could be a long, cold season for Forest View's gymnastics team.

As the Falcons' coach Gay Hughes put it: "We're hurting this year. We lost some boys through graduation, others moved, some transferred. And our first meets are really tough."

Those first meets will take place today at 4:30 p.m. against Proviso East, one of the best squads around, and Saturday at 2:00 p.m. versus Willowbrook, defending Illinois champs. The Proviso East contest will be at home and Willowbrook will be met in its own gym.

GAY HUGHES

EVEN WITH these two for early opponents, Hughes isn't completely pessimistic. "I shall feel that we can improve," said the coach. With 0-14 and 2-12 seasons behind them the Falcons can hardly get worse so that improvement seems a distinct possibility.

"But we're badly short of boys," continued Hughes, "especially in two events, tumbling and trampoline."

In those events, only letterman Dave Hippensteel is a sure starter. Dave, one of only two juniors on the varsity, is a specialist on the trampoline. Hughes is still searching for the five boys needed to fill the holes for these events.

DEFINITELY the Falcons' strongest spot is on the parallel bars. Here senior letterman Dick Antti, called by Hughes the top all-around boy on the squad, leads the way. Two other lettermen, senior Randy Jeskey and junior Garth Freeman, complete the parallel bar trio.

Senior John Medley and Antti will be the side horse contestants. The third post here is also a question mark.

The horizontal bar will be used by Tom Hempel, letterman Bob Olszewski, both seniors, and Freeman.

Olszewski, Antti and senior Jeff Weaver will be on the still rings against Proviso.

Concluded coach Hughes, "Since dual meet scoring calls for depth, which we don't have, we'll probably do best in tournaments."

Grayslake Tops Cats On Mats

Grayslake handed Wheeling its second wrestling setback of the season, stopping the Cats 30-16 lat Friday.

The non-league dual featured close matches. Ricardo Bosh of Wheeling opened with a 4-2 win at 95. Grayslake won the next two bouts when Larry Scot tpinned Ted Fraser and Steve Richards outpointed Dave Eaton 10-8.

Jerry Hawkinson tied the score at 8-8 for Wheeling when he won by forfeit. Hawkinson had a 5-4 lead when Nick Zasco was injured and forced to retire.

Grayslake went up 11-8 when Burt Gyllin topped Dick Ritter 4-3 on riding time and doubled the score Jack Saltz put Alan Eisenstein on the sidelines in :59. Mike Flugel narrowed the Wheeling deficit to 16-11 with a 5-4 win over Tom Brusoe, it mounted to 22-11 when Charlie Thomas edged Ken Berntt 2-1 at 145 and Bill Samuelson beat Rich Haddock 4-2 at 154.

Larry Knaack gave Wheeling a chance by pinning Jerry Clark in 1:50, but Ted Armstrong and Frank Abboreno were beaten.

The Wheeling freshman and sophomore teams both won decisively. The frosh spotted Grayslake ten points then came on to win 50-10. Four forfeits helped, but the Cats got pins from Steve Johnson, Jerry Westhouse, Dan Leaf, Tom Russel, Dan Stavros, Joe Meyer and Steve Storm. Johnson's came in :27.

The sophs won 34-18. Thad Michols had a :28 pin and Ray Weidner, Phil Reed and Joe Coffman also won on falls.

St. Viator's Jayvees Trip Cards, 53-46

St. Viator exploded in the first quarter and held on for a 53-46 jayvee basketball victory over Arlington High School last week.

The Lions outscored Arlington 17-5 in the first period and held a 36-21 lead at the intermission.

The Cardinals battled back in the final half but couldn't catch St. Viator.

Jim McNamara was high man for Larry Nomellini's Lions with 17 points on eight baskets and one free throw. Frank Hogan and Kevin O'Connell had 10 each.

John Blomquist topped Al Allen's Cards with eight baskets and three free throws for 19.

Knights Win, 73-54

St. Charles Falls To Prospect Varsity

by MARV PRELLBERG, Jr.

The Prospect varsity cage squad picked up its second straight victory with a 73-54 conquest of St. Charles High in a pre-Thanksgiving eve tilt in the St. Charles gymnasium.

Coach Warren Collier's Knights had squeaked by Libertyville 59-57 four days earlier in the season opener, but found the St. Charles five somewhat easier to handle in this non-conference battle.

However, the Prospect five by no means had it all their way in this encounter, as the Little Seven Conference representatives kept within range of the Knights until early in the final quarter.

THE KNIGHTS could claim only a six point, 47-41 margin in the opening minute of the fourth quarter, but then poured through 11 straight points against the tiring Saint aggregation and coasted to the win during the remainder of the period.

A welcome sight for Prospect's coach Collier must have been in the person of forward Steve Johnson. Johnson has been one of the several Knights who were listed on the injured roster. He missed the Libertyville game but made his 1964-65 debut in this fracas, and, before the night's fireworks were over, Johnson had contributed 16 points towards the Prospect victory total.

Also highlighting this performance was another fine showing by Prospect guard Steve Kerr. The 5 foot 11 inch southpaw backcourt cager came off his 19 point performance against Libertyville and again paced the Knights scoring parade in this contest with seven field goals and six free throws for a 20 point effort.

AS A TEAM the Knights shot at a 45 per cent clip from the field against a 37 per cent record for St. Charles. Prospect also led in the charity toss department with a 59 per cent performance to the Saints 54 per cent figure.

St. Charles commenced the scoring activity in the opening quarter with guard Bob Krahenbul tallying on a fast break, and midway through the period the Saints had jumped out to a five point lead 11-6.

Johnson, Greg Kowal and Kerr then proceeded to wipe out this deficit for the Knights, and soon Prospect forged out in front 14-11.

THE SAINTS kept within range of Prospect throughout the first half and at halftime the Knights held a slim 30-27 lead.

The Knights immediately increased their lead in the opening minutes of the third frame when John MacKay, Johnson and Kowal each scored a field goal before the Saints' Terry Burke finally found the range. The remainder of the quarter was nip-and-tuck and ended with Prospect holding a 47-39 margin.

Jeff Locke's basket brought St. Charles within six points when the final quarter opened, but the Knights then tallied three field goals and five free throws to make the count stand at 58-41. This 11 point spurt was too much for the host squad to overcome, and the Knights wrapped up a 73-54 victory package by scoring the last eight points of the contest.

Krahenbul's 12 point production paced St. Charles in its losing effort. He was followed by Bob Linder and Locke with 11 each.

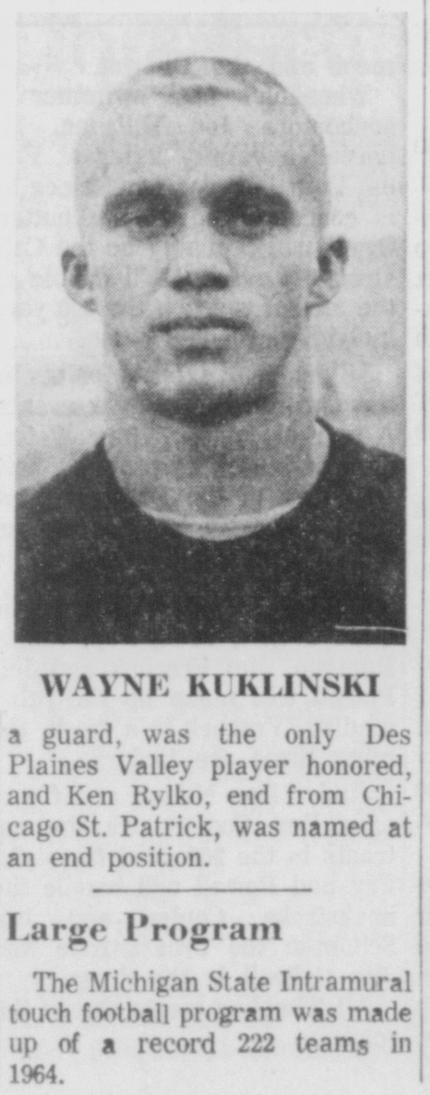
Prospect Back On All-State!

Wayne Kuklinski, Prospect High School halfback, was named to the All-State football team last week selected by the Rockford Register-Republic and Rockford Morning Star newspapers.

The 5-foot-10, 185-pound senior was one of 10 halfbacks honored on the coveted post-season hoonr squad.

The Rockford newspapers have been selecting All-State Football teams for three years. They honored 44 boys on the 1964 unit.



WAYNE KUKLINSKI

KUKLINSKI was a key man on Prospect High's co-champs in the Mid-Suburban Conference. A regular for two seasons, Wayne picked up 358 yards rushing in 1964, 99 via six pass receptions, and scored eight touchdowns. He also averaged 32.2 yards on 33 punts.

Kuklinski, who also sparkled on defense for Don Williams' outfit, was a unanimous all-league selection.

In two years of varsity football Kuklinski picked up 710 yards rushing in 122 carries, a healthy 5.8 average. He scored ten touchdowns.

TED BOHN, 6-0, 200-pound ban Conference were tackle center from Glenbrook South, was the other Mid-Suburban player honored on the Rockford All-State team.

Named from the West Subur- Hank Friebus of Glenbard West and backs Jim O'Toole of Riverside - Brookfield and John Wintermute of La Grange.

Bill Janoucek of Morton West, a guard, was the only Des Plaines Valley player honored, and Ken Rylko, end from Chicago St. Patrick, was named at an end position.

Large Program

The Michigan State Intramural touch football program was made up of a record 222 teams in 1964.

Cards Edge Forest View

They don't come much closer. Arlington's varsity wrestlers shaded neighboring Forest View Friday afternoon, 23-21, with the meet decided by the final bout and that final bout decided by one point.

Arlington's Mark Frase pulled out an exciting 6-5 victory over the Falcons' Fred Prete in the decisive heavyweight bout.

Frase posted a first period takedown and second period reversal for a 4-1 lead heading into the final stanza, but needed another takedown for the win. Prete fashioned two escapes and a takedown in the concluding period.

THE MEET WAS tight throughout although Arlington did take a 14-8 lead after six bouts. Forest View closed the gap and took the lead at 21-20 on Leonardson's pin at 5:31 in the 180-pound bracket.

Ray Herda gave the Cardinals a quick 5-0 lead with a snappy pin in 1:08 at 95 pounds, but the Falcons came back thanks to highly regarded Omar Aviles at 103. Aviles flattened his opponent in 2:43.

Dave Knudsen of Forest View and Ken Neal of Arlington traded victories in the next two weights (112 and 120) to keep the match even, but Bruce Conti gave the hosts an 11-8 lead with his 5-4 victory over Jim Kubic at 127. A third period reversal and infraction was the difference for Conti.

DOUG DUSS of Arlington toppled Forest View's Dean Jacobsen 6-3 at 133, but the Falcons came right back thanks to Bob Coon's pin in 5:25 at 138. Coon had a 6-4 lead when he applied the clincher on Chip Douglas.

Arlington rolled to two straight victories thanks to Don Lindmark at 145 and Charley Hood at 154 to push its lead to 20-13 with three bouts remaining. Mike Colovos got Forest View back on the board with an impressive 11-1 conquest of Kirk Wolter at 165, and this set the stage for the dramatic windup at 180 and heavyweight.

JUST DOGS

By Dave Terrill

Good rules . . .

Was in at our veterinarian's the other day and came across some material which was published for pet owners and was, I thought, some rather good advice to pass on to readers of the column.

It had to do with the care of your pet following hospitalization and pointed out a few things to remember. Proper restraint when leaving the pet hospital is important. Sudden lunging or jumping might result in your pet getting loose—or worse—result in injury if it is recovering from surgery.

Another thing, give you pet small amounts of food and water until it has adjusted to normal home life. This is important and it would be wise to follow directions given to you when you leave the animal hospital. Something else, your pet will be happy to come home, but take it easy on exercise. He will want to run and jump, perhaps, and if so better hold him to a slow trot rather than an all-out gallop. Slugger might feel good and be happy, but after surgery, the exercise bit should be restricted for the first week.

Last, but not least, follow directions on the subject of medicines that have been sent home for your dog. Your "vet" is not trying to load you with "extras," he is just as interested in your pet making a complete recovery as you are. That's why those pills are important, and you would not be told to give them to your pet if they were not part of the at-home treatment.

One more thing, if your pet comes out of a warm room into the cold, and finally into the car for the trip home, make sure the car is warm. Can be quite a jolt for even your dog to come into bitter cold and have to adjust to it right away.

Featured speaker . . .

Celeste Holm, star of stage, screen and television, will be the featured speaker at the 10th annual Ken-L Ration show dog awards dinner Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Delmonico Hotel in New York City. The dinner is always held in connection with the Westminster Kennel Club dog show, and in its comparatively brief history has become one of the real highlights of the dog show season.

The dinner will honor the owners and handlers of the nation's four dogs which gained the most "best in group" victories in their respective regions of the country—East, Midwest, South and Pacific Coast—during 1964. An additional award is made to the person who achieves the most victories in the dual role of owner-handler.

Miss Holm, a poodle owner herself, will, of course, be on familiar ground, but as one who has run the entire gamut of entertainment over the years, she would be at home anywhere. Born in Chicago, she has been in entertainment since graduation from high school. Her first really big hit was in the Broadway smash of "Oklahoma." This led to a movie career and with it an Academy Award "Oscar" for her performance in "Gentleman's Agreement." From then on it has been just one success after another, with travels all over the world, and television appearances by the score.

Happy Ending . . .

A lot of folks knew that your editor's Beagle hound "Tally," got out of her kennel two weeks ago and decided to tour the countryside. After a frantic search, and the help of Paddock Publication's lost and found column, Tally is back home. Folks in the area spotted her on Thanksgiving Day and she was brought home, none the worse fo rwear, just in time to eat . . . it figures.

Hawks Make Cats 4th Victim 95-33

by TOM TULLY

Maine South continued to burn up the exhibition circuit last Saturday evening, hammering an outmanned Wheeling five 95-33 on the losers court.

Bernie Brady's red clad visitors all had ample opportunity to show what they could do as the Hawks concluded their pre Des Plaines Valley activity with their fourth straight victory. The last three — over Niles North, Ridgewood and Wheeling — have been accomplished by 35 points or more.

Saturday's game was interesting for five minutes, the first minute of the game when three foul tosses by Al Gibbon gave the Wildcats a brief 3-1 advantage, and the last four minutes when Maine South fans were urging the Hawk reserves to top the 100 mark.

That was about the only concern of the crowd after the Hawks shrugged off Wheeling's early lead in the second minute of the game. With springy-legged Bill DiBartolo and aggressive Mark Waters getting plenty of second helpings off the Hawk board, the visitors sprinted to a 15-3 edge.

After that the scoreboard blinked off such scores as 26-8 after one period, 58-20 after two and 83-29 going into the final session.

It didn't seem to make much difference who Brady used. Four Hawks reached double figures and three others had seven or more. DiBartolo led the way with 16 points, all tallied in the first twelve minutes of the game. He left with a sprained ankle with 3:13 left in the half.

Paul Wehman came off the bench to match Waters' 15 point output. Leading Hawk scorer, Larry Wiseburn, chipped in with 14. Wiseburn, an all-West Suburban star under Brady at Maine East last year, is off to a fast start this winter with 85 points in four outings.

The only consolation for Wheeling coach Mike Owens stemmed from the Wildcat foul shooting. The Cats hit on 19 for 26 including their first ten in a row. Top man was Al Gibbon. The husky 6-1 junior, starting his first game at center, popped in seven of eight from the line and added a pair of field goals to lead the club with 11. Jerry Kerr was next with eight and Mark Newman had seven.

The first game saw the Maine South jayvees capture a 53-26 decision. Tom Dewar had 17 and Augie Mateszel ten for the winners. Jim Funk led Wheeling with six.

Proviso East Bumps Knight Five, 58-43

by MARV PRELLBERG, Jr.

Prospect battled on relatively even terms against the visiting Proviso East cagers for two-and-one-half quarters last Saturday, but the aggressive Pirates broke the game wide open midway in the third period and raced on to a 58-43 non-conference triumph.

Pirate mentor Tom Millikin had his cagers employ a full court press on the Prospect unit throughout most of the contest, and these aggressive defensive tactics eventually forced the Knights into several costly ball handling errors that led to Proviso scoring opportunities.

This strategy especially proved its worth in the third quarter spurt, when Proviso East moved from a slim two point lead to a 42-29 margin by scoring 11 straight points before Prospect again registered on the scoreboard.

COACH WARREN Collier's Prospect hardwood squad had hopes of avenging a 70-57 lacing which the Knights suffered last season at the hands of the Pirates, who ended up the year with a 20 and 3 record and the Suburban League Championship. These hopes were fairly bright for the Knights until that third quarter letdown gave the Proviso East contingent a respectable lead and momentum which it carried forward until the final buzzer had sounded the 58-43 victory.

The Knights gave evidence that they were set on giving the Proviso East cagers a real battle, when they came back from a 5-2 deficit early in the first quarter and took the lead at 10-5 through the combined scoring efforts of Bill Phillips, Steve Kerr, Steve Johnson and Rick Mader.

However, these moments of Prospect glory were shortlived, as Pirate forward Ron Gwin retaliated with two field goals and a free throw to tie the score at 10-10. The first quarter ended all knotted up at 14 all.

PLAY CONTINUED close in the next period, and Prospect still remained right on the heels of the Pirates when the first half ended with Proviso East holding a four point margin, 25-21.

The two squads warmed up the crowd at the outset of the third frame by trading basket for basket. However, after Prospect guard Wayne Kuklinski had a long jump shot declared good when a Proviso player was called for goal tending, the Knight fortunes took a sudden turn for the worse.

With the count reading 31-29 in favor of the Pirates, Proviso East's Ed Howard tallied five straight points, Gwin added two field goals and Mike Green a charity toss to move the determined Pirate cagers into a 42-29 margin. Proviso East went on to outscore Prospect 22-10 in this third period.

EVEN THOUGH the Knights fared better in the final quarter, the damage was done, and the visiting Pirates left the Prospect environs with a convincing 58-43 prize.

Gwin and Al Nuness paced the winners in the scoring department with 20 and 16 markers respectively, while Steve Johnson and Kuklinski led Prospect with 10 and nine points respectively.

The loss gave Prospect a season record of 2 and 1. Proviso East sports a 2 win and no loss mark after this contest.

Cat Tankers Open Today

Wheeling swimming opponents will have to get up awfully early in the morning to beat the Wildcats — at least to beat them to practice.

John Miller's Cat tankers have the early shift in the busy St. Viator pool. With the Lions and Arlington using the facilities in the afternoons and evenings, Wheeling swimmers use the tank from 6:30 a.m. until 8 five days a week.

Miller has a 33 man squad and it is a young one. The twelve man varsity unit includes three freshmen and two sophomores. He doesn't expect big things from them this season, but views the future with promise. Inexperience is the big problem this year and Miller would benefit with a little more depth.

THE 30 YEAR old coach is a newcomer to the area. He comes to Wheeling after a two year hitch at Corydon, Ind., where he coached cross country, track, golf and baseball and assisted in basketball.

This is his first crack at swimming, but at the University of Indiana he studied under the Hoosiers' renowned coach, Dr. James Counselman.

The Cats open today (Thursday) at Woodstock and their schedule includes nine duals, a triangular and a double dual in addition to the Glenbrook South Invitational, the Mid-Suburban meet and the District.

Wheeling's best swimmer is sophomore Jon Hittman. He earned a varsity letter at Forest View last year and since he is concentrating on the butterfly, it will probably be the Cats strongest event. He'll double as the anchor man on the 200 yard individual medley team.

Miller also expects points in the two short freestyle events. A pair of juniors, Gary Wetendorf and Rick Pagenkofg, both members of the Prospect soph team last year, are reasons for his optimism.

LOOOKING QUICKLY at the other events, Craig Fry, Randy Romano, Jim Vrechek and Jeff Powell will make up the relay medley. Vrechek is a frosh, the other three are juniors.

Junior Don Nelson and freshman Don Coplan are the entrants in the 200 yard freestyle, Fry and Powell will handle the backstroke, Coplan and Jim Schuman the breaststroke and Jim Calwell is the diver.

All Wheeling meets are on the road.

Carpenter Sparks Brooks Past Cards

by BOB FRISK

Bob Carpenter, a 6-foot-1 package of perpetual motion who filled the air with footballs during the fall, also knows his way around a basketball court.

Carpenter, only a junior, engineered Willowbrook's varsity Warriors to a 75-68 victory over host Arlington Saturday evening in a non-conference feature.

The swift backcourt operator, who fired in 26 points as Willowbrook dropped a 78-69 decision to Downers Grove on Friday, came back with 27 Saturday in the Warriors' seven-point triumph.

CARPENTER earned an impressive collection of press notices during the fall as one of the top passing quarterbacks in the Chicago area. He wasn't the whole show in the Warriods' first basketball win, but he was close to it.

Thanks to some sharpshooting by sophomore guards Steve Allen and Dave Lockwood, Arlington enjoyed a six-point (64-58) lead with five minutes remaining Saturday. That's when Carpenter and company went to work.

Bob closed the gap to four points with a steal and then pushed through one free throw. Arlington blew two chances to pad its advantage at the free throw line, and Willowbrook's Dave Cullum drilled from the key to pull the Warriors within one, 64-63, with 3:05 remaining.

AT THE 2:30 mark Frank Mann hit from the side to give Willowbrook a lead it never relinquished. Cullum counted from 10 feet, but Arlington's Charley Lloyd put the Cards back on the scoreboard with a short push from the side.

Carpenter's marksmanship from just outside the free throw line gave Willowbrook a 69-66 bulge and Cullum tallied from the side after a steal under the Arlington basket.

Carpenter hit four straight free throws in the pressure-packed windup.

ARLINGTON WAS coasting along with an eight-point lead early in the second period Saturday, but the Warriors refused to throw in the towel. They pecked away at the Cardinal lead until Carpenter hit two straight from the key in the closing minutes of the first half.

Carpenter's baskets gave the Warriors a 34-32 lead, but Lloyd came back with a layup to knot the count. Willowbrook's Frank Cassell, Cullum, and Carpenter hit the next three baskets before Lockwood broke the Cardinal dry spell with a free throw.

Rich Rogers bagged the final basket of the first half on a nifty feed from Carpenter.

Willowbrook carried a 42-35 lead at the intermission, but the Cardinals fought back in the third quarter. Bruce Hubbard, who started hisfirst varsity game, Allen, Bob Conner, and Lloyd all had a hand in the Arlington uprising.

Conner's two-pointer from the side gave the Cards a 54-50 lead heading into the final eight minutes.

Allen and Lockwood, the soph guards, were red-hot early in the fourth period and Arlington moved out to a 64-58 lead with only 4:58 remaining. Carpenter's steal got the visitors moving, and it was all Willowbrook in the closing minutes.

Carpenter's 27 was high for both teams. Lloyd dialed 21 points for Arlington and Conner contributed 19, eleven in the first quarter.

Tom Wallace, Norm Zeller, Tom O'Gara, and Mike Gibler of St. Viator combined for an impressive victory in the 200 yard backstroke relay with a 2:05.7 clocking. The Lions also triumphed in the 200 yard breaststroke relay with Jeff Cleary, Mike Shanley, Rick Kalinowski, and Jim Spears.

Prospect's final victories were in the open butterfly with Larry Salerno, Bill Enszer, John Norton, and Hugh Wester and open 400 yard freestyle with Mike Donovan, Larry Salerno, Bob Angstadt, and Bob Haase.

Palatine Wins Prelim, 39-34

A second half rally capped by an explosive fourth quarter carried Palatine High School to a 39-34 victory over Arlington Thanksgiving Eve in the preliminary to the "Sleigh Bells" contest.

The Pirates pulled in front to stay on a free throw by Jerry Kissner with 1:22 remaining in the game.

Kissner was a key man for Palatine in the decisive fourth quarter. He hit four straight pressure - packed free throws that gave the Pirates a three-point lead, and he also contributed an important steal.

IN A RAGGED contest Arlington jumped off to a 19-15 lead at the intermission. Palatine launched its rally late in the third quarter and gained its first tie at 4:16 on a follow shot by Struance.

Arlington gained the lead again on Bob Hecht's two free throws, but Meyer drilled a layup to achieve a 31-31 deadlock. Center Jim Donchess gave the Cardinals their final lead with a free throw with 1:43 remaining.

Kissner started his work at the charity line with 1:22 remaining and at the 1:15 mark he had drilled four straight, giving Palatine a 35-32 lead. John Ekeberg hit on a layup to give the Pirates a 37-32 lead. The teams traded points in the closing seconds.

Arlington's Donchess was high man for both teams with five baskets and four free throws for 14 points. Meyer had 11 for Palatine and John Ekeberg chipped in nine.

JUST DOGS

By Dave Terrill

Good rules . . .

Was in at our veterinarian's the other day and came across some material which was published for pet owners and was, I thought, some rather good advice to pass on to readers of the column.

It had to do with the care of your pet following hospitalization and pointed out a few things to remember. Proper restraint when leaving the pet hospital is important. Sudden lunging or jumping might result in your pet getting loose—or worse—result in injury if it is recovering from surgery.

Another thing, give you pet small amounts of food and water until it has adjusted to normal home life. This is important and it would be wise to follow directions given to you when you leave the animal hospital. Something else, your pet will be happy to come home, but take it easy on exercise. He will want to run and jump, perhaps, and if so better hold him to a slow trot rather than an all-out gallop. Slugger might feel good and be happy, but after surgery, the exercise bit should be restricted for the first week.

Last, but not least, follow directions on the subject of medicines that have been sent home for your dog. Your "vet" is not trying to load you with "extras," he is just as interested in your pet making a complete recovery as you are. That's why those pills are important, and you would not be told to give them to your pet if they were not part of the at-home treatment.

One more thing, if your pet comes out of a warm room into the cold, and finally into the car for the trip home, make sure the car is warm. Can be quite a jolt for even your dog to come into bitter cold and have to adjust to it right away.

Featured speaker . . .

Celeste Holm, star of stage, screen and television, will be the featured speaker at the 10th annual Ken-L Ration show dog awards dinner Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Delmonico Hotel in New York City. The dinner is always held in connection with the Westminster Kennel Club dog show, and in its comparatively brief history has become one of the real highlights of the dog show season.

The dinner will honor the owners and handlers of the nation's four dogs which gained the most "best in group" victories in their respective regions of the country—East, Midwest, South and Pacific Coast—during 1964. An additional award is made to the person who achieves the most victories in the dual role of owner-handler.

Miss Holm, a poodle owner herself, will, of course, be on familiar ground, but as one who has run the entire gamut of entertainment over the years, she would be at home anywhere. Born in Chicago, she has been in entertainment since graduation from high school. Her first really big hit was in the Broadway smash of "Oklahoma." This led to a movie career and with it an Academy Award "Oscar" for her performance in "Gentleman's Agreement." From then on it has been just one success after another, with travels all over the world, and television appearances by the score.

Happy Ending . . .

A lot of folks knew that your editor's Beagle hound "Tally," got out of her kennel two weeks ago and decided to tour the countryside. After a frantic search, and the help of Paddock Publication's lost and found column, Tally is back home. Folks in the area spotted her on Thanksgiving Day and she was brought home, none the worse fo rwear, just in time to eat . . . it figures.

Hawks Make Cats 4th Victim 95-33

by TOM TULLY

Maine South continued to burn up the exhibition circuit last Saturday evening, hammering an outmanned Wheeling five 95-33 on the losers court.

Bernie Brady's red clad visitors all had ample opportunity to show what they could do as the Hawks concluded their pre Des Plaines Valley activity with their fourth straight victory. The last three — over Niles North, Ridgewood and Wheeling — have been accomplished by 35 points or more.

Saturday's game was interesting for five minutes, the first minute of the game when three foul tosses by Al Gibbon gave the Wildcats a brief 3-1 advantage, and the last four minutes when Maine South fans were urging the Hawk reserves to top the 100 mark.

That was about the only concern of the crowd after the Hawks shrugged off Wheeling's early lead in the second minute of the game. With springy-legged Bill DiBartolo and aggressive Mark Waters getting plenty of second helpings off the Hawk board, the visitors sprinted to a 15-3 edge.

After that the scoreboard blinked off such scores as 26-8 after one period, 58-20 after two and 83-29 going into the final session.

It didn't seem to make much difference who Brady used. Four Hawks reached double figures and three others had seven or more. DiBartolo led the way with 16 points, all tallied in the first twelve minutes of the game. He left with a sprained ankle with 3:13 left in the half.

Paul Wehman came off the bench to match Waters' 15 point output. Leading Hawk scorer, Larry Wiseburn, chipped in with 14. Wiseburn, an all-West Suburban star under Brady at Maine East last year, is off to a fast start this winter with 85 points in four outings.

The only consolation for Wheeling coach Mike Owens stemmed from the Wildcat foul shooting. The Cats hit on 19 for 26 including their first ten in a row. Top man was Al Gibbon. The husky 6-1 junior, starting his first game at center, popped in seven of eight from the line and added a pair of field goals to lead the club with 11. Jerry Kerr was next with eight and Mark Newman had seven.

The first game saw the Maine South jayvees capture a 53-26 decision. Tom Dewar had 17 and Augie Mateszel ten for the winners. Jim Funk led Wheeling with six.

Proviso East Bumps Knight Five, 58-43

by MARV PRELLBERG, Jr.

Prospect battled on relatively even terms against the visiting Proviso East cagers for two-and-one-half quarters last Saturday, but the aggressive Pirates broke the game wide open midway in the third period and raced on to a 58-43 non-conference triumph.

Pirate mentor Tom Millikin had his cagers employ a full court press on the Prospect unit throughout most of the contest, and these aggressive defensive tactics eventually forced the Knights into several costly ball handling errors that led to Proviso scoring opportunities.

This strategy especially proved its worth in the third quarter spurt, when Proviso East moved from a slim two point lead to a 42-29 margin by scoring 11 straight points before Prospect again registered on the scoreboard.

COACH WARREN Collier's Prospect hardwood squad had hopes of avenging a 70-57 lacing which the Knights suffered last season at the hands of the Pirates, who ended up the year with a 20 and 3 record and the Suburban League Championship. These hopes were fairly bright for the Knights until that third quarter letdown gave the Proviso East contingent a respectable lead and momentum which it carried forward until the final buzzer had sounded the 58-43 victory.

The Knights gave evidence that they were set on giving the Proviso East cagers a real battle, when they came back from a 5-2 deficit early in the first quarter and took the lead at 10-5 through the combined scoring efforts of Bill Phillips, Steve Kerr, Steve Johnson and Rick Mader.

However, these moments of Prospect glory were shortlived, as Pirate forward Ron Gwin retaliated with two field goals and a free throw to tie the score at 10-10. The first quarter ended all knotted up at 14 all.

PLAY CONTINUED close in the next period, and Prospect still remained right on the heels of the Pirates when the first half ended with Proviso East holding a four point margin, 25-21.

The two squads warmed up the crowd at the outset of the third frame by trading basket for basket. However, after Prospect guard Wayne Kuklinski had a long jump shot declared good when a Proviso player was called for goal tending, the Knight fortunes took a sudden turn for the worse.

With the count reading 31-29 in favor of the Pirates, Proviso East's Ed Howard tallied five straight points, Gwin added two field goals and Mike Green a charity toss to move the determined Pirate cagers into a 42-29 margin. Proviso East went on to outscore Prospect 22-10 in this third period.

EVEN THOUGH the Knights fared better in the final quarter, the damage was done, and the visiting Pirates left the Prospect environs with a convincing 58-43 prize.

Gwin and Al Nuness paced the winners in the scoring department with 20 and 16 markers respectively, while Steve Johnson and Kuklinski led Prospect with 10 and nine points respectively.

The loss gave Prospect a season record of 2 and 1. Proviso East sports a 2 win and no loss mark after this contest.

Cat Tankers Open Today

Wheeling swimming opponents will have to get up awfully early in the morning to beat the Wildcats — at least to beat them to practice.

John Miller's Cat tankers have the early shift in the busy St. Viator pool. With the Lions and Arlington using the facilities in the afternoons and evenings, Wheeling swimmers use the tank from 6:30 a.m. until 8 five days a week.

Miller has a 33 man squad and it is a young one. The twelve man varsity unit includes three freshmen and two sophomores. He doesn't expect big things from them this season, but views the future with promise. Inexperience is the big problem this year and Miller would benefit with a little more depth.

THE 30 YEAR old coach is a newcomer to the area. He comes to Wheeling after a two year hitch at Corydon, Ind., where he coached cross country, track, golf and baseball and assisted in basketball.

This is his first crack at swimming, but at the University of Indiana he studied under the Hoosiers' renowned coach, Dr. James Counselman.

The Cats open today (Thursday) at Woodstock and their schedule includes nine duals, a triangular and a double dual in addition to the Glenbrook South Invitational, the Mid-Suburban meet and the District.

Wheeling's best swimmer is sophomore Jon Hittman. He earned a varsity letter at Forest View last year and since he is concentrating on the butterfly, it will probably be the Cats strongest event. He'll double as the anchor man on the 200 yard individual medley team.

Miller also expects points in the two short freestyle events. A pair of juniors, Gary Wetendorf and Rick Pagenkofg, both members of the Prospect soph team last year, are reasons for his optimism.

LOOOKING QUICKLY at the other events, Craig Fry, Randy Romano, Jim Vrechek and Jeff Powell will make up the relay medley. Vrechek is a frosh, the other three are juniors.

Junior Don Nelson and freshman Don Coplan are the entrants in the 200 yard freestyle, Fry and Powell will handle the backstroke, Coplan and Jim Schuman the breaststroke and Jim Calwell is the diver.

All Wheeling meets are on the road.

Carpenter Sparks Brooks Past Cards

by BOB FRISK

Bob Carpenter, a 6-foot-1 package of perpetual motion who filled the air with footballs during the fall, also knows his way around a basketball court.

Carpenter, only a junior, engineered Willowbrook's varsity Warriors to a 75-68 victory over host Arlington Saturday evening in a non-conference feature.

The swift backcourt operator, who fired in 26 points as Willowbrook dropped a 78-69 decision to Downers Grove on Friday, came back with 27 Saturday in the Warriors' seven-point triumph.

CARPENTER earned an impressive collection of press notices during the fall as one of the top passing quarterbacks in the Chicago area. He wasn't the whole show in the Warriods' first basketball win, but he was close to it.

Thanks to some sharpshooting by sophomore guards Steve Allen and Dave Lockwood, Arlington enjoyed a six-point (64-58) lead with five minutes remaining Saturday. That's when Carpenter and company went to work.

Bob closed the gap to four points with a steal and then pushed through one free throw. Arlington blew two chances to pad its advantage at the free throw line, and Willowbrook's Dave Cullum drilled from the key to pull the Warriors within one, 64-63, with 3:05 remaining.

AT THE 2:30 mark Frank Mann hit from the side to give Willowbrook a lead it never relinquished. Cullum counted from 10 feet, but Arlington's Charley Lloyd put the Cards back on the scoreboard with a short push from the side.

Carpenter's marksmanship from just outside the free throw line gave Willowbrook a 69-66 bulge and Cullum tallied from the side after a steal under the Arlington basket.

Carpenter hit four straight free throws in the pressure-packed windup.

ARLINGTON WAS coasting along with an eight-point lead early in the second period Saturday, but the Warriors refused to throw in the towel. They pecked away at the Cardinal lead until Carpenter hit two straight from the key in the closing minutes of the first half.

Carpenter's baskets gave the Warriors a 34-32 lead, but Lloyd came back with a layup to knot the count. Willowbrook's Frank Cassell, Cullum, and Carpenter hit the next three baskets before Lockwood broke the Cardinal dry spell with a free throw.

Rich Rogers bagged the final basket of the first half on a nifty feed from Carpenter.

Willowbrook carried a 42-35 lead at the intermission, but the Cardinals fought back in the third quarter. Bruce Hubbard, who started hisfirst varsity game, Allen, Bob Conner, and Lloyd all had a hand in the Arlington uprising.

Conner's two-pointer from the side gave the Cards a 54-50 lead heading into the final eight minutes.

Allen and Lockwood, the soph guards, were red-hot early in the fourth period and Arlington moved out to a 64-58 lead with only 4:58 remaining. Carpenter's steal got the visitors moving, and it was all Willowbrook in the closing minutes.

Carpenter's 27 was high for both teams. Lloyd dialed 21 points for Arlington and Conner contributed 19, eleven in the first quarter.

Arlington (50), Forest View (42), and Notre Dame (38) rounded out the entries in the headliner that kicked off the area tank season.

THE HOST Lions wrapped up six firsts, setting school records in three events. Prospect's 200 yard open freestyle unit set a pool record of 1:39.9.

Tom Wallace, Norm Zeller, Tom O'Gara, and Mike Gibler of St. Viator combined for an impressive victory in the 200 yard backstroke relay with a 2:05.7 clocking. The Lions also triumphed in the 200 yard breaststroke relay with Jeff Cleary, Mike Shanley, Rick Kalinowski, and Jim Spears.

Prospect's final victories were in the open butterfly with Larry Salerno, Bill Enszer, John Norton, and Hugh Wester and open 400 yard freestyle with Mike Donovan, Larry Salerno, Bob Angstadt, and Bob Haase.

Palatine Wins Prelim, 39-34

A second half rally capped by an explosive fourth quarter carried Palatine High School to a 39-34 victory over Arlington Thanksgiving Eve in the preliminary to the "Sleigh Bells" contest.

The Pirates pulled in front to stay on a free throw by Jerry Kissner with 1:22 remaining in the game.

Kissner was a key man for Palatine in the decisive fourth quarter. He hit four straight pressure - packed free throws that gave the Pirates a three-point lead, and he also contributed an important steal.

IN A RAGGED contest Arlington jumped off to a 19-15 lead at the intermission. Palatine launched its rally late in the third quarter and gained its first tie at 4:16 on a follow shot by Struance.

Arlington gained the lead again on Bob Hecht's two free throws, but Meyer drilled a layup to achieve a 31-31 deadlock. Center Jim Donchess gave the Cardinals their final lead with a free throw with 1:43 remaining.

Kissner started his work at the charity line with 1:22 remaining and at the 1:15 mark he had drilled four straight, giving Palatine a 35-32 lead. John Ekeberg hit on a layup to give the Pirates a 37-32 lead. The teams traded points in the closing seconds.

Arlington's Donchess was high man for both teams with five baskets and four free throws for 14 points. Meyer had 11 for Palatine and John Ekeberg chipped in nine.

Falcons Split But Experience Bad Week In Hardwood Action

by MICHAEL HESS

Usually a basketball team can be expected to improve but Forest View has reversed the usual procedure.

Following an opening game romp, the Falcons just got by a sloppy Proviso West quintet 48-44 and then, last Saturday, fell completely apart against Elgin to lose their first game 62 to 43.

Against Proviso West last Wednesday, only a hot night at the free throw line enabled Forest View to pull out a victory..

THE FALCONS were up by nine after two quarters as the visiting Panthers spent the first half turning over the ball on error after error. After the intermission, however, Proviso, under coach Joe Hartley, pulled itself together and put on a determined rally.

Led by guard Larry Hallaert, the visitors had pulled to within three of the lead, at 38-35, when the last period began. It took the Panthers only two minutes and fifty seconds more to tie the score at 40 all. Forest View was faced with a battle for its life.

But then forward Steve Jacobsen put the Falcons ahead once again with a two pointer from ten feet. With that slim margin as a cushion, Forest View began a stall with 4:37 left. When the PW defense came out to break the stall, Jack MacRae, the FV guard, broke away and drove in for a lay-up to put his team four points in front.

Jacobsen and MacRae, with two foul shots apiece, did all the rest of the winners scoring, Forest View was never behind again, and the triumph became a reality.

SINCE, FROM the floor, the Falcons were outshot 17 to 16, their 16 of 21 foul shots supplied the margin of victory. Pat Dunnigan was the top scorer for Forest View with 14 points but Proviso's Hallaert captured game honors with 15.

Saturday's Forest View loss to Elgin can be traced directly to the vast difference between the two in field goal percentage. The Falcons were ice cold all evening and sank just eight of 51 attempts. Meanwhile the Maroons were sizzling the nets with 21 of 42 shots.

Forest View started the game by pulling away to an 8-1 lead. But Elgin's hot shooters soon began closing in and, with 2:09 remaining in the opening period, the Maroons evened the score at 14 each. At that juncture Forest View stopped scoring.

THE FALCONS didn't get another point until three minutes into the second quarter and they didn't sink another field goal until fifty seconds into the third quarter. By that time Elgin had a 19 point lead and the game had been decided. Forest View was never close again and both coaches emptied their benches for the remainder of the game.

"We just couldn't hit," said Forest View coach Ken Arneson speaking of his team's miserable shooting. "We got some bad breaks on calls near the end of the first quarter. The young team we have just got down in the dumps and never could come back."

"But," continued Arneson, "Elgin had the best team. They're scrappy and we were out-hustled. We just didn't shoot well enough to win."

ON THIS EVENING when none of the Falcons could hit, the coldness of the FV cagers was typified by the 0 for 6 and 1 for 8 marks of Dunnigan and Jacobsen.

Of the Forest View marksmen, Jim Baumgardt was high with 11 points, five of which came after the game was lost. Jim also led in rebounds with 12. Sub Bob O'Keefe was the best of those from the bench with six points and nine rebounds.

The Falcons were also plagued with foul troubles. Eight of the losers had three or more personals called on them and both Dunnigan and reserve Jeff Grismer were removed on foul calls. Dunnigan was gone just two minutes into the second half.

Over Palatine

Cards' Gym Squad Wins

They ushered in the gymnastics season Friday as Arlington High School rocked visiting Palatine, 79-53, on a varsity level.

Coach Tow Walthouse's Cardinals, fourth in the state last winter, swept the top three positions in three events and yielded firsts on only the side horse and in tumbling.

"We had many misses," Walthouse said. "Palatine wasn't too strong in this meet but shows promise to be a good team later in the season."

JIM JOHANNESEN was Arlington's top point-getter with 19 markers. He took firsts on the high bar (148) and parallel bar (146) and second in tumbling.

Gary Holveck, state champ on the trampoline, won his specialty with a 176 routine (85-91), highest among the individual winners. Gary also collected a tie for first on the still rings with teammate Roy Rettberg (122) and sixth on the high bar.

Bert Schmitt came through with two seconds for Arlington on the high bar and parallel bars.

Palatine picked up two firsts thanks to John Anderson on the side horse (98 routine) and Steve Applehans in tumbling (130). Coach Joe Toth's Pirates showed their top effort on the side horse with Anderson's first, Terry Moloznic's fourth, and Dennis Rougles' fifth.

Selvig Eyes Wheeling Gym Future

Wayne Selvig, Wheeling gymnastics coach, figures this will be a year when he finds out how the other half lives.

As frosh-soph coach at Arlington last season, he saw his team go undefeated and win the West Suburban title. His frosh club was also unbeaten and copped the Hinsdale and Waukegan Invitationals.

Selvig is working with a 49 man squad, twelve of which will make up his varsity. He sees potential in the group, but says it is far too inexperienced to be a contender for Mid-Suburban honors this season.

WAYNE'S OWN career as a competitor includes stints at Lane Tech and Northern Illinois University. He recalls competing in the all-around at the conference meet while a freshman at Northern. Standing a solid third, he recalled a vault on the long horse, failed to perform it and finished tenth in the all-around standings. The judge was Gay Hughes, present coach at Forest View. As a collegian he competed against Tom Walthouse and Bob Ferguson, coaches at Arlington and Conant.

Although he doesn't see a good year recordwise, he has hopes of sending a boy or two to the state meet. His top candidates are Jim Bowker on the rings and Jerry Fontecchio in tumbling.

With Fontecchio as the leader, tumbling figures to be Wheeling's strongest event. Sophomores Rick Dyson and Greg Shornden will be the other entrants. The same trio will compete on the trampoline but are much weaker in this event.

The sidehorse is Wheeling's weakest link. Three juniors, Steve Groot and a pair of all-around men, Jim Ranier and Ken Wajerski, are the top candidates.

WAJERSKI SHOWS good potential on the horizontal bar, but Bowker and Ranier, have a lot to learn.

The parallel bars is Wajerski's best event and looks to be the team's second strongest. Shorndon and another soph, Mike Bangs, have good potential.

Bowker is a state hopeful on the rings, but beyond him the Cats are weak.

As might be expected, Wheeling's all-around men are Bowker, Wajerski and Ranier. Bowker was the Mid-Suburban sophomore champ last year, but won it because of his strength on the rings. Wajerski, a high finisher in the West Suburban soph division, is the top man at this point of the season.

The Cats open a 15 dual season at home tomorrow (Friday) against Maine South. They will also compete in the District 214 squad, the conference meet and the district.

Turket Trot Winners Announced

Darcy Burritt, Bruce Rose, Bruce Bowman, and Mike Purcell were the individual winners Thanksgiving day in the third annual Turkey Trot sponsored by the Mount Prospect Jaycees.

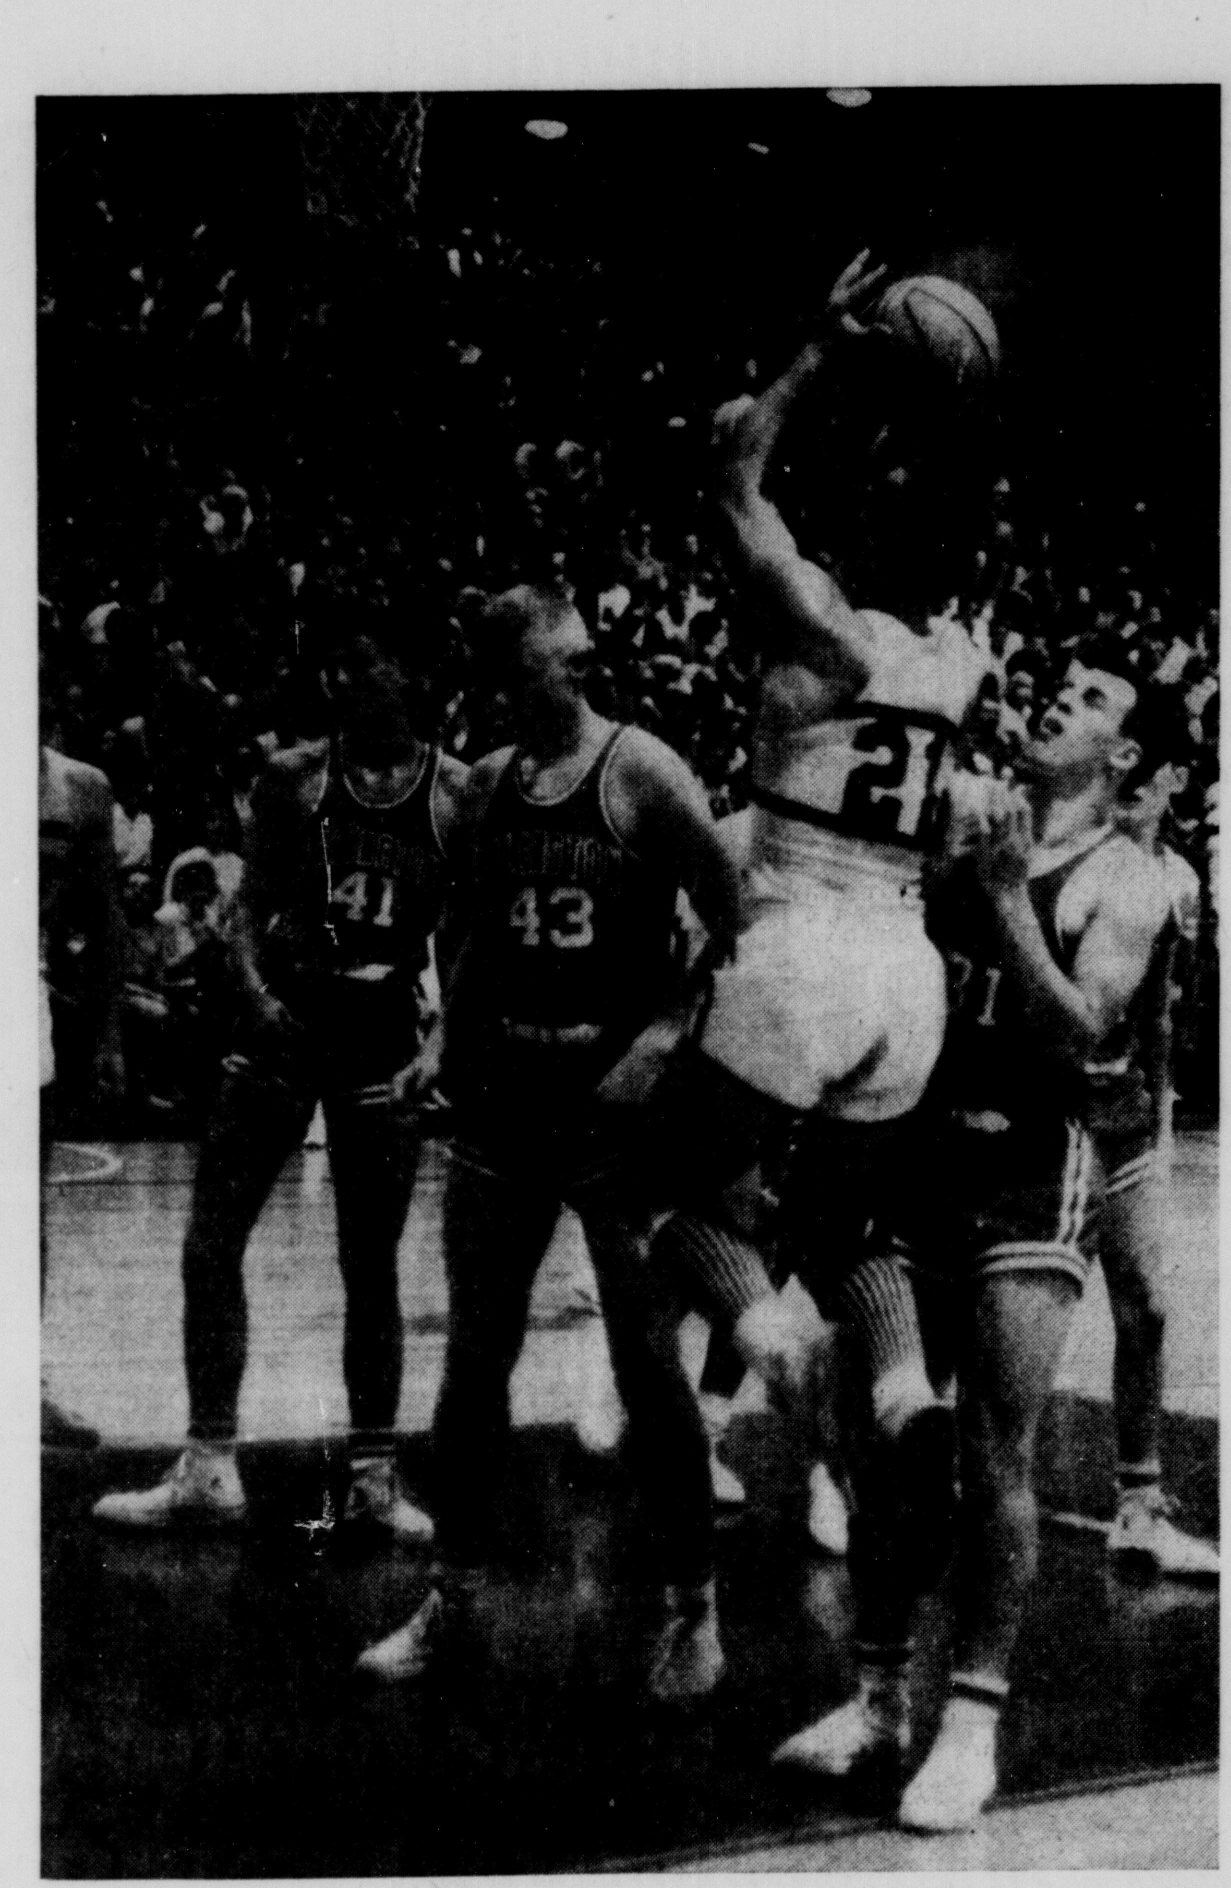
Darcy won the one-fourth mile event for junior girls. She represented the May Whitney Whitney School of Lake Zurich.

Rose, who attends Miner Jr. High in Arlington Heights, won the Junior Boys one-half mile, and Bowman, Proviso West High School standout who was state cross country champ, won the Senior Boys two-mile.

Purcell, a student at the University of Illinois from Skokie, won the Men's four-mile feature.

Area runners who placed in the top 15 in the advanced events were Gary York of Prospect, Robert MacLea of Palatine, Robin Auld of Arlington Heights, and Tom Taylor of Wheeling.

The event was held by the jaycees with assistance from Robert Ratcliff, physical education instructor from Loyola University, and Dick Calisch, Prospect High School track coach. Norman Tucy was chairman of the event.



IT'S EASY WHEN there's no defense. Palatine guard John Warder (21) delivers a jump shot next to the basket with only token resistance from Arlington defenders in the "Sleigh Bells" headliner last week at William Fremd High School. Cards in the picture are Dave Lockwood (31), George Bergstrom (43), and Bruce Hubbard (41). Palatine dumped the Cardinals, 73-63, for its first victory of the young season. Prospect Matmen Launch '64 Season

Great experience and complete inexperience are the ingredients which Prospect's wrestlers hope will form a winning combination as they open their 1964 season tomorrow against Willowbrook.

The Knights' matmen, who last year were third in the conference, sixth in the district and 9-4-1 overall, are coached by Dick Mudge.

Mudge, who has had only two losing records in 12 previous years of coaching, welcomed 130 boys to the first day of practice. In that group were 14 seniors, 22 juniors and 42 sophomores. Five of those out are returning lettermen.

"HOW WE'LL DO is hard to say this early because the boys aren't settled in their weights yet," commented Mudge. "There will be a lot of newcomers in the line-up, many juniors, sophomores and freshmen. A lot depends on those underclassmen."

Two underclassmen who were varsity regulars last season but aren't at Prospect now are Carl Meisenheimer and Fred Sessions both of whom transferred to Wheeling. Graduation eliminated Mike Phillips, 127 pounder who was the Knights' lone state entry a year ago, and other varsity regulars from '63 Jim McMillen, Bill Murphy and Ray McKinnon.

Probable starters Friday against a tough Willowbrook club, which beat Glenbard East in its first match will be:

112 pounds — Junior Bill Kalvog is the top prospect here but soph Bruce Croon is a possibility. Roy Harnish, a senior letterman who may enter here or at 103, is unavailable for this opening meet.

120 pounds — Sid White, a senior who was also a football guard, is a sure bet at 120.

127 pounds — Bill Becker is a letterman who wrestled at 120 last year. He captured third place in the district at that weight after a 9-8 season.

133 pounds — Either John Haight or Don Greco, both seniors, will fill this berth.

138 pounds — Senior George Freeland, another letterman, returns after posting a 9-4 mark in his matches one year ago.

145 pounds — John Mellon, a senior, and junior Rick Bertogelio are locked in a battle to be the 145 pound entry.

154 pounds — Mellon or Bertagelio could move up to this next class but if they don't, juniors Nick Rutigliano, Doug White or Mike Faklaris will step in.

165 pounds — Marty DeStefanis, a junior, John Jantac, junior, or senior Bob Davis are all possibilities here. Coach Mudge commented that the team needed more competitors here and in the heavier weight.

180 pounds — A cinch to open here is Earl Smith, the football tackle. Earl is a senior letterman who won three and lost two in limited varsity action as a junior.

Heavyweight — If the shoulder injury to senior letterman Mark Pasdiora doesn't mend, then the 210 pound all conference football tackle will be replaced by junior Kim Schier. Pasdiora had a 10-6-2 meet record last year.

Mudge, short one coach, is also handling the JV chores while Dave Ziemek and Tom Schemermang direct the Prospect sophomore and freshman wrestlers.

Arlington Sophs Win

Arlington's sophomore Cardinals rebounded from an opening loss to Palatine's jayvees and ripped Willowbrook last Saturday, 61-51.

Bob Baker's outfit built up a big lead in the first half and held on for the victory.

The Cardinals had a busy day at the free throw line with 29 out of 44. Terry Townley was the busiest, bagging 12 charity tosses in 16 attempts and adding three baskets for 18 points.

Steve Conley recorded 12 points and Bob Hecht 11 for the winners. Graff was high for Willowbrook with 11.

Walinski Heads Lion Ground Game

Eight-game football statistics released this week by St. Viator High School show Tim Walinski and Steve McNamara as the Lions' top ground-gainers for 1964.

Game statistics were unavailable for the non-conference meeting with Crane Tech which was held in a driving rain.

Walinski, selected most valuable player for the second straight year, was the top ground-gainer in those eight contests with 343 yards in 79 carries, a 4.4 average.

McNamara picked up 340 yards in 49 tries for a 6.9 standard.

Following the two leaders in the ground-gaining department were Denny Wilkinson with 204 in 43 carries (4.7), Larry Snyder with 159 in 32 (5.0), Bob Rogowski with 65 in 28 (2.3), Mike Campana with 42 in 16 (2.6), and Tim Beck with 29 in four (7.2).

Wilkinson was the leading passer in total yardage with 51 pitches good for 15 completions and 234 yards. Campana completed six of 19 for 63 yards, and soph Bob Stevens had 10 of 21 for 124.

Knights Open Gym Season; 8 Lettermen

Everyone aims at the champion and so every opponent will be pointing toward Prospect's gymnasts who open their season tomorrow against Palatine.

The Knights' gymnastics team, coached by Rick Ferris, won the Mid-Suburban League championship last year. That "defending titlist" label means that all opponents will give special attention to their meeting with the Prospect squad. And that means that posting another winning season could be doubly difficult.

Last year the Knights had eleven victories, only two losses and a tie with Willowbrook, the eventual state champs, to show for their efforts. Coach Farris' record is just as impressive. Entering his sixth year as a coach, first at Arlington and now Prospect, Farris owns an outstanding 55-7 mark and has never lost more than two meets in a single season.

NINETY BOYS answered the call to all levels of the Knights "gym" team, 25 for the varsity. Eight of those out are returning lettermen who will pace a squad which is deep in experience and talent.

Top prospects among the varsity are Rick Carr and Mike Zadel, both specialists on the trampoline. Carr, a junior, was conference champ as a sophomore one year ago while senior letterman Zadel has placed tenth and fifth in two seasons of travel to state competition. Either can be counted on for a point total well above 150.

Said coach Farris, "They're both very good and it would be hard to pick the best of the two."

Third man on the trampoline will be Greg Dombrow, senior letterman.

Three other letter winners comprise the Knights' side horse trio. They are junior Bruce Cole and seniors Tom Phillips and Don Sabey.

LETTERMEN Todd Olson and Pat Kivland, along with sophomore John Hard, are the horizontal bar entrants. Olson and Kivland are both seniors.

Kivland will also participate on the parallel bar. With him will be sophomore Ken MacCauley. The third spot here is a question mark, the only one on the entire Prospect team.

On the still rings will be senior Kurt Swanson, junior letterman Steve Gran and either Jim Harvy, a junior, or senior Harry Threlkheld.

A sophomore, Rich Burger, will lead the tumblers. He'll be followed by Bob Goffinski, a junior, and also the versatile Kivland.

"It's too early to know how we'll do this year," said Farris. "I haven't seen Maine West yet but they'll probably be our toughest competition. I do know that against Palatine we'll put up a good fight."

That "good fight" and the Prospect gymnastic season start tomorrow at 4:15 p.m. in the Knights' gym.

'Y' Swimmers Post Quad Win

The Northwest Suburban YMCA girls swimming team swamped their opponents in a quadrangular meet last Sunday. Three pool and five team records were set by the winners.

Jan Lesniak, Prospect Heights, paced the senior girls. She set a pool record in the 25 yard breastroke and, with Marcia Burrell, Mount Prospect, Sandy Gabler. Arlington Heights and Carol Geisler, Prospect Heights, she broke the 100 yard medley and 100 yard freestyle relay pool and team marks. Miss Gabler shattered the pool 25 yard butterfly record.

Mickey Hibbs, Palatine, led the intermediate girls by setting a 200 yard individual medley record, taking first in the 200 yard freestyle and, with Pam Evans, Arlington Heights, cracking the 200 yard medley record. Pam also paced the winning 200 yard freestyle relay.

On the junior level, Cathy Rowe, Arlington Heights, won the 50 yard butterfly and freestyle; Jeanne Pollard, Mount Prospect, anchored the 200 yard medley and won the individual medley; Connie Foster, Mount Prospect, won the 100 yard freestyle and individual medley and anchored the winning 200 yard freestyle relay; and Cathy Barale, Mount Prospect, won the 50 yard freestyle and was on winning 200 yard freestyle and medley relay teams.

Midget division winners were: Cathy Narrup, Arlington Heights, in the 25 yard freestyle and Cathy Stevens, Mount Prospect and Andy Sue Hibbs, Palatine, who were on the winning 100 yard medley relay squad.

Cards Win

Arlington's frosh basketball Cardinals jumped out to an early lead and then had to hold on last week before recording a 40-39 victory over Willowbrook.

The Cards held a 21-14 halftime lead in the 'A' contest.

Gary Price and Greg Lemein collected 12 points each for the winners. Forty-nine fouls were called with both teams experiencing difficulty at the line.

Arlington's Bs triumphed, 35-28.

Falcons Split But Experience Bad Week In Hardwood Action

by MICHAEL HESS

Usually a basketball team can be expected to improve but Forest View has reversed the usual procedure.

Following an opening game romp, the Falcons just got by a sloppy Proviso West quintet 48-44 and then, last Saturday, fell completely apart against Elgin to lose their first game 62 to 43.

Against Proviso West last Wednesday, only a hot night at the free throw line enabled Forest View to pull out a victory..

THE FALCONS were up by nine after two quarters as the visiting Panthers spent the first half turning over the ball on error after error. After the intermission, however, Proviso, under coach Joe Hartley, pulled itself together and put on a determined rally.

Led by guard Larry Hallaert, the visitors had pulled to within three of the lead, at 38-35, when the last period began. It took the Panthers only two minutes and fifty seconds more to tie the score at 40 all. Forest View was faced with a battle for its life.

But then forward Steve Jacobsen put the Falcons ahead once again with a two pointer from ten feet. With that slim margin as a cushion, Forest View began a stall with 4:37 left. When the PW defense came out to break the stall, Jack MacRae, the FV guard, broke away and drove in for a lay-up to put his team four points in front.

Jacobsen and MacRae, with two foul shots apiece, did all the rest of the winners scoring, Forest View was never behind again, and the triumph became a reality.

SINCE, FROM the floor, the Falcons were outshot 17 to 16, their 16 of 21 foul shots supplied the margin of victory. Pat Dunnigan was the top scorer for Forest View with 14 points but Proviso's Hallaert captured game honors with 15.

Saturday's Forest View loss to Elgin can be traced directly to the vast difference between the two in field goal percentage. The Falcons were ice cold all evening and sank just eight of 51 attempts. Meanwhile the Maroons were sizzling the nets with 21 of 42 shots.

Forest View started the game by pulling away to an 8-1 lead. But Elgin's hot shooters soon began closing in and, with 2:09 remaining in the opening period, the Maroons evened the score at 14 each. At that juncture Forest View stopped scoring.

THE FALCONS didn't get another point until three minutes into the second quarter and they didn't sink another field goal until fifty seconds into the third quarter. By that time Elgin had a 19 point lead and the game had been decided. Forest View was never close again and both coaches emptied their benches for the remainder of the game.

"We just couldn't hit," said Forest View coach Ken Arneson speaking of his team's miserable shooting. "We got some bad breaks on calls near the end of the first quarter. The young team we have just got down in the dumps and never could come back."

"But," continued Arneson, "Elgin had the best team. They're scrappy and we were out-hustled. We just didn't shoot well enough to win."

ON THIS EVENING when none of the Falcons could hit, the coldness of the FV cagers was typified by the 0 for 6 and 1 for 8 marks of Dunnigan and Jacobsen.

Of the Forest View marksmen, Jim Baumgardt was high with 11 points, five of which came after the game was lost. Jim also led in rebounds with 12. Sub Bob O'Keefe was the best of those from the bench with six points and nine rebounds.

The Falcons were also plagued with foul troubles. Eight of the losers had three or more personals called on them and both Dunnigan and reserve Jeff Grismer were removed on foul calls. Dunnigan was gone just two minutes into the second half.

IT'S EASY WHEN there's no defense. Palatine guard John Warder (21) delivers a jump shot next to the basket with only token resistance from Arlington defenders in the "Sleigh Bells" headliner last week at William Fremd High School. Cards in the picture are Dave Lockwood (31), George Bergstrom (43), and Bruce Hubbard (41). Palatine dumped the Cardinals, 73-63, for its first victory of the young season. Knights Open Gym Season; 8 Lettermen

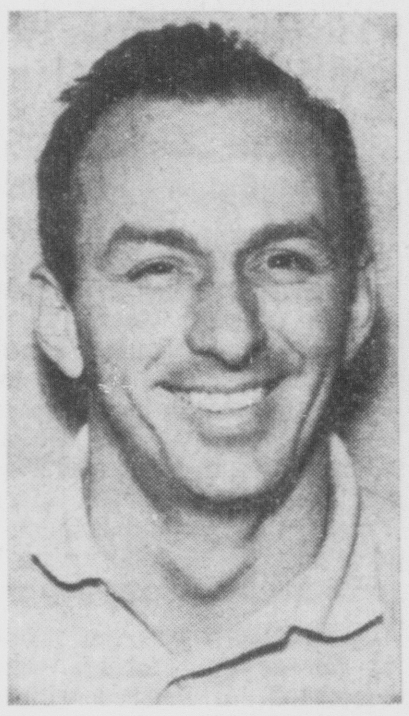
Everyone aims at the champion and so every opponent will be pointing toward Prospect's gymnasts who open their season tomorrow against Palatine.

The Knights' gymnastics team, coached by Rick Ferris, won the Mid-Suburban League championship last year. That "defending titlist" label means that all opponents will give special attention to their meeting with the Prospect squad. And that means that posting another winning season could be doubly difficult.



RICK FERRIS

Last year the Knights had eleven victories, only two losses and a tie with Willowbrook, the eventual state champs, to show for their efforts. Coach Farris' record is just as impressive. Entering his sixth year as a coach, first at Arlington and now Prospect, Farris owns an outstanding 55-7 mark and has never lost more than two meets in a single season.

NINETY BOYS answered the call to all levels of the Knights "gym" team, 25 for the varsity. Eight of those out are returning lettermen who will pace a squad which is deep in experience and talent.

Top prospects among the varsity are Rick Carr and Mike Zadel, both specialists on the trampoline. Carr, a junior, was conference champ as a sophomore one year ago while senior letterman Zadel has placed tenth and fifth in two seasons of travel to state competition. Either can be counted on for a point total well above 150.

Said coach Farris, "They're both very good and it would be hard to pick the best of the two."

Third man on the trampoline will be Greg Dombrow, senior letterman.

Three other letter winners comprise the Knights' side horse trio. They are junior Bruce Cole and seniors Tom Phillips and Don Sabey.

LETTERMEN Todd Olson and Pat Kivland, along with sophomore John Hard, are the horizontal bar entrants. Olson and Kivland are both seniors.

Kivland will also participate on the parallel bar. With him will be sophomore Ken MacCauley. The third spot here is a question mark, the only one on the entire Prospect team.

On the still rings will be senior Kurt Swanson, junior letterman Steve Gran and either Jim Harvy, a junior, or senior Harry Threlkheld.

A sophomore, Rich Burger, will lead the tumblers. He'll be followed by Bob Goffinski, a junior, and also the versatile Kivland.

"It's too early to know how we'll do this year," said Farris. "I haven't seen Maine West yet but they'll probably be our toughest competition. I do know that against Palatine we'll put up a good fight."

That "good fight" and the Prospect gymnastic season start tomorrow at 4:15 p.m. in the Knights' gym.

Over Palatine

Cards' Gym Squad Wins

They ushered in the gymnastics season Friday as Arlington High School rocked visiting Palatine, 79-53, on a varsity level.

Coach Tow Walthouse's Cardinals, fourth in the state last winter, swept the top three positions in three events and yielded firsts on only the side horse and in tumbling.

"We had many misses," Walthouse said. "Palatine wasn't too strong in this meet but shows promise to be a good team later in the season."

JIM JOHANNESEN was Arlington's top point-getter with 19 markers. He took firsts on the high bar (148) and parallel bar (146) and second in tumbling.

Gary Holveck, state champ on the trampoline, won his specialty with a 176 routine (85-91), highest among the individual winners. Gary also collected a tie for first on the still rings with teammate Roy Rettberg (122) and sixth on the high bar.

Bert Schmitt came through with two seconds for Arlington on the high bar and parallel bars.

Palatine picked up two firsts thanks to John Anderson on the side horse (98 routine) and Steve Applehans in tumbling (130). Coach Joe Toth's Pirates showed their top effort on the side horse with Anderson's first, Terry Moloznic's fourth, and Dennis Rougles' fifth.

Selvig Eyes Wheeling Gym Future

Wayne Selvig, Wheeling gymnastics coach, figures this will be a year when he finds out how the other half lives.

As frosh-soph coach at Arlington last season, he saw his team go undefeated and win the West Suburban title. His frosh club was also unbeaten and copped the Hinsdale and Waukegan Invitationals.

Selvig is working with a 49 man squad, twelve of which will make up his varsity. He sees potential in the group, but says it is far too inexperienced to be a contender for Mid-Suburban honors this season.

WAYNE'S OWN career as a competitor includes stints at Lane Tech and Northern Illinois University. He recalls competing in the all-around at the conference meet while a freshman at Northern. Standing a solid third, he recalled a vault on the long horse, failed to perform it and finished tenth in the all-around standings. The judge was Gay Hughes, present coach at Forest View. As a collegian he competed against Tom Walthouse and Bob Ferguson, coaches at Arlington and Conant.

Although he doesn't see a good year recordwise, he has hopes of sending a boy or two to the state meet. His top candidates are Jim Bowker on the rings and Jerry Fontecchio in tumbling.

With Fontecchio as the leader, tumbling figures to be Wheeling's strongest event. Sophomores Rick Dyson and Greg Shornden will be the other entrants. The same trio will compete on the trampoline but are much weaker in this event.

The sidehorse is Wheeling's weakest link. Three juniors, Steve Groot and a pair of all-around men, Jim Ranier and Ken Wajerski, are the top candidates.

WAJERSKI SHOWS good potential on the horizontal bar, but Bowker and Ranier, have a lot to learn.

The parallel bars is Wajerski's best event and looks to be the team's second strongest. Shorndon and another soph, Mike Bangs, have good potential.

Bowker is a state hopeful on the rings, but beyond him the Cats are weak.

As might be expected, Wheeling's all-around men are Bowker, Wajerski and Ranier. Bowker was the Mid-Suburban sophomore champ last year, but won it because of his strength on the rings. Wajerski, a high finisher in the West Suburban soph division, is the top man at this point of the season.

The Cats open a 15 dual season at home tomorrow (Friday) against Maine South. They will also compete in the District 214 squad, the conference meet and the district.

Turket Trot Winners Announced

Darcy Burritt, Bruce Rose, Bruce Bowman, and Mike Purcell were the individual winners Thanksgiving day in the third annual Turkey Trot sponsored by the Mount Prospect Jaycees.

Darcy won the one-fourth mile event for junior girls. She represented the May Whitney Whitney School of Lake Zurich.

Rose, who attends Miner Jr. High in Arlington Heights, won the Junior Boys one-half mile, and Bowman, Proviso West High School standout who was state cross country champ, won the Senior Boys two-mile.

Purcell, a student at the University of Illinois from Skokie, won the Men's four-mile feature.

Area runners who placed in the top 15 in the advanced events were Gary York of Prospect, Robert MacLea of Palatine, Robin Auld of Arlington Heights, and Tom Taylor of Wheeling.

The event was held by the jaycees with assistance from Robert Ratcliff, physicial education instructor from Loyola University, and Dick Calisch, Prospect High School track coach. Norman Tucy was chairman of the event.

Prospect Matmen Launch '64 Season

Great experience and complete inexperience are the ingredients which Prospect's wrestlers hope will form a winning combination as they open their 1964 season tomorrow against Willowbrook.

The Knights' matmen, who last year were third in the conference, sixth in the district and 9-4-1 overall, are coached by Dick Mudge.

Mudge, who has had only two losing records in 12 previous years of coaching, welcomed 130 boys to the first day of practice. In that group were 14 seniors, 22 juniors and 42 sophomores. Five of those out are returning lettermen.

"HOW WE'LL DO is hard to say this early because the boys aren't settled in their weights yet," commented Mudge. "There will be a lot of newcomers in the line-up, many juniors, sophomores and freshmen. A lot depends on those underclassmen."

Two underclassmen who were varsity regulars last season but aren't at Prospect now are Carl Meisenheimer and Fred Sessions both of whom transferred to Wheeling. Graduation eliminated Mike Phillips, 127 pounder who was the Knights' lone state entry a year ago, and other varsity regulars from '63 Jim McMillen, Bill Murphy and Ray McKinnon.

Probable starters Friday against a tough Willowbrook club, which beat Glenbard East in its first match will be:

103 pounds — Moore also is a possibility here, depending on how he develops. Others who might start at 103 are John Chiffone, sophomore, and Ray Clow, a freshman.

112 pounds — Junior Bill Kalvog is the top prospect here but soph Bruce Croon is a possibility. Roy Harnish, a senior letterman who may enter here or at 103, is unavailable for this opening meet.

120 pounds — Sid White, a senior who was also a football guard, is a sure bet at 120.

127 pounds — Bill Becker is a letterman who wrestled at 120 last year. He captured third place in the district at that weight after a 9-8 season.

133 pounds — Either John Haight or Don Greco, both seniors, will fill this berth.

138 pounds — Senior George Freeland, another letterman, returns after posting a 9-4 mark in his matches one year ago.

145 pounds — John Mellon, a senior, and junior Rick Bertogelio are locked in a battle to be the 145 pound entry.

154 pounds — Mellon or Bertagelio could move up to this next class but if they don't, juniors Nick Rutigliano, Doug White or Mike Faklaris will step in.

165 pounds — Marty DeStefanis, a junior, John Jantac, junior, or senior Bob Davis are all possibilities here. Coach Mudge commented that the team needed more competitors here and in the heavier weight.

180 pounds — A cinch to open here is Earl Smith, the football tackle. Earl is a senior letterman who won three and lost two in limited varsity action as a junior.

Heavyweight — If the shoulder injury to senior letterman Mark Pasdiora doesn't mend, then the 210 pound all conference football tackle will be replaced by junior Kim Schier. Pasdiora had a 10-6-2 meet record last year.

Mudge, short one coach, is also handling the JV chores while Dave Ziemek and Tom Schemermang direct the Prospect sophomore and freshman wrestlers.

Arlington Sophs Win

Arlington's sophomore Cardinals rebounded from an opening loss to Palatine's jayvees and ripped Willowbrook last Saturday, 61-51.

Bob Baker's outfit built up a big lead in the first half and held on for the victory.

The Cardinals had a busy day at the free throw line with 29 out of 44. Terry Townley was the busiest, bagging 12 charity tosses in 16 attempts and adding three baskets for 18 points.

Steve Conley recorded 12 points and Bob Hecht 11 for the winners. Graff was high for Willowbrook with 11.

Walinski Heads Lion Ground Game

Eight-game football statistics released this week by St. Viator High School show Tim Walinski and Steve McNamara as the Lions' top ground-gainers for 1964.

Game statistics were unavailable for the non-conference meeting with Crane Tech which was held in a driving rain.

Walinski, selected most valuable player for the second straight year, was the top ground-gainer in those eight contests with 343 yards in 79 carries, a 4.4 average.

McNamara picked up 340 yards in 49 tries for a 6.9 standard.

Following the two leaders in the ground-gaining department were Denny Wilkinson with 204 in 43 carries (4.7), Larry Snyder with 159 in 32 (5.0), Bob Rogowski with 65 in 28 (2.3), Mike Campana with 42 in 16 (2.6), and Tim Beck with 29 in four (7.2).

Wilkinson was the leading passer in total yardage with 51 pitches good for 15 completions and 234 yards. Campana completed six of 19 for 63 yards, and soph Bob Stevens had 10 of 21 for 124.

'Y' Swimmers Post Quad Win

The Northwest Suburban YMCA girls swimming team swamped their opponents in a quadrangular meet last Sunday. Three pool and five team records were set by the winners.

Jan Lesniak, Prospect Heights, paced the senior girls. She set a pool record in the 25 yard breastroke and, with Marcia Burrell, Mount Prospect, Sandy Gabler. Arlington Heights and Carol Geisler, Prospect Heights, she broke the 100 yard medley and 100 yard freestyle relay pool and team marks. Miss Gabler shattered the pool 25 yard butterfly record.

Mickey Hibbs, Palatine, led the intermediate girls by setting a 200 yard individual medley record, taking first in the 200 yard freestyle and, with Pam Evans, Arlington Heights, cracking the 200 yard medley record. Pam also paced the winning 200 yard freestyle relay.

On the junior level, Cathy Rowe, Arlington Heights, won the 50 yard butterfly and freestyle; Jeanne Pollard, Mount Prospect, anchored the 200 yard medley and won the individual medley; Connie Foster, Mount Prospect, won the 100 yard freestyle and individual medley and anchored the winning 200 yard freestyle relay; and Cathy Barale, Mount Prospect, won the 50 yard freestyle and was on winning 200 yard freestyle and medley relay teams.

Midget division winners were: Cathy Narrup, Arlington Heights, in the 25 yard freestyle and Cathy Stevens, Mount Prospect and Andy Sue Hibbs, Palatine, who were on the winning 100 yard medley relay squad.

Cards Win

Arlington's frosh basketball Cardinals jumped out to an early lead and then had to hold on last week before recording a 40-39 victory over Willowbrook.

The Cards held a 21-14 halftime lead in the 'A' contest.

Gary Price and Greg Lemein collected 12 points each for the winners. Forty-nine fouls were called with both teams experiencing difficulty at the line.

Arlington's Bs triumphed, 35-28.

Three Sports Hit 600 Mark; Team Gains Lead In Classic

The Concourse Sports Chalet got 600 plus performances from Tom Kouros, Warren Walter and Mike Wagner and parlayed them into a 5-2 victory over Jeffery Lanes last Saturday evening. The win, coupled with Bill Cook Buick's victory over Pioneer Lanes by the same score, enabled the Sports to vault over the Pioneers into a two point lead in the Paddock Classic Traveling League.

In other action, cellar dwelling Casares Pro Bowl surprised the Brass Rail Restaurant 5-2 and Morton Pontiac moved into undisputed possession of sixth place with a 4-3 decision over Country Lanes.

Kouros was the leader for Sports Chalet with his top series of the year, a 630. Walter chipped in with a 601 and Wagner had an even 600. John Kmety, third in the individual standings, paced Jeffery with a 621. Ted Zimmerman had a 601.

AL JORDAN

AL JORDAN was the villain as far as the Pioneers were concerned. Al finished with a strong 254 for a 654 to pace the Buicks to a win on their home Rolling Meadows lanes. Both figures were season highs for Jordan and the 654 topped the circuit for the evening. Gene Koshinski had a 620 for the Buicks. Pat Peterson checked in with a 615 to lead the losers.

The Casares-Brass Rail battle was a close one with the Pro Bowlers copping the match point by three pins. Don Oberg had his best night, a steady 646 to lead the winners, who also got a 616 from Frank Graff. Not to be outdone, Roy Papineau rolled personal highs of 233 and 651 for the Railers. Paul Zubak had a 623 for the losers.

The Pontiacs captured games one and three to nip Country Lanes at Beverly and move one point ahead of the losers in the standings. John Miller had a 599 for the Pontiacs. Joe Simonis a 597 for Country Lanes.

In Midget Football

All-Star Games Conclude Season

The Arlington Heights Elks Midget Football All-Star game was played under ideal weather conditions this fall.

A fine crowd watched as the cream of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade football talent played two very exciting games.

In the Junior game, Mike Pettenuzzo scored three touchdowns to spark the North squad to a 20 to 13 win. The South had gone into a 13 to 12 lead with but a few minutes remaining when Pettenuzzo broke to give the nod to the North.

The Junior game was played with each team drawing from the rosters of three squads. The North was represented by the Bears, Eagles and Cardinals with the South represented by the Giants, Colts and Packers. Each team performed admirably.

THE SOUTH Senior team gained some revenge as they beat the North 21 to 0.

Although the score indicates a lopsided victory, the game was anything but that as the North hung on tenaciously and were very much in the game until the final minutes.

The touchdowns were scored by Dave Ewart on a 25 yard end sweep, Jay Harris on a fumble recovery and Dean Schmelzer on a 15 yard pass from Dennis Meacham. Steve Stratton picked up the first two extra points and Dan Selleck the last. The South was represented by the Lions and 49'rs while the North was made up of boys from the Rams and Redskins.

Between games, trophies were awarded to the Eagles in the Junior League as league champions while the Senior title was split between the Lions and the 49'rs. Each team received identical trophies.

700 Mile Club Set At Prospect

Prospect High School has introduced a club known as the 700 Mile Club.

Based on long distance running, it helps the runner, hurdler, or field events man in developing the muscles he depends on. It begins every day after school in any kind of weather. Its length depends upon the distance that the athlete wishes to run that day.

The object of the club is to run 700 miles before the beginning of indoor track, which is in about three months. Many courses have been mapped out in the Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights area.

The athlete may run the two mile course around the school campus or the seven mile course between Prospect and Arlington High School. More ambitious runners may tackle the ten mile course to Arlington Race Track and back or the eighteen mile course to Glenbrook North High School. The runner may also map out his own route if he wishes.

Students are encouraged to come out for this activity even if they feel they may not be able to complete 700 miles. Dick Calisch is in charge of this program and will help each student plan his course.

Prospect Skaters Post Top Showing In Madison Event

Twenty representatives of the Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club traveled to Madison, Wis., to take part in the Badger Open Indoor Speed Skating Championships.

The races were held at the new Madison Ice Arena under the auspices of the Wisconsin Skating Association and the sponsorship of the Madison Speed Skating Club.

High point scoring club for the meet was Northbrook, Ill., with UCTCU from Champaign, Ill., second; Glen Ellyn, Ill., third and Mount Prospect tied for fourth with West Allis, Wis.

The Mount Prospect skaters turned in a fine performance for their first meet of the season.

Jim Zuckermandel placed second in total points for the Intermediate Boys division; Mary Carol Cunningham tied for second in the Juvenile Girls division; Loretta Griffin won undisputed possession of second in the Pony Girls class and Todd Jonland tied for third in the Pony Boys events.

Other point scorers for the home team were Gary Jonland, Paul Juergensen, Mary Beth Griffin, Jeanne Cunningham, and Terry Tangney.

Coach Herman Haenisch of the Mount Prospect Club appeared to be well satisfied with the fine work of his charges who have had but limited opportunity for practice this season.

According to Haenisch, the closing of the Polar Dome, leaving the whole northwest area with only one refrigerated ice rink at Wilmette, has resulted in difficult practice conditions for the Mount Prospect Club, as well as others.

If weather conditions permit the early development of natural ice rinks Haenisch expects his skaters to do well in the Illinois Association Olympic Fund raising meet to be held at Rockton's Wagon Wheel on December 5. (

Fast Draw Club Seeking Members

The Chicago Colt's Fast Draw Club is looking for members.

The group shoots every Tuesday night at the Bensenville Police Range and includes many area people.

Pat McMahon of Arlington Heights is president of the Chicago Colts with Earl Straub of Des Plaines vice-president, Dick Plum of Elk Grove Village secretary, and Tom Koko of Arlington treasurer.

Fast draw competition involves an attempt to draw a single-action revolver from a holster at a given signal and was bullet to stop a clock in the least possible time. It is a test of speed, dexterity, reaction and accuracy.

The Colts are the oldest Fast Draw club in Illinois and have collected over 400 trophies in competition. They also put on many shows and exhibitions.

Anyone interested in additional information on the Fast Draw club should contact Pat McMahon (439-1738) or stop in at the Bensenville Police Range o

Three Sports Hit 600 Mark; Team Gains Lead In Classic

The Concourse Sports Chalet got 600 plus performances from Tom Kouros, Warren Walter and Mike Wagner and parlayed them into a 5-2 victory over Jeffery Lanes last Saturday evening. The win, coupled with Bill Cook Buick's victory over Pioneer Lanes by the same score, enabled the Sports to vault over the Pioneers into a two point lead in the Paddock Classic Traveling League.

In other action, cellar dwelling Casares Pro Bowl surprised the Brass Rail Restaurant 5-2 and Morton Pontiac moved into undisputed possession of sixth place with a 4-3 decision over Country Lanes.

Kouros was the leader for Sports Chalet with his top series of the year, a 630. Walter chipped in with a 601 and Wagner had an even 600. John Kmety, third in the individual standings, paced Jeffery with a 621. Ted Zimmerman had a 601.

AL JORDAN

AL JORDAN was the villain as far as the Pioneers were concerned. Al finished with a strong 254 for a 654 to pace the Buicks to a win on their home Rolling Meadows lanes. Both figures were season highs for Jordan and the 654 topped the circuit for the evening. Gene Koshinski had a 620 for the Buicks. Pat Peterson checked in with a 615 to lead the losers.

The Casares-Brass Rail battle was a close one with the Pro Bowlers copping the match point by three pins. Don Oberg had his best night, a steady 646 to lead the winners, who also got a 616 from Frank Graff. Not to be outdone, Roy Papineau rolled personal highs of 233 and 651 for the Railers. Paul Zubak had a 623 for the losers.

The Pontiacs captured games one and three to nip Country Lanes at Beverly and move one point ahead of the losers in the standings. John Miller had a 599 for the Pontiacs. Joe Simonis a 597 for Country Lanes.

In Midget Football

All-Star Games Conclude Season

The Arlington Heights Elks Midget Football All-Star game was played under ideal weather conditions this fall.

A fine crowd watched as the cream of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade football talent played two very exciting games.

In the Junior game, Mike Pettenuzzo scored three touchdowns to spark the North squad to a 20 to 13 win. The South had gone into a 13 to 12 lead with but a few minutes remaining when Pettenuzzo broke to give the nod to the North.

The Junior game was played with each team drawing from the rosters of three squads. The North was represented by the Bears, Eagles and Cardinals with the South represented by the Giants, Colts and Packers. Each team performed admirably.

THE SOUTH Senior team gained some revenge as they beat the North 21 to 0.

Although the score indicates a lopsided victory, the game was anything but that as the North hung on tenaciously and were very much in the game until the final minutes.

The touchdowns were scored by Dave Ewart on a 25 yard end sweep, Jay Harris on a fumble recovery and Dean Schmelzer on a 15 yard pass from Dennis Meacham. Steve Stratton picked up the first two extra points and Dan Selleck the last. The South was represented by the Lions and 49'rs while the North was made up of boys from the Rams and Redskins.

Between games, trophies were awarded to the Eagles in the Junior League as league champions while the Senior title was split between the Lions and the 49'rs. Each team received identical trophies.

700 Mile Club Set At Prospect

Prospect High School has introduced a club known as the 700 Mile Club.

Based on long distance running, it helps the runner, hurdler, or field events man in developing the muscles he depends on. It begins every day after school in any kind of weather. Its length depends upon the distance that the athlete wishes to run that day.

The object of the club is to run 700 miles before the beginning of indoor track, which is in about three months. Many courses have been mapped out in the Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights area.

The athlete may run the two mile course around the school campus or the seven mile course between Prospect and Arlington High School. More ambitious runners may tackle the ten mile course to Arlington Race Track and back or the eighteen mile course to Glenbrook North High School. The runner may also map out his own route if he wishes.

Students are encouraged to come out for this activity even if they feel they may not be able to complete 700 miles. Dick Calisch is in charge of this program and will help each student plan his course.

Prospect Skaters Post Top Showing In Madison Event

Twenty representatives of the Mount Prospect Speed Skating Club traveled to Madison, Wis., to take part in the Badger Open Indoor Speed Skating Championships.

The races were held at the new Madison Ice Arena under the auspices of the Wisconsin Skating Association and the sponsorship of the Madison Speed Skating Club.

High point scoring club for the meet was Northbrook, Ill., with UCTCU from Champaign, Ill., second; Glen Ellyn, Ill., third and Mount Prospect tied for fourth with West Allis, Wis.

The Mount Prospect skaters turned in a fine performance for their first meet of the season.

Jim Zuckermandel placed second in total points for the Intermediate Boys division; Mary Carol Cunningham tied for second in the Juvenile Girls division; Loretta Griffin won undisputed possession of second in the Pony Girls class and Todd Jonland tied for third in the Pony Boys events.

Other point scorers for the home team were Gary Jonland, Paul Juergensen, Mary Beth Griffin, Jeanne Cunningham, and Terry Tangney.

Coach Herman Haenisch of the Mount Prospect Club appeared to be well satisfied with the fine work of his charges who have had but limited opportunity for practice this season.

According to Haenisch, the closing of the Polar Dome, leaving the whole northwest area with only one refrigerated ice rink at Wilmette, has resulted in difficult practice conditions for the Mount Prospect Club, as well as others.

If weather conditions permit the early development of natural ice rinks Haenisch expects his skaters to do well in the Illinois Association Olympic Fund raising meet to be held at Rockton's Wagon Wheel on December 5.

Fast Draw Club Seeking Members

The Chicago Colt's Fast Draw Club is looking for members.

The group shoots every Tuesday night at the Bensenville Police Range and includes many area people.

Pat McMahon of Arlington Heights is president of the Chicago Colts with Earl Straub of Des Plaines vice-president, Dick Plum of Elk Grove Village secretary, and Tom Koko of Arlington treasurer.

Fast draw competition involves an attempt to draw a single-action revolver from a holster at a given signal and hit a silhouette target with a bullet to stop a clock in the least possible time. It is a test of speed, dexterity, reaction and accuracy.

The Colts are the oldest Fast Draw club in Illinois and have collected over 400 trophies in competition. They also put on many shows and exhibitions.

Anyone interested in additional information on the Fast Draw club should contact Pat McMahon (439-1738) or stop in at the Bensenville Police Range o

Unity Northwest Slates Carnival

A carnival Noel will be given Tuesday, Dec. 8, by Unity Northwest at the Masonic Temple, 1100 S. State Road, Arlington Heights.

"Dinner internationale will be served from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and will include such savory foreign dishes as Irish stew for an entree and a dessert of cherries in the snow a la francais," stated social chairman Mrs. Richard Robbins, 130 N. Gibbons. Tickets for the dinner may be obtained by calling 255-6040 or purchased at the door.

A flurry of activity promises to follow the dinner as games, prizes, a cake walk, and picture taking will be featured. A handwriting analyst will delight carnival goers with studies of their calligraphy.

TO PROVIDE a special treat for those with a 'sweet tooth,' the pastry shop will be arranged to supply an abundance of delectable breads, cakes and pies," declared Mrs. Clarence Goede, 1804 E. Palatine, bake-sale chairman.

An attraction for kids from 4 to 10 will be a performance from 5 to 6 p.m. by the magician, "Richard the Great." Tickets for this show may be purchased at the door.

"The public is cordially invited to attend the first Unity Northwest fund raising affair this year," stated Rev. Dorothea Fowler, minister.

All proceeds from the carnival will be used in the church's expansion fund.

Art Work for 'King Cole' Play Done by Professional

Area children and adult theatre enthusiasts will get an extra artistic treat Dec. 11, 12 and 13 at Masque and Staff's presentation of "Old King Cole."

Much of the art work for the annual children's play at Dempster Junior High School was done by George Rohrer, painting hobbyist and commercial artist who lives in Elk Grove Village. His paintings are prized possessions in several Skokie and Evanston homes as well as in Elk Grove. Others may recall the name from his exhibits at the Maitre d' Restaurant and area art fairs.

ELK GROVE children received their first viewing of Rohrer's efforts two weeks ago when several thousand special "King Cole Coloring Contest" entry blanks were distributed. This week more than 5,000 youngsters in Elk Grove, Mount Prospect, Des Plaines and Arlington Heights schools received announcements of the "King Cole" play, all featuring a sample of Rohrer's art.

Rohrer also did the 35-foot palace scene backdrop for the play itself and a highly detailed program cover illustration.

Rohrer is a free lance specialist in illustrations for primary school textbooks by profession and a hobbyist in esthetic painting in his free time. His current projects include works in conjunction with Vickery, famous seascape painter. Rohrer, his wife and their three children reside at 216 Willow Lane.

MASQUE and Staff's "Old King Cole" features an all-adult cast of 16 local residents and is directed by Mrs. Robert Johnson. Although billed primarily as a play for children, the theatre group expects a large number of adult viewers.

Six performances will be given: 1:30 and 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 12 and 13, plus 8 p.m. shows Friday and Saturday, Dec. 11 and 12. Tickets are 50 cents for children and $1 for adults and will be available at the Dempster school door.

Free bus transportation will be provided children from 10 different area schools Saturday, Dec. 12. While adults are welcome at any performance, they are urged to attend the evening shows if possible. Bill

VERSATILE ACTRESS Vivian Blaine is the star of the current comedy at Pheasant Run Playhouse, "Personal Appearance," running through Dec. 20.

10 Countrysiders To Show Their Art

Ten artists, members of the Countryside Art Center Inc., will be exhibited in one-man shows during the month of December.

In addition to the single exhibits, Baird and Warner in Mount Prospect will host a Gallery Representational, showing the works of the 41 juried artists of the Countryside Art Gallery.

Area locations will feature Helene Thorhaug at Arlington Theater and Pearl M. Kuhn at Cinema Theater. Both Mrs. Thorhaug and Mrs. Kuhn were recent prize winners in the 36th annual exhibit and tea of the held at the East Proviso High School in Maywood.

MRS. KUHN took second prize in water color, and Mrs. Thorhaug, first for an encaustic collage. Another winner was Gallery artist Gerald Hardy, who took second prize for a gesso and oil.

The Bank of Arlington Heights will show paintings of Beverly Hapke; Roy C. Ingersoll Research-Bork Warner, oils by Mary McConald, and Northwest Community Hospital will display paintings by Ruth Meyers.

Sallie Gracy's watercolors moved into the Maitre d' Restaurant, Elk Grove Village. George Rohrer's show continues until Dec. 13 at Country Club Theatre with Norma Simone following after that date, for a six-week stay.

The Rolling Meadows Medical Center is exhibiting paintings by Bert Hanor and Wood Dale Medical Center, the work of Alice Gray.

All exhibiting artists' painting are available for sale. Information can be obtained from the artist or from exhibit chairman June Riesing, CL 5-5716.

'Purple Bed' Proves Poor Theatre Fare

by TOM EDWARDS
Staff Writer

Providing avenues of self expression within a community and encouragement and development of local talent are to be commended.

For these reasons it would seem community theatre should be encouraged and also production of plays written by local residents.

But the first chore of a community theatre is to choose plays at least worth doing. The next task is to produce them tolerably well, or at least try.

So what should you say when a community theatre chooses a play that is just plain bad, and does a worse job of producing it? Then charges $2.50 admission to boot.

This certainly seems to be the situation of the Wheeling Community Theatre's production of "The Purple Bed," an original play which the newly formed group chose for its third production. Thankfully, the Nov. 22 performance was the only one scheduled.

The play was written, produced and directed by Rick D. Paul, resident director of the theatre group. Paul also played one of the two leading parts, and his wife, Carol, played the other.

PERHAPS THE whole thing was just too inbred, because it was a mess. The play is evidently intended to be a comedy of sorts, only meaty with meaning. But it was a hamburger clumsily cooked.

The plot consists of an extremely wealthy girl of 25 seeking true love—and true sex—who meets a well grounded (his parents were farmers) Norwegian immigrant who has risen from the lowly soil to the social stnding of "psychiatrist."

During this rise, of course, he indulged in sex to his heart's desire since the age of 16 (with mature equanimity from the beginning), while the poor rich girl was indulgining in superficial affairs in an attempt to find true love.

The side plot consists of her sister, who after 20-plus engagements, finally succumbs to a man who finally learns to put his foot down and be dominant. (They were having troubles over the smell of his shaving lotion.)

To make conversation, there is an authoress famed for her turgid sex novels.

BRIEFLY IN the first scene, there is a tropic-blooded Hawaiian lifeguard-painter, an Adonis whom the heroine intellectually dumps because he has been unfaithful to her, her hair dresser said.

Arne, the psychiatrist, who is described by the heroine's sister as "divine looking, so healthy, so virile," takes over the heroine from the Hawaiian, naturally, and thereafter plays a prophet psychiatrist with all the answers for the others' lives.

This advice turns out to be, for women: "You aren't a woman in any sense until you learn to love without reservation, and until then you won't be good for any man."

Advice to men is: "All you needed was a little bit of courage."

Between these panacean messages, the audience was treated to missed cues, dropped lines, actors egocontrically preening, and some tedious lectures on the values of free love.

THE AGE OF 25 is treated as though it were a shade short of middle age and permanent spinsterhood.

Theatre as a whole has just about worn out the subject of inhibited and farcical sex, and has just about worked bedroom comedy to death. And community theatre should have better purposes than to serve as a place for individual exhibition of repressions.

Perhaps the best suggestion would be for community theatres to encourage the writing of plays with local context, and about local problems and happenings, that is, to deal in what they can witness first hand.

A place for persons to try such plays as they wish is provided by many community theatres, and practically all universities, in the form of developmental workshops. To take up prime public space and time with productions like "The Purple Bed" could have a negative effect on local theatre.

Announce Cast of 'Plain and Fancy'

Two Wheeling residents, Mrs. Edwin Wahlquist and Henry Vandenboom, will be co-starred in the forthcoming Music On Stage, Inc., production of "Plain and Fancy."

Mrs. Wahlquist, 109 Sixth, and Vandenboom, 89 W. Manchester, will portray Ruth Winters and Dan King, a pair of New York sophisticates visiting a straight-laced Amish community in Pennsylvania. Vandenboom is president of MOS.

In major supporting roles are Richard Moderhack, Arlington Heights, as Papa Yoder; Irene Francis, Mundelein, Katie Yoder; Beth Vandenboom, Wheeling, Hilda Miller; Ronn Farland, Maywood, Peter Reber, and Robert Altergott, Mundelein, Ezra Reber.

Other area residens cast are Earl and JoAnn Hecker, Jackie Cassel and Don Price of Mount Prospect; Dorothy Lea, Jack Wassmer and Gay Knoedel of Palatine; Harold and Hattie Daniels of Des Plaines; Laverne Juhl of Northlake; Roy Carlson and John Mulowski of Wheeling; Sally Hausman of Prospect Heights; Frank Randall of Lake Zurich and Jim Scot and Don Moderhack of Arlington Heights.

Composition to Get American Premiere

Jean Martinon, music director, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will present the second American premiere of the current season at subscription concerts Dec. 10 and 11 at 8:15 p.m. and 2 p.m. respectively at Orchestra Hall.

The work will be Giselher Klebe's Die Zwitzchermaschine (The Twittering Machine).

Sidney Harth, former concertmaster of the orchestra, will appear on the same program in Walton's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra. The concert will conclude with Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4, F minor.

DIE Zwitzchermaschine, first performed at the Donaueschingen Festival of 1955, was suggested by drawings of Paul Klee. It will be the second composition inspired by the painter to be performed this season. In November the orchestra under Louis Lane, guest conductor, presented Gunther Schuller's Seven Studies on Themes of Paul Klee.

On Dec. 12 at 8:30 p.m. at Orchestra Hall, Sidney Harth will again appear with the orchestra. He will play Sibelius' Concerto for Violin, D minor. Also on that program will be Haydn's Symphony No. 7, C major ("Le Midi") and Brahms' Symphony No. 2, D major.

Tickets for these concerts are on sale at the box office, 216 S. Michigan. For information, call Orchestra Hall, 427-0362.

His current projects include works in conjunction with Vickery, famous seascape painter. Rohrer, his wife and their three children reside at 216 Willow Lane.

MASQUE and Staff's "Old King Cole" features an all-adult cast of 16 local residents and is directed by Mrs. Robert Johnson. Although billed primarily as a play for children, the theatre group expects a large number of adult viewers.

Six performances will be given: 1:30 and 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 12 and 13, plus 8 p.m. shows Friday and Saturday, Dec. 11 and 12. Tickets are 50 cents for children and $1 for adults and will be available at the Dempster school door.

Free bus transportation will be provided children from 10 different area schools Saturday, Dec. 12. While adults are welcome at any performance, they are urged to attend the evening shows if possible. Bill

10 Countrysiders To Show Their Art

Ten artists, members of the Countryside Art Center Inc., will be exhibited in one-man shows during the month of December.

In addition to the single exhibits, Baird and Warner in Mount Prospect will host a Gallery Representational, showing the works of the 41 juried artists of the Countryside Art Gallery.

Area locations will feature Helene Thorhaug at Arlington Theater and Pearl M. Kuhn at Cinema Theater. Both Mrs. Thorhaug and Mrs. Kuhn were recent prize winners in the 36th annual exhibit and tea of the held at the East Proviso High School in Maywood.

MRS. KUHN took second prize in water color, and Mrs. Thorhaug, first for an encaustic collage. Another winner was Gallery artist Gerald Hardy, who took second prize for a gesso and oil.

The Bank of Arlington Heights will show paintings of Beverly Hapke; Roy C. Ingersoll Research-Bork Warner, oils by Mary McConald, and Northwest Community Hospital will display paintings by Ruth Meyers.

Sallie Gracy's watercolors moved into the Maitre d' Restaurant, Elk Grove Village. George Rohrer's show continues until Dec. 13 at Country Club Theatre with Norma Simone following after that date, for a six-week stay.

The Rolling Meadows Medical Center is exhibiting paintings by Bert Hanor and Wood Dale Medical Center, the work of Alice Gray.

All exhibiting artists' painting are available for sale. Information can be obtained from the artist or from exhibit chairman June Riesing, CL 5-5716.

'Purple Bed' Proves Poor Theatre Fare

by TOM EDWARDS
Staff Writer

Providing avenues of self expression within a community and encouragement and development of local talent are to be commended.

For these reasons it would seem community theatre should be encouraged and also production of plays written by local residents.

But the first chore of a community theatre is to choose plays at least worth doing. The next task is to produce them tolerably well, or at least try.

So what should you say when a community theatre chooses a play that is just plain bad, and does a worse job of producing it? Then charges $2.50 admission to boot.

This certainly seems to be the situation of the Wheeling Community Theatre's production of "The Purple Bed," an original play which the newly formed group chose for its third production. Thankfully, the Nov. 22 performance was the only one scheduled.

The play was written, produced and directed by Rick D. Paul, resident director of the theatre group. Paul also played one of the two leading parts, and his wife, Carol, played the other.

PERHAPS THE whole thing was just too inbred, because it was a mess. The play is evidently intended to be a comedy of sorts, only meaty with meaning. But it was a hamburger clumsily cooked.

The plot consists of an extremely wealthy girl of 25 seeking true love—and true sex—who meets a well grounded (his parents were farmers) Norwegian immigrant who has risen from the lowly soil to the social stnding of "psychiatrist."

During this rise, of course, he indulged in sex to his heart's desire since the age of 16 (with mature equanimity from the beginning), while the poor rich girl was indulgining in superficial affairs in an attempt to find true love.

The side plot consists of her sister, who after 20-plus engagements, finally succumbs to a man who finally learns to put his foot down and be dominant. (They were having troubles over the smell of his shaving lotion.)

To make conversation, there is an authoress famed for her turgid sex novels.

BRIEFLY IN the first scene, there is a tropic-blooded Hawaiian lifeguard-painter, an Adonis whom the heroine intellectually dumps because he has been unfaithful to her, her hair dresser said.

Arne, the psychiatrist, who is described by the heroine's sister as "divine looking, so healthy, so virile," takes over the heroine from the Hawaiian, naturally, and thereafter plays a prophet psychiatrist with all the answers for the others' lives.

This advice turns out to be, for women: "You aren't a woman in any sense until you learn to love without reservation, and until then you won't be good for any man."

Advice to men is: "All you needed was a little bit of courage."

Between these panacean messages, the audience was treated to missed cues, dropped lines, actors egocontrically preening, and some tedious lectures on the values of free love.

THE AGE OF 25 is treated as though it were a shade short of middle age and permanent spinsterhood.

Theatre as a whole has just about worn out the subject of inhibited and farcical sex, and has just about worked bedroom comedy to death. And community theatre should have better purposes than to serve as a place for individual exhibition of repressions.

Perhaps the best suggestion would be for community theatres to encourage the writing of plays with local context, and about local problems and happenings, that is, to deal in what they can witness first hand.

A place for persons to try such plays as they wish is provided by many community theatres, and practically all universities, in the form of developmental workshops. To take up prime public space and time with productions like "The Purple Bed" could have a negative effect on local theatre.

Announce Cast of 'Plain and Fancy'

Two Wheeling residents, Mrs. Edwin Wahlquist and Henry Vandenboom, will be co-starred in the forthcoming Music On Stage, Inc., production of "Plain and Fancy."

Mrs. Wahlquist, 109 Sixth, and Vandenboom, 89 W. Manchester, will portray Ruth Winters and Dan King, a pair of New York sophisticates visiting a straight-laced Amish community in Pennsylvania. Vandenboom is president of MOS.

In major supporting roles are Richard Moderhack, Arlington Heights, as Papa Yoder; Irene Francis, Mundelein, Katie Yoder; Beth Vandenboom, Wheeling, Hilda Miller; Ronn Farland, Maywood, Peter Reber, and Robert Altergott, Mundelein, Ezra Reber.

Other area residens cast are Earl and JoAnn Hecker, Jackie Cassel and Don Price of Mount Prospect; Dorothy Lea, Jack Wassmer and Gay Knoedel of Palatine; Harold and Hattie Daniels of Des Plaines; Laverne Juhl of Northlake; Roy Carlson and John Mulowski of Wheeling; Sally Hausman of Prospect Heights; Frank Randall of Lake Zurich and Jim Scot and Don Moderhack of Arlington Heights.

Composition to Get American Premiere

Jean Martinon, music director, and the Chicago Symphony Orchestra will present the second American premiere of the current season at subscription concerts Dec. 10 and 11 at 8:15 p.m. and 2 p.m. respectively at Orchestra Hall.

The work will be Giselher Klebe's Die Zwitzchermaschine (The Twittering Machine).

Sidney Harth, former concertmaster of the orchestra, will appear on the same program in Walton's Concerto for Violin and Orchestra. The concert will conclude with Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4, F minor.

DIE Zwitzchermaschine, first performed at the Donaueschingen Festival of 1955, was suggested by drawings of Paul Klee. It will be the second composition inspired by the painter to be performed this season. In November the orchestra under Louis Lane, guest conductor, presented Gunther Schuller's Seven Studies on Themes of Paul Klee.

On Dec. 12 at 8:30 p.m. at Orchestra Hall, Sidney Harth will again appear with the orchestra. He will play Sibelius' Concerto for Violin, D minor. Also on that program will be Haydn's Symphony No. 7, C major ("Le Midi") and Brahms' Symphony No. 2, D major.

Tickets for these concerts are on sale at the box office, 216 S. Michigan. For information, call Orchestra Hall, 427-0362.
